August 5th.—King George sent personal telegram to the Russian Emperor to make final effort to avoid war. "Make personal appeal. Leave open grounds for negotiations for possible peace." Czar replied that Germany showed no disposition to mediate her position, and has made Russian mobilization imperative. Emperor William told parliament that with a heavy heart he took arms against those who had fought side by side with Germans.

What Brought All Europe To War.

With a startling suddenness the war clouds hovering over Europe have broken into storm, and there is now being waged among the foremost European Powers a war, which though from its very destructiveness may not last long, is yet certain to have very far-reaching bearing on the balance of power, especially on the continent proper.

Three or four weeks ago the Austrian Crown Prince and Princess were assassinated by Serbian patriots. This brought to the surface generations of racial animosities, culminating in a declaration of war by Austria-Hungary upon her small neighbor, Russia, fearful of the safety of Serbia, a blood relation, and of a change in the Balkan situation, derogatory to her interests, made representations to Germany for intervention, but the Kaiser intimated that Germany would not interfere. Russia replied by mobilizing her forces to protect her Austrian borders, which was instantly taken by Germany as a sign of aggression. France and Britain, Russia's partners in the triple entente, though anti-German in their sympathies, did not make hostile moves till forced to do so by Germany's flagrant violations of neutralities. Belgian territory was invaded by German troops to secure tactical advantages, and this nation made appeal to Britain for protection, and Germany giving no satisfactory reply, war was declared by Britain.

In the tangle of big international issues the original Austro-Servian war seems forced to the background, and little can be learned of its progress.

TELEPHONE COMPANY CHANGES ANNUAL MEETING.

At the annual meeting of the shareholders of the Summerland Telephone Company it was decided by unanimous vote to change the date of the annual meetings to the third Thursday in February, the fiscal year to end December 31st. All the present members of the directorate were re-elected, an adjustment being made whereby two of the six will retire each year. Mr. H. C. Mellor and Dr. F. W. Andrew were reappointed for one year, Messrs. Wm. Ritchie and H. Sutherland for two years, Messrs. S. M. Young and R. H. English three years.

Rev. C. H. Daly brought up the question of the continuous Sunday service, to which he objected. He saw no reason why the Telephone Exchange should be open all day on Sunday. The matter was discussed at some length, and Mr. Daly was told by both the President and Vice-President that this question had been the subject of a heated discussion among the directors before the present arrangement was fixed upon. It was deemed necessary that someone be about the building constantly, and if not an operator then a watchman would be needed. The capital investment was too great to leave unprotected for a moment, and since someone must be on the premises there was no reason why they should not be ready to make any connections necessary. The hours for regular Sunday service were limited, but the operator was available for any special call. Mr. Daly was quite satisfied with the explanation, and the present arrangement was approved of by unanimous vote.

After a hearty vote of thanks to the directors for their untiring efforts in the interests of the shareholders, which vote was proposed by Mr. C. Napier Higgin, and seconded by Col. Cartwright, the meeting adjourned.

Rev. Norman McNaughton is taking a short vacation with Mrs. McNaughton and infant son. They went down to Kaledon about the middle of this week, where they will spend about two weeks holidaying.

Now residents in Summerland are Mr. Catos and daughter from Qu'Appelle, Sask., who are now in possession of their new orchard home on Jones Flat, the Doldge property, acquired by a deal of exchange. Mr. Catos' son preceded the arrival of his father and sister by a few days.

HOSPITAL SOCIETY APPOINTS MATRON.

The board of directors of the new Summerland Hospital were busy for two hours on Tuesday afternoon discussing the most effective and economical method of working the hospital. Several applications for the post of matron were considered, and Miss Aitchison of Ottawa, a lady known to and respected by many Summerland residents, has been offered the position.

A most generous offer on the part of the Oddfellows and Rebeccas of Summerland to furnish and equip a ward was most gratefully accepted.

The hospital is now nearing completion, and it is hoped to open it formally early in September. It is now necessary to collect the subscriptions towards the building fund promised by the citizens of Summerland earlier in the year. It will greatly assist the secretary and canvassing committee if subscribers will forward their cheques either to Mr. E. B. May or to Mr. F. A. C. Wright, thereby saving them the trouble of going round collecting the same. Subscriptions will be acknowledged as they come in each week in the local paper.

Mr. and Mrs. E. B. May were passengers returning to Summerland on Wednesday evening's boat, after a holiday spent in the Canadian Rockies.

In the absence of the pastor Dr. Sawyer will preach in the Parkdale Baptist Church on Sunday morning, and Rev. D. E. Hatt will occupy the Lakeside Church at the regular evening service.

It is requested by the members of the Hospital Auxiliary that all the ladies of Summerland when doing up fruit for their own use this year will kindly remember the new hospital, and put up a few extra bottles for it. The ladies would like to have about four hundred bottles of fruit to put in the larder of the hospital.

Twenty-five ladies made an afternoon tea party more than usually pleasant on Wednesday afternoon, when Mrs. R. M. Ross entertained at her Beach Avenue home in honor of her mother and sister, Mrs. and Miss Mason, who are her guests. The ladies had brought work with them, and fingers plied busily with needle and thread as the social amonities were carried on. Dainty refreshments were partaken of by the guests before the party dispersed.

Up-to-the-Minute War News.

Believing that the people of Summerland want the news of the war as speedily as it is gathered the Review has undertaken at large expense, to supply such, and during the week furnished a bulletin service that has kept those near the business centres well posted. Subscribers may at a cost of one dollar per week have the news transmitted to them as it comes in. Believing that our business men will find advertising space on a daily sheet of value, and thus make it possible to continue the publishing of such, we begin to-night to put out an evening paper with all the day's war items. Subscribe for the service in one or more forms, and help us to keep you informed.

A British mine-laying ship has been sunk by the German Fleet, and the British torpedo boat destroyer "Pathfinder" was pursued but managed to escape.

The sound seemed to come from a point 25 or 30 miles south to south-east of Portland, and probably in the vicinity of Neguin Island. Eight cruisers—three German, three British and two French are hovering somewhere off this coast. The firing heard to-day may have marked the first engagement between either the German and English or German and French ships.

President Wilson has sent mediation offers to the powers of Europe.

Mrs. Wilson is ill at death's door. The German embassy at St. Petersburg is besieged. The British House of Commons will pass another war measure of half a million to-morrow.

No more word about North Sea fight save that Premier Asquith has received confirmation of the sinking of two German cruisers.

London dispatches dwell solely on fact that Belgium has hurled back German advance and repulsed German attack on Liege with heavy loss to Germans.

Col. Sam Hughes announces that Canada will send contingent of 20,000 men for service abroad. He has offers of a hundred thousand.

August 6, 10.25 a.m.—Ottawa has unconfirmed dispatch that Germans are shelling Glouce Bay, Nova Scotia. Fears report is correct.

Belgians have hurled Germans back from every point on frontier scoring decisive victory especially at Liege. Another German army 100,000 strong will attack Liege to-day. Canada will send 20,000 men to fight in Europe as first contingent. British cruiser "Amphion," says official despatch, has sunk liner "Koenig Luise" which has been converted into a mine laying ship.

ANOTHER MILE STONE.

With this issue the Review passes into the seventh year of its existence. In keeping with the changing conditions, showing in the main, growth and expansion, in the district which it is primarily designed to serve, this paper is issued under very different conditions than when the first number was given to the public in 1908. It is by no means the easy matter which the uninitiated might suppose, to keep abreast of all the happenings in the community, for while some are ready and willing enough to give out information of interest to the public at large, there are unfortunately others who while they feel somewhat aggrieved if an item affecting their interests does not appear, are yet unreasonable enough to be unwilling to send or even give the desired information. This attitude is the most difficult to meet, and forms the greatest obstacle in the way of the newspaper that would try to be infallible. The majority of people rightly look upon the press as the news medium common to all the community and as such every one has a duty to their fellow-citizen to pass along that piece of news that is of interest to all. The Review desires to be of the greatest possible use to all sections of the community, both reading and advertising, and it is no admission of weakness to say that without the co-operation of all in the community, that desired end cannot be attained. Will you help?

A NOTABLE SUCCESS.

It should be a source of gratification to the whole of Summerland that the local telephone company, organized, as all are aware under the press of circumstances, has made such progress during its short existence as an operating concern. The outlook is more promising than ever it has been for the future of the company, for its success will probably bring to its support a number who have hitherto been standing by, not willing or able to assist in the beginnings. To bring a company to such a showing in times of recognized financial stress is in itself an achievement of which a larger and more influential company might well be proud. Though the process of financing in the immediate future is still far from easy, it should be rendered less difficult by the announcement of the directorate of the healthy progress of the enterprise. Another movement has been made in the efforts of this community to meet its own needs, and becoming, so far as is prudent, self-providing.

CANADA'S GOOD TRADE SHOWING.

During the twelve months ended April 30, Canada's exports to the United States totalled $200,836,674, as against $168,605,800 for the corresponding period in 1913. Imports from the United States, on the other hand, totalled $402,985,425, as against $442,213,343.

A great factor undoubtedly in the increase in exports is found in cattle, Canada exported in the twelve months $7,180,358 worth to the United States as against $2,232,542 to all countries in 1913.

Canada's total trade with all countries for the twelve months ending April 30 last was $1,096,883,675, as against $1,079,934,018 for 1913, or an increase of about $17,000,000. Imports totalled $621,822,564, as against $678,537,617, or a decrease of $56,000,000. Exports totalled $475,061,111, as against $401,346,401, or an increase of $74,000,000.

Our report of yesterday afternoon's meeting of the School Board, as well as several late contributions and news items have, we regret, been crowded out of this issue, but will be published in our next.

In order to take advantage of the special excursion rate being offered by the Okanagan Lake Boat Company for the Wednesday trip to Penticton and return, which trip is becoming very popular, it will be necessary for excursionists to secure the special trip ticket either at Summerland or Naramata.

Councillor E. R. Simpson, now at Ottawa, is said to have been ordered to be ready to join his regiment at Toronto, and Harry Reynolds to go to Vancouver.

The many friends both here and at Naramata will learn with regret of the death of Mr John Niblock, which occurred at Victoria last Thursday. After retiring from the C.P.R. service at Calgary, where he held the important position of divisional superintendent, Mr Niblock came to Naramata, later moving to Victoria hoping to benefit in health by Coast climate.

Sinning Against Your Home Town.

PART VI.

—But Here is Something Just As Good.

If we are to stop "Sinning against our home town" we must get at the causes by showing the effects.

Substitution is not an uncommon practice and it is perfectly natural for a retailer or merchant to want to make a sale every time a customer comes in his store.

Thus comes about the desire to persuade the customer who has asked for certain goods not carried by the retailer to take "Something just as good," little realizing that the action is loaded with the germs of "I-don't-believe-it," and "I'll-go-where-I-can-get-them."

When the customer's mind is made up and the money to pay for the goods is at hand, it is quite natural to get impatient if the goods are not on hand and some other make of goods substituted. Customers feel that they have done their part patronizing home merchants by asking for the goods wanted and by having the money to pay for the said purchases.

And it is a natural inclination to go or send for the goods desired where they are to be had, not caring whether the merchant is a local one or not, provided they get what they want.

If a merchant enters into competition with the mail order houses, and every up-to-date merchant in a small town has to, he must be willing to accommodate his customers by sending for the articles he himself does not carry.

When certain goods are asked for there is a strong desire behind the demand—a desire usually so strong that "something just as good" is like waving a red flag before a bull.

"It's all very well to preach spending your money at home" said a fair lady the other day, "but what is the use when I never get what I ask for and the merchant tries to force something else on me which he says is 'just as good.' It makes me mad, and I feel like sending out of town for the goods just to teach him a lesson." Such a view is perfectly feminine!

Still if you would suggest to this woman that she would be "Sinning against her home town," she would indignantly deny it and would say that she wants what she wants when she wants it, and if she can't get it at home she will go where she can.

One of the strictest rules of the mail order houses is "Give the customers what they order."

It's quality might not be as represented in the catalogue, but it is the STYLE of goods as ordered.

They realize that in order to get repeat orders, they must SATISFY the customers with the FIRST order.

Of course our local merchants cannot be expected to carry a stock of goods in excess of the probable demand, but they can prevent their customers from sending their money out of town by themselves offering to order the goods asked for instead of trying to substitute.

Substitution is one of the worst breeders of Dis-satisfaction existing, and leads to "Sinning against your home town."

It is natural for people to want what they ask for no matter where they have to go or send to get it.

The next instalment of "Sinning Against Your Home Town" will appear August 14. In it "When Dreams Come True—For You" will appear.

The regular monthly meeting of the Board of Trade will be held at 3.30 p.m. Tuesday at Supply Co's.

At the evening service in St Andrew's Church Rev. C. H. Daly will speak on the all-absorbing topic of the war.

The ladies of the Hospital Auxiliary meet for sewing next Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs F. W. Andrew.

The Summerland Supply Company has fitted up the rear end of their town store with a circle of comfortable chairs for the convenience of their patrons and the public generally who desire to gather and discuss the latest developments at the seat of the European war. The latest Review bulletins will be available, and also a map of Europe, on which the movements of the combating forces can be traced.

In respect to summons of E. A. Webster and detention of H. Bowman, F. Price, G. Ward, A. Shaw, A. Budge and R. Postill, at Summerland in June last, I hereby apologize for same, and regret if same were construed to reflect in any way upon the character of these men, which reflection was wholly unwarranted.

TYPICAL HOME OF AN IRRIGATOR

SHEEP GRAZING BY IRRIGATION DITCH ALBERTA

THE IRRIGATION DITCH BRITISH COLUMBIA OKRARD

Penticton Will Greet Irrigation Convention on August 17

The Western Canada Irrigation Association will again hold its Annual Convention (the eighth) in the Okanagan. The 1912 Association met at Kelowna, and 1913 in Calgary, Alberta, and it falls to B.C. again this year. Sessions will be held at Penticton on August 17th, 18th, and 19th.

Experts in fruit culture, exponents of alfalfa production and practical students of modern farming in all its ramifications will attend. Questions of great interest to irrigators will be dealt with by many prominent authorities.

What Varieties Of B.C. Apples To Use And When.

Below is a list of the more commonly grown British Columbia varieties of apples to use in each of the various months of the year. The varieties in capital letters are grown in the larger quantities and are specially adapted for use in the season given.

A succession of high-class varieties for their season would be:
Transparent; Duchess; Wealthy; McIntosh; Jonathan; Grimes Golden; Wagner; Northern Spy; Spitzenberg; Winter Banana; and Newtown.

The list does not give the maximum range of season for any one variety, but rather the season in which the largest quantities may be had at their best. By storing sound apples under the most favorable conditions—a temperature of 32 degrees to 36 degrees, no frost, moderate air circulation and moist air, not too dry or too wet—the season of most varieties can be considerably prolonged.

July—Dessert—Early Harvest, YELLOW TRANSPARENT. Cooking—Astrachan, DUCHESS, YELLOW TRANSPARENT.

DISTRICT MEETING.

On Friday last the district meeting for the Okanagan, in connection with the Methodist Church, was for the first time in our brief history held here. The only open meeting was held on Friday evening, the special feature of which was a comprehensive address on the responsibilities of the Methodist Church in the Yukon.

Dr White speaks with clearness and force and with the freshness of the man in close touch with the activities of the church. It is a positive inspiration to listen to an old and tried gray headed soldier of the Cross portraying in graphic language the social, moral, financial and religious condition of the far-off Yukon.

The second speaker, Rev J. C. Switzer, of Kelowna, chairman of the Okanagan district, spoke briefly at the conclusion of Dr White's address, complimenting Naramata for the wisdom in holding together, Methodist, Baptist and Presbyterian, and all worshipping in a common pew.

The service was enlivened by special music, a male quartette by Revs. Lee, Willan, Tanner and Vance, entitled, "Jesus, Savior, Pilot Me," and a solo at the close of the address of the evening by Mrs T. I. Williams, "One Sweetly Solemn Thought."

The following delegates were in attendance: Rev J. H. White, New Westminster, Superintendent of Methodist Missions in B.C.; Rev

J. C. Switzer, Kelowna; Rev Gordon Tanner and Mr J. Fleming, Rutland; Mr Moore, Armstrong; Rev K. M. Thompson and Mr J. H. Glass, Penticton; Rev J. F. H. Stanton, Keremeos; Rev R. W. Lee, Summerland; Rev Andrew Henderson, Peachland; Rev Cassidy, Oyama; Rev W. Vance, Vernon; Rev W. P. Willan and Mr T. I. Williams, Naramata. Other visitors at the meeting from outside points were Miss Catherine Henderson, of Peachland and Mrs Lee, Summerland.

THE TEACHERS' THEORY SHATTERED.

"Children," said the teacher to his pupils, "you should be able to do anything equally well with either hand. With a little practice you will find it just as easy to do with one hand as it is with the other."

"Is it?" inquired the urchin at the foot of the class. "Let's see you put your left hand in the right hand pocket of your trousers."—Ladies' Home Journal.

Current Events — OF — Town & District

Mr W. D. Mackie of town, an old war veteran who has seen sixteen years in active service under the British flag, has again volunteered for service.

Postmaster Bartlett has this week been favored with a visit from his sister from Fernie, Mrs MacVannell, and his step-mother from St Mary's, Ontario.

Mrs E. B. Roe is this week suffering from affection to her right eye, and is under doctor's care. It is hoped that no more serious complications set in.

Mr and Mrs R. J. C. Stead and family from Calgary touring the Valley, spent a few days in our town guests of Syndica House, and left for their home on Wednesday.

The bush fires raging in the district south of here had to draft a number of men last Sunday from Naramata to assist in the work. The fires are not yet under control.

Owing to the courtesy of the Summerland Review, Naramata has been furnished with special war bulletins—a courtesy which is appreciated by the enthusiasts who desire to hear the latest in war circles.

Mrs Russell Wells is on the sick list suffering from an attack of erysipelas. This is the more unfortunate happening at a time when her brother, Mr Blakely has just arrived from the prairies to spend a holiday.

Fruit shipments last week for the beginning of the peach season were very fair indeed, but this week Mr Craig found it necessary to increase his staff of professional packers. Accordingly Harvey Phinney came over from Summerland, and will probably stay the balance of the season.

On account of the threatening shortage of water, the Okanagan Trust Company have sent a small force of men headed by Mr W. Nuttall to the headwaters to strengthen the intake at the dam. This is a wise move, and will result in a very decided improvement upon the amount of storage water to be kept in reserve.

Mr Percy Hook, now a resident of Calgary, but a property owner here, in a recent letter to a friend says that Naramata has the finest climate in Canada, and expressed the hope of some day coming here to take up permanent residence. Mr Hook is too busy speculating in oil stock to think of spending his holiday here this season.

The lecture by Mrs Gillespie on Sunday evening in the Opera House drew a crowded house gathered from Naramata chiefly, but supplemented somewhat by a goodly number from Summerland and a few from Penticton. The lecture was listened to with intense interest, and was punctuated by statements decidedly at variance with the so-called orthodox theology, supported by convincing argument which set the mind of the audience thinking "How can these things be true?" It was in a word a strong presentation of "The New Thought" ideas pertaining to the heaven into which we all of us hope some day to enter. The special music for the occasion was furnished by Mr J. S. Gillespie, assisted by Mrs Mark Manchester as accompanist.

BOY SCOUT DOINGS.

On Thursday afternoon, a very enjoyable time was spent by our scouts at the Unity Club picnic. The scouts were arrayed in full war paint, and the afternoon was spent in sports and games of various descriptions. After supper the boys assisted in cleaning up the grounds, and removing all traces of the outing. Before the scouts dispersed, the Unity Club was given some hearty cheers.

A general disappointment was felt by all when word was given out that the weekly First Aid meeting would be postponed on account of there being no lights.

Only one more meeting was held during the week, on Saturday night, when the troop was given physical drill by the Scoutmaster.

—A SCOUT.

UNITY CLUB ANNUAL PICNIC.

An Unqualified Success.

The annual outing under the auspices of the ladies, members of the Unity Club, the unique social and philanthropic organization which has during the founding of our town done so much for its progress, was a pronounced success. Not only was the crowd an unusually large one but the program of sports was keenly contested, and the prize winners deserving ones. The sports were followed in the evening by refreshments served in the vicinity of the club rooms in the shade of the friendly grove skirting the lake shore near by. A more suitable place for holding such a function it would be hard to find.

Toward the close of the day as a pleasing finale, the president called the joy-chasing crowd to order to listen to a few short and representative speeches. Mr Robinson spoke of the circumstances which called for the starting of the club idea, and congratulated the ladies upon the conspicuous evidence of the progress, and referred in eulogistic terms to the surprising number of new and pretty faces among the audience, many of whom he had never seen before. In fact it was about the only representative gathering at which he had the time or opportunity of attending. Mrs. Lipsett, of the Summerland Women's Institute—organized along somewhat similar lines, but under government patronage—spoke briefly and in complimentary terms. Mrs Lipsett was one of the charter members of the Unity Club, and at one time president.

Mrs Reesor in her speech referred to the very excellent quality of the five different salads on the table and expressed a wish to have the recipes.

Mr Firstbrook, of Toronto, who with his wife and son Frank, have been enjoying a few weeks holiday in the Okanagan, complimented the people of Naramata generally upon the very favorable conditions under which they lived, and expressed a hope that the blessings of a divine providence would continue to be theirs.

Mr Harry Pitman, Scoutmaster, and Pastor Willan also spoke briefly and to the point.

Mrs Gillespie, who occupied the chair, spoke feelingly toward the last, and expressed the prediction that with the club room now nearly free of debt and with the piano almost paid for, the ladies would be better than ever in a position to fulfil the destinies of the ladies' Unity Club of Naramata.

A vote of thanks proposed happily by Mr J. H. Pushman called forth an enthusiastic reception after which with the singing of "God Save The King," and our old time rallying song, "Naramata Oh!" the jolly crowd broke up feeling one and all that they had had a day's enjoyment in an afternoon.

The list of prize winners follows:

Baby Race—Grace Pushman, Alice Walters.

Little Girls—Ina Ireland, Margaret Allan.

Boy Scouts—Arnold Stiff, Stanley Stiff.

Little Boys—Gordon Williams, Lester Williams.

Three Legged Race—Girls, Laura Pushman and M. Allan. Boys, Arnold and Stanley Stiff.

Fat Ladies' Race—Mrs Allen and Mrs Dr Robinson.

Mr J. M. Robinson who ran in this class and who came in second, ruled out of prize—amidst protests, afterwards settled amiably.

Obstacle Race—Harold Allan, Stanley Stiff.

Wheel-barrow Race—Frank Hughes, Willie Mitchell.

Thread and Needle Race—Edith Roy and Roy Boothe, Violet Mitchell and Guy Brock.

Boy's Handicap Swimming Race—Arthur Stiff, Willie Mitchell.

Penticton Cubs vs. Naramata "Big Bears."

In a seven innings game on Thursday of last week, the Cubs of Penticton got the long end of the score with the local boys whose team seemed somewhat demoralized on account of the absence of Frank Hayward, who had to go to Kelowna.

Guy Brock held the Cubs down to a few scattered hits and had he got better support from the field, the big lead obtained in the second and third innings would have left the teams fairly well balanced. Tompkins for the Cubs, pitched a constant game throughout, and was accorded good support.

The line-up of the teams was as follows:

YOUR daily problem of what to eat is very easily solved - - pass it on to us. It is not what you eat that has alone to be considered—it is the quality of what you eat. It is easy to say, "Let's have some special dish for dinner," but the mere buying of the materials for that dish does not make your dinner a success. You must have the best of everything to get the fullest enjoyment from the meal

Our reputation is built on selling the best of groceries. We have studied the "what to eat" problem for OUR OWN SAKE as well as YOURS. Come in and let us talk it over.

THE REASON WHY.

The bulletin which has for years been posted each night at the Post Office announcing the time of departure of the boat from Kelowna and Peachland has been missed of late, and a number of citizens have been wondering why. The question was put to Postmaster Hayes the other day by the Review, and this is his explanation:

For the convenience of the public in general (including the local C.P.R. employees) the government telephone office has been enquiring daily of the whorabouts of the boat, and frequently the information has been obtained at some inconvenience to the operators at Kelowna and Peachland, particularly the former which is not in sight of the C.P.R. wharf. While stating that this information had been furnished willingly day after day by the Government Telephone staff, they felt that upon the extending of the C.P.R. telegraph service down the lake they should be no longer expected to do so, hence latterly it has been left to the C.P.R. telegraph to report.

Passing Events: Social, Personal, &c.

Coun. E. R. Simpson is away on a three week's visit to Ottawa, leaving here on Sunday morning.

Fred Demuth of the Kettle Valley saw mill thirty miles back, was down during the week, registering at Hotel Summerland.

Mrs Ira Law now of Kelowna and formerly a resident here, was a visitor in Summerland last weekend.

Major and Mrs E. E. Hutton arrived home on Tuesday evening's boat after spending some weeks at Victoria.

Miss Crossen came in from the Coast during the week-end, and will visit with her sister, Mrs John Tait, for about five or six weeks.

Dr. T. B. Turner, dentist, will spend Monday and Tuesday of each week in Summerland. Crown, Bridge and Gold Inlay work a specialty. tf

The Dominion Cannery will open up their office in Carlson's old office, and will store their orchard boxes in half of the Carlson warehouse. ag

Mr J. D. Williams of Kelowna passed through Summerland on Tuesday and distributed a number of fine two-color posters advertising the Kelowna regatta.

The residence of somewhat pretentious proportions being erected by Mr D. F. Brewer near Ritchie's lumber yard is showing rapid progress at the hands of the contractors.

Miss Neve was a passenger on Sunday morning's boat to Kelowna. The following day she underwent an operation for appendicitis at the hospital there, from which she has since been making a satisfactory recovery.

