Skating, Hockey and Curling Here in the Good Old Summertime

Monday marked the opening of the first annual summer skating school in the Summerland Jubilee Arena. 22 skaters have so far enlisted and will be skating every day under the able supervision of Miss Dolores Causler of Vancouver. More skaters are welcome.

There will be two afternoon children's skating sessions as well as one adult evening skating session every week. Tuesday and Friday nights from 8 to 10 will be Dance Sessions under professional supervision.

Commencing next week, a Hockey School for players of all ages, will be operated twice weekly, evenings only, or more often if found necessary, this school will be under the leadership and coaching of Bernie Bathgate. Bernie's famous brother, Andy Bathgate, will act as guest coach as soon as he arrives in the Okanagan.

All interested hockey players are asked to contact the arena at any time, or Bernie Bathgate of Penticton in the evenings.

A Summer Curling Bonspiel is also planned, particulars will be announced shortly.

Annual Rose Show Saturday

The Summerland Horticultural Society is expecting more entries than ever in its annual Rose Show which takes place this Saturday, July 4, in the Oddfellows Hall, West Summerland.

Weather has been good for the blooms and the gardens have recovered almost completely from the 1955 freeze. A larger show is planned this year with six additional classes.

Anyone is welcome to exhibit in the show. In fact the Society welcomes new exhibitors and will assist them in every way possible. All entries must be staged by 1:00 p.m. on the day of the show. Show is open to the public from 3:00 to 9:00 p.m. Prize lists are available at the Agricultural Office.

An additional feature of the Show this year will be a display of African Violets staged by the members of the Summerland African Violet Society.

WEDNESDAY, JULY FIRST, NINETEEN HUNDRED AND FIFTY-NINE

Why We Did It

Three weeks ago we changed the format of the Summerland Review and we must admit to being highly gratified at the way the change has been accepted, we can say welcomed, by our readers.

Obviously such a drastic change is not made without some reason. Briefly stated, our purpose in changing was a better deal for our subscribers and our advertisers. It really should not be necessary to differentiate between the two for service to one is service to the other. Advertising has little or no value in a paper that is not thoroughly read. At the same time, it is only through advertising that it is possible to publish a newspaper at a price which people can afford to pay.

Most readers have already discovered the most obvious advantage of tabloid format. It eliminates the necessity of getting down on the living room floor to read the paper. Indeed the style was first adopted for that very reason, by papers whose readers were mostly subway commuters.

With one quarter of an issue of normal size (front and editorial pages) devoted entirely to news and editorial text, the remainder of the paper was too often a sorry hodge podge of too much advertising jammed in with two little news. Lately, with the town growing and producing more news, this situation has become serious. With the crowded pages limiting the effectiveness of our ads it has not been possible to sell sufficient advertising to carry the increased budget of news. This has involved us in more grief than we care to think about.

With the new format it is possible to maintain a much more favorable ratio of news to advertising on all pages. This may not be immediately apparent because of another advantage of the small page format. The ads look bigger. This is partly because there are fewer of them competing for attention on the page and partly because they really are bigger in relation to page size — a natural standard of reference which the eye automatically adopts.

In time, we hope, the new format will enable us to departmentalize much of the news — to run a sports page the year round. It may be possible to add a page, or so, devoted to youth activities.

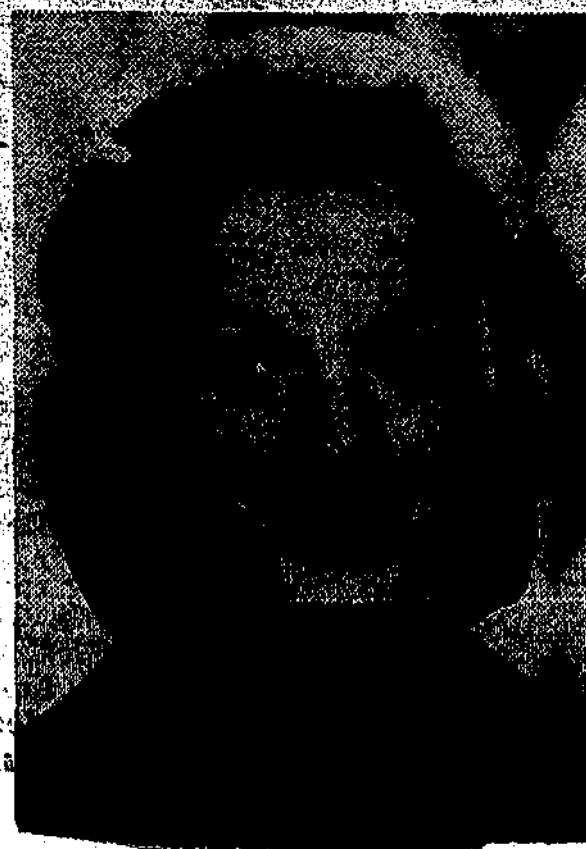

Thus, we hope, with our pages more attractive to both readers and advertisers, the Review may resume a rate of growth in pace with that of our community. Perhaps, we're dreaming but this, at least is encouraging. No change we have ever made before has produced such a sudden shower of favorable comment as we have enjoyed.

Mary Costa, beautiful Tennessee-born soprano will sing the role of Eurydice in the Vancouver International Festival production of "Orpheus and Eurydice." The opera will be performed in Vancouver's new Civic Auditorium, pictured above and will employ the largest stage ever constructed on the Pacific Coast of North America.

Orchard Run

Bad news
 There's mourning in the camp of the Winesap apple growers this year for prices are disastrously low and it is impossible to find any buyers for at least 10,000 boxes which will have to be converted into juice.

For the first time CA storage MacIntosh from Ontario has invaded the Western Market — a traditionally Winesap market in spring and early summer — and no doubt this has been a contributing factor to the plight of the hapless Winesap.

In looking around for other reasons we find there have been very heavy supplies of Winesaps in the Western United States, and prices have been slashed to the core in an unsuccessful effort to get rid of the stock.

This naturally, has reflected on the Okanagan Winesap prices and could be the main reason for our Winesap problem this year.

