Dear Mother & all,

Just a line to let you know that I am in the land of the living. And am glad to say that I am still in hospital. It is better than France.

Well there is very little to write about for I have been quarantined for two weeks and have not been even down stairs during that time.

Say Candy tell Leese that my socks are "holy" and that I am badly in need of a home knit pair.

As this is the last page in my writing pad I will say so long.

Your loving Son
Gordon