Those wishing to attend the Kelowna Regatta on August 12th or 13th will be interested to learn that special trips will be run on both days by the Okanagan Lake Boat Co. Full particulars may be had by phoning either the Summerland or Naramata office. As the boat capacity is limited it is advisable to get ticket in advance. ad

Miss M. Skillen, who during the past college year was a member of the faculty of Okanagan College, left on Sunday morning for Chicago where she expects to take a position on the High School staff of that city. Miss Skillen's mother has been with her here for some weeks, and went with her as far as Seamus. She will visit Seattle and other Sound points before returning east.

Shanghnessy Avenue received a drenching it very much needed on Wednesday when the fire hose was put to the good use of laying the dust on the main street. In more than one quarter it has been suggested that this should be undertaken periodically, under some organized effort. Certain it is that the business streets of both sections could be made much more pleasant these hot days by a drenching from the fire hoses.

Through the kindness of Mr J. M. Robinson, the Flower Show will be held as in the two previous years in the cement block, Shanghnessy Avenue, on Friday, August 21, 1914. Further donations for the Flower Show as follows are gratefully acknowledged: Mrs J. J. Mitchell offers for best half dozen Baking Powder Biscuits made by girl under thirteen years, 1st prize, silver coin purse; 2nd prize, sterling silver thimble. Mr Isaac Blair has offered a pig to be included among the prizes.

Mr R. Robertson, Manager of the United Growers Ltd., spent Monday evening and Tuesday morning in Summerland, arriving on Monday evening's boat and proceeding to Naramata and Penticton at noon on Tuesday. Mr Robertson, who has but recently returned from Vancouver, seemed very much pleased with the successful manner in which Okanagan fruit is getting in on that market. Apricots, peaches, peach plums and other fruit is meeting with increasing demand. One car a day has been going to Vancouver Market for some time. Mr Robertson will probably go down to the prairies next week.

BIRTHS.

REYNOLDS—To Mr and Mrs H. Reynolds, "Idyllwydo," Garnett Valley, on Tuesday, August 4th, a daughter.

Mr H. V. Acland was a visitor to Summerland at the Felix Hotel over Tuesday night.

Geo. Fisher, who has been in Calgary for a time returned to Summerland on Tuesday evening.

Miss Gladys Limmer of the Government Telegraph office, Penticton, spent Sunday last with her mother here.

Mrs J. R. Conway of Vernon is visiting her parents Mr and Mrs J. E. Phinney. She is accompanied by her little daughter, Eileen, and came down from Vernon on Sunday evening's boat.

The ice cream parlor on Shaughnessy Avenue adjoining the Supply Company's store, and carried on through the summer months, by H. Reynolds, was this week taken over by Mark Fetherstonhaugh, who is personally in charge.

Mr O. F. D. Norrington, of Penticton, District Engineer under the provincial government's rural irrigation scheme, was in Summerland at the Felix Hotel for a few hours towards the end of last week.

As a result of a fall sustained in the act of reaching up over her head at home, Mrs Clarence Pineo suffered a severe wrist sprain at the end of last week. She has had the injured member encased in a plaster cast, and it is hoped she will soon regain the full use of her hand.

Miss Grace Logie has many friends in Summerland who were somewhat perturbed to hear of the nervous breakdown she suffered on Tuesday evening. Though her condition at first led to some anxiety, it is now felt that with complete rest will come a restoration to health and strength.

Mrs Page from Boston and Miss Woodworth of Vancouver, are visitors at the home of their brother, Mr. L. C. Woodworth, arriving on last Friday evening's boat. On Saturday with Mr and Mrs Woodworth and Cyril they enjoyed an auto trip to Princeton, returning on Wednesday.

Mrs. A. O. Atkins went up the lake on Sunday morning last with her two little ones on a visit of two or three months at the Coast, stopping off at Vernon for a while. On her return Mr and Mrs Atkins will take up residence in the house in the town section vacated some time ago by Mr and Mrs F. B. Tully.

The Victor is a variety of peach that is probably known to very few of our fruit growers, but those who have had the pleasure of tasting this exceptionally fine-flavored semi-clinging peach will testify to its excellent qualities. Several trees of this variety are in the orchard of Mr D. Sutherland, and a liberal sample of the fruit was furnished the editor by Mr D. L. Sutherland. It may be because it is too tender to be a good shipper that the Victor is not more popular. This is the only guess we can make.

A number of minor accidents have occurred at English's corner on Shaughnessy Avenue since the recent placing there of a telephone pole by the Okanagan Telephone Company, and a number of protests against the location of the pole have been heard. One of the latest instances to come to our attention was a collision by Mr F. E. Hanington of the Canadian Bank of Commerce while turning the corner on horsback. Mr Hanington is suffering with an injured knee and finds it difficult to move about.

Fire on Tuesday evening threatened the house on College Hill occupied by Mr and Mrs J. R. Tate. Smoke was noticed by Mr Thos. B. Young, who was driving by, and he promptly notified Mr Tate who was busy at the rear of the house. About the same time Mr A. Walker also saw the signs of fire and went over to investigate. The fire was located in the basement under the verandah, and before it had been extinguished with the assistance of these two citizens, damage, chiefly to clothing, had been done to the extent of about $200. The house suffered but little damage. Mr Tate is at a loss to account for the origin of the fire, unless it be that his little girl in some way brought it about. In any case he is thankful that the blaze got no farther than it did, due to the prompt notification he was given. The bell at St Andrew's Church was set ringing to raise an alarm, but by that time the flames had been about extinguished.

Mr and Mrs K. S. Hogg were visitors to Peachland over the week end.

Dr and Mrs F. W. Andrew went up to Kelowna on Monday, returning the same evening.

Mr C. M. Woodworth, brother to Mr L. C. Woodworth, came in at the end of last week from Vancouver, on a visit of inspection. Mr Woodworth has been staying with Mr and Mrs J. C. Wilson at the house on his orchard property. He left for the Coast on this morning's boat (Friday).

Methodist Church services will be conducted in the Methodist Church on Sunday next at 10.30 a.m. and 7 p.m., the preacher on both occasions being the pastor, Rev R. W. Lee. At the evening service special reference will be made to the present crisis in the history of Europe. A hearty invitation is extended to all.

After undergoing an operation for appendicitis last Thursday Ed. Hayward is now making a rapid recovery. An unusually severe attack compelled a hurried trip to Kelowna, and the launch "Lil" was requisitioned for a special trip to the Orchard City, where the operation was performed. The patient is reported to be making good progress.

ANOTHER WATER CASE.

Nominal Penalty Again Imposed.

At the jail on Tuesday evening before Magistrate R. H. English, a case was heard centering round the alleged interference of flume gates by an orchardist who felt he was not getting his due supply of irrigation water. This is the second case of its kind within a short time.

James McKenzie, who has an orchard lot near the mouth of Garnett Valley, was the defendant, and until the appearance of Municipal Clerk J. L. Logie, the case for the Municipality was in the hands of Constable Graham. Evidence from both sides was taken, from the defendant and H. L. Gallaugher, the ditchman concerned. The contention of the former was that he had not been getting nearly enough water for his acreage, and that the water available in the district was not being equitably distributed. This was not admitted by the ditchman in his evidence.

The magistrate decided to impose a fine of $5 and costs, and added a warning to the defendant and any others who might be contemplating taking the law into their own hands by interfering with the gates regulated by the ditchmen, that any future cases would be dealt with more severely.

CALGARY WOMEN RETAIL OKANAGAN FRUIT.

The Calgary Consumers' League is an organization among the housekeepers of that city designed to protect the interests of the ultimate consumer, and at the same time to compel traders to a certain extent to cater to the exact needs of the consumers, eliminating such practices as substitution.

"For some time past," says the Calgary Herald, "the league has been trying to open up a market in Alberta for B.C. fruit, and their hopes in this respect will be to some extent realized when two representatives of the B.C. fruit growers will be at the public market on Saturday."

"One of these men opened a stall at the market on Wednesday, and the grade of fruit he offered for sale proved far superior to anything yet seen on the market. The members are greatly interested in the lectures Mr T. E. Clay will give on Saturday at the market on the art of fruit preserving, and it is hoped that every housewife will avail herself of the opportunity of hearing what he has to say. One lecture will be given at 10 o'clock, one at 8 p.m., and another at 8.30 in the evening."

FRUIT COMMISSIONER COMING.

Mr D. Johnson, fruit commissioner for the Dominion Government, is on his way from Ottawa to visit the fruit districts of British Columbia. He is expected to arrive in about a week. News of Commissioner Johnson's coming has been conveyed to Mr. R. G. L. Clark, the chief Dominion fruit inspector in this province. Mr Clark will accompany his chief on the trip through British Columbia.

Campaign Against Noxious Weeds Being Conducted by Provincial Government.

The Provincial Department of Agriculture is conducting a strenuous campaign against the noxious weeds in settled districts in the province. A special appropriation from the Federal grant for the year has enabled them to put on eight weed inspectors, covering the following localities: Okanagan, Boundary, Lower Fraser, Thompson River Valley, West Kootenay, Columbia Valley, Arrow Lakes, Vancouver Island and the Islands of the Gulf. A large number of circulars of an educative character have been issued relating to prevalent weeds and the best methods of eradication. This will be firmly followed up where necessary by penal measures. By an amendment to the Noxious Weeds Act a judgment can now be obtained from the Supreme Court, whereby, when an owner of land fails to comply with the law after being warned, the cost of cutting his weeds can be charged up to his land.

The principal weeds referred to in the literature are the Canada thistle, sow thistle, bull and Russian thistles, charlock and other mustards, stink wood, rag weed, stick weed and dodder, of which descriptions are given, followed by dates of their flowering and seeding, and the best way of getting rid of them. The principal course recommended is clean cultivation of the soil.

2,000,000 Men With 4,000 Guns Lined Up For Fierce Battle.

Numerous Reports of Naval Engagements on Atlantic and Elsewhere.

The unusually rigid censorship which is being maintained over all telegrams from the seat of war in Europe, has not revealed a great deal that may have any ultimate bearing on the issues at stake.

The resistance of the city of Liege by the Belgians will go down in military history as one of the most notable of defenses. Britons, French and Belgians have now joined forces against the German army, and the first really decisive battle of the campaign may be the engagement which is now reported as beginning. Concerning the movements of the navies there is a significant silence. Of the whereabouts of the main body of ships little is known, though any day the news may come through that the navies of four nations, England, France, Russia and Germany have been engaged. The Austro-Serbian war, the cause of the larger conflagration, is proceeding spasmodically, though now quite of secondary importance.

Brussels, August 10.—German force of 46,000 invaded France to-day from Esch and Luxemburg, large portion cavalry. Official statement by Belgian war office, all the residents of the village of Soiren, near Pepinster, have been massacred by German troops, because three gardeners fired on a detachment of 200 Germans.

Shanghai, August 10.—Believed here that British Fleet has German squadron bottled up in Tsing Tau harbor. Firing reported in that vicinity.

RESERVISTS CALLED HOME.

Ottawa, August 10.—The Imperial authorities have advised the Dominion Government that all British reservists in Canada are required at home to join the British army. There are between 4,000 and 5,000 reservists in Canada, more particularly in B.C.

HELP FROM INDIA.

Bombay, August 10.—Two divisions of Gurkhas and Sikhs have already sailed for Great Britain. Sons of many native chiefs are beginning to beg for the proud privilege of making a sacrifice for the Empire.

Paris, August 10.—War has at last been formally declared between Austria and France, owing to Austria's refusal to cease mobilization on the Swiss frontier.

B.C. HORSE MOBILIZE.

Vernon, August 10, 6 p.m.—Thirtieth B.C. Horse received orders at five o'clock to rush mobilization.

NORTH SEA CLOSED.

London, August 10, 3.45 p.m.—The North Sea was again closed to ships and fishing fleet to-day. The harbor-master at Scarborough has been sent a message from the Admiralty instructing him to tell masters of fishing vessels not to go out until further notice.

Ottawa, August 10.—The port of Quebec is now closed, no ships will be allowed to leave it.

WITHDRAWING FROM SERBIA.

London, August 10.—Reuter's News Agency puts out report that Austria has temporarily abandoned her attempted invasion of Serbia, and has taken up a strong position within her own borders awaiting an attack.

Paris, August 10.—Eight Austrian regiments have crossed Lake Constance, en route for Alsace.

GERMANY CLAIMS GREAT VICTORIES.

The Hague, August 10.—The German Minister to Holland has issued a long statement in which he says Russians have been driven back along the entire frontier and Prussia is free of the enemy. Germany has taken Villun, Kibarty, Kallah, and other towns. Russia has abandoned Russian Poland, and the Poles are hailing the Germans as deliverers. The German Navy is threatening the Russian seaboard.

Cape Town, via London, August 10.—Dutch leaders are intent upon supporting the Imperial Government send message they can be counted upon to defend the Union Jack to their last cartridge.

TO SAVE COAST NERVES.

Ottawa, August 11.—In order to save nerves of people in seaport towns contractors on government public works have been ordered to cease blasting until naval situation is cleared up.

Washington, August 10.—Count de Birtler, Military Attache to French Embassy, predicts first big battle between German and allied Belgian, British and French forces between August 12th and 15th. Britain has promised Holland to respect her neutrality.

WAR MAY BE BRIEF.

Belief is growing in England that the war cannot be protracted, and may not last more than six months. The cost to Germany is stupendous. In England the financial conditions are fast returning to normal, but Germany is seriously crippled. Her import and export trade is stopped, and all railway lines are given over to military traffic.

LIEGE HOLDS OUT.

Brussels, August 11.—The forts at Liege hold out, all of them, and military experts declare that Germany's possession of the city does not in the least influence the straggle situation.

London, August 11.—Admiralty announces that it was the "Birmingham" which on Sunday sunk the German submarine U 15.

Brussels, August 11.—Liege forts still hold out. Two desperate efforts made by Germans to-day to silence forts but were repulsed with frightful loss. Papers found on German spy in Brussels show Germany expected to be in Brussels August 8, and at Lille, France, August 6, on way to Paris.

Off To The War.

Six of Summerland's young men volunteered last night for service in the 30th B.C. Horse. These were Mark Fotherstonhaugh, the first to offer, George Barkwill and "Billy" Greenwood, from among those who met the Recruiting Officers Pyman and Parkinson at the Fells, and later James Forsyth, George Fisher and Joe Lintern, from those who awaited the arrival of the officers late last night at West Summerland.

Though the boys are hoping to be sent abroad no promises were made them. The colonel had offered his regiment for service where needed, which may for a time be in Canada. The volunteers will leave for Kolowna on Monday for examination, etc. It is probable that others may volunteer before that time, as particulars and instructions for obtaining transportation have been left with Messrs Cordy and Collas.

Summerland Takes Share in Canada's Hospital Ship.

One Hundred Dollars Apportioned to This District is Trebled.

Considering the somewhat hurried nature of its calling arising from the short notice received and the necessity for prompt action, the attendance at Tuesday's public meeting in Empire Hall, though far from crowded, was fairly satisfactory and representative, including as it did a good number of ladies. The meeting was called by Reeve Jas. Ritchie, in response to a telegram received during the week-end from Victoria, asking that Summerland do its share towards purchasing and equipping a hospital ship for service in the present European war. This task of loyalty is being undertaken by the Canadian section of the Imperial Order of the Daughters of the Empire. It is a national undertaking, and the estimated total cost, $100,000, has been divided up, and to each province has been allocated a sum in proportion to the population.

Rev H. A. Solly called the meeting to order about 8.30 p.m. With him on the platform were Dr. F. W. Andrew, Rev C. H. Daly, Rev R. W. Lee, Messrs H. C. Mellor and H. Sutherland.

Mr Solly in his opening remarks explained the object of the meeting, which was to decide upon Summerland's share in providing and equipping a hospital ship, and to settle the method of raising that share.

He read the telegram which was received by the Reeve from the Victoria chapter of the Daughters of the Empire, and it was noted that all funds had to be at the provincial capital by Thursday, the 13th inst. British Columbia's share of the undertaking is $10,000, and Mr Solly's suggestion as to Summerland's share was about $100.

Dr Andrew who followed, spoke eloquently, urging the project from a medical standpoint. He understood that the city of Vancouver had undertaken to raise $5,000, or half the share falling to this province, and agreed that about $100 should be raised locally. The proposed hospital ship was to be in the hands of the Red Cross Society, so that contributors to the fund could rest assured that the ship would be in efficient control. None but experienced graduate nurses are engaged in the society's work of caring for the wounded in war, and by no means all who volunteer for nursing work are accepted. In the past, local, provincial, and in a sense perhaps, national hospital undertakings had been known, but this project was national in a new way. If Canada carried through this unique undertaking, it will form a new institution in the nation's history. Its success will have a good moral effect on friend and foe alike.

The third speaker was Rev C. H. Daly. He told the meeting impressively that to most—if not all—present the feeling that the security of the Empire was being touched was entirely new. Brought up under the protection of the British flag, a parallel of the present position of the Empire was scarcely within any living memory. Britain was answering the call of the weak, and this call to Canadian citizens should appeal to the highest and best interests. Often in war more died from the ravages of disease following wounds than were killed outright. Canada was saying to the Motherland she would contribute a hospital ship with its mission of alleviating undue suffering.

Mr Hoctor Sutherland, following, agreeing with the share that had been mentioned for this town, said that the meeting might well consider the best method of raising this sum. His plan would be that as many families as possible be induced to contribute making the gift representative of the whole community. His own feeling was that the Empire was up against the most serious position it had ever confronted, and help in any shape could not be sent too soon. Later he felt might come other calls, if not for a similar project, still in the same cause.

Mr H. C. Mellor said that though under present conditions the people of Summerland could not be expected to give a great deal in money, he was confident that if everyone gave what they felt could be spared, no matter how small, the object would be achieved. He too felt that other calls would come later, and the people of Summerland, if they could give nothing else, would be loyal enough to give of their means. He drew a parallel between the Kaiser and Napoleon the Great in the present attitude of the former, and if success attended the arms of the nations allied against Germany, as every Briton was confident, there might be left after the final reckoning, no Empire of the Germans but a Republic.

Rev R. W. Lee prefaced a rousing speech by reading the latest Review war bulletin to the meeting, complimenting the local press on its efforts to keep abreast of the situation by passing the information round so thoroughly. He prided himself on his British descent and citizenship, and though essentially a peace advocate, his view was that in the present war England had nothing either to be ashamed of or to regret. A reference by Mr Lee to the brave resistance of Belgium against invasion provoked great applause, showing that public sympathy is behind the sturdy efforts of the little kingdom. He believed that a great good could be done by the work of alleviating the sufferings of wounded friends and enemies as this ship was designed to do. Whatever Canada did for the Motherland at this time would be but small compared to what England has done for Canada, and while everyone hoped for a satisfactory and speedy cessation of battle, they would in the meantime put hands as deeply as possible down into the money pocket.

Interspersed among the speeches were musical numbers of military spirit, songs from Mr. T. G. Beavis, "Heroes and Gentlemen," and from Mr J. O. Smith, "The Old Brigade," and "The Deathless Army." Mr W. S. Kent also gave a recitation, "Gunga Din," a Kipling story of a Hindu water carrier.

Mr Solly to bring the meeting to a practical issue, suggested that a resolution be put from the meeting that this sum be raised, and since the project was under the auspices of a women's organization, he would suggest that the collecting be put into the hands of a committee of ladies to be named.

Accordingly a resolution that the community of Summerland contribute $100 towards the object in view was proposed by Mr Wm. C. W. Fosbery, and found a ready seconder in Dr R. C. Lipssett. It carried unanimously. Mr Solly then named as a committee to devise means for canvassing the district and collecting, Mrs R. Cartwright, Mrs R. C. Lipssett, Mrs H. J. Collas and Miss Edna Clouston. These ladies then gathered and deliberated together.

A suggestion came from the meeting in the form of a motion that a collection be taken up, and this was done later by the ladies in committee and some helpers, who took donations or promises redeemable the following day. Mr C. H. Cordy also suggested that in order to ensure the money going forward on time, that a number of citizens, say twenty, guarantee five dollars each, so that any delay in collecting the fund would not hold the remittance back. Provision was made in case more than the required sum was raised that the balance be left at the bank to form the nucleus of an emergency fund if other calls come later of like nature.

Mrs Lipssett reported from the ladies' committee how the district had been divided into territories with other helpers added to the committee and the ladies then canvassed the meeting, according to their respective districts.

When the National Anthem dispensed the meeting, the amount raised had not been made known.

The generous response to the appeal of the Daughters of the Empire became known yesterday, and everyone was exceedingly gratified when

At the meeting about $40 was collected, and the ladies who covered the district on Wednesday had at the last word of hearing yesterday gathered in about $200, with one collector still to report, and a few promises to be made true. In addition, a sum subscribed for at the Garnett Valley Sawmill totalled $63. The ladies are naturally somewhat elated over the results of their efforts, as indeed they have every cause to be. To the band of collectors who worked so thoroughly, as well as the generosity of our community, is due this splendid result. The $100, which it had been previously agreed upon was the amount that should go forward to Victoria was duly despatched, and the balance rests at the bank to help with any further needs which may arise. Two ladies who worked in Naramata for the same object succeeded in raising about $35.

Q. What is odd about a horse eating? A. He eats best when he hasn't a bit in his mouth.

Because the fly is small and does not roar like a lion or devour its prey at a mouthful, mankind pays little attention to it. But the fly is as deadly a foe to civilization as any of the pests of more fearsome aspect, which man makes it his business to exterminate.

Letting the Light in Shops and businesses that are illumined by advertising have a vitality and efficiency not possessed by shops and businesses that drape their service and activities with a pall of silence.

Everybody knows that it is in all ways good to let much light into dwellings, factories, shops and stables—into all places where life is and where health and efficiency are desired.

We commend to the merchants of the community the advantages and good results of persistent advertising in our columns, for the public always goes where light is—the public shuns dark places. Light means welcome and confidence.

A WORD TO MERCHANTS.

Advertising will go far towards retaining the loyalty of old customers and winning you new ones. Fifty-two advertisements in our columns will prove an excellent salesman—one whose yearly cost to you will be less than what you are now paying to some salesman behind your counter.

Strathcona: A Story For Boys

By Dr. Frank Crane, in the New York Globe.

No, children, the days of fairy stories are not past. There are just as wonderful careers nowadays as those of Jack the Giant Killer or Aladdin of the Lamp.

Listen and I will tell you the story of a boy who did amazing things, and who has just died at the age of ninety-four.

His name was the commonest name in the world, for it was just Smith.

He was born in Morayshire, in Scotland, in 1820; so you see he lived to be almost a hundred. And this, mind you, is a really true story, and not made up.

His family was so poor that they could barely get enough to eat, and there were not clothes enough for this baby, whom they christened Donald A. Smith. But his mother was a devout woman and said: "The Lord never sends another mouth to feed unless He sends something to put into it."

So the parents welcomed the little boy and loved him. But his childhood was a very hard one. There was little schooling to be had in the poor village, and he had to work as soon as he could toddle about.

When he was seventeen he went to Labrador, which, as you know, is even a colder, bitterer place than Scotland. There he found employment as a boy of all work, running errands, doing chores, having long hours of labor, low pay and very little play.

"I had much to endure," he said in later years, speaking of his boyhood. "But I was strong and could endure much. I knew there was always a place higher up for a man who would work hard."

Soon he was promoted to be a clerk, for his employers found him willing, cheerful and intelligent. He was in the hire of the Hudson's Bay Company, and it was not long before he was put in charge of one of their trading posts.

Once, threatened with blindness, he had to have an operation performed on his eyes, and travelled for weeks through the snow to Montreal, with only Indians for his companions. He arrived, but two of his comrades died of exposure by the way.

He kept on doing his work well, until he rose to be head of the great company. Then he became governor of the territory.

He was the chief figure in building the railway that runs across Canada. For his work in developing that country Queen Victoria knighted him; and he was now called Sir Donald A. Smith, of the Order of St. Michael and St. George, Lord High Commissioner of Canada.

He became wealthy beyond his dreams, and was known as Canada's greatest man; so the queen raised him to the peerage, and he took a new title, the one by which he is best known, Lord Strathcona and Mount Royal.

Ten universities bestowed degrees upon him. He died worth probably a hundred million dollars.

He always kept by him a little, cheap, battered leather trunk, with D. A. S. lotted on it; for that little trunk held all his worldly goods when he first came to America. It went with him wherever he travelled, even after he was very rich, and until the end.

You cannot all become Lord Strathconas, but you can all put into your hearts that picture of young Donald Smith, bravely and gladly doing his work, ready and equipped for opportunity when it knocked at his door, and with kindness to others yet no pity for himself.

He was a fine lad, and did things quite as marvellous in his way as Jack the Giant Killer.

Market for American Peaches Looks Bad.

(Wenatchee World.)

All the big shipping organizations are sending word to growers to-day that the market for soft fruit is so foreboding that none but high grade fruit of good size can be sold, and that therefore it will do growers no good to pack small sized peaches, pears and summer apples. Inspectors have been instructed to watch closely and reject fruit which will not arrive at delivery points in first class and attractive condition. Peaches, pears and apples are being inspected closely, and three inspectors are turning back growers who bring in fruit of such poor quality as would likely be unsaleable on the present poor markets. Growers are advised by their organizations to call up or write when in doubt about what kind of fruit to pack. Thus they will be saved the expense of preparing stuff which is sure to be rejected.

Apres to the above, we may state that in a recent conversation with the Review, Pres. White of the Summerland Fruit Union spoke regretfully of the apparent lack of proper thinning of stoned fruit, more particularly peaches. A number of growers are bringing in fruit that is so much undersized as to be practically unsaleable. Mr White is confident that with heavier thinning at the beginning of the season much of this waste could be avoided.