Another crop of apples is now well on the way and Winesap growers would like to know what to expect of it in the way of prices. That will depend upon the size of the 1959 apple crop in North America and competition from CA storage Macs and the popularity of the Winesaps.

Present signs point to a smaller crop in Western Canada and the United States and this should help strengthen the market.

Nobody knows how successful CA storage will be or how far it will go. We do know that the present CA storage calls for very careful selection of fruit, special care in handling, and very costly investment in storage facilities.

All this extra expense has to be added to the price the consumer has to pay and it has yet to be proved whether the consumer is willing to pay this price.

In Quebec and Ontario, the MacIntosh is the dominant variety as it is in the Okanagan, only more so. The Eastern grower has few of the late season, long keeping varieties such as our Winesap in the Okanagan. They have been looking for CA storage to fill this gap by extending the market season of Macs well into April, May and even June.

Long a favorite on the late season market, Winesap is now being elbowed by the CA storage Mac. But the Winesap is still a good apple. It has been with us for the last 200 years and it is not likely to pass from the scene for a few years to come. However it seems that anything can happen in the fruit business, and the grower who has a heavy investment in Winesaps should keep a close watch on developments.

According to the Mood . . .

By SID. GODBER

I stood on the scales at midnight
And pondered what I saw there.
What I saw, looking down over the bulge, was the bathroom scale needle quivering at the 210 pound mark.
That was after the Summerland Rotary Club annual installation and the Ladies Auxilliary which put on that feed let me down. Instead of horrible salad concoctions, which I could spurn with the alibi that I was on a diet, the Ladies Auxilliary served up my kind of food: turkey, creamy mashed potatoes, vegetables straight, rich brown gravy and topped off with strawberries and ice cream.
I blindfolded my conscience and enjoyed a whale of a meal with not a potato salad in sight, although several of the Ladies Auxilliary hissed at me as they went by, that had they known I was going to be there they would have had something different, a special just for me . . . a gruesome idea.

But there it was, that needle quivering at 210 pounds and, in truth, a bit over.

Bang! went two weeks' result of a half and half sort of diet, back to that appalling 210 pounds — weigh, weigh too heavy, overweight according to the charts, by 40 odd pounds.

The decision had to be made — rigorous diet.

- Steaks — out!
- Pork chops — out!
- French fried potatoes . . . out!
- Creamy mashed potatoes . . . out!
- Sausages . . . out!
- Sugar . . . out!
- Candies . . . out!

Roast beef and yorkshire pudding . . . gee-whiz . . . won't somebody stop me . . . out!

Bacon and eggs . . . out!

I stood on the scales and wondered what I was going to live on for about everything I like, including coffee and tea, molassas sweet, also out.

And then that pesky conscience of minds started hollering in my ear — haven't you forgot something?

I tried to ignore that conscience of mine, but he's a very persistent fellow and very strict, won't let me take candy from kids, or rob the blind of their bootlaces. So he kept after me until I gave in.

Yes beer — one bottle of beer, whispered my conscience, is equal to one plate of ham and eggs — not in proteins brother, but in calories.

"Well, come on man," said my conscience, "out with it!"
Beer . . . out!

"I didn't hear that," said my conscience, "try again!"
Alright . . . OUT!

"What's out", persisted that pesky conscience — "name it, look at that bulge, look at that scale needle, now what's out?"

Beer . . . OUT!

And then on Saturday night, I was at the Dessert Party and they were dishing up delicious strawberry shortcake and served by very lovely and charming young ladies, the Queen and Princesses contestants, and when a lovely young thing smiles and asks, "Would you like some strawberry shortcake, Mr. Godber?" — well I'm just putty in the hands of lovely young things and so didn't even put up a fight. Then I dropped in at the Legion just to say "hello" and now I've got to climb back on the diet wagon all over again — but this time, by golly, I'm going to stay on.

Last weigh (that strawberry shortcake must have been double loaded with calories) 211 pounds.

Bother over the Royal visit? Well, I have trouble with Royalty right here at home. Summerland's Queen Elect, Leona McNab does a spot of after school work at this printing establishment. As you can see by the front page pix, Leona, to put it mildly is a stunner, and now she's Queen and the cost of of a red carpet is too much for this establishment to meet.

Having a Queen around is going to present its difficulties, but worse things have already happened. A couple of my young stalwarts in the backshop came dragging their feet from school with report cards well hidden — they'd failed.

Young Miss Queen-elect, Leona McNab came from that last day of school with a beaming smile and utterly breathless, her eyes starry bright, and carrying it proudly and waving it under everyone's nose, her report card — Leona had passed. The male ego around this establishment is at a low, low ebb. Just imagine having to put up with a Queen — beautiful and not dumb.

How to be on the Best of Terms with all your CREDIT NEEDS...

BANK OF MONTREAL

Family Finance Plan

Brings all your personal credit needs under one roof with a low-cost B of M life-insured loan