The first weekly market in the interior of British Columbia has been opened in the principal street of Kamloops and has proved an unqualified success. Throngs of people eagerly buy up garden and dairy produce, poultry, eggs, etc. Producers and consumers alike are satisfied with the prices realized. The retail merchants of the city also say that the market is a stimulus to ordinary business and are giving the city carte blanche to provide facilities.

PROTECTION OF OUR FORESTS.

The motto of the International Irrigation Congress, which meets in Western Canada this year, "Save the Forests, Store the Floods," is readily appreciated in British Columbia.

In the Valleys of the Kootenay River, Okanagan Lake, Thompson and Fraser Rivers there are about 100,000 acres of land which are greatly improved in productive capacity by irrigation. The streams from which water must be secured, without exception, head in timbered hills.

The timber in the headwaters of these streams is not at present valuable for agricultural purposes. Its value to the public, however, is shown by its influence on stream flow.

A stream to be valuable for irrigation must supply water regularly during the summer season. Watersheds barren of forests act like roofs. They pour the waters from spring rains and melting snows down over their bare rock slopes in torrents in the early season when water is not needed for irrigation. When midsummer comes and water is needed for man and fruit crops, these streams are dry. Forest watersheds, on the other hand, do not give up their waters so prodigally. The timber protects the snow and holds its melting later in the summer. The waters from rain and melting snow are caught by the vegetation beneath the trees, soak into the spongy soil covering of moss, mulch and decayed vegetation, are led by myriad little channels into the open soil and seep gradually down, appearing below in springs which feed the streams summerlong.

Certain forests in the province, particularly in the mountains around Okanagan Lake, are given special care in fire protection because of the immense value of the water yielded by their forested slopes. A high level trail has been built around Okanagan Lake to facilitate patrol by forest guards.

This trail commands a view of the whole Okanagan Valley; laterals in the larger tributary valleys connect it with settlements along the lake below and with look-out men stationed on out-standing mountain peaks above.

The use of the look-out man is a new feature of forest fire protection in Western Canada. In the Okanagan district two mountain peaks have been chosen from which any sign of smoke can be spotted and accurately located in the forested watershed of Okanagan Lake. These look-outs, between 6,000 and 7,000 feet high are connected by telephone with the District Forester's office. A man is constantly on duty on each from June to September. His equipment consists of field glasses and good maps. At the first thin spiral of smoke he telephones the particulars to the district office, the local guard is warned, and the fire controlled before expensive proportions.

Citizens of the districts have co-operated in meeting the cost of this fire insurance. Towns depending on forested watershed for municipal water supply, voted money to assist in building telephone lines to lookout points. Irrigation companies with big investments on forested streams shared the cost of trail and telephone construction.

A statistician has figured that to raise a boy in the simplest way from babyhood to 18 years of age costs $4,000. If that is true, let the statistician figure out the problem of how a man who earns $2.50 a day rears four boys and three girls without begging, borrowing or stealing. And it has been done, is being done, and will be done.

FLOWER SHOW NEXT FRIDAY.

Next week is Flower Show week. Friday, August 21st is the day. The Show will be held in the cement block as last year, and will be open to the public from 2 to 8.30 p.m. The secretary will be at the building all day Thursday to receive exhibits. It is particularly requested that all entries be made at the earliest possible date.

Few if any of our citizens other than those immediately identified with the promoters have any idea of the amount of work involved and the actual net expense incurred each year by the Women's Institute in providing this splendid exhibition of flowers and handiwork. Doubtless there is much satisfaction to be had by the ladies as the result of a worthy object carried to a successful conclusion, which no doubt compensates for the effort and time expended.

This, however, cannot make up the necessary fund to meet the expenses of the Flower Show which are considerable. The only monies taken in by the Institute towards the exhibition expense are the receipts from the sale of tea and refreshments during the show, and it is well that our citizens keep this in mind and patronize this feature of the day's attractions, remembering too, that no charge is made for admission. All contributions solicited are for the prize list, and each year the deficit, as between the expenses and the refreshment receipts has been met by the ladies from the Institute treasury. This timely reference to this subject will, we trust, be sufficient to result in a much larger patronage of the Flower Show refreshment tables.

Methodist services will be held on Sunday next. The morning service at 10.30 a.m. will be in the Methodist Church the preacher being Rev R. W. Lee. The evening service at 7 o'clock will be in St Andrew's Presbyterian Church and the pastor Rev R. W. Lee will give an address on "British Patriotism." All are invited.

HOW THEY APOLOGIZED.

This is how the editor of the International apologized in his last number:

"Our printer's devil evidently confused the names of Professor Brander Matthews, of Columbia University, and Matthew the well-known Christologist. We apologize to both. St. Matthew was no professor. Professor Matthews is no saint."

lasting effect—the untruthful person has no standing, cannot com-

A box of peaches of the Admiral Dewey variety as well as a twig with a cluster of the same fruit now in the Review window have been greatly admired by many passers by during the past two days.
Perhaps those who most appreciated their all round perfection were fruit growers. These really wonderful specimens are the product of Mr Magnus Iait's orchard.

It is stated that four out of five white men employed at the Greta Ranch have thrown up their positions and gone to Kelowna to join the 30th B. C. Horse. Mr Long the foreman at Greta is left alone with the Chinese laborers. Mr A.
Wright Feather, one of the volunteers from Greta's is well-known in Summerland. Ten recruits for the Horse will go from Peachland.

A pleasant outing which had been planned for last Friday evening consisting of a moonlight cruise on the lake in the "Skookum," and culminating with some jollities at Crescent Beach, had to suffer some modifications on account of inclement weather. Instead, the party gathered at the home of Mrs D. H. Watson, and occupied the evening until a late hour with dancing, cards and such other party amusements.

Reeve Ritchie left on short notice last Tuesday morning to attend to some business matters at Vancouver needing his presence there.
Before going the Reeve, in conversation with the Review, expressed his regret at not being able to be present at the public meeting Tuesday evening, but looked for a good attendance and a hearty response to the appeal from the Imperial Daughters of the Empire.

ENCOURAGING APPRECIATION.
In those quiet times when lack of funds forbids us publishing as good a paper as our ambitions demand, and keep persistently urging to curtail expense, a word of appreciation is certainly encouraging.
Excepting the paying up of subscriptions, advertising or printing accounts, nothing is more helpful than these pats on the back. When accompanied by advance payments they are doubly helpful. Many thanks.
Dear Sirs—I have pleasure in enclosing postal note for $2.00 being my fifth annual subscription of the Review. I look forward to getting the paper every Monday, and read it with as keen interest as I did when I first came home four years ago, although the majority of the names now mentioned are unfamiliar to me. Surely this is a testimony to the quality of the paper.

brook, are her eldest son, Mr S.
M. Estabrook and Mrs Estabrook, who arrived in Summerland on Thursday evening's boat from Oakland, California.

Concluding a pleasant visit to Summerland of two or three months with Mrs R. M. Ross, Mrs Mason and Miss Mason were travellers up the lake on Thursday morning's boat on their return to Webster City, Iowa, via Winnipeg.

The Ladies' Hospital Auxiliary met on Wednesday afternoon in a busy session at the residence of Mrs F. W. Andrew. The ladies were occupied mainly with their

the new hospital, which will be

Mr McCutcheon is moving his Barber Shop from the building it at present occupies adjoining the office of G. A. McWilliams to the half of the James Gartrell building recently vacated by Mrs Hood's dry goods store. The move will be made about the end of the month.

A large sign "Felix Hotel" now surmounts the roof of C. H. Cordy's new hotel on Shaughnessy Avenue, and being plainly visible from the C.P.R. wharf, proclaims to travellers the whereabouts of the Felix. A second sign has also been placed on the east end of the building looking out over the lake.

A passing visitor through Summerland last week-end was Mr M.
Scott, who after spending the summer months in orchard work at Kaleden, went out early this week for his home in Vancouver. He was with Mr and Mrs B. L. Hatfield over the week-end. Mr Scott is the son of S. D. Scott, Editor of the News-Advertiser, Vancouver.

Various references of loyal nature were made in the local church pulpits on Sunday evening last to the present European embroglio. The general sentiment while regretting that there must be the shedding of blood, was satisfied that Britain has not sought the quarrel, and that she has only resorted to the sword when pushed beyond the limit of forbearance.

An apto party of Wenatchee fruit men visited Summerland on Sunday last. They were shown over much of the district by Mr Lawler.
Washington fruit growers are manifesting much interest in this district, several such parties having been here this summer. Amongst other things, our methods of pest control are being studied by our southern neighbors.

Mrs E. M. Hanington of St John, N.B. who has been visiting the western provinces spent last week here with her brother, Scott Dar-kis. Mrs Hanington left on last Monday's boat for Calgary. After spending a few days there she will return to her home in St John. Mrs Hanington took some choice fruit which she purchased from C. H.
Gayton back with her to N.B.

Mr and Mrs J. N. Merrill and family left on Wednesday for their new home in Penticton, where Mr Merrill has secured a position in one of the stores. Mrs Merrill and family accompanied their furniture and effects on the "Skookum" with a scow, and Mr Merrill made the journey by road. Their cottage on Shaughnessy Avenue is to be occupied early next month by Mr and Mrs G. M. Ross.

Miss Mac Conway was the guest of honor at a party attended by about a dozen of her girl friends, given by Mrs. Wellington Watson at her Shaughnessy Avenue home on Thursday afternoon. A presentation made to Miss Conway during the afternoon took her completely by surprise. She headed the list in a guessing contest, and her prize turned out to be a sterling silver pudding dish, subscribed for by her friends, to which she made graceful acknowledgment.

Mrs A. Jones with her young daughter went up the lake to Vernon on Thursday morning, where she will visit for a time.

The Lakeside Stock and Dairy Company begins the harvesting of their third alfalfa crop on Monday.
All three crops have been heavy.

er billed for a men's meeting. He returned on Thursday.

A fire brigade of twenty-four members was organized on Monday night at West Summerland, with
S. R. Fraser captain, and T. B.
Young, vice-captain. The first fire drill was held on Tuesday night, and a practice will be held each Tuesday night at one of the four hydrants, taking each in turn.

FOREST FIRES THREATEN TO WIPE OUT ELKO.

Forest fires threaten to wipe out the town of Elko, B.C., about fifty miles east of Cranbrook. A special train was sent from Fernie and Hosmer with a contingent of men to fight fire. Two large fires are reported at Bull River and Bull River Falls, and the skies farther west are all lit up from another forest fire at Perry Creek. Large forces of men are working hard to control all them.

SECRETS OF SUCCESS.

"What is the secret of success?"
asked the Sphinx.
"Push," said the Button.
"Never be led," said the Pencil.
"Take pains," said the Window.
"Always keep cool," said the Ice.
"Be up-to-date," said the calendar.
"Never lose your head" said the Barrel.
"Make light of everything,"
said the Hammer.
"Aspire to greater things," said the Nutmeg.
"Be sharp in all your dealings," said the Knife.
"Find a good thing and stick to it," said the Glue.
"Do the work you are suited for," said the Chimney.

SYNOPSIS OF COAL MINING REGULATIONS.

COAL MINING RIGHTS of the Dominion, in Manitoba, Saskatchewan, and Alberta, the Yukon Territory, the North-West Territories, and in a portion of the Province of British Columbia, may be leased for a term of twenty-one years at an annual rental of $1 per acre. Not more than 2,560 acres will be leased to one applicant.
Application for a lease must be made by the applicant in person to the Agent or Sub-Agent of the district in which the rights applied for are situated.

In surveyed territory the land must be described by sections, or legal sub-divisions of sections, and in unsurveyed territory the tract applied for shall be staked out by the applicant himself.

Each application must be accompanied by a fee of $5, which will be refunded if the rights applied for are not available, but not otherwise. A royalty shall be paid on the merchantable output of the mine at the rate of five cents per ton.

The person operating the mine shall furnish the Agent with sworn returns accounting for the full quantity of merchantable coal mined and pay the royalty thereon. If the coal mining rights are not being operated, such returns should be furnished at least once a year.
The lease will include the coal mining rights only, but the lessee may be permitted to purchase whatever available surface rights may be considered necessary for the working of the mine at the rate of $10 an acre.

For full information application should be made to the Secretary of the Department of the Interior,
Ottawa, or to any Agent or Sub-Agent of Dominion Lands.

W. W. CORY,
Deputy Minister of the Interior.
N.B.—Unauthorized publication of this advertisement will not be paid for.

CHEAP RATES FOR FRUIT-PICKERS

Victoria, B.C., August 11—It is announced by Mr R. M. Winslow, secretary of the B.C. Fruit Growers' Association, that arrangements have again been made with Mr. H.
W. Brodie, General Passenger Agent, C.P.R., Vancouver, for special rates for fruit pickers to the Okanagan Valley.

These tickets will be good from all stations between Calgary, Alberta, and Vancouver, B.C., and will be good to all stations between Sicamous and Penticton. To parties of ten or more, between August 15th and September 20th inclusive, limited second class round trip tickets will be issued at the price of a one way first class fare for round trip. In previous years these excursions have been made use of, especially from Vancouver, by parties of city dwellers desirous of a change into the open air life in the Okanagan, and the low rates given greatly assisted in securing the necessary help for harvesting the crops in the Okanagan.

The crop reports of the B.C.
Fruit Growers' Association show that there will be a total increase of about 25 per cent. over the fruit and vegetables shipments of last year, and there will be an even greater increase in the amount of canned goods shipped.

This implies a demand for labor, which these excursions are expected to help supply.

MEDALS FOR PROVINCE.

Winnipeg and Brandon Award Highest Honors to B.C. Exhibit.

Mr W. J. Bonavia, Secretary of the Department of Agriculture, has announced that gold medals have been awarded to the British Columbian exhibit at both the Winnipeg and Brandon shows. Mr W.
A. Lang, the Provincial Exhibition Commissioner, reports a splendid attendance at the Winnipeg show, running up to 63,000 a day. He also states that the exhibit of finished woods of this province has attracted a large number of inquiries that should lead to increased business, manufacturer's prices being asked for in a number of cases. The fruit exhibit, as always, was magnificent, and the cynosure of every eye. During the Winnipeg show Mr Lang delivered twenty-four forty-minute lectures on the province in a room next to the exhibit. These addresses were invariably well attended by audiences which took the very keenest interest in the beautiful and elaborate moving pictures of the industries of British Columbia.

BOY SCOUT DOINGS.

(By A Scout.)

The weekly first-aid meeting held on Thursday evening, August 6th, was an unqualified success. The boys are very enthusiastic over their lessons, and Dr Robinson is certainly a capital instructor.

On Saturday afternoon, August 8th, the Naramata Scouts tried their tracking and running tests for Second Class. The seven candidates were put through a severe test, and all passed. The Second Class candidates have now passed all tests, except the Elementary First Aid Test, which will be taken in a few weeks.

Monday evening was a red letter occasion in the history of the Naramata Scouts. A public Court Martial was held in the basement of the church (our temporary headquarters) to investigate the charge laid against two of our comrades for cruelty to animals, which is a violation of the Scout Law. The Boy Scout Governing Council was impelled as a commission to assist the Scoutmaster, who acted in the capacity of Judge, to try the case. The boys had arranged a formidable (?) court room, the prisoner's box being formed entirely of Scout staves. The case was prosecuted by Scout Arthur Stiff, and the prisoners were defended by Patrol Leader Frank Hughes. After a long deliberation, and much explanation from the Judge, which brought out some original wit, the prisoners were honorably acquitted. The boys were gratified by the attendance of a large concourse of parents and friends, who went away with the impression that the boys "acquitted themselves like men."

It is thought that, in the course of another week or ten days the power plant will be able to again resume operations and the electric fluid will again be flashed along the wires.

An Interesting Visitor.

Miss Crawford, a sister of Mrs John Firstbrook, who was a guest for a few days this week at Hotel Naramata, has quite an interesting history. This woman, though possessed of considerable means, years ago felt called upon to devote her life to some form of missionary endeavor, when her sympathies for those in need could find ready expression. She found her opportunity in Oklahoma, where for fifteen years she ministered to the needs of the Indians. Miss Crawford's teachings are of the practical kind. She believed in going right among the people she was to help, and teaching them how to live after practical Christian standards. Her efforts have proved so fruitful of good success that she has been asked by the American Baptist Missionary Board to prepare a book setting forth in detail her methods of dealing with the whole problem of Indian Missions. This work is already pretty well on the way and will be hastened to completion upon the author's return to New York.

WHY MUTTON IS SCARCE.

When the state levys taxes sufficiently high to curtail the number of unnecessary dogs and put upon the dog owner the burden of keeping the animals off other people's farms, then the sheep industry will have a fair chance to contribute as it should to the nation's meat supply.—Canadian Live Stock News.

J. M. Cameron of Kelowna, of the Water Rights Survey staff, was in town on Monday.

A large crowd from town went up to Kelowna on Thursday to take in the closing day of sports at the regatta.

A number of the recruits for the corps of infantry now being formed in the Valley are from our own town boys.

Mr and Mrs Arnett of Summerland spent a few hours in town on Wednesday on their way to Penticton.

W. J. Robinson with his wife and young daughter were over to Hotel Naramata on Wednesday for a short visit.

The Saturday afternoon tennis tournaments, in spite of the rather warm weather, continue to draw the enthusiast out on the green.

The ladies of the Club are now all attention as regards the Carnival Concert the program for which is now in course of preparation.

Mr and Mrs Carroll Aikens, with the former's mother and sister Mary, accompanied by Miss Gladys Robinson formed quite a jolly auto party as far south as Okanagan Falls.

It is reported by the engineers in charge of the water rights survey, that another and still better area for a storage dam has been discovered some four miles farther back than the company's present site.

The Syndica House has recently added to the equipment of their popular house a full line of hotel ware, each piece bearing a pleasing design, which latter, by the way, emanated from Mr Fred Roe himself.

Dr Robinson is his own patient this week since Monday morning, suffering from a broken wrist. The mishap occurred as he was cranking a gasoline launch preparatory to taking the craft out on a trip to Summerland.

Mr Harold Bignall of Kamloops, the young painter who had the contract for painting the school here has dropped his brush and is off to the war having enrolled in the B.C. Horse. Mr George Dempsey, of Penticton, is finishing the contract.

School will re-open after another week's time, that is, on Monday, August 24th. The fine new building will, it is expected, be ready for occupancy by that time. As intimated some months ago from a glance over the plans, the structure will be a credit to the town and community.

The address delivered on Sunday afternoon by Rev H. A. Solly, rector of Summerland was opportune, dealing as it did in a comprehensive way on the subject of war, showing the broad principles for justification in the part of the British Empire for engaging in the present strife.

Mr J. L. Logie, as right-of-way man representing the Kettle Valley Railway, and Mr J. S. Gillespie, representing Mr John Firstbrook, the owner of the MacKay pre-emption immediately east of town, through which the line has cut a path, have failed to come to an agreement as to the value of the land so claimed by the railway.

The open court conducted on Monday night as part of the Boy Scout training—though necessarily farcical, was by no means devoid of educational features. Mr Frank Hughes as legal light defending the accused, played his part admirably; while Master Arthur Stiff did splendidly for a start on the heavier part of prosecuting attorney.

Acting under instructions from the I.O.D.E., Mrs Cash assisted by Mrs Dr Robinson are endeavoring to collect a donation from the ladies of Naramata to provide the fund for the hospital ship shortly to be presented by the aforementioned body to the Canadian Navy as a woman's donation. If by any means any lady has been overlooked, Mrs Cash or Mrs Robinson would be pleased to be let know in some way most convenient.

Picnic at Tunnel Camp.

Probably what will go down in history as the most unique picnic ever recorded was held on Tuesday of this week. The picnic was unique in several respects. Most picnics are for fun, for amusement, for sport, and everyone present had heaps and heaps of all that sort of thing—yet all worked like beavers. Most picnics consist of mixed crowds—of both sexes. This Tuesday crowd was a mixed one—of boys of different ages—and one or two moving spirits among the men folks. A half dozen boys, members of the Scout troop were asked if they would care to while away a few hours tearing down a couple of shacks up at the now famous tunnel camp in return for a jolly outing with lots of the good things which the Syndica chef and the Carbonating Works supply.

Upon arrival at their destination which they reached at an early hour, a telephone was connected with existing wires formerly used for railway construction, and by this means the boys were informed of the latest war bulletins from time to time.

Mr Fred Roe and Mr Harry Pitman, scoutmaster, were the moving spirits behind the move, the purpose of which is largely to provide suitable swimming quarters for the boys.

The lads one and all are loud in their praises of the way they were used and found that by turning the work into play they could make life a real joy to themselves and a blessing to others.

Mr John McPherson, of the Oiled Clothing Works, Guelph, came in on Sunday and paid a short visit to his uncle, Thompson Elliott. When he went out on Wednesday morning he was accompanied as far as Sicamous by his cousin, Bert Elliott, who went to Vancouver for a short visit.

The Peachland recruits to the number of about a dozen, among whom were Thorn, Laidlaw, Wilson, Morrison, Aitkens, Henderson, Feathers, Chapman and Jones, left on Wednesday morning for Kelowna to join the soldiers. As they passed the road camp a salute of blasts was given by the men there under James Michael, to which the "Sicamous" replied. As they left the C.P.R. wharf the citizens raised some rousing cheers which were answered in kind by the boys, and the boat again helped in the enthusiasm. Messrs Rooke and Salt accompanied the boys to Kelowna.

The painstaking artist, anxious to please, remarked to a prospective customer, "I can print you a portrait of your wife which will be a speaking likeness." "I'm—couldn't you do it in what they call still life?"

SCHOOL TRUSTEES AWARD CONVEYANCE CONTRACTS.

The regular monthly meeting of the Board of School Trustees was held last Thursday when the outstanding business was awarding contracts for conveying the children to the Central School for the ensuing year.

Several tenderers were in attendance on the Board to make any explanation necessary, and after investigating the tenders submitted the Board accepted the following:

Route 1, Trout Creek — G. R. Hookham & Co., $1.50 per single trip.

Route 2, Town — D. C. Thompson, $1.20 per single trip.

Route 3, Giant's Head — T. J. Garnett, $1.20 per single trip.

Route 4, Prairie Valley — J. H. Bowering, $1 per single trip.

In the majority of these contracts the lowest tender was accepted, but for the Giant's Head route three tenders of equal amount were received.

Mr. S. H. Adams of Garnett Valley waited upon the Board desiring to know whether his two children, who have now passed the highest grade taught in the ward school will still be allowed to attend there, the teacher giving them entrance work, or whether attendance at the Central School will be necessary. He sought this privilege on account of the distance from the Central. This was a question upon which the Board felt it would be desirable to have the advice of the Department of Education. If the ruling from Victoria permits of the course suggested by Mr. Adams, and the teacher is willing to undertake the extra work, it may be carried through, otherwise the matter will have to be adjusted in some other way.

The results of the High School and Entrance examinations were discussed, but not in any deliberative manner. The High School results seem to be considered satisfactory by the Board. It now seems that there will not be the same need for a second teacher in the High School, as it was at one time thought there would be. There is not likely to be a matriculation class from present indications, in which case there would be only two classes, instead of three, carried on last year by Mr. Forsyth.

The Entrance results, while numerically not as satisfactory as the High School results are still not to be considered discouraging, the opinion being expressed that this coming year will witness greater progress and better results, due in a measure to the settled condition of the school.

ALKALI LAND TREATMENT.

"Alkali" is an accumulation of soluble salts, formed from the weathering of the rocks, and retained in the soil because of insufficient rainfall to leach them out into the streams and thence to the sea. The heavier precipitations in the mountains and highlands causes a partial leaching of these salts and a resulting concentration in low places in sufficient quantity to injure plants or wholly prevent their growth. The New Mexico College of Agriculture makes the following observations:

The term "white alkali" is a misnomer, since the salts composing this "alkali" are all neutral. Sodium chloride (common salt), sodium sulphate (glauber's salt), and magnesium sulphate (epsom salts), are the salts usually present in this alkali. They are associated with some carbonate of lime and gypsum that are not only harmless, but may be beneficial.

The term "black alkali" is given to carbonate and bicarbonate of soda (sal soda and baking soda). They are true alkalies, and because of this property, will corrode the stems of plants. For this reason they are very much more injurious than the neutral salts constituting white alkali. They are called "black alkali" because they dissolve humus and form a black deposit when brought to the surface during dry seasons. Black alkali cannot exist in the presence of gypsum, which is its chemical antidote. Since gypsum is present in the waters of many western rivers, such as the Rio Grande, no soil irrigated with this water will be troubled with black alkali. The moist "grassy" spots in that valley, sometimes called black alkali, are more likely due to some of the neutral deliquescent salt called calcium chloride, mixed with the white alkali salts named above.

No chemical antidote is known for white alkali, as is the case for the black alkali. It must therefore be removed by mechanical means. When the water-table is so near the surface that capillarity is established (i.e. "subbed land") the only remedy is drainage. In practically all the soils of the Rio Grande that are troubled with alkali, it is due to the "subbing" of the soil from a rise in the water-table. Experience has shown that where "subbed" lands have been drained they are rendered highly productive.

FREIGHT RATES REDUCED.

New tariffs indicating a general downward movement in the freight rates are now being received at the local freight office. These new tariffs go into effect at September 1st. The rate to such centres as Vancouver, Calgary etc. are not materially affected though to some of the smaller points there is a considerable reduction.

The first through car of freight billed for West Summerland came down the lake on Tuesday. It was by mistake landed at the wharf, but was at once re-shipped to West Summerland via Penticton over the K.V.R. The car contained material for the Ritchie Lumber Yard.

Alkali can sometimes be leached from the surface to the underflow waters, or beyond the point at which they are likely to rise by capillarity to the surface.

Attempts to wash the surface accumulations to a lower locality are not very successful, because of their extreme solubility and the readiness with which they soak into the soil. Attempts to remove alkali by "absorbing" it with certain growing crops have proved very successful.