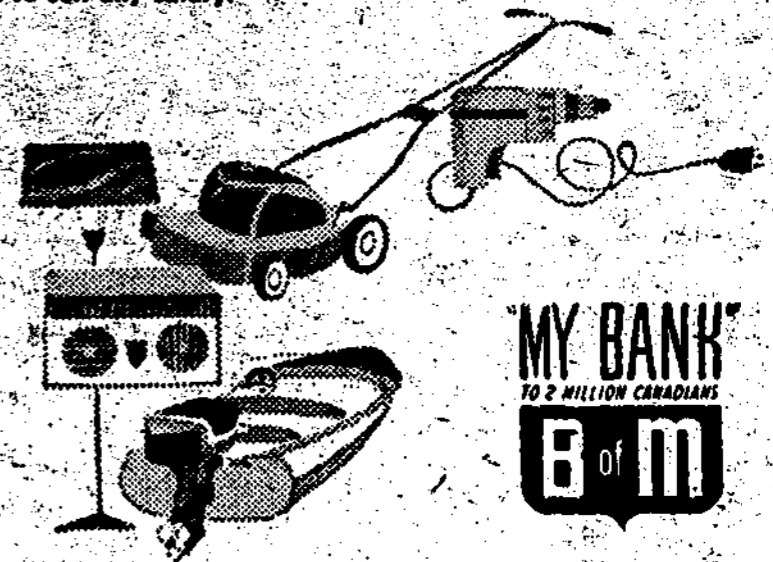

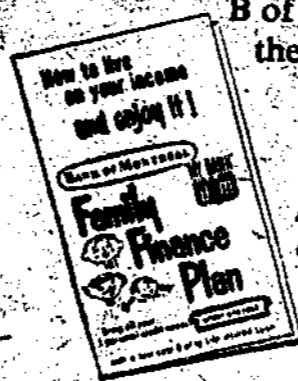

Now all your personal credit needs can be fitted into one single comprehensive plan — the Bank of Montreal Family Finance Plan. Purchases for the home and family . . . expenses for school, college and vacation . . . unexpected emergency bills . . . all these can be taken care of on a single-monthly-payment basis.

Here are four good reasons why — whether married or single — your credit-financing should be on the low-cost terms of the Bank of Montreal Family Finance Plan:

- 1 All loans are automatically life-insured. Should you die before your loan is repaid, your debt to the Bank will be cancelled.
- 2 Monthly repayments can be extended up to two years — or even three, if need be. This means that the Plan can be tailored to suit any salary.
- 3 You can borrow up to $3,500, depending on your income, to buy the things you want for your home and family, or to meet emergencies.
- 4 Planned repayments help you run your income — instead of letting it run you.

If you have a steady income and can make monthly loan-repayments without hardship, there's money available to you at the B of M to serve almost any useful purpose. Whether you are a B of M customer or not, talk to the people at your neighbourhood branch . . . a warm welcome awaits you.

Summerland Interest In Coast Nuptials

The wedding of a member of a well-known Summerland family, Melvin Harvey Mitchell, of Destruction Bay, Y.T., son of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Mitchell, Paradise Flat, took place in St. James' Anglican Church, Vancouver, on Saturday, June 13 at 2:00. His bride is Dorothy Hilda, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Evans of Vancouver.

The ceremony was performed by Fr. K. B. Milton assisted by Fr. J. F. Thomas and the bride was given in marriage by her father.

Her lovely wedding gown, ballerina length of embroidered nylon was distinctively modelled with a fitted bodice in a cross over style above an Empire waistline. It had tiny short sleeves. From the deep V at the back of the waist there were white velvet bows to the hemline of the full circular skirt which was worn over crinolines. The simple veil was chapel length nylon net and held in place with a seed pearl tiara and the bridal bouquet was of pink roses and stephanotis.

Miss Amy Sumi, the bridesmaid, was in a smart pink nylon shirtwaist frock. The long full sleeves were gathered to a cuff and the full skirt was over crinolines. She wore a matching pink bandeau and her flowers were pink carnations.

The groom's father, Harvey L. Mitchell of Summerland, was best man and the usher was the groom's uncle, Lloyd Johnston of Britannia Beach. Music was by the organist of the church, Mr. Leonard Wilson.

A reception followed in the church hall where the parents of the bride and of the groom were assisted in receiving by the bridal party.

The bride's table was attractively arranged with a lace cloth, tall white tapers in silver candlesticks, and a beautifully decorated wedding cake.

Lloyd Wright of Vancouver was the master of ceremonies and proposed a toast to the bride to which the groom replied. Friends of the bride were serviteurs.

Congratulatory telegrams were read from the groom's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Johnston, of Summerland and his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. William Miller of Kelowna.

The newly married couple are spending their honeymoon in Victoria and fly this week to Destruction Bay where the groom is manager of CNR communications.

Red Sox Split Double Header With Vernon

The Junior Red Sox kept their hold on third place when they split a double header with the Vernon Juniors on Sunday.

The first game was a managers "nightmare". The boys could do nothing right in the field and the Vernon pitcher had them handcuffed most of the game. He pitched a two hitter and Vernon took the game 9-2.

The second game was a different story. With Shannon pitching beautiful ball, the boys played like they are capable of and came up with some big league plays. The Red Sox got their 4 runs in the second inning on three singles and a bases loaded double by De Witt. Vernon scored one run in the 4, 5 and 6 innings and had the tying run on base with none out in the last inning but the Red Sox came up with a fast double play and Shannon struck out the last man to end the game 4-3 for the Red Sox.

The next game is in Summerland Thursday evening at 6:30 against Penticton and on Sunday another double header with last place Merritt the opposition. Game time 1 p.m.

League standings including games played on June 28.

Macs Lose Close Game to Penticton 4-3

Penticton Red Sox collected nine hits, including a home run by Lloyd Burt, to down Summerland Macs 4-3 in an Okanagan Mainline league baseball game Friday night in Summerland.

The Summerland team staged a desperate rally in the ninth inning, pushing across two runs, but the Macs failed to close the big one run margin.

Red Sox scored runs one at a time, in the first, third, fifth and ninth innings.

Bud Inglesby was the winning pitcher and Carlton

Sheeley was tagged with the loss. Red Sox were credited with 9 hits, the Macs eight. Two errors were marked up for Penticton and four for Summerland.

New Bus Location

New location of the Greyhound bus depot in Summerland will be on Highway 97 at the Pleasant View Service Station operated by J. Sproul. Summerland council gave first reading to the bylaw amendment cancelling parking space for buses in front of Mac's Cafe.

Lyle Chambers, district manager of Greyhound bus service thanked council for the tolerance extended the Greyhound Co. during the past 20 years when the buses have stopped in the centre of the business section.

It is estimated that vehicles will save one and a half miles by using the Pleasant View Service Station on the highway. There is plenty of room for parking and this will make for faster transportation. It was noted that freight trucks already stop at this point frequently.

Scouting activities

Queen's Park Peach Bowl was buzzing with activity on Sunday afternoon, June 21, when Scouts from Summerland, Penticton, Naramata and Chelan held a field day of competitions. Beginning with a parade from the Safeway lot, they marched to the saluting base in the Bowl where South Okanagan Scout Association president, Dr. H. R. McLarty took the salute and gave an address of welcome.

Mr. Jack Scrivener, Chief Commissioner for the South Okanagan, then took over and directed the various Troops through exercises designed to demonstrate their skills. Contests in tent pitching, log bucking and axeing, fire lighting with and without matches, a tug of war, and lashing staves to make a travois for carrying baggage through woods bought their share of successes and frustrations to the boys.

Remodelling Your Bathroom

Perhaps no room announces the age of a house so much as the bathroom. It is no wonder that so many women cast a baleful eye on this tattle-tale room.

But remodelling is a major job and basic mistakes can be costly.

Collect pictures of bathrooms you admire and make notes of the features adaptable to the size of your room as well as your family needs. This will establish the major structural changes.

Consider the variety of available materials: paint, wall paper, wall tile, flooring, plastic laminates. You will undoubtedly want real tile - that is, ceramic tile - for your walls. You can choose either a 4" or 6" wall tile. Your choice will depend on the size of your room.

Treat yourself to a built-in vanity table. This gives you extra counter space for pretty bottles and your more attractive bath and cosmetic preparations. If your budget permits, plan extra drawer space underneath the vanity for your linens and towels.

And finally colour. Your ceramic tile is available in a great variety of colours that can blend with, or complement, coloured fixtures. Unless you are particularly devoted to white, do consider both coloured tile and fixtures. But a word of caution. Don't get involved with too many colours.

Agricultural Fellowship For Summerland Reeve

F. E. Atkinson, officer-in-charge of the fruit and vegetable processing laboratory at the Canada Research Station has been made a fellow of the Agricultural Institute of Canada. The AIC is a national organization of professional agriculturists with branches in all parts of Canada.

One or two fellowships are awarded each year and they are not won easily. They are awarded on nomination from local branches and announceed at the annual national convention.

Dr. J. C. Wilcox, chairman of the local fellowship committee in the Okanagan, announced the honor to a section meeting held yesterday at the Farm. Mr. Atkinson received a wire of congratulation from the convention just ended in Winnipeg.

Mr. Atkinson's fellowship is the fourth awarded to Okanagan residents in more than 30 years. Other recipients are Dr. J. C. Wilcox, Dr. H. R. McLarty and the late Dr. R. C. Palmer.

The award is for outstanding agriculture justifying nationing contribution to Canadian agriculture recognition.

Mr. Atkinson has been at the Farm for the past 35 years. A few years ago he was sent by Ottawa at the invitation of the government of the West Indies to establish tomato canning plants in some of the Islands. Last year he was on a trip to various parts of Europe observing cider processing methods and other agricultural pursuits. He is well known for his work in establishing canneries throughout the Okanagan Valley and for many progressive activities of economic importance throughout Canada.

In Summerland he is associated with all sides of community work and is vice-president of the Rotary Club.

WEST SUMMERLAND, B.C.

READY FOR ACID TEST

Revolutionary Type of Peach Grader Constructed By Summerland Co-op

The problem of the bruising peach has cost peach growers a lot of money and furrowed the brows of the Sherlock-Holmes of the industry for many, many years. But this bruising may have been solved by the new grader now awaiting the acid test of a regular season's run at the Summerland Co-operative Growers' packinghouse.

Basically the idea is simple and the basic idea originated with Don Sutherland, former Kaleden packinghouse manager now with B.C. Tree Fruits.

Mr. Sutherland resorted to this way. "What causes a lot of the bruising of the peach, after we get them in the packinghouse."

The answer was self-evident in watching the peaches rolling and tumbling on the regular graders.

Prototype Cost Around $8000

Design a grader that will give performance, move the fruit in volume, but handle the peach as if it is a bubble and with nary a drop any place to cause a bruise — that was the answer.

But it took trial and error, a lot of engineering designing skill and a lot of money, close to $8,000 to produce the prototype now geared for action at the Summerland Co-op.

Don Sutherland's basic idea might still have been only an idea, but for the forward thinking of the directors of the Summerland Co-op who believed from the beginning that the new grader would do the job and agreed to invest time and money in its development.

The British Columbia Fruit Growers' Association voted $1200.

Boxes Not Dumped Anymore

The engineering design of the line was done by Food Industries Research and Engineering of Yakima, Wash. Lloyd Hunter, mechanical engineer, describes the operation of the line as follows: "Boxes are not dumped as formerly but the peaches are lifted out of the boxes and placed on a 30" Moprene belt driven by a variable speed motor. Fruit of various sizes is packed as it proceeds down the belt and revolving "discs" accumulate the overflow of each size.

Mr. Hunter said the discs are about five feet in diameter and driven by a variable speed motor so that the proper relationship between the discs and neoprene belt can be maintained. Transfer of the fruit from the belt to the discs is a special development in the design that should find wide appreciation in future lines. The line will also handle McIntosh, apricots, prunes and cherries with slightly different handling procedure.

The line was installed by Bruce Rose of Rose Equipment in Yakima, Wash.

Summerland Co-op manager Jim Wells is confident that the new grader will work. Don Sutherland says simply, "it will work."

"The grader itself won't be any worry at all," says Manager Wells, "any trouble we might have is changing over the packers to the new methods of handling the fruit."

Charlie Wharton Fund Over $300

A happy event this week was the presentation of a cheque for over $300 to old timer Charlie Wharton, whose home was recently destroyed by fire.

The money was raised by the Summerland Board of Trade, which set up a fund in tribute to Mr. Wharton who is a life member of the board and who for many years was an active member of the board and the community.

Presentation was made by Joe Biollo, vice president of the Board of Trade. Mr. Wharton is still in hospital here but expects shortly to move to one or other of the senior citizens' homes in the valley.

250 FEET TO BE ADDED

Another 12,000 To Be Spent On Breakwater Here Next Spring

Before another boating season rolls around Summerland will have one of the finest small boat harbors anywhere on Okanagan Lake.