Frequent cultivation and irrigation, or any treatment that will prevent the surface accumulation, is desirable, because the damage is likely to result near the surface; hence the alkali should be kept down.

Fruit trees, as a rule, are quite sensitive to alkali. Pears and figs are the most resistant. Cottonwoods, mulberries and willows are resistant ornamental trees.

Kaffir corn, milo maize, and all the sorghums are quite resistant to alkali, as are also barley, and, apparently, some varieties of wheat. Bermuda grass will stand large amounts of alkali as will old alfalfa, unless the alkali is from "subbed" land, in which case the alfalfa might die from excess of water around its roots.

The forest fire, the smoke of which has been plainly visible from Summerland, rolling up from the hilltops south east of Naramata, has, according to the Penticton Herald, done serious damage to the water shed supplying water to Penticton's irrigation system. Starting from a fisherman's camp fire, the fire spread over an area of 2,000 acres, destroying standing timber estimated at 1,000,000 feet. The area around Penticton Creek is completely denuded, which will result in the creek drying early in the season.

In an agricultural sense the man who tills the soil fills the bill.

GERMANS MAKE NEW MOVE.

Paris, August 20.—The Germans have gained ground on both banks of the river Meuse both yesterday and today, and are now in contact with the Allies, finding the roads to southward strongly held by the French have discovered an opening towards France to the north, a fact which may necessitate an abrupt change of strategy on both sides. An official announcement at Metz that a portion of the Belgian army had begun to retire towards Antwerp. East of Namur the Germans have attained a line between Dinant and Neuf Chateau, and German outposts have occupied Dyle, while large forces continue to cross the Meuse between Liege and Namur.

Trustworthy reports have been received of an engagement near Charleroi, 20 miles west of Namur, where 6,000 Germans are said to have been killed. There is heavy fighting going on in the forest of Soignes near Wavre to the southeast of Brussels. The hospitals of the Belgian capital are filled with wounded. The fate of the Liege forts is not definitely known. German dispatches describe them as having fallen, but Belgian authorities maintain that they are still holding out bravely. German troops are reported a short distance southeast of Antwerp. The Germans in great force, mostly cavalry and artillery entered Tivernont yesterday afternoon. While the big guns shelled the towns the German cavalry played brutally at war by making flying attacks on the panic-stricken population, shooting and bayonetting them with wanton savagery.

An engagement has been proceeding in Northern Luxembourg and to the south the French have penetrated to Morhange in Northern Lorraine, a short distance from the city of Metz.

Madrid, August 20.—King Alfonso with Premier Bontas have conferred with the French and British Ambassadors at Madrid concerning Spain's attitude.

Women's Efforts Make Successful Flower Show

Institute General Exhibition To-day's Attraction.

The activity of members of the Summerland Women's Institute in the corner section of the Empire Hall Block during the past few days has shown that the work of arranging the exhibits for the annual flower and fancy work show has been under way. This exhibition has become one of the fixtures of the local calendar, and is welcomed especially as being almost exclusively "the women's show."

Indications this morning were that the high standard of general excellence which all sections have shown will be well maintained, and in its interest to the public at large the show grows year by year. On the left of the hall are arranged the needlecraft exhibits in great variety, which as usual will be a source of admiration and appreciation to the women, and a wonderment to unskilled men folk.

To the daintiness which deft fingers can achieve there seems no limit, for though each show brings out some exhibits which one would think were unapproachable in excellence of workmanship, yet each succeeding show brings forth new marvels of embroidery and fancy work. In the centre are arranged the floral exhibits in which cut flowers figure conspicuously in vases and baskets. The variety of color will attract the visitor, and the specimens shown should be convincing enough to any who are in doubt as to the adaptability of this location for floriculture. It is safe to say that if the inducements which the climate offers to the culture of blooms were taken full advantage of, this section of the exhibition, good as it is, would be much larger, and not the least of the beneficial influences of the show is the popularizing of the culture of beautiful flowers.

On the far side are the exhibits that, if not the most conspicuous, are yet those which approach the core of housewifery, and where at least a man may look on with some vestige of understanding. These are the proofs of housekeeping skill in bread, biscuits, fruit and preserves of all kinds, which show that while the skilful needle has a large part in woman's sphere, the arts of food preparation have also their share of importance.

In the window has been arranged a novel and fitting decorative effect in the rows of "tin top" baskets in which fruit has been mixed, forming an original and striking array of color and lusciousness.

On the raised platform in the hall rear refreshments will be served this evening, and the public are asked to patronize this part of the Institute's endeavors as generously as possible.

It is not possible at this time of writing to comment in detail on the exhibition; but next week will be published the list of prize-winners. Enough can be seen, however, to say that the show is an assured success, and that in large measure due to the whole-hearted efforts of the women in charge, the various committees and helpers, as well as to the support of the people of the district. Do not fail to attend this afternoon and evening, and add your presence to the success of the show.

Had it not been noticed at the start and quick action taken a fire which was discovered in the east end of the Supply Co's. oil shed back of their branch store must have quickly assumed serious proportions and done much damage. The origin of the fire is a mystery, though conditions would point to spontaneous combustion. The blaze started on the outside of the building and was immediately noticed, the first on the scene being J. E. Phinney, who applied two buckets of water, followed up by E. R. Butler with a fire extinguisher, which completely extinguished the blaze just as the fire brigade appeared on the scene. The work of the latter was prompt and commendable.

But little interest was manifested in the auction sale of lands for taxes held on Tuesday the 18th. With the exception of one five acre lot which was bid in by a private citizen all the properties were purchased by the Municipality.

Regular Meeting Of Municipal Council.

Barely a Quorum. Only Routine Business. Ok. Tel. Co. Claiming Damages.

There was barely a quorum present at the regular monthly meeting of the Municipal Council on the afternoon of the 13th, Reeve Ritchie and Councillor Simpson being absent. Coun. Blair was appointed to the chair.

A number of communications were dealt with including claims for rebate on water charge and one or two complaints of shortage of water supply. R. M. H. Turner called the attention of the Council to the condition of the road in Peach Valley. This was referred to the Superintendent.

The Okanagan Telephone Company are claiming damages for alleged arrest of their men and for delay in the work of reconstructing their pole lines. The Clerk was instructed to reply to their communication disclaiming responsibility.

A letter from the Board of Trade called the attention of the Council to weeds along the sidewalks, and also condition of the sidewalk around Empire Block. The Council by motion asked that the Reeve ascertain why the weeds referred to had not been cut, and also that the Clerk write Mr J. M. Robinson with reference to the sidewalks around Empire Block asking that proper doors be placed in openings leading to basement.

The Public Works Committee were instructed to prepare specifications for fence along turn in Gulch Road, and to ask for tenders for building same. The Clerk was instructed to endeavor to arrange to adjust with E. N. Rowley the latter's claim for the road crossing his lot beside the Gulch Road.

DOM. FRUIT COMR. JOHNSON VISITS THIS DISTRICT.

Dominion Fruit Commissioner, Mr Donald Johnson, was a visitor to Summerland on Sunday. Mr Johnson, who has recently come from the East, has just completed a tour of Yakima and Wenatchee districts in company with Mr R. M. Winslow, Provincial Horticulturist, and on Saturday they attended a meeting of the B.C. Fruit Growers' Association at Penticton, of which the latter is Secretary. Mr Johnson's duties lie particularly along the line of marketing and the enforcing of the Canadian Fruit Marks Act, including the maintenance of standard pack, grading, etc.

Speaking to the Review Mr Johnson told of the great improvement made in the east by the Dominion's new method of superintending the grading and packing of apples. He found the crop conditions in Washington generally better than last year, but not as good as 1912.

Mr Johnson, who was the guest here of his friend, Mr J. L. Hilborn, left on Monday morning for an official tour of the Okanagan district.

Messrs. Winslow and Hoy, who came up from Penticton on Sunday and spent the afternoon here with Mr Johnson, returned that same evening.

Irrigationists of West Hold Large Convention at Penticton.

Squad of Speakers Give Lucid Addresses on Kindred Topics.

In spite of the distracting influence of the European crisis, which at the present time is diverting public attention from industrial undertakings, the Eighth Annual Irrigation Convention of the Western Canada Irrigation Association, which concluded at Penticton on Wednesday, proved to be in point of instructive value, the most successful convention since the inception of the association.

The holding of this convention here, and its value as a representative gathering of practically every district of Western Canada where agriculture or horticulture is on the basis of a commercial industry, is a practical recognition of the great potential wealth possessed by the districts of the Southern Okanagan.

In almost every instance the delegates were visiting the Valley for the first time, and they were amazed at the evident productiveness of the soil, and the great apparent possibilities that exist for the farmer.

Probably in the history of the province no larger gathering of experts in all branches of soil and animal husbandry have ever met before. While the matter read and discussed before the delegates was of necessity voluminous, its great practical worth, and value to horticulturist and agriculturist, can only be gauged by the time and money spent in its compilation, and by knowledge gleaned at first hand by governments, corporations, and farmers themselves.

The speech delivered by Mr C. L. Smith, agriculturist for the O.W.R. & N. Railway, of Portland, Oregon, was one of the features of the first day's session. Mr Smith, speaking from over twenty-eight years' experience in his position, discussed the congenial topic of "Diversified Farming," making a strong plea for the making of homes, which he considered were the essential element of success in agriculture.

"The man," declared the speaker, "who merely lives on the land to make money, and who specializes it to death, generally proves a special failure, for the reason that all his eggs are in one basket. My advice to the farmer is: Endeavor to make a home, and to raise all those things which you and your family require. Don't raise a super-abundance of peaches and buy condensed milk and canned meat and vegetables. That is not farming. Don't plant more of one perishable crop than you can afford to lose. Then if some one thing on your farm is a failure you have other resources to fall back on."

Tracing the history of successful farming Mr Smith pointed out that in order to practice economy and to utilize every available means of benefitting the land which was producing crops, it was necessary to put something back into the soil as well as to take something out. This could only be successfully accomplished by keeping stock.

"The cow, the hen, the pig," he declared are the original mortgage lifters. They beat any loan company on the face of the earth."

Hon. Price Ellison in the course of an address of welcome, during which he greeted the delegates on behalf of the Premier and other members of the government, referred to the tremendous amount of money that is yearly being paid for imports. Last year $20,000,000 had been spent for food stuffs, the greater portion of which it would have been possible to raise in the province. The distribution of this amount of money would create a very prosperous condition in B.C., could such be accomplished. He considered it a discredit to the agricultural industry that such a condition should obtain.

Dr Frank Shutt of the Dominion Experimental Farm at Ottawa referred to the efforts of the government to place the farming industry on a practically scientific basis in the provinces of Canada. He referred to former visits to British Columbia, and of his faith in the great potentialities which the agricultural field held for the settler here.

He looked for a time when the products of this industry would at least be able to satisfy the demand created provincially.

The address of welcome tendered on the first day by Reeve R. S. Conklin, was a sparkling example of wit, and his jolly welcome to the delegates, their wives and the large crowd of visitors, cast an atmosphere of goodwill and humor about the early proceedings of the convention that made the morning session on Monday particularly enjoyable.

Mr E. Foley Bennett, President of the Board of Trade, in an eloquent speech, referred with characteristic aptitude to the great benefit which he felt sure would be derived from those seeking instruction at the convention. He also called attention to the fact that it had been thought advisable to postpone the convention on account of the diversion of interest that would naturally result on account of the war. He was very glad that this had not been done, as even in times of war commercial enterprises must flourish to sustain the nation, and business interests must be attended to, and channels of commerce kept open. He felt, as no doubt every Britisher did, that there was no question of the ultimate success of British arms. She was fighting for a right and just cause, and he felt that with her colonial troops backing up her every move that the safety of the Empire was undoubted.

Secretary Rankin's report indicated that about $7,000 worth of advertising had been secured for Penticton through the convention being held there.

Hon. George Harcourt, Deputy Minister of Agriculture, Alberta, felt greatly pleased with the possibilities of the country, which he was seeing for the first time. He hoped that in time it would be possible to grow fruit on the prairies, that is the larger varieties, as the smaller ones already flourish.

Concurring with the remarks of Mr C. L. Smith in respect of farming and stock raising combined, the speaker pointed out that prairie farmers were just coming to the knowledge that it was impossible to make money out of wheat alone. They could not run their farms by growing grain, and buy all other farm products at large prices in the markets. Three crops of alfalfa were being grown yearly at Lethbridge, and herds of cattle were making their appearance on farms where formerly there were none.

Arthur Hooker, secretary of the International Irrigation Association Oregon, gave a resume of the history of the organization since its beginning in 1906, and extended a cordial invitation for all delegates to visit the next convention at Calgary, on October 5th to 9th.

The business of the morning session on Monday was concluded by the appointment of a committee on credentials. A committee was also appointed on resolutions.

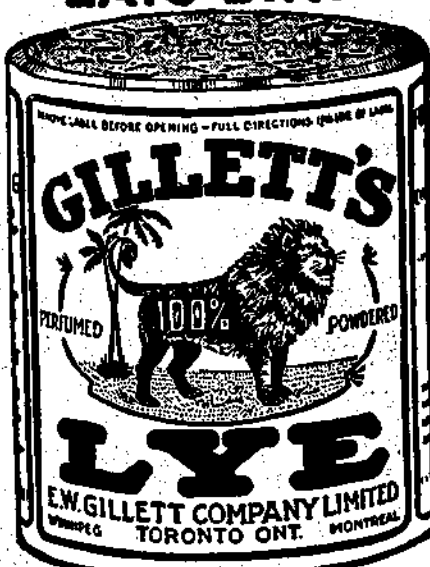

Monday afternoon session provided a genuine treat in the form of lectures by Mr S. G. Porter of the Department of the Interior at Calgary, who spoke on the practice and operation of irrigation works. Mr Porter gave an interesting illustration of the tremendous waste of water in irrigation. It was common, he stated, for only about 28 per cent of the water taken in at the head gate of the system to be utilized in actually nourishing plant life. Of the balance about 28 per cent was lost in evaporation, run off and percolation, 19 per cent lost in laterals, and 25 per cent lost in the main canal.

Comparing the advantage of irrigating grain crops Mr Porter illustrated with diagrams how crops planted at the same time, but irrigated at different periods, developed. It was highly important that when the growing season was short to urge along the growth with all expedition.

OUR NARAMATA SECTION

GILLETT'S LYE EATS DIRT

(By A Scout.)

Our Tuesday evening meeting last week was devoted to discussing plans as to what sort of item the Scouts would present at the Gipsy Carnival, to be held in a week's time. A patriotic tableau was hit upon as a good thing, and it was decided to hold a rehearsal every night except Wednesdays and Sundays.

Owing to Dr Robinson's accident, the First Aid meetings have been discontinued indefinitely, greatly to the disappointment of our budding doctors.

The remainder of our time has been devoted to the rehearsals.

A brief summary of our plans may be taken from the following: Gee! but things are going fine! All our stunts are right in line. The Scouts are busy through the days, trying tricks, rehearsing plays. Our boys are building up their frames

From exercise they get in games. Of swimmers, too, we have the best.

All our boys can pass their test. While for signalling, tracking and First Aid,

All our winter plans are laid. In orators, we are right on deck, and after our speech our boys can trek.

Our finance, too, is not behind. For each Scout does his money find.

Farmers' Institute.

On Friday evening last there was a fair attendance at the meeting of the members of the Farmers' Institute. Little but routine business was transacted and what new business there was grew out of the report of the committee on water rights investigation. Everything that can be done is being shoved forward with all possible speed consistent with efficiency. From the discussion that followed it is not at all unlikely that there will be a start made this very fall to construct a dam in a certain spot indicated by the engineers. For even if the money for the project is not and cannot be obtained at once, the money is in sight. Towards the close of the evening three delegates were chosen to represent the Institute at the Western Canada Irrigation Convention. These were President H. J. Wells, T. H. Boothe and H. P. Salting.

Good turns unnumbered, every day, are done at work and while at play. Of us the girls have jealous got, and though they sneer and jeer a lot,

Why, we should worry like a coin, and fade away, they'd like to join. Are we in it? Well, I guess! Naramata Boy Scouts, Yes! Yes!! Yes!!! All doubters now are in full rout. Signed with apologies by
A SCOUT.

Current Events — OF — Town & District

Mr Walter Talbot was in town on Monday.

Mr N. Mitchell and sister Bessie were visitors at their home this last week-end.

Mr W. Nuttall spent the week-end at his home returning to the dam on Monday.

Mr E. E. Steers of Osprey Lake was in town for a few hours on Monday renewing acquaintances.

Mr J. M. Robinson and son Jack spent the fore part of the week in Penticton, in attendance at the convention.

Mr S. Somerville with his young son and daughter were among the guests registered this week at Hotel Naramata.

Amongst the list of Syndica tourist visitors this week are Mrs S. D. Colquette and boys, and Mrs W. R. French and child.

Mr J. Cameron, of the survey staff, was in town for a few hours on Tuesday, and returned to camp after a short business trip to Penticton.

Dr W. L. Robinson, who sprained his wrist a week ago has not as yet been able to take off the bandage, but it is expected to be free to do so shortly.

Mr J. S. Gillespie is still confined to his rooms not having as yet recovered from the severe eye strain which has made it imperative to remain indoors.

Mr Roy Boothe has accepted a position in the survey party at present working east of town on the Water Rights project, and enters upon his work next week.

Messrs H. J. Wells, T. H. Boothe and H. P. Salting attended the Irrigation Convention at Penticton this week as delegates representing the Farmers' Institute.

Mrs Ireland received by wire from Toronto the sad intelligence of the death of her brother, J. H. Moulton, for years a trusted employee of the Robt. Simpson Co.

A full report of the pleasant little outing given under the auspices of the local Sunday School yesterday afternoon, Thursday, is of necessity held over till next week. Look for it.

Mrs J. M. Robinson, who has been suffering from a slight indisposition partly as a result of the continuous hot spell—apparently now over—is reported to be very much improved.

Dr Spencer, field secretary for Okanagan College, spent Tuesday of this week in town in the interests of that popular school of learning. Despite the hard times a very fair amount was contributed towards the liquidation of the present debit balance on the College accounts.

Mr and Mrs Jas. Dean, for some years residents of Naramata, went out on Monday on route to Montreal, in which city they purpose taking up residence for the winter, with a view to making their stay a permanent one. They were accompanied by Squire Hill, who will probably remain for some time too, in the Canadian metropolis.

Mr Harold Mason had a somewhat uncanny experience with a big black bear one night last week while sleeping in his lonely cabin some miles back, where he is guarding from the possible danger from fire an immense pile of railway ties. The cabin is a rude log structure with a wide aperture just above the door to admit of light and fresh air. Some time in the night Mr Mason was aroused by the tramping and scratching of one or more animals about his door. It proved to be bruin in search of food. Being without a rifle there was nothing to do but to get up and bar the door securely and wait till morning. Since that time the solitary watchman has wisely prepared himself to watch for bears as well as fires.

Of all crops alfalfa stands at the head of the list, alphabetically and otherwise. In the matter of digestible protein, alfalfa leads with 12.3 per cent., surpassing even wheat bran by 1.1 per cent.

Current Events.

Mr and Mrs W. H. Price and two daughters, Miss Alma and Thelma, returned on this morning's boat to Calgary. Mr Price is a well-known C.P.R. conductor, whose present run is from Calgary to Lethbridge.

An interesting sight as viewed from town on Wednesday morning was that of the first excursion train run from Penticton to the big tunnel and back. The free trip over this section of the road was part of the entertainment furnished the visiting delegates and their friends. Amongst those from town who took in the trip were H. P. Salting and Mrs Salting, T. H. Boothe and son Roy Boothe.

A jolly little riding party composed of Miss Warren and her sister, Miss D. Warren and Miss Billings, their escorts being Messrs Gordon, McKay and Burgess, came up from Penticton this week for an outing. The ride from Naramata to Penticton is a pleasant one with diversified scenery all the way, and it is somewhat surprising that more don't avail themselves of the pleasure of such outings.

Contractor Footner announces that the school will not be ready for occupancy till about Thursday or Friday of next week, and consequently it is not likely that school will open for another week. This delay will help the Trustees out somewhat in their search for teachers, as the Board has not settled upon a staff, but it is hoped that within a few days they will be prepared to make an announcement.

The beautiful appearance presented at this time of writing of the grounds in the immediate vicinity of Hotel Naramata prove a delight to the eye of every lover of nature. There is certainly nothing to equal it in any of the interior towns of British Columbia, and it reflects all the more credit upon the gardener, Mr Bruce, when you consider that the greater part of the time he has been without an assistant.

Messrs A. Noyes and Gerald Roe took another of their periodic outings to their pre-emption west of Summerland. On previous occasions they have gone up on horseback, but as roads all the way now, since railway construction, are very good they took a team and drove all the way. They were accompanied by Mr Rowley, the veteran trapper and trailer, who also owns a choice piece of land adjoining, and whose cabin the three fellows shared. All returned on Monday of this week highly delighted with their new holdings—now greatly increased in value as a result of the new railway line going past their very door. If a real estate man were to hear of this, he'd surely say, "Just what I've been telling you all along. Buy land, and do it now."

Potato Bug Appears.

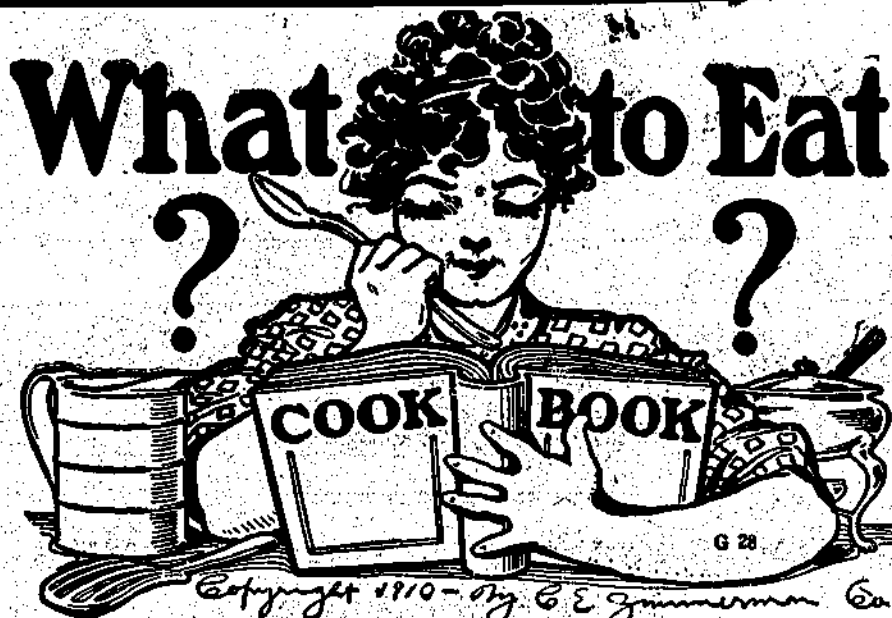

Discovery in Spokane Garden May Lead to Extension Of Quarantine.

The Colorado potato beetle, known to most growers as the common potato bug, has been discovered in a potato patch at Spokane, Washington, according to information received by Inspector Thos. Cunningham. This is the nearest that this pest has yet come to British Columbia, and it is altogether likely that the quarantine against potatoes from California will be extended against all the states to the south of this province. The potato bug devastated the tuber crops of Colorado, where it originated, and is one of the worst garden pests that the Ontario and Eastern growers have to contend with. The efforts of the insect pests department have so far prevented the potato bug from coming to this side of the Canadian Rockies.

DAIRY CATTLE FOR B.C.

Mr W. T. McDonald, livestock commissioner for the province, has stated that a shipment of pure-bred and grade Ayrshires is due to arrive at Nakusp this week from Quebec. This is in pursuance of the policy of the government, begun last year, of selecting and importing good dairy cattle to be sold at auction (free of cost of transportation) to the ranchers of British Columbia. The Ayrshires have been selected for the district around Nakusp by special request of the farmers of the neighborhood.

The balance must, by hook or by crook, be forthcoming by the middle of September, or the Hospital will start in debt, a position of affairs to be most certainly avoided if possible. It is hoped therefore, that the citizens of Summerland will realize their responsibility in this matter and come forward in their usual open-handed manner in paying up to any fund worthy of their support.

Okanagan Women's Ambulance League.

On Monday afternoon, 17th August, a meeting of the ladies of Summerland was called at the home of Mrs Hanington, having for its object the forming of an Ambulance League by the women of the Okanagan.

Mrs Cartwright, who was in the chair, stated the object of the meeting, and with Mr William Sauter, one of the originators of the idea, explained the proposed workings of the league. The proper official authorities will be approached to learn what is most needed by an ambulance corps, and the expense of supplying such needs.

In order to raise the money and perform the actual work, entertainments of various kinds will be given, sewing bees held, talents of different kinds used, so that all may share in sending in practical form the Okanagan's sympathy with and deep concern in the conflict into which the Empire has been drawn.

Officers elected were:
Mrs Andrew, President.
Mrs A. Stark, Vice-President.
Mrs H. A. Solly Treasurer.
Mrs E. B. May, Secretary.

Entertainment Committee—Mrs Hutton, Mrs May, Mrs Fosbery, Mrs Agur, Mrs Hanington, Mrs G. Ross, Mrs Van Allan, Mrs F. A. C. Wright, Miss Clouston, Miss Cartwright.

Press Committee—Mrs Buchan Reesor, Mrs W. C. W. Fosbery, Miss Neve.

Doreas Committee—General Committee—Mrs Somerset Alkins, Mrs Hector Sutherland, Mrs James Ritchie, Mrs Angove, Mrs Lee, Mrs Arnett, Mrs Daly, Mrs W. J. Robinson, Mrs Webb, Mrs Reesor, Miss Cooper.