This was disclosed to The Review today by L. A. Smith, Commodore of the Summerland Yacht Club, the recipient of a letter from the Hon. Howard C. Green, Federal Minister of Public Works, to the effect that as a result of representations of the Yacht Club and of David Pugh, MP, for Okanagan-Boundary, a further $12,000 would be spent on extending the breakwater 200 feet on the north end and another 50 feet to the south end, extending the breakwater closer to shore.

Fears during the breakwater's construction were confirmed during the first big blow — the new Summerland breakwater was neither long enough nor angled enough to give the small boat protection that was hoped for. Boats moored directly behind the breakwater were reasonably protected, but the short leg of the breakwater to shore allowed the waves to beat through under the walk to render a large area of the boat anchorage unsafe in a south wind. Likewise the wide open gap to the north left a large area of the harbor exposed to winds from that direction.

Commodore Smith sent letters and a photograph illustrating the condition and today his efforts were rewarded with the following letter: Dear Commodore Smith:

When I wrote to you on May 11, I advised that the subject matter of your letter had been referred to Department officials for investigation and report and when this was received I would write to you again. In the meantime, Mr. David Pugh, MP has dis-

Queen Crowning, Ball To Launch Fruit Fair

Plans for the Summerland Board of Trade's annual Fall Fruit Fair are fast taking shape.

Decision has been reached to launch the program Friday night of Labor Day week and with a colorful Queen Crowning Ceremony, preceded by a band concert and then to be followed by the Queen's ball.

It is hoped to make the Queen's Ball one of the outstanding dance events of the year.

Other plans call for a Fashion Show, the appearance of the famous Doukhobor Choir at Saturday afternoon and evening concerts, a talent show, bingo, midway and of course the arena display.

Rose Show Winners

Okanagan summer so far, but it seems to have been a good flower year so far and the weather must have been exceptionally kind to rose growers, as all who saw the Summerland Horticultural Society annual rose show last Saturday will agree.

The IOOF hall was transformed with a perfumed, rainbow display of flowers with the rose predominant.

Winner of the Summerland Rose Cup was C. Holden of Penticton whose magnificent "Peace" rose won the champion rose award.

Over 200 visited the show in which there were 113 exhibits.

In presenting the trophies Mrs. E. C. Bingham, president expressed appreciation to out of town exhibitors who enhanced the show with their entries. Many of these were prize winners. Mrs. Clarence Burch of Naramata took three firsts, one with a pink rose, Tiffany; the second for a yellow, Sutter's Gold, an old favorite; and the third for the class, individual Peace rose.

A. W. Watt, show convenor, also spoke briefly, thanking all those who made the display a success.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth McKay, of Naramata, life members of the Summerland Horticultural Society, brought a delightful non-competitive exhibit adding to the show's beauty and variety. A basket of pink hybrid tea roses, First Love, was admired along with a bowl of pink Queen Elizabeth roses.

In the "basket of flowers" class Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Bennett won first place with delphiniums in various blue tones arranged with a species of iris, a pale yellow, monneri spurri.

Miss Doreen Tait won the Sammett Memorial Cup for artistic display in a three-foot space, 75 per cent roses.

This year the Summerland African Violet Society of which Mrs. Harold Hansen is president, displayed three dozen or more named varieties of this lovely, popular flower. Their shades of deep purple, violet, rose, pink, white and many shades in between along with their intriguing names such as Sea Spirte, Swirling Petticoats and others, were of great interest to the large attendance.

Refreshments were served afternoon and evening by a committee convened by Mrs. W. F. Ward.

Complete prize list was as follows:

On the Rifle Range

BY HERB SIMPSON

It appears that the weatherman just doesn't want to cooperate with us. We planned an evening shoot on June 26 and it turned out to be very cloudy, making it impossible to shoot more than one range; then at the practice on Sunday morning, it rained heavily before the second squad had a chance to shoot at the 600 yard range. Those who shot the 500 and 600 yard matches were George Dunsdon 92; A. McCargar 91; H. Richardson 87; Cliff Dunsdon 87; Herb Simpson 84; Roy Bertram 82. Those completing only the 500 yard range were: Art Dunsdon 48; Steve Dunsdon 44; Ron Dunsdon 39; Louise Atkinson 38; A. Kalinin 30; Mrs. Ida Johnson 30.

This week we welcome Mrs. Ida Johnson who made an excellent score for her first attempt at shooting a heavy rifle, also a young junior, David Patterson who did very well at the very difficult 600 yard range. He also had a score of 30 points.

On June 28, nine members travelled to Kelowna for the annual invitation shoot. Five Dunsdon brothers took second place in the team competition. On the team were Ted, Fred, Art, George and Phil. Nice going fellows, hope you will be competing in Penticton next Sunday. Other local competitors were Harold Richardson, Roy Bertram, Ron Dunsdon and Dick Dunsdon.

It is hoped that we will have enough members for two teams at the Penticton invitation shoot on July 12 so every one is urged to turn out to practice on Friday evening at 6:30, weather permitting.

Among those attending the Convention of Baptist Young People of Western Canada in Calgary last week were Bonnie Ganzeveld, Ruth Gronlund, Magda Wouters and Ronald Manning. They were accompanied by Mr. Ray Harrington of Peachland.

Miss Irene Carrey, who left here last fall to attend the Salvation Army training college in Toronto, was commissioned on June 27, to the rank of Pro-Lieutenant. She has been appointed to Kitimat. A graduate of Summerland High School, Pro-Lt. Carrey is spending two weeks furlough with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Carrey, Trout Creek.

Passing with honors in their music exams were Linda Betuzzi and Marjorie James, both grade 8 pupils of Miss Kay Hamilton.

Rev. and Mrs. D. C. Harry and daughter Ruth of Owen Sound were visitors last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. V. Durnin.

Mr. and Mrs. Mel Ducumon, Dorelyn and Terry spent four days last week motoring to Banff, Calgary and returning via the United States. They visited Glacier National Park, Montana, Idaho, and Spokane.

Long-Service Teachers Honored On Retirement

According to the Mood . . .