Anyone may become a member of the Okanagan Women's Ambulance League by the payment of 25c. to the treasurer, Mrs Solly, and it is the sincere wish of the officials that every woman in Summerland join.

Other towns in the Okanagan will be communicated with in regard to forming leagues, all leagues to be embodied in the one common interest of helping the injured and ill at the scene of battle.

The first entertainment is proposed for the evening of September 9th, in Empire Hall, a meeting for the program arrangement of which was held at the home of Major and Mrs Hutton, on Thursday evening, when a program was arranged.

The members of the Doreas Committee of the League will be glad of assistance in the donation of material for hospital wear, bandages, etc., etc., as well as women to assist in the sewing.

Whatever in all Okanagan districts is raised in the way of money, or donated, or made, in the way of suitable clothing for the needs of sickness, will be from the Okanagan Women's Ambulance League, and if conditions so shape themselves, an Okanagan Ambulance Corps may be formed. With this object in view classes will be given instruction in First Aid and Red Cross methods but more of this later on.

DEATH OF THOS. BUCHANAN.

Much sympathy is felt for the family of Dr and Mrs Buchanan, whose eldest son, Tom, lost his life as the result of an accident early on Saturday morning. He was employed as night watchman on the Naramata section of the Kettle Valley Railway, and having completed his duties for the night, was boarding a moving train to return to his home, when he slipped and fell between the cars. He was much cut and bruised, and both his legs were almost severed from his body. It was while the Doctor was removing a leg some time afterwards that he died, the shock proving too great for him. The funeral from the Methodist Church to which the body was taken on the arrival of the Monday morning boat, was largely attended. Several wreaths of flowers, the gifts of sympathizing friends were laid on the casket.

Tom was captain of the Penticton war canoe crew, and much liked by all his companions, who are sorry that the young promising life has been cut off so suddenly.

He who climbs above the cares of the world and turns his face to his God has found the sunny side of life.—Havergal.

EAST JOINS WEST.

OVERSHADOWED by the great conflict in Europe, there was chronicled briefly during the past week an event which, were it to have its due, would be the talk of all nations, even as the war is. The completion of the Panama Canal has been termed one of the triumphs of peace, and its opening to the maritime traffic of all nations will give new character to the world of commerce. The first vessel to pass through the canal in an official sense was an U.S.A. vessel, the "Ancon," which entered the Atlantic end of the canal and emerged into the Pacific fifty miles distant about eight hours later.

The work of building the canal has been one of the greatest engineering exploits of all time. Enormous difficulties confronted the builders. Disease lurked along its route and it was only after a remarkable efficient sanitary department had drained the swamps and taken other precautionary measures that it was safe to proceed with the work. The operations were removed entirely from the field of party politics and the best engineers in the nation were entrusted with their supervision. The governments have stood loyally by the enterprise with all the resources at their command, with the result that the canal has been completed ahead of time.

Its cost will be in the neighborhood of $450,000,000. For this expenditure, borne entirely by the people of one nation, the world may avail itself of an improvement whose value to its commerce and development cannot be over-estimated. That fifty miles of water will awake to energy and achievement districts whose progress up to this time has been sporadic and insubstantial. We confidently expect it will be of immense advantage to our own province in common with the entire Pacific slope of the two continents it has severed.

IF A PROJECT which is now being considered by the large fruit growers of the Interior of the province matures very shortly there will go forward to the people of England, as a gift from this province, a shipment of 100,000 boxes of prime apples. The matter is now before the government in the form of a proposal advanced by Fruit Inspector Cunningham, who voices the wishes of a number of the leading fruit growers in the province. As considerable expense would attach to such a large shipment for early delivery, the co-operation of the government is sought, and a final decision in the matter will be reached almost immediately. In the event of the proposal taking definite shape, it is assumed that opportunity will be offered the fruit growers of the Okanagan to contribute from their orchards to the shipment. British Columbia apples have already a great reputation in the Old Country, and, aside from the real benefit which would be conferred upon the people by such a gift at this time of a possible shortage of food, such an act on the part of this province would tend to further emphasize the strong sentiment of loyalty to the Motherland for which British Columbia has long been noted.

SUMMERLAND Phone 42.

The showers of Sunday evening which was the first rain that has fallen for many weeks has evidently done much to put out the forest fires which were burning at a number of points on the hills both east and west. Though the rainfall was not heavy it was very welcome to those in charge of the municipal water system. While there has been no actual shortage of water the end of the reservoir supply had about been reached, and had the drought continued it would soon have been necessary to shut off at least portions of the system from time to time to permit the replenishing of water in the reservoir. As it is, the rain, which was heavier in the hills than at the lake, has made an appreciable increase in the flow of the creeks.

Principal S. Everton is preaching in the Kelowna Presbyterian Church during this month, during the pastor's absence.

An interesting and exciting runaway occurred last Wednesday afternoon when a livery horse in charge of Mr. A. G. Simms broke from in front of McWilliams' Pharmacy and dashed at high speed around the neighboring blocks finally reaching "The Livery" on full run without mishap. Upon entering the stable door, however, the wheel came in contact with the building and the harness broke, and the horse ran into its stall with but little else than the collar and bridle.

WEDDINGS.

EVERETT—BUCKLAND.

The Summerland Methodist Church was the scene of a pretty wedding on Monday afternoon at two o'clock when two of Summerland's popular young people, Miss Bertha Buckland and Mr Harry Everett, were made man and wife, the ceremony being performed by the pastor, Rev. R. W. Lee.

The church was very prettily decorated for the occasion, and a large number of friends were in attendance.

The bride entered the church on the arm of her brother-in-law, Mr. E. Simpson, by whom she was given away. She was becomingly gowned in white liberty satin with silk shadow lace bodice and pearl trimmings, and she carried a bouquet of white roses with maidenhair fern.

The bride and groom were unsupported, the bride's niece, Miss Lillie Simpson and Miss Hargreaves acted as flower girls, prettily attired in white embroidery.

After the services the bridal party repaired to the Dr. Smith cottage, which has been recently refurbished by Mr Everett, where a very dainty wedding breakfast was served at tastefully decorated tables, after which Mr and Mrs Everett proceeded to Penticton by auto, where they boarded the "Sicamous" en route to Vancouver and other Coast cities.

Among the numerous and beautiful wedding presents was a set of sterling silver knives and forks presented by the Bank of Montreal staff, and sterling silver tea spoons from the Methodist Church.

Both the bride and groom have a large circle of friends in the community who will wish them many years in happy wedlock.

BEHAN—CONWAY.

With only immediate relatives present the marriage of Miss Mabel Irene Conway to Mr Thomas J. Behan was solemnized at the home of the bride's mother on Wednesday evening at eight o'clock.

The drawing room had been tastefully decorated with an arch of ferns, sweet peas, and hydrangea. Suspended from the arch was a bell of sweet peas under which the bridal couple stood during the ceremony, which was performed by Rev. R. W. Lee.

The bride entered the drawing room in company with her brother, Mr J. R. Conway, while the bridal march was being played by her London, August 14—A number of British wounded arrived at Southampton from Belgium.

Paris, August 14.—Germans lost 10,000 dead in fight at Muelhausen. Hospitals, churches, schools, and hotels crammed with wounded.

London, August 14.—Official despatch claims victory of battle of Haelen for Belgium. Germans lost three-fifth of entire force killed or wounded.

EXCITING CHASE OFF HALIFAX.

Halifax, August 14.—For half an hour Thursday night H.M.S. "Bristol," the smallest British warship on the North Atlantic fought a long range duel with the "Karlshue," the largest and fastest of the German cruisers, which has been trying to intercept British shipping on the North Atlantic. Escaping from H.M.S. "Suffolk," which interrupted the "Karlshue" coaling at sea from the North German Lloyd steamer "Kron-Prinz Wilhelm," the German cruiser was intercepted by the "Bristol" south-west of Bermuda. For half an hour a long range running fight took place in the blackness of the semi-tropical night. All through the night the chase lasted, but somewhere in the semi darkness the German boat doubled or made off south towards San Juan where she put in for coal some days ago.

TO REGULATE CANADIAN FOOD PRICES.

Ottawa, August 14.—When Parliament meets on Tuesday next it will be asked to pass legislation based upon the British Act giving the Government power to seize and fix the price of all food stuffs throughout the country. The power of fixing prices will be placed in the hands of the Supreme Court of Canada.

DISABLED SHIPS ARRIVE AT HONG KONG.

Shanghai, August 14.—Two warships, both having four funnels, badly damaged and carrying many wounded, steamed into the harbor at Hong Kong yesterday. Their identity has not been learned, but the vessels are believed to be either the British armoured cruisers "Minotaur" and "Hampshire," or the French armoured cruisers "Duplex" and "Montcalm."

Ottawa, August 14.—Canada will expend twenty million dollars on its first contingent of 2,250 men to be sent in aid of the Motherland. This is the estimate of the Department of Militia, and includes everything. Each man will cost $1,000 per year.

SIR JOHN JELICOE'S GREAT TRIUMPH.

London, August 14.—The silence over the North Sea continues. Sir John Jellicoe's greatest triumph so far, and it is impossible to exaggerate its importance, consists in so circumscribing the action of the German Fleet, that the Admiralty is able to announce after less than two weeks' war with the second great sea power, that the sea lines are comparatively safe once more, and with every day that passes British control of the sea becomes stronger. The North Sea remains the only water way in the world with regard to which the Admiralty can give no positive assurance, but even in regard to the North Sea, the announcement has been made that coal cargoes may be shipped to Norway, while the mail and passenger service to northern Europe has been resumed.

GERMAN TROOPS STARVING.

Brussels.—German troops in Belgium and Luxemburg are said to be starving and many of them are reported to have dropped unconscious owing to their privation and fatigue.

Paris, August 14—Three German Zeppelins flying above Diest were brought down yesterday by Belgian artillery.

St Petersburg, August 14—Seventy-three German and twelve Austrian merchant ships have been seized by Russia.

Letting the Light in

Shops and businesses that are illumined by advertising have a vitality and efficiency not possessed by shops and businesses that drape their service and activities with a pall of silence.

Everybody knows that it is in all ways good to let much light into dwellings, factories, shops and stables—into all places where life is and where health and efficiency are desired.

We commend to the merchants of this community the advantages and good results of persistent advertising in our columns, for the public always goes where light is—the public shuns dark places. Light means welcome and confidence.

A WORD TO MERCHANTS.

Advertising will go far towards retaining the loyalty of old customers and winning you new ones. Fifty-two advertisements in our columns will prove an excellent salesman—one whose yearly cost to you will be less than what you are now paying to some salesman behind your counter.

The Story of the World's Greatest War

As Told Day By Day By Wire and Wireless.

FINE WORK AT LIEGE.

Brussels, August 15—Liege forts are still intact and Germany's heaviest artillery is being successfully destroyed as they are drawn into range by the deadly accuracy of the Belgian gunners.

TRANS-ATLANTIC TRADE AGAIN NORMAL.

London, August 15—It is announced here that trade between Britain and Canada may be resumed at once on a normal basis.

SIR GEORGE CALLAGHAN RETIRES.

London, August 15—Formal announcement has been made by the Admiralty that on August 4th, Sir George Callaghan retired as head of the Home Fleet, and has been succeeded by Admiral Jellicoe.

FOUND NO GERMANS ON ATLANTIC.

Halifax, August 15—H.M.S. "Good Hope" sent from England to help guard Atlantic trade routes: arrived here to-day. There were no encounters with Germans on the way.

SOLDIERS BROKEN IN SPIRIT

Paris, August 15—Official announcement made that German prisoners when questioned, say that they are broken in spirit, and physically weak from hunger. Many do not even know why war has been declared.

RUSSIAN ARMIES READY.

St Petersburg, August 15—Mobilization of the Russian forces on the Galician frontier is complete. Their aggressive movement will coincide with an action with the Serbian army on the Danube, and further inroads into Bosnia by Serbia.

GERMAN RIGHT WING ADVANCING.

Brussels, August 15—Heavy fighting occurred to-day almost within sound of this city. The Germans are apparently trying to get to Antwerp, and are now only 35 miles south-east of that city. The Germans have captured the ancient fortress of Diest, and other important defensive works. The German cavalry against the Belgian has been successful. The Army threatening Antwerp is estimated at more than 250,000 and is thought to be the right wing of the huge army attempting to invade France, with a centre wing from Liege to Luxemburg and left wing in Alsace-Lorraine.

GERMAN CRUISER REPORTED IN NEAR PACIFIC.

Vancouver, August 15—German cruiser off Cape Flattery this morning. Unconfirmed rumors here have it that the "Empress of India" due here is in the hands of the German cruisers. She has a one million dollar silk cargo aboard. Another story is current that the "Empress of Russia" which left here last week is being chased.

GERMANS ADVANCING ACROSS BELGIUM.

London, August 15—Pushing forward by mere weight of numbers, the Germans are advancing across Belgium slowly but steadily, and soon must come in contact with the allied armies, which according to an official communication from Brussels, are in battle order at some point not named. The Belgians in outpost skirmishing, are said to have inflicted severe checks upon the German forces. But on the whole the German wing has kept on its way and has reached a line from north of Namur to Haelen, which suggests that the first big battle will be fought somewhere between Lorraine and Diest, where the Allies probably will try to block the roads to Brussels and Antwerp, and prevent the German attempt to make north Belgium untenable. Farther south the French troops have entered Belgium through Charleroi, going to the relief of their neighbors, and to aid in an attack directed to Namur, while in the east the French are reported to have secured possession of bridges in the Vosges Mountains, and to hold the passes of Bonhomme and Ste. Marie au Mines, through which important roads pass, and which it is asserted gives them great strategic advantage. The Germans are again hammering away at the Liege forts. Military strategists are of the opinion that the Germans are meeting with delay which they did not count on, and that every day the Belgians keep them fighting means an increase of Russian forces on their eastern frontier. They express belief that unless Germany soon disposes of Belgium and France, she will be crushed by an invasion from the east.

AN APPEAL TO POLAND.

St Petersburg, August 15—Duke Nicholas, commander in chief of the Russian Army, has addressed a manifesto to Poland appealing for the loyalty of the Poles and promising autonomy in return.

FRENCH TROOPS TAKE OFFENSIVE.

London, August 16.—Definite information has been received of strong offensive movements of the French troops along the French-German frontier between Luneville and Saarburg. Official announcement has been made that Blument and Ciry and Avricourt were re-occupied by French after Bavarian army corps had been driven out. Re-taking of Thann in Alsace officially announced by France, and wounding of General Emiling, commander of 16th German army corps is confirmed.

PREPARING FRENCH PUBLIC FOR FIERCE CONFLICT.

The French War Minister is preparing the public for a great battle to extend along more than two hundred and fifty miles of frontier in which several millions of men will be engaged on each side. Will extend from Basle to Maestricht, and the public is warned that Germany may be successful at some points, while Allies will have advantage at others. It is also announced that no definite details of battles need be expected for at least 8 days.

Basle is where French, Swiss and German frontiers meet, and Maestricht where Belgian Dutch and German lines run together. Nothing is known of recent operations around Liege.

JAPAN SENDS ULTIMATUM TO GERMANY.

Tokio.—Japan has sent an ultimatum to Germany demanding evacuation and withdrawal of warships from Kiau Chau. Unless unconditionally complied with by next Sunday, August 23, Japan will take action.

REPORTED SOCIALIST REVOLT.

London.—Official bureau says that state of siege has been proclaimed in Bulgaria. Central News Agency dispatch from Berlin says German Socialists are reported to be rising in revolt following the execution of their leader, Dr Karl Liebknecht.

London.—Routier dispatch not yet confirmed reports that one of Turkish forts at Dardanelles fired on a British cruiser which attempted to follow two German cruisers into straits.

FIGHTING BEGINS ALONG LINE OF BATTLE.

Paris, August 16.—Fighting seems to be becoming general to-day near Namur.

British troops seem not yet in thick of it. Field Marshall Sir John French spent Saturday here and conferred with chief of French staff, also paying respects to President Poincare. Strength of British force on Continent carefully withheld from public, but thought to be about or more than 150,000.

St Petersburg.—Austrian troops have evacuated towns of Ghenein and Kleloe in Russian Poland after attacks by Russian cavalry.

REPEATING WATERLOO.

Brussels.—The roar of cannon is distinctly heard here to-day as it was ninety years ago at the Battle of Waterloo. Greatest battle in world's history now being fought.

Ancona, Italy.—English Consul from Trieste here says many English have been imprisoned and badly treated in Austria since the war began.

Brussels.—Battle been raging over 15 miles of front south of Namur. Germans occupying Diest have been driven out by machine gun fire.

Nish.—Serbian guns sank two Austrian boatloads of soldiers trying to cross River Save to Belgrade.

ANOTHER BELGIAN VICTORY.

Brussels.—Dispatch riders from outposts report another Belgian victory between Diest and Hasselt resulting in 3,000 German killed and wounded. Germans retreated from that point.

AUSTRIANS PUSHING INTO RUSSIA.

Northward advance of big Austrian army along banks of Vistula River continues.

Brussels, August 16—(Official).—None of the Liege forts have surrendered, the battle continues uninterrupted.

TURKEY BEHAVING BADLY.

London—(Official from the Admiralty).—There is no reason to doubt that Turkey is about to replace German officers and crews on the "Goeben" and "Breslau" with Turkish officers and men. Greece will probably declare war on Turkey.

Paris, August 16.—Italy has defied Austria and refuses the requested permission for Austrians to march 15,000 troops.

HEAVY GERMAN LOSSES.

Brussels.—Barely 800 Germans escaped unhurt of the 4,500 or 5,000 engaged in the first battle of Haelen.

Sinning Against Your Home Town.

PART VII.

"When Dreams Come True---For You."

"Dreams of a better, bigger home!
Dreams of more comforts, more luxuries.
Dreams of more of those things that make life worth living!"
—from Mail Order Ad.

Perhaps you have seen the ad?
"Send for our new 1000 page catalogue" is found at the bottom. It was a stunning-looking ad alright—

This showing a young couple, she sitting down on the grass in a field while he was resting on the handle of his plow—both looking off into the distance, where billowy, snow-white clouds gave a fleeting, teasing glimpse of a palatial home—

With the CATALOGUE rearing large in the background—"a means to an end."

It must have played on your sympathy for the young struggling couple—it probably set you thinking of your ambitions—of your dreams—Just as it was designed to do.

Oh, ye people of Summerland, there is no mystery to the mail order business.

It can't perform wonders—it is not a philanthropic institution—it does not give you something for nothing. It's sole purpose is not to make your dreams come true.

It is merely a money-making institution, making big money at that. How?

By simply buying goods in large quantities and selling at retail—using the mails for pretty picture purposes and the freight and express cars for delivery.

But the mail order people do not pay taxes into the treasury of Summerland. They do not help build up your home town—they do not contribute one cent for its up-building—for the improvements necessary to make your home enjoyable and valuable.

Instead—
They sap the currency system of Summerland—
Reduce its bank clearings—
Take money out of your home town for good and all, while you get commodities in return—

Commodities you can buy right at home at fair prices, thereby enabling your home merchants to continue in business—

To pay their bills and taxes and improvements on their property.

Just take this supposition for the moment—

Suppose every merchant in Summerland closed up his store and moved away. It is not a pleasant supposition, is it? What would happen? Wouldn't the value of your home lot automatically depreciate—wouldn't the town of Summerland have less to attract outsiders?

What would you do? Wouldn't you want to pack up, sell outright and move to a city that was alive and one that offered you more opportunities—a town that had stores and theatres and public libraries? Yet that is what your local merchants would be justified in doing if they do not get the proper patronage—the square deal from you. They have dreams, too, have our local merchants. They have invested in the necessities and luxuries of life for you to choose from to make your life pleasant and comfortable. Of course they make a little profit on their sales. If they didn't they could not afford to stay in business.

But they do more—they make their stores attractive, comfortable and convenient for you. Instead of long distance service they render personal service. You can see the goods before you buy them—you can feel them and talk the purchase over before letting loose of your money. Here's another thing to consider—

You are taking no chances in patronizing your local merchant. You know he sells reliable goods, because he stands back of them. You know him personally—he lives in your home town, and takes as much pride in it as you do.

Your merchant wants to see Summerland grow—he wants his investments to increase in value along with yours. He goes to the same church you go to—he pays his taxes—

Votes for the welfare of your home town.

Through his services he makes possible your dreams coming true. Your "dreams of a better, bigger home—of more luxuries, more comforts—more of those things that make life worth living. When you purchase of him you are not only supplying yourself with the necessities of life, but you are helping to build up Summerland—you are keeping your money at home.

Increasing the number of taxpayers—making more boosters for your home town.

Think over this dream business you people of Summerland. The consummation of making Summerland a big bustling, hustling, prosperous community should not be a dream.

It should be a great big reality—a living thing that can be seen every day by yourself and the strangers within your gates, growing and growing, looming up more every day.

Until—
Before you know it, you have a greater Summerland—a community of which you are proud of—the realization of your ideals—the results of your labors and efforts and faith. Can this be done by spending its very life blood on commodities that are already before us and waiting for our choice? The penalties of such "Sinning against your home town" will come back to us. Our channels of trade will stagnate—we will be overloaded with commodities and shy on cash.

Consider—

The railroads, the telephone, the telegraph, the express companies, the Canadian mail.

They are found only where there is business enough to warrant their presence.

But show the world a town whose business section is dwindling and on the black list of these arteries of commerce goes a checkmate.

They will hesitate to build that new imposing depot or office building or post office—the old one is good enough. They will hesitate to furnish badly needed equipment—the old is good enough.

All because they are uncertain as to the future. All needs of immediate expansion is taken care of in the next town, where business is good, while your home town is passed up.

Don't you think that the only way to make you dreams come true—dreams of a better, bigger home, is to help Summerland to grow?

Because—

The best way for you to prosper is to have your home town prosper.

The next instalment of "Sinning Against Your Home Town" will appear August 28. In it "From the Farmer's Standpoint" will appear. Don't fail to read it.

AN APPLE TO CLEAN THE MOUTH.

Dr. Sims Wallace, late dental surgeon to the London Hospital, states his belief that there are in England some 21,000,000 teeth in a state of ruin through eating sweets, and goes on to urge the adoption of a diet containing farinaceous food in a form which will stimulate mastication—e.g., brown bread, and the eating of fresh fruit at the conclusion of a meal. By means of the fruit the teeth are cleaned. The best fruit for this purpose is probably the apple, which, if eaten at the end of a meal, leaves the mouth delightfully fresh and physiologically clean.

The skunk brings annually to the trappers of the United States $8,000,000, ranking second as a fur bearing animal only to the muskrat.

Mr. William Young, Provincial Comptroller of Water Rights read a paper on Water Administration in British Columbia, which explained thoroughly the operation of this department, and the workings of the new Public Service Bill for the forming of water municipalities in unorganized districts, by the property owners getting together and bonding their land, on which they raised money by debenture issues.

Mr. L. O. Armstrong, Publicity Lecturer for the C.P.R., concluded the afternoon session with a most entertaining talk in which he spoke of his efforts on behalf of the C.P.R. Colonization Department, during lecture tours in the States, and emphasized the growing realization that the "Back to the Land movement" was the only solution for the cost of living problems, which were naturally dependent upon the supporting countries behind them for wealth that was created by labor, not the unearned increment of a mere real estate transaction. Mr. Armstrong's account of his battles with real estate men were most entertaining, and his descriptive narrative of the country and conditions in other parts were much appreciated.

Dr. G. J. Rutherford, Superintendent of Agriculture and Animal Husbandry for the C.P.R., spoke to the largest crowd of the convention on the evening of Monday, taking as his subject "The Interdependence of Farm and City."

Mr. Rutherford's forceful handling of the subject and fearless dealing with moneyed real estate interests, to which he attributes the present financial tightness, was typical of his characteristic straightforwardness. His speech is deserving of an article by itself.

The main points touched upon by Mr. Rutherford were the facts that the city being but the product of the labors of farmers, was dependent upon the farm for support, in a far greater degree than the farmer was dependent upon the city. Farmers had made necessary, railways and banks, great industrial, financial, and commercial enterprises, which were now dependent upon the farms. The cessation of farming meant the withdrawal of the props which supported metropolitan centres, and the fictitious nature of the life which Canadians had been following in pressing the real estate bubble, was just being brought home to them by the war, and the consequent hard times.

There was too much tendency to belittle the farmer. Farming was the greatest profession in the world. Canada had wasted to a great extent her agricultural enterprises. She had been termed the granary of the Empire, but if one stopped to consider it would be found that she was a very heavy importer. What was the use of boasting of agricultural enterprises, when the Minister of Agriculture for the province had admitted on the platform to-day that twenty millions of dollars were spent outside the province last year for supplies that should have been grown and manufactured in the province.

"I have seen the Alberta grain gambler," said the speaker, "buying his supplies that he should be raising on his farm. Selling his beef cattle at three or four cents a pound and buying it back at fifteen cents. Do you call that farming? Perhaps not, but we must not smile or criticize until we analyze our own conditions. Mr. Smith was right when he said that the farmer enjoys an advantage over all of us, because he raises everything or almost everything he needs. We in a city have to find the money to pay for it. Let us look at our own state.

"In B.C.," continued Dr. Rutherford, you import mutton from Australia, butter from New Zealand, corned beef from South America, eggs from China. This in spite of the opportunities which you have to become exporters instead of importers. Thousands of acres of land on the prairies yearly grow up in grass and it dies again without being cut. Canada had two million sheep last year. The United States had fifty-two millions. In that little island of Great Britain were thirty-four millions. Australia had ten millions. Last year and this year we are importing. Will it go on? East and West in Canada it is the same.

The speaker called attention to the fact that for the past ten years or more the Western provinces had been concerned with building up great urban communities with the assistance of the real estate man. Money had been borrowed until the country was burdened with debt, and with it had come the slighting of the farming interests, that were the only safeguard for the country. The sooner the towns and country awakened to this fact the better. It was a matter for every city council and board of trade to take up.

North Battleford, Lethbridge, and Kenora were towns that had realized the danger which the situation held, according to the speaker, and arrangements had been made with a leading bank to sell live stock to the farmers in the district on easy terms of payment. This co-operation had reacted for the benefit of the town by creating a more prosperous condition of affairs. Within the last year the C.P.R. have placed with farmers over 6,000 head of cows and heifers, and a large number of hogs, these to those settling on company's land. Sold on easy terms of credit the settlers were thoroughly appreciative of the efforts made in their behalf, and as a consequence were arriving at a better state of happiness and comfort.

Not only financial assistance but the breaking down of the barrier socially which exists between the city and the country dweller was a matter emphasized by Dr. Rutherford. Co-operation was the keynote of the situation, as the city owed its prosperity to the farm it was up to it to give the products of the farm the benefit of its markets. Germany's interior development had been attained by a perfection of husbandry, and the harmonizing of marketing and producing machinery. The Danes had made their country one of the richest in the world by this method of self-help.

In concluding, with a quotation, Dr. Rutherford reiterated the famous line from Gulliver's travels; that the man who made two blades of grass or two ears of corn grow where one was before, would accomplish more good for man than all the politicians in the world put together.

Frank Adams in charge of the investigations now being promoted at Boise, Idaho, gave an illustrated lecture on Monday night on "Orchard Irrigation Methods in California." In this regard Mr. Adams displayed a familiarity with the practical problems confronting those who seek to fertilize land with water, and while it is impossible to print his speech in anything like completeness, it is however of the utmost value to horticulturists, and will be incorporated in the report of the Irrigation Convention, which will be out in about two months.

Professor W. J. Elliott, Principal of the Olds Agricultural School of Alberta, was one of the speakers on Tuesday morning. Mr. Elliott gave an interesting description of the work which the Alberta Government has taken up in this respect, and which is having such a universal effect of keeping the boys and girls on the farm, by the instillation of scientific methods and principles into this profession, which the Professor designated as the most noble occupation in the world.

H. W. Grunsky, of the Provincial Department of Water Rights, gave a very thorough explanation of the work of the water rights branch and the workings of the new Water Act, which though styled new, was in reality the finished production of years and years of research. This act was little understood by the great bulk of residents of the province, Mr. Grunsky declared. His short bright lecture was very enlightening, and illustrated how the interests of the province were being safeguarded with carefully framed legislation.

By special request Mr. C. L. Smith, whose homely wit and good practical suggestions for the betterment of farm and home conditions, had made such a hit with the delegates on the previous day, was recalled to give a talk along the lines of settlement and home making.

The attendance at Tuesday's session constituted a record, it being the largest since the inception of the association. Approximately 170 delegates registered, being about one dozen more than attended the second largest convention held at Kelowna two years ago.

"The Storage of Water for Irrigation" was the title of a very practical paper read by G. N. Houston of the Department of the Interior Irrigation Branch, Calgary. In this regard Mr. Houston had crystallized the work accomplished by his department since its organization, and his remarks, particularly in respect to water conservation will be inestimable value to those operating irrigation systems.

Tuesday afternoon was given over to the entertainment of the delegates, who became the guests of the Aquatic Association at the Annual Regatta. Hon. Price Ellison, Deputy Minister of Agriculture Wm. Scott, Hon. George Harcourt, Deputy Agricultural Minister for Alberta, and many other prominent gentlemen attended. Hon. Mr. Scott, with his characteristic vigor, took part in the diving and swimming competitions, and with Mr. C. H. Cordy of Summerland accomplished wonders in the tilling, getting into the semi-finals before they were finally overturned from their canoe.

J. W. Eastham, Provincial Pathologist for British Columbia, was the initial speaker on Tuesday morning, giving a paper on "Moisture and its Effect on Plant Diseases." This paper had a direct bearing on the fire blight question, and was much appreciated by those who had combated the blight last year at this end of the Valley. Professor W. J. Elliott of the Alberta Experimental Farm for farmers sons and daughters, pointed out the good effect which the pioneer work, now being accomplished by the Alberta Government, was having upon the agricultural industry of the province. It had been estimated that only fifteen per cent. of pupils entering Alberta public schools, graduated, and of the fifteen per cent. only 8 per cent entered college. Everything possible was being done to make the farmer's son an efficient and scientific farmer, thus ensuring the intelligent pursuit of the industry, and its great future development.

H. W. Grunsky of the Water Rights Branch of the Department of Lands, gave an explanation of the workings of the new Water Act, which though styled new had still taken many years to bring to its present state of perfection. He believed that the province had a splendid act and one that safeguarded the interests of the people thoroughly.

On Tuesday afternoon, the delegates were entertained by the Aquatic Association, who were holding their annual regatta in honor of the visitors.

Don H. Bark, in charge of the U.S. Government investigations at Boise, Idaho, spoke on the subject of "The Problem Which Confronts the Irrigator" at the session on Wednesday afternoon. The problem, he stated, was divided into three parts, the first being care in selection of land, second, financing over the lean years between planting and production, and thirdly, the marketing of the produce.

Mr. Bark also reviewed the importance of taking local climatic and crop maturing conditions into consideration in planting any particular variety of fruit or other produce. Depth of soils, government assistance, and co-operative marketing, were other subjects taken up by Mr. Bark in his very efficient discourse.

C. E. Whistler, the last speaker of the convention, who is the managing editor of the Pacific Fruit and Produce Distributors, Portland, Oregon, spoke on "Apple Growing, Care and Culture of Apples and Other Fruits," all the contributory subjects from blossoming to marketing time being included by the speaker, who is considered one of the most practical men in all departments of the fruit business in Oregon.

The evils of dealing through wholesalers and jobbers was a phase of marketing emphasized by the speaker, and in this connection he pointed out that it was a practice on the part of marketing organizations and individuals in some places to be unrepresented in the places to which they were shipping their fruit. This allowed the consignee to report that shipments had arrived in poor condition. As a consequence the producer was done out of a considerable sum of money. Those cases were traced to their source by representatives of the shipping concerns in the Western States, and it had been found that the charges of "bad condition" laid by consignees had been found in nine cases out of ten to be absolutely groundless.

The success of co-operative organizations he declared was entirely due to the management, but as these organizations existed for the purpose of eliminating all obstacles existing between consumer and producer it was toward that end that all co-operative organizations should work.

Previous to an automobile tour of the benches, Mr. Philip H. Ernut, Chairman of the Municipal Irrigation Committee gave a description of the system for the benefit of the delegates.

The following gentlemen were elected officers of the association for the ensuing year: Hon. W. J.

Fairfield, Lethbridge; James Johnson, Nelson; William Young, Victoria; J. C. Dufresne, Penticton; A Chamberlain, Kamloops.

Bassano, Alberta, was decided upon as the next meeting place of the association for the annual convention, and delegates from Kamloops gave notice that they would go after the convention in 1916, while Moosejaw wants the 1917 convention.

The Board of Trade tendered the delegates a splendid banquet at the Hotel Incola on Wednesday night, the event not breaking up until the early hours of Thursday.

One of the features provided for the entertainment of the delegates was a trip over the recently completed section of the Kettle Valley Railway on the eastern bench as far as the tunnel. This was completed on Tuesday morning, the delegates being guests of Mr. J. J. Warren, president of the road, who had special observation cars provided for the trip. The delegates sincerely regretted being unable to visit Summerland, a trip to which they were looking forward with a great deal of pleasure as it had been arranged, and fell through on account of not being able to make connections with the train as expected. On Thursday afternoon, after the session, an automobile trip over about thirty miles of bench land gave the delegates a good idea of the district and its possibilities.

"My dear," remarked Jones, who had just finished reading a book on "The Wonders of Nature," "this really is a remarkable work. Nature is marvellous! Stupendous! When I read a work like this it makes me think how puny, how insignificant is man." "Huh!" sniffed his better half. How's Business?

ADVERTISING, backed up by the right spirit, the right goods and the right service, can rescue a sinking business and will make a prosperous business more masterful in its own community.

When John Wanamaker, the Prince of Merchants, began business, he resolved to force matters. He was not content to WAIT to be found out—he DETERMINED TO BE found out. In short, he advertised. He threw on his business, small as it was, the light of publicity, and the public of Philadelphia entered the shop on which the light shone. In this community the public is entering those shops on which the light of advertising is falling.

In 40 years he earns - 40,000
 - The average uneducated man earns per year - 450
In 40 years he earns - 18,000
 - The value of the first man's education equals the difference between $40,000 and $18,000, or - 22,000
 - The time required to secure an education is 12 years of 180 days each, or 2,160 days.

5. $22,000 divided by 2,160 equals $10.19.
6. Therefore each day spent in school is worth $10.00.

Prize List of Institute Flower Show.

Annual Exhibition Last Week Is Pronounced Success.

Closer inspection revealed that the efforts of the members of the Women's Institute in arranging the annual Flower Show and General Exhibition last Friday left little very room for disappointment. Perhaps in only one particular, that of extensiveness, did the show not approach those of previous years, and this is to be accounted for by the altered conditions under which the Summerland Institute operates, particularly in regard to its somewhat more limited scope of territory. In any case it must be conceded that the show was not a retrogression. If the various classes were not filled out with the number of entries that might have been expected, what was put on exhibition was undeniably of high quality, and a few new features added to the interest.

In the absence of Reeve James Ritchie, who it was hoped would formally open the exhibition, this duty devolved upon Mr R.H. English, president of the Board of Trade. He congratulated the members of the Institute upon the high standard the exhibits showed, and the pains they had taken to adequately arrange the hall. If there was not the same number of exhibits on view as previously, there was certainly no deterioration in the excellence of what was shown, and this really set the standard of any such exhibition.

The needlecraft section showed chiefly embroidery and lace work of various kinds. Daintiness and extremely careful stitching could be noted in every exhibit, and some showed an unmistakable intricacy. Plain and colored work could be seen in a great variety of forms, while knitting and distinctly useful sewing also had their places. It can be said without any exaggeration that this section of the show reflects credit not only on the Institute, but also on the ladies of Summerland, as an exhibition of high achievement in the craft of the needle, which has come to belong so essentially to the women.

Sweet peas and roses were the body of the floral exhibits in the centre of the hall. Separated as to variety and color the well-known sweet pea took on new glory in the large and seemingly perfect blooms that were shown. Cut asters, carnations, dahlias, and flowers in pots and vases added their coloring to the long table, and several baskets with mixed flowers and foliage made a very pretty showing.

Bread and biscuits that tempted the hungry were in evidence at the far end of the hall, well up to the high standard which the ladies have made for this section, and not all made by the experienced hands of years of housekeeping, as some plates of biscuits by young girls showed.

On the far side were arranged fruit, drawings and paintings, household appliances and devices, and miscellaneous exhibits. These formed by no means the least interesting section of the exhibition. Two well-devised fireless cookers were among the labor saving appliances, and among other ingenious contrivances in this line were a coal oil can holder, travelling scrub pail stand, and a back-saving dustpan, most of them a woman's work. A well-stocked home medicine chest was among the exhibits, and attracted some attention, and it would be well if similar chests had a place in every home.

On the platform a squad of ladies wore kept very busy serving light teas during the late afternoon and evening, and the sum of about $85 was the reward of this work. The receipts were further swelled by the sale of ten cent bouquets among the men, to nearly $40.

Credit for the success of the show must be placed entirely with the ladies. Upon Mrs W. H. Hayes, the Institute president, and Mrs G. Morgan, secretary, fell the heaviest portion of the work and backed by willing and able helpers on the various committees, the successful issue of their efforts was gratifying.

A good number of visitors put in an appearance during the course of the afternoon and evening.

Cash Market For Eggs.

Stimulus for Local Poultry Industry.

The Southern Okanagan Poultry and Pet Stock Association, of which H. Bristow is president, and C. N. Borton secretary-treasurer, are now working on a proposition which if successfully carried through, will be a great stimulus to the poultry industry, and result in the bringing in annually of a tidy sum in cash. In fact, the idea is likely to put the local egg industry on a new basis which will early result in Summerland becoming an important egg producing centre, with a large annual output of eggs, and probably broilers and chickens. A steady cash market at top prices is assured, provided that a constant supply of strictly fresh, non-fertile eggs can be guaranteed. The district has been quite thoroughly canvassed during the last few days, and the Association is now in a position to guarantee a certain minimum which can shortly be materially increased.

A number of those who have experimented with the production of eggs claim for this branch of agriculture much more certain and larger proportionate returns than from fruit growing, and certainly as an adjunct to orcharding it is proving an excellent and profitable side line. At Monday's meeting of the Association, the secretary, C. N. Borton, was appointed delegate to the Provincial Association, which meets in Vancouver during the exhibition. It was decided to hold the annual show on the Tuesday and Wednesday after the Provincial Poultry Show.

GERMANS PUSHING ON TO PARIS

FURY OF ONSLAUGHTS MAY SOON WANE.

RUSSIANS ON GERMANY'S EASTERN FRONTIER NEEDING ATTENTION

HEAVY AUSTRIAN LOSSES.

London, August 26—Austrian losses in defeat at Drina River by Servians are 15,000 killed and twice that number wounded. 15,000 prisoners were captured and 75 big guns.

BRITISH SEVERELY PUNISH GERMANS.

London, August 26—Reuter's Agency says French Artillery annihilated German cavalry division raiding French territory. During battle at Mons Saturday and Sunday British bore brunt of six furious attacks, and raised a veritable hecatomb of German corpses.

FRENCH MINISTRY RESIGNS.

Paris, August 26—The ministry of Premier Viviani has resigned. Another will be formed immediately. French troops are making some progress in Lorraine. Germans repulsed Tuesday on southern frontier.

PREPARING TO STRIKE ENGLAND.

London, August 26—Germans reported to be about to occupy Ostend to use as a naval base against England. Ostend is only 65 miles from English coast.

GOOD WORK OF RUSSIAN ARMY.

St Petersburg, August 26—Vilna army has reached Marienberg, only 25 miles from Dantzic, Germany.

GERMAN FURY BECOMING EXHAUSTED.

London, August 26—Germans are throwing their all against allies and not even keeping forces to defend lines of communication. General feeling is that worst of German onslaught has spent itself, and that allies will soon move forward.

FAMOUS LIGHT BRIGADE OUTDONE.

London, August 26—During German bombardment of Charleroi, French Turcos troop from Algiers charged German battery, bayonetting the gunners, and loss of the African troops exceeded those of the light brigade at Balaklava, for only 100 returned out of the whole force. Streets in Charleroi were so jammed with the dead that the killed remained upright where shot.

POSITION OF RUSSIAN LINE.

St Petersburg, August 26—Russian right wing invading Prussia, and left wing entering Galicia. Great centre force is moving down on Posen.

LATEST OFFICIAL REPORTS.

Paris, August 26—Official statement issued by War Office to-night says: "In north France, British lines have moved back a short distance. In a general way our offensive between Nancy and the Vosges Mountains makes headway, our right has been obliged to retreat slightly in the region of St Dye."

London, August 26—Official bureau says Germans retired all along line after repulse of their attack on French southern frontier.

MORE BRITISHERS FOR SERVICE.

Premier Asquith in House of Commons to-day said that it was a mistake to think that only 10,000 men would be needed, beyond the regular army. He believed six times that many men will be added.

New York, August 26—Japanese attack on Tsing Tau, the fortified port of Kiau Chau, has failed, according to a statement from the German embassy. Japanese, adds the statement, are now preparing to make a lengthy siege.

GERMAN TERRITORY TAKEN.

London, August 26—Premier Asquith has announced in House of Commons that Commander of forces in British West Africa has cabled that authorities of the German colony of Togoland had offered to surrender on terms. Terms were refused, and it was later announced that an unconditional surrender would be made.

Allies will enter Kamina Thursday morning.

WITHIN 115 MILES OF PARIS.

London, August 27—Despatch from Ostend says the Germans have occupied Lille, a strong fortress, also Valenciennes and Roubaix, all in France, and not far from Calais. Reports indicate that the German forces are pushing steadily south, despite the resistance of the allies, and are now only 115 miles from Paris.

STORY FROM BERLIN.

Berlin, August 27—Statement is made here that all the forts of Namur have now fallen, and that the Germans have captured Longwy in France, near the Luxembourg border. Germans repulsed the French there, and Upper Alsace is free of French except at points west of Kolmar.

VICTORY, NEVER MIND THE COST.

London, August 27—Daily Mail Paris correspondent says the Germans, it is now believed, are attacking the allies from the southern Belgian frontier. Cavalry raids are frequent around Lille. Wounded Germans say their officers' orders are at any cost even if necessary to forfeit a large per cent of the army to gain victory.

BRITISH LINE UNBROKEN.

Germans made six successive attempts on the British troops in an effort to cut their lines of communication, but were unsuccessful. Germans have been losing three men to the allies' one.

"LEIPZIG" LOOMS UP AGAIN.

Ottawa, August 27—Naval Department here last night confirmed a dispatch from the Pacific coast that the German cruiser "Leipzig" was seen recently at the northern end of Vancouver Island. It is thought here that the cruiser either had an appointment to meet a collier in a quiet harbor somewhere along the coast, or that the Germans had planned to intercept some British steamer on the Vancouver-Yokohama run and empty her bunkers. Three cruisers are after the "Leipzig," they are the Canadian cruiser "Rainbow," the British cruiser "Nowcastle," and the Japanese cruiser "Idzuma."

RUSSIAN INVASION IRRESISTIBLE.

London, August 27—Russian invasion of Prussia is almost irresistible. The Germans have retreated to Osterode, 100 miles west of Gumbinnen. The Austrians have evacuated the Sanjak of Novi Bazar. It apparently may be a race whether the Russians get into Berlin before the Germans enter Paris.

ST PETERSBURG SEEMS SATISFIED.

St Petersburg—The Novoe Vremya says to-day that although the general staff have made public only the barest details regarding the striking success of the Russian arms in east Prussia, it is apparent that the greater part of that province is now occupied by Russians, and that the Germans are in a condition of demoralization.

New Hospital Opening Thursday, Sept. 17th.

The new hospital will be formally opened on Thursday, September 17th, when afternoon tea will be served in the new building from 3 to 6 o'clock.

At a recent meeting of the Board, Miss Aitchison's acceptance of the position of Matron was received. Miss Armstrong, of Garnett Valley, was, upon the recommendation of the Ladies' Auxiliary, appointed nurse's assistant. The staff will enter upon their duties on September 10th.

Invitations will be sent to Hon. Martin Burrell, Hon. Price Ellison, Hon. H. E. Young, Provincial Secretary, and Messrs J. M. Robinson and J. J. Warren, as well as the members of the Municipal Council, the Municipal School Board, and ministers of the various churches, to be present at the formal opening. The public are urged to attend, as this will be an excellent opportunity to inspect the fine new building now nearing completion.

A hint from the Board that this occasion will offer an excellent opportunity to bring donations in the way of food material of all kinds, as well as furniture, furnishings and sundry other articles useful in hospital work, will not go unheeded.

At the Board meeting which was held on Thursday afternoon, the resignation of Secretary F. A. C. Wright was accepted with regret. Adjournment was made until Saturday, when the question of raising funds to make final payments will be considered. It is understood that some $2,250 is yet to be raised.

Kelowna Protests re Telephone Service.

Both the Council and Board of Trade of Kelowna are urging that the city follow the example of Summerland by installing their own telephone system. There they favor the municipal ownership. The mayor in addressing the Council on the subject mentioned the delay in getting in alarms of several fires because the telephone service was not in operation. He thought the city should have a continuous service. For such the Okanagan Telephone Company was asking 50 cents per month extra. He finds that Vernon is getting the continuous service without extra charge. "The Summerland Telephone Company, which is a private company, is giving a continuous service, and is charging the same rates as we are paying."

Alderman Sutherland advocated another public utility in the form of a telephone system. "Summerland's system is paying 12 per cent on the investment, and they are putting aside a large amount in addition." It would not mean a large investment, there would be no competition, and might be the means of other towns adopting similar measures.

Ald. Adams: "A telephone system like we have here is practically useless."

"It has got to be a serious matter and has got to be remedied," commented Ald. Copeland.

Ald. Sutherland: "I would let them know this, and would tell them that if we cannot get a continuous service we are going ahead with our own system. We have been parleying with those people long enough, and have never had any satisfaction and never will."

Discussing the street wiring for a municipal telephone system, Ald. Sutherland said he strongly recommended wires laid underground. "Then when we have frozen them out," he continued, referring to the Okanagan Company, "they will have to take down their ugly poles, which will be another big improvement to the city."

In view of the present exceedingly critical condition the United Growers are advising that loads stop shipping No. 2 soft fruit and tomatoes. With the shortening of the demand due to the war it is felt that a better price can be had for No. 1's by thus limiting the supply. The growers expect to be able to market No. 2 apples at a fair price and also a quantity of No. 3.

Conference Valley Women's Institutes

Comprehensive Program Laid Out for Two Days' Meetings Here Next Week.

A number of ladies representing branches of the Women's Institute at Valley points north and south, will gather in Summerland next week, and meeting with ten delegates from the two Summerland Institutes, will form the first conference of Valley Institutes. The sessions will be held in the Men's Club, on the morning, afternoon and evening of Wednesday, the 2nd prox., and the morning and afternoon of Thursday, the 3rd.

The program which has been drawn up for the conference is published herewith. From the nature of the topics which will be discussed, it can be seen that the prime object of the gathering is the mutual consideration of common institute problems, difficulties, and ways and means of securing the highest standard of usefulness. It may confidently be expected that the discussion of various phases of Institute work will serve not only to enlighten the public who are unacquainted with the organization, but the interchange of ideas which it is intended will be a vital feature of the conference cannot fail to strengthen the Institute purpose of "helping the country through the home" in the minds of the delegates.

The president of the provincial advisory board, Mrs W. V. Davies, of Chilliwack, will be present, and opens the Wednesday morning session. The evening meeting on that day promises to be of more than passing interest. The chairman on that occasion will be Mr J. R. Brown, and Reeve James Ritchie will give a civic greeting to the conference, and Mr J. L. Hilborn, on behalf of the Farmers' Institute, will also give some words of welcome. Mr W. E. Scott, Deputy Minister of Agriculture for the Province, and Superintendent of Institutes, and Mr J. M. Robinson will be other speakers at this meeting. All sessions are open to the public, who are earnestly invited to be present. At the close of the Thursday afternoon meeting the ladies are to be given a drive around the district, and afternoon tea at Mr Hilborn's provincial demonstration farm with an inspection of the farm will be a pleasant feature of this tour.

WAR NEWS

Special Dispatches to the Review Too Late for Last Week's Issue.

GERMANY WILL FIGHT JAPAN.

Berlin, August 20.—Germany has chosen war with Japan, and has formally rejected Japanese demands. Japanese Ambassador has left Berlin.

WAR TAX ANNOUNCED.

Ottawa, August 20.—It was announced in House of Commons today that war tax would be placed on coffee, sugar, liquor and cigars, increase in general tax on sugar is one cent a pound.

AWFUL SLAUGHTER BEFORE BRUSSELS.

Brussels, August 20.—Louvain, the headquarters of the Belgian Army east of Brussels, about 10 miles, was today captured by the German army. Belgian troops falling back in general direction of Antwerp. Brussels will, in a few hours, be occupied by the Germans. Belgian troops leaving now for Antwerp. German losses around Louvain terrible, kept advancing in close formation, and were mowed down by machine guns like ninepins. Tirlemont, occupied by Germans today after yesterday's repulse, has been fired, and enormous German forces are pouring continuously into Belgium, and through Luxembourg. German cavalry is reported near Antwerp and at Turnhout and Southals.

GERMANS ACTIVE IN EAST AFRICA.

London, August 20.—Dispatch from Nairobi, East Africa, reports big raid by German force.

FRENCH GAINS IN SOUTH.

Paris, August 20.—France has recaptured Mulhausen at the point of the bayonet and taken six German cannon, many killed on both sides.

BRITISH FORCES MEET ENEMY.

Ghent, August 20.—Battle at Aerschot yesterday was veritable butchery, result not decisive. Belgians, English, French and Germans all lost heavily.

FRENCH FLEET WORRYING AUSTRIA.

Rome, August 20.—French Fleet in Adriatic in conjunction with Montenegrin land forces has completely ruined one of Austrian forts at Cattaro. Bombardment lasted all Tuesday and Wednesday.

RUSSIAN SUCCESSES.

St Petersburg, August 20.—Seven decisive victories from August 15th to date are announced in official dispatch. Triumphs were gained over Austrian and German armies at various points, most decisive being on right bank of Vistula river.

FIGHTING FIERCE AND FURIOUS.

Brussels, August 20.—(Later news) Belgians evacuated Louvain to-day before overwhelming advance of German troops. A crushing bombardment by big German guns could not be withstood, and determined the Belgian retreat. After the fight Louvain presented a terrible spectacle, streets and roadways were filled with dead, dying and wounded, while wounded and riderless horses galloped over the prostrate bodies, trampling the dead and dying. Belgians fought bravely but their courage was of no higher order than that of the Germans. The Germans advanced into the whirlwind of fire and as the fields became clogged with the slain, they contrived to stumble forward through the smoke over their dead comrades. Belgian riflemen crouching behind earthworks poured forth merciless fire, but the order was given to charge with cold steel, and the Germans in a huge overpowering compact mass moved forward, their bayonets bristling like a gigantic thorn hedge.

The German artillery was wonderfully effective, firing into the Belgian trenches with merciless exactitude. The result was a sweeping victory for the Kaiser's army, which to-night except Namur, Liege, and Antwerp holds more than half of the Belgian territory.