By SID. GODBER

A week has gone by since I stood on the scales at midnight and saw the scale indicator quivering at 211 pounds. A week gone by since I swore I would go on a diet — and no foolin'.

A week gone by of rigorous self-denial, of artificial sweeteners, of starvation. A week of shunning roast beef and yorkshire pudding, strawberries and ice cream — pie-a-la-mode and fish and chips.

And so I stood on the scales again — here was my reward for a week of rigorous, heroic self-denial.

I stepped on the scales with closed eyes, I waited for the vibration to cease. I opened my eyes, the indicator quivered at — I couldn't believe my eyes — Ladies and gentlemen — are you underweight or undernourished? If so, send one dollar and a stamped addressed envelope and I'll send you my secret formula — how to gain weight by not eating.

Yes after one week of self-denial — one week of an utterly gruesome starvation diet — the scale indicator which quivered a week ago at 211 pounds, now quivers at two hundred and TWELVE.

This means I've got to give up TV — a man watching Paladin getting himself into all kinds of stupid predicaments for which he deserves to bite the dust, doesn't notice that he's gorging the marshmallows the wee daughter wanted for a picnic.

And watching Tee Vee one becomes something of an automaton, automatically wandering to the fridge and kitchen cupboard during commercials. I didn't realize until too late that I'd wolfed wee daughter's upside down cake, which came out of the oven somewhat deflated looking, but tasted good.

And mixed nuts make good eating watching Tee Vee. Eating and tee vee seem to go together, one simply must do something during the commercials, so I guess if I'm going to get anywhere with this weight reducing program I'm going to have to quit watching tee vee.

And while on Tee Vee it does get my goat to think that through taxes I'm subsidizing big business advertising. At least the CBC could be honest about it. Now we're deliberately misled. Some gas or other company pounds at us through TV to buy their product and so we naturally assume that they are paying the shot for the show, which is sandwiched and split up to an irritating degree by exhortations to buy this and that. Then we learn, and only because of the rucus in parliament, that we the viewers not only have to endure, but we have to pay for part of big business advertising costs and of course we pay the balance in the final price of the product to us.

The least CBC could do is put on a flash to the effect that we the taxpayers contribute so many thousands of dollars to this or that show. Maybe John Q. Public would then raise a howl and get some of the tripe killed off. After all, a sponsor, even a part sponsor, is supposed to have some say in the type show he sponsors.

Main trouble with TV apart from the fact that the taxpayers are being suckered on the advertising deal is that performance is so spotty, ranging from the sublime to the boring and on into the nauseating class.

But one man's meat is another's poison. I can take a good murder, the wife wants to smash the set everytime one comes on and so on.

Caught an interesting program on astronomy Sunday afternoon, type of program that I think should enjoy a better time slot. What I like about it was the Professor. For my money a real teacher bubbling over with enthusiasm for his subject and what a subject. He took a load of worry off my mind by commenting that the sun still has umpteen billion more years supply of hydrogen to burn and in any event, the very fact of the hydrogen being used up will create other fuel sources.

So I felt reassured about the sun despite the way it has been behaving in this so called sunny Okanagan this summer.

Then having been reassured by the professor that the sun isn't going to give out CHEC-TV comes on with a English play "I can destroy the sun" and so I had to start worrying about the sun all over again.

That play, incidentally, was one of the better offerings. It had meat, and it certainly did what it set out to do — point out the utter damned foolishness of what is going on in the world today between nations.

Mrs. B. A. Tingley, right, shown above being presented with a token of esteem by School Board chairman T. S. Manning on the occasion of a banquet in honor of Mrs. Tingley and Miss Muriel Banks, both retiring after a total of 70 years of teaching.

Two popular Summerland teachers, Miss Muriel Banks and Mrs. B. A. Tingley, who are retiring this year, were honored at a supper in the Anglican Parish Hall attended by 70 persons.

Miss Banks has been a primary teacher in Summerland for the past 40 years.

Mrs. Tingley has taught for 30 years.

E. F. Weeks of the MacDonald School Staff acted as master of ceremonies at the informal occasion. John Cooke principal, and S. A. MacDonald after whom the school is named, spoke in glowing terms of the work of both teachers. C. E. Clay of Pen-ticton, district superintendent, spoke also in appreciation of the good service by Miss Banks and Mrs. Tingley.

T. S. Manning, chairman of the school board presented two pieces of luggage to Miss Banks and Mrs. Tingley was given a walnut coffee table.

Ken McInnes, past president of the Summerland Teachers' Association, added another piece of luggage for Miss Banks from the Association. Mrs. Tingley was presented with a silver tray.

cussed the matter with me and made representations on your behalf regarding this project.

It is now reported to me that the minimum structure does not give the shelter anticipated by the Yacht Club. It would now appear desirable that we should add two hundred feet on the north end and fifty feet on the south end, at an estimated cost of about $12,000.

Our expenditure during the current year has been of the order of $15,000 and this is the limit of expenditure which can be made without listing an item in the Estimates. For that reason, a recommendation will be given in the Estimates for 1960-61 for an item of $12,000.

Because of high water levels, I think you will agree that the work cannot be done and, therefore, cannot be until late fall or early winter built in time for use this season. We contemplate completion of this work in April and early May in time for use in the season of 1960.

Yours sincerely,
Howard C. Green

Mixed Mid-Summer Bonsel in Local Arena July 25-26

Summerland's first Summer Bonsel will be held at the Summerland Arena on July 25 and 26 with entries limited to 16 rinks at $16 a rink.

Entries officially close on Monday, July 20 but with only 16 rinks allowed it is expected that the list will be closed much earlier.

There must be at least one lady to each rink.

Entries accepted at Macs Barber Shop or phone Mrs. A. Dunsdon at HY4 2716.

This bonsel comes as a direct result of the initiative and drive of arena manager George Stoll who started a summer figure skating school, hockey school and public skating here in the summer time. Naturally the curlers, who are just passing folk in the summertime jumped at the opportunity to get out their rocks in July.

Macs Lose, Lose and Lose Again

Summerland's Macs bogged down deeper in the mud Sunday losing out to Oliver 10-3.