Antwerp, August 20.—French and British Ministers to Belgium have fled from Brussels to escape capture. The war machine, perfected by the Kaiser continues its steady advance. It is officially announced that the British force on the Continent is now engaged with the enemy at some point not revealed by the censors.

PRINCE RUPERT ALARMED.

Prince Rupert, B.C., August 20.—The city has been notified of the approach of a German warship, stated to be coming to secure coal. Authorities have been notified not to give aid to enemy, even under threat of a bombardment.

INCREASED DUTY ON LIQUORS AND TOBACCO.

Ottawa, August 20.—Hon. W. T. White has announced to House of Commons that it will be necessary to raise $58,500,000 for war and capital account expenditure. Tariff on whisky, brandy, gin, and other spirits to be increased from $2.40 to $3 per proof gallon, cigars and cigarettes from $3 to $3.50.

London, August 21.—St Petersburg correspondent of Reuter's Agency announces brilliant victory of Servian army.

WHAT ABOUT GERMAN NAVY?

London, August 21.—While fierce fighting rages on Continent every one is asking what German naval tactics will be while German marine is practically bottled up. Thanks to Britain's sea power Germany's main waterways, Rivers Elbe and Weser are closed, her manufacturing industries largely idle, and North Sea seems so completely in hands of Jellicoe and his fleet that German ships cannot emerge. Germany must be suffering industrial loss that is at least $5,000,000 daily, while England is losing next to nothing. Impression grows that these combined facts must compel Grand Admiral Von Tirpitz to order Admiral Von Ingenhau to put to sea and make a desperate effort to overcome superior British forces awaiting him.

BRUSSELS TAKEN BY GERMANS.

Flash.—German cavalry have entered Brussels without a fight.

ENEMY DRIVES WEDGE THROUGH ALLIED FORCES.

London, August 21.—The German Army has apparently driven a wedge through Belgium, separating French and allies on the north from the French Army in Alsace.

Paris, August 21.—The French have, according to an official announcement, thus far captured 91 German guns, 4 flags and 19 war autos.

It is estimated here that 2,500,000 men are actually engaged in fighting from the Swiss line to Antwerp, a distance of 250 miles.

LARGE RUSSIAN INVASION.

St Petersburg, August 21.—Grand Duke Nicholas, says official bulletin, will invade Prussia with twenty army corps.

London, August 21.—Advices from Nish bring word of further Servian victories, a capture of strategic railway lines, and the sinking of Austrian steamer on the Danube.

Rome, August 21.—Fall of city and fortress of Cattaro believed to be imminent.

The Price of Success

Big business is not an accident—it is a result. It is the fruit of purpose, energy, persistency and ADVERTISING.

You know the story of Rip Van Winkle—the man who went to sleep for 20 years and who, when he awoke, expected to find the world the same as it was when he entered Slumberland.

There are men to-day very much like Rip Van Winkle—their point of view and their practices are those of a generation past. They do not believe in advertising.

To succeed in these modern days one must be in accord with the spirit of to-day. For a merchant this means that he must advertise, if he would prosper.

A WORD TO THE PUBLIC.

Where are you served best and most pleasingly? The answer is almost sure to be—"Where we are invited and made welcome. At those shops which prize our custom enough to seek it, and who ask for it every week through the medium of advertisements in "THE SUMMERLAND REVIEW."

War Office admits Germans have taken Lunneville and overrun south-eastern portion of Department Meurthe et Moselle. Blamont also in hands of Bavarians and Ciry threatened. Wedge of Germans between French forces that invaded Lorraine and those that penetrated Alsace is necessitating withdrawal of French troops that occupied Bonan and Saales.

The French Office at 10.35 issued the following: Forces are in contact along whole line in Belgium, but neither side have gained any advantage.

JAPS BOMBARDING TSING TAU.

Tokio, August 24.—Japan has begun to bombard German ports of Tsing Tau.

FURY OF BATTLE CONTINUES.

London, August 24.—This the third day of the mighty struggle south-west of Brussels finds the German army beating with the fury of an avalanche upon the Allies. No hint has come as to which way tide of victory is turning. The flower of the German army made up of about 800,000 men, supported by approximately 1,000,000 reserve are engaged with about 700,000 French and 120,000 British. One German column has made a detour and marched south and towards Valenciennes by way of Minoul and Drimont. Another has proceeded by way of Limoge and Lossinen, and the third is pushing towards Halbraine, Lecompe, and Mons.

ITALY GETTING RESTLESS.

Paris, August 24.—Dispatch from Rome says Italian troops have been taken from French frontier, and Italian army has been raised to 800,000. Marquis San Gulliano, Foreign Minister, is quoted as follows: Situation involving Austria and Italy is acute. We are hoping for the best, for Italy wants to avoid war, but no one can tell what may happen.

GERMANS ON OFFENSIVE IN SOUTH.

Basle, Switzerland, August 24.—German troops are making another offensive movement against French occupying Mulhausen and environs.

AS TOLD AT BERLIN.

Berlin, August 24.—Official announcement made here to-day that German army has defeated French at Neuchateau in Luxemburg; many guns, flags, and prisoners taken, including several French generals. Ciry also captured. French have been routed and pursued beyond Longwy. Germans are west of River Meuse, and advancing against Maubeuge. They have defeated an English brigade of cavalry.

SERIOUS LOSSES ON BOTH SIDES.

Allied armies have taken offensive between Moselle and Mons, general battle being fought in southern Alsace, another French army from direction of Sedan has crossed Department of Ardennes and is engaging Germans. NAMUR HAS FALLEN.

London, August 25.—The official war bureau announces that the city of Namur has fallen. The Germans are said to have captured five of the forts, and the fall of the other four is imminent. The London Times says it is an inexplicable event which will require a good deal of explanation. Other English papers declare that the news of the day is bad, and if the Allies losses have been heavy we may see the Germans march in earnest on Paris. In the first great battle the French, though in a strong position in central Belgium, were driven out in two days fighting by the power of the German attack. There is a general tone of anxiety in the English papers owing to the official announcement that the Allies, after assuming the offensive, had to retire to covering positions.

The Allies are now bringing pressure on Italy to enter the fight. The French Cabinet sat nearly all night discussing the situation. The French are retiring in Alsace and Lorraine. A small British fleet has appeared at Ostend.

In its summary of the war situation The Times states: "Namur has fallen. This in the words of the official communication necessitates the withdrawal of a portion of the allied troops from the line of the Sambre to their original defensive position on the French frontier."

The first list of casualties sustained by the expeditionary army on the continent was published here to-day. It does not cover yesterday's big battle, and it contains three names, one of them is that of the Earl of Leven and Melville, Lieutenant in the 2nd Dragoons, Royal Scots Greys, who was dangerously wounded, on August 22nd, apparently in the cavalry fight at Waterloo. Other wounded are a sergeant of the Royal Flying Corps, and a captain of Engineers.

A Copenhagen dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph Co. dated August 24th, says: The condition of Emperor Francis Joseph of Austria according to telegrams received to-day is much worse. His death is a question of hours.

Milan.—The fortifications at Cattaro have been reduced by the French and English fleets.

PREPARING FOR ANOTHER BIG BATTLE.

Paris, August 25.—Official announcement says German movement against Antwerp resumed to-day. Enemy is being partially held back by Belgian and part of French and part of English forces. Allies have retired beyond Malines. In Lorraine the French forces have withdrawn to River Montheau. Report of German recapture of Mulhausen without foundation. Alsace-Lorraine encounters becoming of secondary importance, however.

OSTEND WILL FALL TO GERMANS.

London, August 25.—Fierce fighting going on in outskirts of Ostend between German and Belgian outposts. The city will not be able to withstand attack for long.

FRANCE IN PANIC OF FEAR.

Paris, August 25.—Paris is in gloom to-day. News admitted by War Office that Lunneville and Namur have been easily captured has sent a panic of fear through France.

RUSSIANS WORKING TOWARDS BERLIN.

St Petersburg, August 25.—Occupation by Russian troops of Soldau and Niodenburg, important cities in East Prussia, announced officially. The towns were taken by five days fighting. Russian left wing in Prussia is attempting attack on Allenstein from south-west. With Allenstein captured the Russians will be able to push on towards Berlin without serious hindrance.

GERMAN SUCCESSES MEAN PROLONGING OF WAR.

London, August 25.—British papers say that no matter how depressing the outlook at present Britain, France and Russia are determined to fight on to the finish. The occupation of Namur was vital to Germany they admit, and will greatly prolong the western campaign. Germans have attacked Malines (south of Antwerp), and evidently intend to invest Antwerp.

Story of the World's Greatest War

Told Day by Day by Wire & Wireless

FRENCH FORCES WITHDRAWING TO CONCENTRATE ENERGIES

Paris, August 26.—The War Office has issued the following official announcement: "A battle is in progress between Maubeuge, Department of Nord, and Donon, Department of Doubs. On it hangs the fate of France. Operations in Alsace and along the Rhine would take away troops upon which might depend victory. It is therefore necessary that they all withdraw from Alsace temporarily to insure its final deliverance. It is a matter of hard necessity." The War Office at 10 o'clock this morning announced that the Commander-in-Chief requiring all the available forces on the Meuse, had ordered the progressive abandonment of all occupied territories. Mulhausen has again been evacuated.

ALLIES NOW ON DEFENSIVE.

London, August 26.—The Commander-in-Chief has withdrawn his forces from territory recently occupied, and is massing them along with the British Allies in a strong line between Maubeuge on the north and Donon on the south, a distance of about 200 miles. The Allies having abandoned the offensive will, according to official announcement, assume a purely defensive attitude in the hope of checking the advance of the vast masses of German troops endeavoring to break through the line. The combined French and British force is holding a front near Givet, along the River Meuse, about 30 miles south of Namur, while French troops command the roads out of the great forests of Ardenne. Field Marshal Sir John French, Commander of the British Forces on the Continent, reports that the withdrawal of his troops to their new position was successfully effected.

BRITISH STRENGTH TO BE RAISED TO 860,000.

London, August 26.—Earl Kitchener announces that the 100,000 men asked for in the first instance have joined the colors, and declared that reinforcements to the British army would be surely and steadily increased until there will be a British army in the field "which in numbers and in quality will not be unworthy of the power and responsibility of the British Empire." He intimated that there would possibly be 40 divisions making 860,000 men.

BRITISH BOATS DRAW GERMAN FIRE.

Pekin, August 26.—The main Japanese Army is now landing men near Tsing Tau, while the Japanese and British fleets are co-operating outside the port. British torpedo boats and gunboats mobilized yesterday before Tsing Tau, the German port of Kiau Chau, for the purpose of unmasking the German batteries. After a few hours of firing the British retired in the direction of Wei Hei Wei. They suffered a loss of eleven men killed, and their boats were slightly damaged. Three thousand Russian troops have left Vladivostok for Tsing Tau. The Germans have destroyed the railroad bridges at the boundary of the leased territory, and also several native villages which were levelled with fire from the forts.

AUSTRIANS TELL OF VICTORIES.

Berlin, August 26.—Vienna reports that after three days' battle at Krasnik in Russian Poland, the Austrians repulsed the Russian forces and put them to flight along a seventy mile battle line, and are now pursuing them towards Lublin.

C.P.R. COAL SEIZED.

Prince Rupert, August 26.—The British Government has seized the coal on the C.P.R. boat "Princess Ena," here and it will be loaded on the "Rainbow" which is now here. The cruiser "Leipzig" is thought to be at Dixon Entrance, 60 miles outside of Prince Rupert.

LONDON HEARS OF RUSSIAN GAINS.

London, August 26.—The Russian Embassy receives news from the General Staff at St Petersburg announcing fresh victories against both Germans and Austrians, the messages declare the Russian troops now occupy the whole of Eastern and the Southern half of Western Prussia.

KEEP TOOTING YOUR HORN.

If you toot your little tooter and then lay aside your horn, there's not a soul in ten short days will know that you were born. The man who gathers pumpkins is the man who plows all day, and the man who keeps aumping is the man who makes it pay. The man who advertises with quick and sudden jerk, is the man who blames the editor because it doesn't work. The man who gets the business has a long and steady pull, and keeps his trade and local paper from year to year quite full. He plans his advertising in a thoughtful, honest way, and keeps for ever at it until he makes it pay. He has faith in all the future, can withstand a bankrupt stock, and like a man of scripture has his business on a rock.

HADLEY'S FAME SOON GONE.

V. O. Lawrence, an Oakland business man, was talking to the Rotary Club about advertising. "If you want to get results you must advertise continually," he said. "The public forgets. Just to prove this to you, I will give a prize to any man here who can tell me offhand who was President Taft's running mate at the last election. I'll venture there isn't a man here who can remember the name, although it was a household word with all of us at the time." The speaker paused while the 100 men in the room pondered. Finally one said: "Do you know yourself who it was?" Lawrence laughed. "I do not," he admitted. "I intended to call up one of the newspapers to find out, but I forgot it." The question remained unanswered.

How many soaps can you name off-hand? This is not a new story, but it is worth repeating. A friend went to a large soap manufacturer and said to him: "See here, you are spending a fortune in advertising. Why do you waste your money?" "How many soaps can you name?" asked the soap manufacturer. The friend studied and named six—all advertised brands. "That's the answer," replied the soap manufacturer. Out of the hundreds of soaps made you can name only six, and mine heads the list. I can't afford not to advertise." The soap manufacturer was a large user of space in the daily newspapers. He died the other day leaving an immense fortune and a name known from one end of the country to the other.

Father—"It's deeds, young man, not words, that count." Son—"Did you ever send a cablegram?" As soon as some learn of the good fortune of a neighbor it is the signal to belittle and bespatter. Such is jealousy.

THE TROUBLE WITH THE WORLD.

The trouble with the world said the single-taxer, is that the rich pay only a small part of their share of the taxes. The trouble with the world said the civil service reformer, is that the office-holders are corrupt. The trouble with the world said the free trader, is that the tariff keeps up the cost of living. The trouble with the world said the Socialist, is that society does not control what is necessary for the welfare of society. The trouble with the world said the social reformer, is that men's vices and sins drag them down to poverty and misery. The trouble with the world said the lecturer, is that it doesn't take my advice. The trouble with the world said the radical, is that it is too set in its ways. The trouble with the world said the conservative, is that it runs after all the new-fangled notions. And, while they were talking, little Mrs. Brown baked four loaves of lovely bread, bound up Tommy's cut finger, pacified Sue and Bess when they quarrelled, tidied up the sitting room, ran in to see a sick neighbor and carried a glass of apple jelly, and put on a bright dress in which to welcome tired Mr. Brown when he came home from his work. But I don't suppose that little Mrs. Brown has any idea what is the trouble with the world. —Esop Jones in the Christian Endeavor World.

Distressed damsel—"Oh, sir, catch that man. He wanted to kiss me." Passive pedestrian—"That's all right. There'll be another along in a minute." The pugilist who struck a preacher claims to be an expounder of the gospel.

The attendance is said to be good in all departments. There are now enrolled at the High School 21 students. This will be shortly increased, it is anticipated, to 28. At the Consolidated School Principal Mott has 31 pupils in his department. Miss Rothwell 38, Miss Ballantyne 26, and Mrs Lister 40; while there are 28 at the Town School, and 14 attending Garnett Valley School. RECKLESS INDIAN RIDERS.

To be run down in the darkness of night by two Indians riding breakneck speed, and whooping yolling as they rode, was the extremely unpleasant experience of Mr. T. B. Young, and two young lady friends, last Sunday evening. The party had driven down to Pentiction during the afternoon, and left there on the return journey about 7:30 p.m. When about half way between Pentiction and Trout Creek, wild shouting was heard ahead. While peering ahead into the darkness to ascertain the cause of the yelling, at the same time drawing the horse to one side, Mr Young's rig was suddenly swooped down upon by two Indians riding horseback at full speed. The impact was such as to severely damage the buggy and throw the occupants to the ground, all being more or less stunned and dazed. At least one of the party was in a dazed condition for a half hour or more. Recovering somewhat, the three found themselves on a dark, lonely road, with a broken buggy, minus the horse, the harness having been torn from him by the shock, the Indians in the meantime continuing on towards Pentiction. There was nothing else but to walk to Trout Creek, where a rig was gotten to complete the journey. A complaint has been entered against the Indians with the provincial police, and it is said that already one has been apprehended, and that his companion, too will be soon in the hands of the police.

SCOUT EXERCISES.

Citizens of Summerland were wholly unaware of their danger, and of the successful defending of their city against invaders last Friday evening. The Boy Scouts were divided into two groups, nine of the boys being selected to defend the town against an attacking force of twenty-four. For a boy to be touched by one of the opposing force was fatal. From 7:15 until 8 o'clock the attacking force was kept in check, the objective point of the latter being the bandstand, which was defended from both land and water. The defenders were scattered about on the hills, and none of them retired to the bandstand till shortly before eight o'clock, and were wholly successful in their defence, although the fort narrowly escaped capture by some of the enemy who had taken to the water near the new wharf and were swimming close to the bandstand when sighted. The boys later marched in force to the Flower Show where roll was called, following which they were treated to cake by the ladies.

How's Business?

ADVERTISING, backed up by the right spirit, the right goods and the right service, can rescue a sinking business and will make a prosperous business more masterful in its own community.

When John Wanamaker, the Prince of Merchants, began business, he resolved to force matters. He was not content to WAIT to be found out—he DETERMINED TO BE found out. In short, he advertised. He threw on his business, small as it was, the light of publicity, and the public of Philadelphia entered the shop on which the light shone. In this community the public is entering those shops on which the light of advertising is falling.

A WORD TO THE PUBLIC.

Be sure of this: those who are using our columns week after week do not give you poorer goods or service, or have higher prices.

Shops which are illumined by advertising court with full confidence your favor.

The war has changed the plans of at least one woman who would have otherwise now been a resident here, for a time at least. Dr Margaret Wallace, who for some years served under the Presbyterian Board as a medical missionary in North-West India was in Canada when war was declared, and was planning on an extended visit here with her sister, Mrs Wismer of Garnett Valley. Believing it her duty she immediately on the outbreak of hostilities, offered her services for the front, and was accepted. She will sail at once for the battlefields of Europe.

Passing Events: Social, Personal, &c.

A landslide on the lakeshore drive between here and Penticton on Sunday seriously inconvenienced traffic between the towns.

Dr. T. B. Turner, dentist, will spend Monday and Tuesday of each week in Summerland. Crown, Bridge and Gold Inlay work a specialty.

Mr. Reid, in the employ of Thos. B. Young, has become the owner of the house and lot owned and occupied by Thos. Ramsay at West Summerland.

Presbyterian services will be held next Sunday in St Andrew's Church in the morning and Methodist Church in the evening. Rev. C. H. Daly's Sunday evening subject will be "War in Heaven."

Rev. N. McNaughton, pastor of the Baptist Church, who, with Mrs McNaughton and young son, has been enjoying a holiday of two or three weeks at Kaledon, return from the southern lake town this week, and will conduct services in the Baptist Churches on Sunday next.

A very substantial addition to the hospital building fund was received this week from the Japanese residents in Summerland. A sum of $61.60 was made up by the twenty-two Japanese citizens, and a committee of their number took the money to Mrs Lipsett last week. Needless to say, the hospital committee were both surprised and delighted with this generous and unsolicited support from our Japanese citizens.

Serious Auto Accident.

G. F. Lang Badly Hurt When Car Rolled Over On Road To Peachland.

One of the worst accidents that has occurred in this vicinity in a long time happened late yesterday afternoon on the Peachland road when Mr G. W. Lang suffered a very bad compound fracture of a leg and serious loss of blood.

Mr and Mrs Lang, together with their guests, Mrs Robie, wife of Major R. J. Robie, her daughter Miss Norma and Miss Glassford, all of Calgary, started for Peachland in Mr Lang's touring car, and it was just after passing the Van Hise property that the accident occurred. The right wheels of the car were cutting into the soft outer edge of the road, and foreseeing trouble Mr Lang shouted to the others to jump. The two young ladies got free of the car just as it rolled over, but the car carried the others with it, turning completely over and coming to a stop sitting upright on the hillside below. The only one to suffer serious injury was Mr Lang, both ladies marvelously escaping. The two young ladies immediately started to walk back to Summerland, while Mrs Robie went to Mr Van Hise's, some distance away, for assistance. Mr Van Hise's boat being away he immediately started to walk for assistance, and when he reached Mr Mellor's home telephoned for the doctor. In the meantime all possible was done to alleviate Mr Lang's suffering and stop the flow of blood, Mr Lang himself directing the work.

Dr Andrew was taken up by boat to Mr Van Hise's, and walked from there to the scene of the accident, accompanied by George Gartrell. In the meantime Fred Anderson, whose boat the party had used, bustled himself making a stretcher, and followed to the scene of the accident. The injured man was brought down the hill and placed in the motor boat. Just then Mr Hogg and Miss Logie arrived in Mr Morfitt's launch "Calgary," and the two ladies were taken aboard, and the smaller launch taken in tow.

The injured man was carried into the home of Mr and Mrs George Gartrell at Peach Orchard, where he is now resting as comfortably as can be expected. As soon as possible he will be removed to the Kelowna Hospital, where an operation will be necessary.

Winding as it does, along the side of the mountain the Peachland road, which is notoriously crooked and narrow, has always been considered a dangerous one, and it is marvellous that accidents are not more frequent. From time to time the provincial authorities have been urged to complete the Lakeshore Drive between here and Peachland, and possibly this latest accident may persuade the authorities of the necessity of doing this at once, not withstanding the shortness of funds.

Mrs M. M. Robinson and Mrs G. Gray were Monday visitors to Naramata.

A fine bouquet of apple blossoms was recently brought to the Review Office by A. H. Steven.

S. R. Darke of Meadow Valley was a passenger on Sunday morning's boat bound for Calgary.

Mrs R. H. English, who has been ill for some time, is now slowly improving, and was able to sit up for two hours yesterday.

The ladies of the Hospital Auxiliary met for a busy sewing session at "The Maples" on Wednesday afternoon, the hostess being Mrs W. J. Robinson.

Miss Eula Watson, government telephone operator, has been laid aside from her duties for the past two weeks by a heavy cold which developed into bronchitis.

Miss Lena Snider, with her niece Miss Alma Lott, who have been for some time at the home of the former's parents, Mr and Mrs S. B. Snider, have returned to Vancouver.

Rev Dr Myers, of the Sunday School Department, of the Presbyterian Church in Canada, was in town last week, discussing Sunday School work with the officials of St Andrew's Church.

The pastor, Rev R. W. Lee, will conduct the Methodist Church services on Sunday. The evening service will be in St Andrew's Church at 7 p.m., the morning service in the Methodist Church at 10.30.

Friends here have learned of the appointment of Miss Skillen, recently of Okanagan College staff to an important position on the faculty of Brandon College. Miss Skillen will act for some time as Lady Principal during the absence of the present incumbent.

From a number of different sources it has come to the notice of the Review that a prominent Okanagan independent shipping concern has been underquoting not only the Union but some other private shippers. Their action has been strongly condemned by several of those affected.

Visitors from Summerland went across to Naramata by the regular six o'clock ferry trip yesterday evening and by the special trip about an hour later to take in the Gipsy Carnival and Concert given by the Unity Club of that place. The picturesque entertainment was very much appreciated by the trippers. A few remained for the dance that followed the concert.

The auction sale advertised to take place on Saturday afternoon last at "The Livery," West Summerland, drew about fifty people at the appointed hour. Mr G. R. Hookham had placed with Messrs Cordy & Higgin for disposal a number of horses and a quantity of farm machinery, and though some of his well-known horses went off fairly well, six finding purchasers, bidding on the implements and wagons seemed to hang somewhat.

Word came to Mr Jas. Fyffe at the first of the week of the somewhat sudden death of his youngest brother, Thomas, a railway telegraphist, at St John. A regrettable circumstance in connection with his death was the failure of a doctor to correctly diagnose a case of acute appendicitis. It was in the course of a hurried operation that Mr Fyffe passed away. He was still in his early twenties, and was contemplating a trip to the west almost immediately.

There have been of late several outbreaks of fire which being fortunately checked in the beginnings have done but little damage, though productive of some wholesome scares. A further case occurred on Sunday morning last when the home of Mr and Mrs Stephen Phillips on Rosedale Avenue, opposite Victoria Gardens, narrowly escaped destruction. Some of the family had their attention roused by the smell of fire, and a search for the cause revealed a burning tent roof. A few pails of water sufficed to quell the blaze, and the assistance of the neighbors, who had noticed the rising smoke, was not called into requisition.

HE DON'T HAVE TO.

City Boardor: "I suppose you hatch all these chickens yourself?" Farmer: "No; we've got hens here for that purpose."

Miss Lawler of Vancouver is visiting at the home of her brother here.

Messrs Craig & Raby shipped a carload of fruit and vegetables on Wednesday to Camrose, Alberta.

Mr F. A. C. Wright is another of our citizens who has gone to take up arms. Mr Wright left on Tuesday morning for Victoria.

Mr and Mrs H. D. Bentley and family are now occupying the house of D. C. Thompson on Rosedale Avenue, removing thence the end of last week from farther over towards the west of the flat.

It may seem a little late in the season to be shipping cherries, but during the week a shipment of the "Olivet" variety from the King orchard went forward to T. E. Clay at the Calgary City Market.

Mr Harry Munn who by his obliging and courteous manner has won many friends during his few months residence in Summerland in the employ of the Dominion Express Company left on Saturday to join his regiment, the 104th Irish Fusiliers, in which he is a sergeant.

"Forest Fire," the pure bred imported hackney horse which has been the property of a local syndicate for the last five years will be shown at the Vancouver Exhibition next month, and was shipped to Vancouver on Tuesday night. It is possible that the horse which is valued at several thousand dollars will be sold during the Exhibition.

Mr G. J. C. White left for Grimsby, Ontario, on Wednesday morning where he will, together with Mr Reekie of Kelowna and two Vernon citizens, represent the Okanagan United Growers Ltd. at the Dominion Fruit Conference. Mr White was named some time ago as a substitute in case Manager Robertson could not attend. Mr Robertson has, at the last moment, found it impossible to go east, and Mr White has taken his place.

A saddle horse for forty-five cents would be considered by the canniest of Scots a good bargain, especially when the equine proves a cayuse with no mean speed ability. It fell to Thos. Ramsay at the end of last week to become the owner of a horse on these good terms, he proving to be the holder of the winning ticket in a Penticton horse raffle, for which he paid forty-five cents some time ago. Mr Ramsay did not know of his good fortune until on Saturday afternoon a rider approached him, and intimated that he had brought the horse from Penticton to hand over to its new owner. He was rewarded for his pains with a cheque, Mr Ramsay no doubt feeling that he could well afford to pay a little more than forty-five cents for his new acquisition.

OKANAGAN WOMEN'S AMBULANCE LEAGUE.

The second meeting of the entertainment committee of the Okanagan Women's Ambulance League was held on Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs Hutton. An unanimous decision in favor of the indefinite postponement of the proposed entertainments was reached. It was arranged, however, that an immediate effort be made to raise funds for this most worthy object, the comfort and relief of the men who are giving themselves for the protection of their country.

Several means to this end were discussed, the most favored being the enlargement of the membership of the league, the placing of contribution boxes in prominent positions in the neighborhood, and a school children's envelope system. It is earnestly desired that every woman in Summerland and the surrounding districts will place her name on the membership roll of this useful society by the payment of the small sum of twenty-five cents to the treasurer, Mrs Solly, or to one of the representatives of the league who may call upon her. A simple badge of ribbon in our national colors will be given to every member.

In the contribution boxes even a postage stamp of the smallest value will be accepted with gratitude.

The co-operation of the public school teachers will be requested in the distribution of envelopes among the children, and the explanation of the importance of their smallest assistance.

—For the Relief of Suffering—

KETTLE VALLEY RAILWAY.

The connection of the Okanagan with the Coast by railway which has been looked forward to for some months as certain to be early realized, has been indefinitely postponed, according to current report.

Notwithstanding the fact that the K.V.R. line from Midway to Osprey Lake is now practically completed, and will be taken over by the C.P.R. next month, work on the connecting link between Osprey Lake and Penticton, as well as work further west will according to reliable information be brought nearly to a standstill. Some few of the camps will likely be kept open for a time at least doing some of the lighter work, but work on the heavy cuttings, fills, etc., will be suspended.

Up to the present the work has been pushed forward with all possible haste, the desire being to have the line across southern B.C. finished at the earliest possible date. Now an order has gone forth changing all this. The reason for the change of program being given is the difficulty of getting cash with which to carry on the work. This will be a disappointment to many who will hope that construction will soon be resumed with the same vigor with which the work has been pushed up to the present.

It would seem that instead of such work being curtailed, an extra effort should be made by our large corporations and governments to carry on as much public work as possible.

LATER.—A report from what we believe a reliable source is that work on the K.V.R. has been ordered resumed, after only two days suspension.

BROWNLEE ORCHARDS BUSY.

It would be hard to find a busier spot than is the Steuart Packing House this summer. There is constantly employed there a staff of from 20 to 27, sorting, packing and shipping vegetables and fruit. From two to five cars have been shipped each week for a number of weeks.

Mr Alex. Steuart makes his headquarters at Regina, where he has a distributing warehouse, in charge of a competent man. Mr Steuart himself covers the outlying territory, soliciting orders, etc. The cars are all billed to Regina, but a number of these are diverted, while a goodly portion of the produce goes through the Regina warehouse.

Picnic On The Beach.

The one big outing in connection with the local Sunday School is the annual picnic on the lakeshore. Each year since the commencement of the church here, has seen a bigger crowd and apparently a livelier time—at least it appeared so this year. The lengthy list of sporting events conducted by Mr Harry Pitman and Pastor Willan were keenly contested. This year too was featured by a large percentage of children of school age and a corresponding dearth of what we call young folk.

Amongst the visitors from a distance were noticed Rev R. M. Thompson, of Penticton and Mrs Thompson, also Prof. Myers and his wife who were at that time visitors with Mr and Mrs Jas. Myers. Mr and Mrs W. H. Price and two girls, of Calgary were present also. Amongst the comic stunts put on for the amusement of the spectators were two events that will pass as part of the history of Naramata Sunday School picnic events. We refer to the bottle sucking contest, and the eating against time of a number of treacle covered buns, and the subsequent run of the jolly participants to the lake to wash their besmeared faces. The event apparently suited the small boy immensely. The list of events with the names of the fortunate winners is as follows:

50 yd race boys of 7—S. Pushman, J. Jacobson. 50 yd race girls of 7—Bertie Mulford, M. Jacobson. 50 yd race boys of 11—Arnold Stiff, Ira Hughes. 50 yd race girls of 11—M. Allen, Ina Ireland. 100 yd for boys of 12—Art Stiff Stanley Stiff. 100 yd for girls of 12—Dora Williams, Marian Bruce. Sack race, open—Willie Mitchell, Art Stiff. Shoe race, girls—Margaret Allen, Ina Ireland. Potato race—E. Hughes, Art Stiff. Molasses race—Art Stiff, Stanley Stiff. Soda biscuit race—Wesley Rounds and Steuart Pushman, a tie. Bottle sucking contest—E. Hughes, Ralph Booth. Swimming race—Art Stiff, A. Harris. Girls' three legged race—Laura Pushman and M. Allen. Boys' long jump, S. Allen, Frank Hughes. Boys' hop step and jump S. Allen, Frank Hughes. Foot race, under six and over 60—Grace Pushman. Ladies' 50 yd race—Mrs Allen, Mrs F. Young. Men's 100 yd—Harry Pitman, W. B. Willan.

School Opening.

After a lengthy holiday period the public school was re-opened on Monday, August 24, with two new teachers, Miss Whitmore and Miss Naramata Must Improve Her Water System.

The present season's continuous dry weather has played havoc with the available water supply, as, for the first time in history, the people have been brought face to face with a grave problem.

At a largely attended meeting on Monday evening, initial steps were taken towards the prevention in the future of any shortage in the water supply for irrigation and domestic purposes.

It was felt that if we simply drift along with the tide of events, and move only with red tape precision, that another year at least would elapse before any active steps would be taken to construct a dam. Just as soon as we can get the figures from the engineers at present working on the proposition, it is proposed to call for volunteers to supply the labor till such time as the bonds are floated and the actual money in hand. A committee consisting of Messrs Cook, Nuttall and Wells are to confer with engineer Cameron on the proposed site of the new dam—a meadow which can readily be flooded so as to provide an area of fifty acres, with an average depth of six feet of storage water.

The meeting adjourned to meet next Monday evening to hear the engineer's report and that of the committee, at which time it is believed we shall be in a position to act more intelligently.

Foster in charge. Owing to some delay caused by defective plastering having to be gone over again, the new building will not be ready for occupancy for another couple of weeks. Consequently the School Board decided to rent the basement of the church for the use of the Junior classes, leaving the senior grades at the old school in the interim.

The School Board are sparing neither time nor trouble to have everything running in ship shape, and are having the equipment of the different classes brought up to the standard.

Current Events — OF — Town & District

Mr and Mrs Ronald Smith and young son leave shortly for Seattle.

Mrs Priest, of Merritt, B.C., is at present visiting her daughter, Mrs Prowse.

Miss Doris Price, a niece of Mrs Cash, arrived on Friday to spend a short vacation with her aunt.

We are glad to welcome Nurse Gordon back from her lengthy professional visit in Summerland.

Mr Hickie, of the K.V.R., returned from Kelowna, and will for some little time be a guest at the Syndica House.

Mr J. S. Gillespie is still confined to his room owing to the weak condition of his eyes, but he hopes to be able to be out again soon.

The closing down of railway construction between Princeton and Osprey Lake will mean the return to town of several of our citizens at present engaged there.

Two of our local townsmen, Messrs F. Hayward and Prowse, distinguished themselves in the eighth-mile canoe race at the Penticton regatta, making the fastest time ever made on the lake.

Next Sunday may prove to be Mr Willan's farewell address, at least for some time, as he is shortly to leave for New Westminster, where he enters Columbian College to complete his theological course.

Hotel Naramata, according to announcement, will close a month earlier than usual on account of the tight tourist season. Accordingly next Monday, August 31st, the hotel will close its doors for the season.

The continuous hot weather has taken most, if not all, of the ambition out of the local baseball fans, judging from the small turn out to the evening practices. Cheer up, boys, you'll beat Penticton yet!

Conspicuous posters announcing the advent of the Gipsy Carnival Concert, the work of our local artist, Mr F. L. Roe, called forth much favorable comment from the citizens of Naramata and Summerland.

Prof. Myers of Knox College, Toronto, a brother of Mr Myers, of this place, spent a few days here last week, and left on Saturday morning en route to the Coast, stopping over Sunday to preach at Armstrong and Enderby.

Mr Fred Ros entertained at the Syndica little Miss Jean Clark and her brothers Jamie and Charlie, children of Mrs Clark of Penticton. The little folks came up on the afternoon ferry and returned on the special in the evening.

Naramata citizens showed up quite prominently as prize winners at the Flower Show in Summerland last Friday. Amongst this list noticed were Mrs J. M. Robinson, Mrs W. L. Robinson and Mrs H. P. Davlos, who won 3 firsts and 1 second prize.

Mr Bert Lipsitt of the Naramata Supply Co., is severing his connection with the firm at the end of the month, and leaves shortly for Holland, Man. During his short period in town, Mr Lipsitt has made a host of friends, who will regret his departure from town.

A letter received by relatives of Bert Noyes this week, dated from Calgary announces that he left for the front with the 104th regiment of Irish Fusiliers. Mr Noyes has had several years' training in military service during his residence in Ottawa and is well qualified for service.

Secretary J. H. Pushman of the Farmers' Institute, in reference to the much talked of pound-by-law, reported that no reply had as yet been received from the Minister authorizing us to put the law in force. In the meantime, let those of us who keep bovines keep them out of our neighbors' lot, and possibly there may be no need of enforcing the act this season.

Current Events.

The Ladies' Aid Society held an interesting and busy session on Wednesday afternoon, being entertained at the home of Mrs O. Hughes. The ladies have already outlined their plans for a bazaar late in the fall or early winter. The next meeting will be held in the church basement at which Mesdames Allen and Boothe will serve tea and cake.

The aggressive practical campaign in the way of training, or should we say "breaking in" the scout boys, is having quite an appreciable and beneficial effect. It is noticed for one thing that the language of the street is noticeably improved. Scout master Harry Pitman has quite a lengthy program outlined for the winter, and to this the boys look forward with a good deal of pleasure.

Peachland Notes.

Miss Minnie Smith returned on Monday to her school at Wood's Lake.

Mrs George Phillips and children left last week to join her husband in Edmonton, Alberta.

Miss Adelaide Hayward, of Vancouver, is enjoying a holiday with her parents in town.

Miss Sue Dimock is spending a holiday in Summerland, the guest of Mrs T. N. Ritchie.

Mrs McDonald, of Regina, came in on Monday evening to visit her daughter, Mrs H. Logan.

Mrs Whyte, of Calgary, who spent a couple of weeks holidaying with friends in town, returned home on Thursday morning.

Miss Cligatt, of Wood's Lake, has taken Miss Smith's cottage for a time, and is prepared to do sewing for the people of Peachland.

Mr Powell, who was in charge of the Anglican Church for a time, sailed on Tuesday morning for the Old Land, called thither by the death of his father.

Miss Gertrude Gummow returned on Sunday to Penticton. Miss Olive Gummow went to Garnett Valley, Summerland, to take charge of the school there, and Mr B. Gummow returned on Monday to resume his duties in the Westbank School.

The Union Sunday School picnic was held at Deep Creek on Thursday afternoon. The usual games took place among the children. Tea was served on a nice shady flat on the creek bank, and everybody enjoyed themselves very much.

Messrs Thorn and Wilson spent Monday evening in town bidding friends goodbye before they started for the seat of war. It is their intention to go into the thick of battle. We hope they may both escape unhurt, and return candidates for the Victoria Cross.

The teachers have all arrived and began work in their different departments on Monday morning. The attendance was not very large to begin work, but it should improve shortly. Mr Fleming, of Revelstoke, is the High School teacher for the year. Miss Pentland has again assumed the principalship of the Public School, with Miss Cardston, of Enderby, as primary teacher.

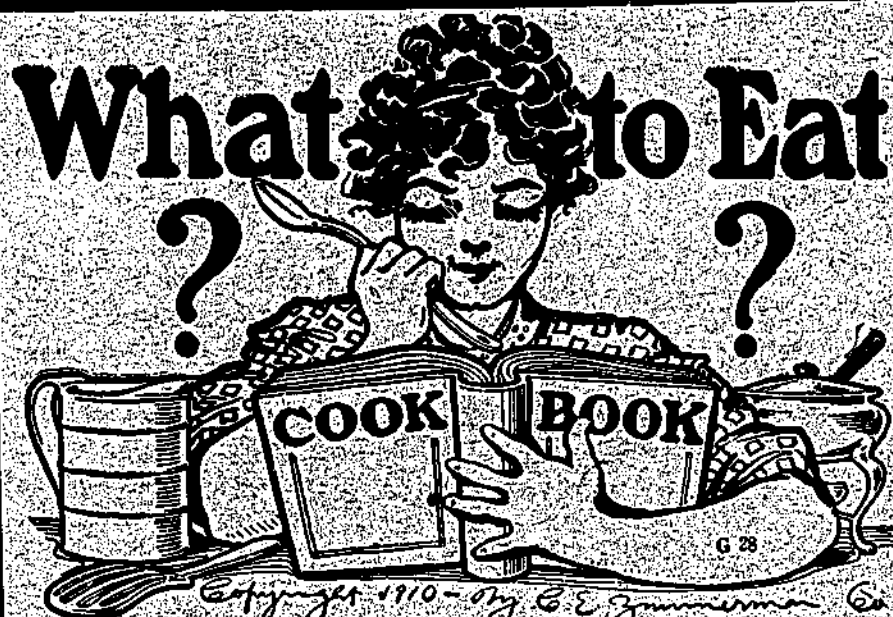

Railway Construction.

(Star, Princeton.)

The right-of-way for the Kettle Valley Railway through the town is being cleared. The line crosses at the confluence of the Tulameen and Similkameen Rivers, and it would appear from present indications that a union depot is to be used by this line and the Great Northern. The graders will be working in town within a short time.

Steel has been laid to a point two miles beyond Tulameen and the work train is running over the new line every day. Tulameen is the basis for the work train for the time being. There is still a gap of some 20 miles of steel to be laid to connect with the line from Merritt. Within another two weeks the grading will be completed, and the tracklayers can then soon connect up the line.

San Francisco, August 21—United States torpedo boat destroyer "Pearl" stationed to-day at entrance to Golden Gate to prevent tramp steamer "Mazattan" leaving harbor with coal designed for German cruiser "Leipzig."

LEAVING FOR FRONT.

Hamilton, August 21—Field Battery notified to-day to be prepared to leave at once for Europe without stop in camp at Val Cartier.

GERMAN PLANS MISCARRIED.

London, August 21—Documents found on German prisoner at Liege show that Germans planned to occupy Brussels seventeen days ago. The interval has enabled the allies to occupy chosen positions. Meanwhile Germany's position in Alsace Lorraine looks precarious and the Russians are already deeper into Prussia than the Germans are into France.

ITALY WILL MOBILIZE.

Paris, August 22—General mobilization in Italy has been decided upon and will be proclaimed in three or four days.

KAISER MAKES BIG LEVY.

London, August 22—The Germans have demanded a war imposition of $40,000,000 from Brussels. The treasurer of the city, M. Hallett states that no possible coercive measures will give them even a fraction of that sum.

It is reported that exorbitant demands have been made on other Belgian towns and cities in the hands of the Kaiser's army.

The Kaiser's levy on Brussels means $55 per head for every man, woman, boy and girl in the city, that is, an average of nearly $250 for every family in the place.

KAISER'S ARMY AT OSTEND.

The Daily Mail's Ostend correspondent telegraphing Friday evening at 6 o'clock, says the Germans are overrunning northern Belgium. They are now believed to be within striking distance of Ostend. 50,000 Germans marched through Brussels, and are now in Ghent. The Chronicle's correspondent at Copenhagen reports that Germany is calling out her last reserves.

AWFUL CRUELTY OF KAISER'S SOLDIERS.

London, August 22—Telegraphing from Paris the Reuter's correspondent sends the following:

The French Government is addressing a note to the Powers signatory to The Hague Convention in October 1907, pointing out that the German military authorities have violated the articles of the Convention in that on August 10 of this year, according to a communication of a General in command of the eastern forces, German troops dispatched a number of wounded by firing shots into their faces, and the wounds of other wounded people were made worse by being deliberately torn open.

The correspondent adds that the note says further:

Also on that same date Bavarian soldiers in the Montmagny and Montreux districts systematically fired the villages through which they passed without the slightest provocation, and the villagers were forced to precede the German scouts on march. On August 11 troops burned villages, massacred their inhabitants and drove the men women and children to the battlefield. And on other occasions they murdered prisoners and shot wounded.

The French Government will leave to the earnest consideration of the Powers such reprehensible acts and similar deeds that have never before so dishonored civilized belligerents.

GERMAN HORDES SWEEPING OVER BELGIUM.

Paris Aug 22—Official statement issued last night says Namur is partially invested, and heavy artillery opened fire towards noon. The westward movement of the German columns continues on both banks of the Meuse outside the range of action at Namur. German cavalry passed through Brussels to-day going westward. They were followed later by army corps.

BRITISH LOAN FOR BELGIUM.

London, August 22—Great Britain has decided to make a loan to Belgium of $50,000,000. The money will be raised by treasury bills for which tenders were called to-day.

SERVIANS REPORT FURTHER VICTORIES.

Rome, August 22—Newspapers print the following dispatch from Nish, Servia:

The general staff announces a complete victory of the Serbs in a four day battle near Lositz. The Austrians to the number of 150,000 fought an equal number of Serbs. Losses on both sides were enormous.

GREAT BATTLE IN BELGIUM.

London, August 23.—The great battle in Belgium which may last many days is now being fought in the angle of the Sambre and Meuse rivers, which meet at Namur, 38 miles west of Liege, and same distance south-east of Brussels. Allies have chosen this as their place to try to stop German movement, and have had a week in which to entrench themselves, mine bridges, wreck railroad lines, etc. If Germany wins through she will have a clear road into France so far as Belgium is concerned with her Belgian territory. The selection of this place for the Allies to make their stand was the outcome of serious thought, for the French did not want to get too far from their frontier and supplies, and yet wanted to try to check the Germans as far out towards Liege as possible. Germany is said to have at least 440,000 men massed for the onslaught at this point, and unless reports of English, French, and Belgian forces are untrue, Allies should have almost as many.

SERIOUSNESS OF SITUATION REALIZED.

London, August 23.—England is very serious to-day, and even the conduct of high government officials testifies to the seriousness of the situation, while they declare they are confident of the ultimate triumph of the Allies. Additional reinforcements are believed to have been hurried across the channel, but the War Office remains mute.

LOOKING FOR AN ATTACK.

Fears of an early raid by Germany are entertained in many quarters. With the Germans near Ostend, Bruges, Ghent, and the Straits of Dover, they may be close enough to use their Zeppelins in a hazardous gamble, and there are few in England who doubt that they may make the attempt.

JAPAN DECLARES WAR.

Tokio, August 23.—At 4 p.m. to-day the Japanese Emperor formally declared war against Germany. All Japanese Embassies have been informed.

ITALY TO MOBILIZE.

Paris, August 23.—Understood here that August 27 is date set for mobilization of Italian troops.

AUSTRIAN NAVY GETTING LESS.

Rome, August 23.—The Avant says thirty more Austrian ships have been sunk in the Adriatic, and that Greece has sent troops to aid Servia.

MOMENTOUS STRUGGLE RAGING SINCE SATURDAY.

London, August 23.—Great battle began on Saturday morning between Germans and Allied British and French forces, extending from Namur to Charleroi.

Belgians and German cavalry had bloody fight on field of Waterloo. There has been bloody fighting for the last 24 hours in the province of Hainault, and also in Luttre.

RUSSIANS CLAIM FURTHER VICTORIES.

Advices from Russia tell of Russian victories over the Austrians, and of further Serbian successes. Russians fought three day battle near Gundinnen, defeated three German Army corps, and are now pursuing the survivors.

GERMAN SIDE OF STORY.

Washington, D.C., August 23.—The German Embassy here gives out statement almost directly contradictory to official Russian dispatches. They claim Germans took more than 8000 prisoners and many Russian guns abandoned, and that the French in both Alsace and Lorraine have been defeated, and are retiring across the frontier.

German Embassy here also claims important victory north of Metz, and near Longwy a second. More Zeppelins, it is stated, have been made ready to fly over the English Channel.

EAST PRUSSIA OVERRUN BY RUSSIANS.

Vilna, Russia.—Official statement says Russians have successfully pushed on into East Prussia at a point 30 miles 30 miles from Koenigsburg, an important seaport on the Gulf of Danzig.

MONEY FOR BELGIUM

London, August 23.—France and Great Britain will each advance Belgium $50,000,000 as war expenses.

WILL ITALY FIGHT AUSTRIA?

Paris, August 23.—There are said to be many evidences of acute diplomatic differences between Vienna and Rome, which may lead to a sudden declaration of war by either Italy or Austria.

ANOTHER AIRSHIP DESTROYED.

Paris, August 23.—Official statement says German Zeppelin No. 8 was destroyed while sailing westward from the direction of Strassburg.

ORIENTAL SEA ROUTES SAFE.

Tokio, August 23.—The Chamber of Commerce here has declared the Oriental sea routes are safe, as well as the trans-Pacific route to Seattle and Vancouver, but that ships should keep north instead of going south by way of Hawaii.

FLOATING MINES SINK DANISH SHIPS.

London, August 23.—Two Danish trading steamers have been sunk in North Sea by mines. Naval officials admit that the Germans have thoroughly sown the sea with these dangers, which puts the British fleet in constant jeopardy.

BRITISH FORCES IN BIG SUNDAY BATTLE.

London, August 24.—Official bureau to-day gave out the following: British forces engaged all Sunday and until after dark in neighborhood of Mons, Belgium, 40 miles west of Namur, they held their ground. An official Paris announcement says battle of Allies against Germans continues to-day, and that the mission of French and English is to hold virtually entire German army in check while Russia continues her advance from the east. Rumored in Paris that Germans have entered Nancy. Liege forts said to be still holding out, but official Paris dispatch states Fort Chande Fontaine was blown up by Belgian commander after being ruined by German bombardment.

Sinning Against Your Home Town.

PART VIII.

"From The Farmer's Standpoint."

The farms of yesterday are the sites of our present cities. Do we who live in Summerland fully realize the importance of showing the farmer who is considering the purchase of land near our home town—

Or the farmer who has already purchased his land—

That we are a growing community—a community with a future, whose people believe in their home town and who are doing all they can to make it a prosperous and attractive home town?

The farmer of to-day is more of a business man than his brother of yesterday.

Instead of settling on land anywhere and taking a chance on disposing of his products profitably—

The farmer of to-day goes carefully over the ground with an eye to the future.

He wants a ready market—a substantial market, not a fluctuating one. He wants to be near a town that has a future—a town that is growing and expanding—gradually creeping over the land adjacent to it—making the suburbs of Yesterday the business streets of To-day. That is the kind of a town the farmer of to-day wants to get near. He wants to be within easy distance of a town that is full of LIVE people—people who believe in their home town to the extent that everything they can do to build it up—they DO.

And after he has purchased his farm—what then?

A farmer primarily comes to town to supply his wants and those of his family. He is perfectly willing—in fact he wants to patronize the home merchants if he can get what he wants.

AND OUR MERCHANTS CANNOT CARRY WHAT HE WANTS OR WHAT YOU WANT IF YOU SEND YOUR MONEY OUT OF TOWN—IF YOU DON'T GIVE THEM A CHANCE TO DO BUSINESS.

It is a rare case in Summerland where people have patronized the mail order houses because they preferred to give preference over their home merchants. It was probably because they could not get what they wanted in their home town—or thought they couldn't. It is the same way with the farmer. If he reads about a certain article and he wants it—he usually inquires of the local merchant first.

The farmer's trade in any small town is a big item in building up that town. He realizes that the more business the local merchants do—the quicker taxes will be paid and improvements made—improvements that makes his home town a better and bigger town.

City halls, courthouses, churches, parks, schools, etc., are paid for by the city government out of its treasury, into which you and I and our neighbors have paid our taxes, water rent, etc.

Suppose we are unable to pay these necessary city taxes—then what? Where would the necessary home attractions be that attract new people to our home town?

Why would farmers come and till our soil if we did not have the necessary home comforts and necessities for them and their children?

Why would railroads and telegraph, telephone and express companies—city necessities as well as city recognition—come in and spend money and bring hundreds of people into Summerland on good salaries and wages—

If it did not pay them?

They won't! And I know it and you know it.

Then why should the farmer pay good money for land if he is not sure that he can get a good living out of it, and have good belief that in the future he can sell it at a good profit?

That is the business side of farming of to-day.

That is the farmer's standpoint—

A point of view that can be remedied only by satisfying him that we are not "sinning" by sending or spending our money outside of our home town, but are on the other hand—

Keeping it at home, where it is making Summerland a mighty good place for him to cast his lot in and grow with us.

"Do you expect too much from your local merchants," is the next instalment of "Sinning Against Your Home Town." It will appear September 4th. It will pay you to read it.