Oliver smashed out five runs in the first inning to put the game on ice while the Macs couldn't put a run across home plate until in the seventh.

In a home and home exhibition series scheduled at the last minute, Penticton Red Sox took both games over the Summerland Macs last Wednesday, 5-4 and 9-5.

In the first game played in Summerland in the afternoon, Chuck Preen, taking the mound in the absence of Bud Englesby, squeezed out a 5-4 win over the Summerland crew.

Returning to Penticton for the night game the Red Sox, with junior Tom Balfour doing the hurling, set down the Macs 9-5.

In the game played in Penticton, the Red Sox opened the scoring to grab the lead.

They then stormed back to ram in four in the third inning and were never headed as they added two in the seventh and two in the eighth to take the win as the Macs were only able to pick up one in the fourth and one in the ninth.

Also picking up home runs for the Red Sox were Jim Andrews and Steve Hunter, while young Lee Day of Nar-amata, playing his first senior game came up with two long doubles to give him two for four, for the day. Al Hooker rapped out a home run for Summerland.

Red Sox Win

Two Out Of Three

The Summerland Red Sox better than broke even over the week end when they took Penticton 13-10 Thursday evening and split a double header with Merritt on Sunday.

The Red Sox took the first game 3-1 but lost the night cap 7-4.

On Thursday the Red Sox jumped into a 13-0 lead over Penticton, behind the steady pitching of young Reg Main, just up from "pony league." In the 6th inning Main injured his foot sliding into home and had to leave the game. He was relieved by Menu and Shannon who between them gave up 16 walks, and in the ninth inning Penticton went ahead 15-13 but darkness saved the Red Sox when the ump called the game and the score reverted to the last completed inning which was the eighth with the score 13-10.

On Sunday the Red Sox took the first game 3-1 behind the one hit pitching of Shannon with McNabb driving in the winning runs.

The second game was a different story when Menu failed to survive the first inning, Merritt scored three times, he was relieved by Pells who lasted one inning and one-third giving up four runs. Main came in and put out the fire and held Merritt scoreless the rest of the game. The Red Sox came back and had the bases loaded twice but couldn't score enough runs and the game ended 7-4 for Merritt.

The Red Sox play in Nar-amata Wednesday evening and a double header in Vernon next Sunday.

The Red Sox have been invited to a two day tournament in Merritt over the Labor Day week end when all 8 teams in the Junior league will try for the $375 in prize money.

Council Wants United Domestic Water System

Municipal Council favors planning the installation of a domestic water system that would serve the entire community including Trout Creek rather than concentrate on the Trout Creek domestic water problem as a isolated unit.

Reeve F. E. Atkinson explained Council's thinking and the direction plans were taking for a community-wide domestic water system to a delegation of Trout Creek residents, headed by Bob Alstead which waited upon council Tuesday night to ask clarification on what is taking place in regard to plans for providing domestic water to Trout Creek.

The Reeve did not rule out the possibility, as suggested by Councillor Walter Powell, that a system could be installed earlier to supply Trout Creek, provided it could be integrated at a later date with the community-wide system.

Mr. Alstead said that the majority of people living in Trout Creek felt that domestic water is a necessity.

Reeve Atkinson reviewed the history of planning which he said went back five or six years.

"This is a tough proposition," he said.

Originally a pumping system had been contemplated but as it would eventually be necessary to feed water down to front bench subdivisions it was thought that gravity tank, fed from the Trout Creek, a plan that would take care of 350 families, was the answer. But Council learned a lesson during the recent very dry year and it was realized that during peak usage in such a year there would be very little water for Trout Creek.

"Back of it all, of course, is money", said the Reeve.

He said that if people were willing to accept water coming through the irrigation

Orchard Tour On July 23

The orchard of George Robinson on Skaha Lake road will be the scene of the 1959 Orchard Field Day. The event is sponsored by the BCFGA and the Horticultural Branch, B.C. Department of Agriculture. The program is to start at 10 a.m., Thursday, July 23 and will take place entirely on the Robinson orchard.

The Robinson orchard contains a wide range of dwarf and semi-dwarf trees many of which are fully bearing. There will be an opportunity to look over these trees and discuss their performance. Mineral deficiencies will be discussed. Phytophthora rot will also be seen in peaches.

After a picnic lunch in the orchard there will be a discussion period on insect and disease control.

The day will wind up with

No Action Taken On Aro Survey

An aro-survey of the municipality can be had at a cost of between six and seven hundred dollars. Council was informed in a letter from Aro Survey Ltd. This would supply a map of the municipality greatly facilitate plans for to a one inch scale and would water systems and roads. Council took no action.

Hot Weather Sprinkling Regulations Effective Immediately

The hot weather has again caused everyone to turn on their sprinklers and so again in the interests of all, Council has imposed sprinkling restrictions as of last year.

Co-operation of residents was excellent last year and so no one suffered hardship. There is no shortage of water in the reservoirs, but the municipality's domestic water system can only supply so much and if every one attempts to water their gardens at once, some folks at the end of the lines are out of luck. Domestic water users whose surnames begin with the following letters, A, C, E, G, I, K, M, O, J, S, U, W, Y, will be permitted to sprinkle and to use two sprinklers on the odd numbered days of the month. No sprinkling on even numbered days.

Domestic water users whose surnames begin with the following letters, B, D, H, J, L, N, P, R, T, V, X, Z will be permitted to sprinkle and to use two sprinklers on the even numbered days of the month. No sprinkling permitted on the odd numbered days.

No open hoses to be used. The above regulations to be effective immediately.

It looks mighty inviting right now — real Summerland last winter — a reminder to cool — but that was a real shivery day in joy this hot weather while we may.

Serious Trouble But No Danger At Canyon Dam

The Municipal Council has encountered serious trouble with Canyon Dam. On July 8 Superintendent Blagborne was informed by the Interior Contracting Company workmen that muddy water was coming out of the toe of the dam. The Council visited the dam with Mr. R. G. Harris, District Water Rights Engineer of Kelowna, and Engineers R. A. Barton and Harley Hatfield of Penticton.

Although the trouble at first appeared several feet from the actual dam face, as the erosion continued the tunnel settled and upon examination proved to be in very poor condition.

Messrs. Harris, Barton and Hatfield recommended that the dam be emptied. It is now down to a point where there is no danger of a wash-out and plans are being made for the dam's rehabilitation.

NO OBJECTIONS

Municipal Council has no objections to the establishment of an inter-city bus service between Summerland and Penticton, a service proposed by the Penticton City Bus Lines, now owned and operated by John Newton of Summerland.

Canyon Dam, when filled, holds 1200 acres of water and is very valuable to the district. In some recent years Canyon Dam and Thirsk Dam have been the only dams that have been required.

Summer Band Concert School On Tuesdays and Thursdays

The sound of marching feet and martial music will be heard in Summerland each Tuesday and Thursday evening as the High School Band Summer School gets underway. Already several engagements have been arranged for the group with the first being a concert in Penticton City bandshell on Friday evening, July 31.

The Band School starts on Tuesday, July 14 at 8:30, when the pupils who are entering Grade 7 next year will practice. At 7:00 p.m. those entering Grade 8 will come and for half an hour the two groups will practice together. At 7:30 the grade 7's will leave and the grade 8's will continue until 8 p.m. The Senior High School Band will then start and will continue to 9:30 p.m. The senior session will consist of warmup and scales, concert music and marching practice.

All former band members are welcome.

The Summer Band School enables the students to keep up with their music during the summer months and also keeps the band together as a playing unit so that it can perform at various valley functions during the summer.

THANK COUNCIL

W. A. Henderson on behalf of the Old Age Pensioners Association waited upon the Municipal Council last night to thank Council for providing transportation for the senior citizens, enabling them to see the Queen during her visit to Vernon last Saturday.

Orchard Run

By Wally Smith
Roadside Sales

Here we are at the start of another fruit harvest and roadside fruit stands are already open for the sale of Okanagan cherries and California cantaloupe and watermelons. Those who are not open are daubing on paint and making last minute preparations to catch the first flush of summer tourists.

The fruit stand business has grown into something of sizeable importance during the last few years and continue to grow with the increase in tourist traffic. Oliver gets its share of fruit sales, for roadside and orchard stands in this district have the dubious reputation of selling the cheapest fruit in the Okanagan. There is no doubt much of it is sold below cost of production.

This is an old subject with me. Several times during the last few years I have raised my voice against the practice of selling fruit at bankrupt sale prices. But still they do it and every year lost thousands of dollars that should be going into the pockets of the fruit growers. Lord knows they need it!

Favorite excuse of the price cutters goes something like this: "Well, if I send those peaches to the packinghouse half of them will be culls because they are too ripe. I'll do better selling to a tourist at $1.25 a box — that's more than I would get at the packinghouse."

Anyone who is not a moron should know that a peach too ripe to pack is just right for the retail trade. It may be cull in the packinghouse but it is a perfect peach for roadside sale and should bring top price.

A few years ago the following incident occurred at a roadside stand near Keremeos. A lady customer complained about the peaches on display.

"Did you say bruises, lady?" enquired the fruit stand operator. "Them ain't bruises, lady; they're pressure spots. And if a peach ain't got pressure spots it ain't ready to eat. They say he sold a lot of fruit."

What is a fair price for fruit sold at a roadside stand? There is no simple answer to that question. Too many who sell to the tourist trade use as a measuring stick the price they probably would get for the fruit if put through the packinghouse. And they are stupid enough to think they are doing fine at this figure because their roadside sale includes some culls and they get cash on the line.

Cutthroat Competition
Some sell at the price the neighbor charges. If he sells for a dollar a box they sell for a dollar. The lowest price sign on the highway soon becomes the standard price for that fruit even if it sells at four times that figure in Vancouver.

The buyer is entitled to expect lower prices than Vancouver retail figures. If he can

More than 300 children are again enrolled in the Summerland Red Cross-Rotary swim classes and again the Rotarians have sent out a letter asking the assistance of Summerland residents in helping to finance this annual project.

Three hundred children! Think of it Mr. and Mrs. Summerland, 300 youngsters being taught to swim, being taught water safety, thanks to the Red Cross and the Summerland Rotarians.

Developing of Rotary Beach is costing the Rotarians a lot of money apart from many hours of their leisure time and aching muscles, but the Summerland Rotarians do this as part of their dedication to make their community a better place in which to live. Likewise the Rotary-Red Cross swim classes are aimed at development of the young. Go down and watch the youngsters learning water safety under competent instruction and you will know why parents don't worry when their offspring are at the swim class, they know full well that they are carefully watched.

The annual Rotary Club swim classes are one of the many outstanding community services sponsored by the Rotarians in this community — if they could finance without your assistance they would be happy to do so, but it is beyond the comparatively small group of men to go it completely alone in a project of this magnitude, and so Mr. and Mrs. Summerland, the Rotarians are asking your help, to help the children.

Speaking in the Legislature last session the member for Revelstoke made a strong plea for aid for students attending university, college or vocational school who come from interior points.

"Until some plan is made available to equalize the cost of education, there will always be discrimination against the student from the interior," he said.

Recently the Associated Boards of Trade and Chambers of Commerce of South-Eastern British Columbia recognized the same need. A resolution was passed urging the government to implement a plan for equalization of educational opportunity for students and prospective students of the University of British Columbia and recommended that the plan take the form of subsistence and transportation allowance to the end that costs to all British Columbia students attending the university will be approximately equal to the costs of students residing within daily travelling distance of the university.

This is a good resolution which warrants serious consideration by the government. However, such a plan should be made available not only to students attending the university but to others as well who seek higher education at other institutions which require attendance away from home.

After all subsidies are provided by governments to correct inequalities in agriculture, transportation and other spheres. Certainly something is needed to correct the disadvantages accruing to students from interior points as compared to the advantages of those resident in the city where a seat of learning is located.

U.S. Tree Fruit Crop Report

The United States Department of Agriculture has published a comprehensive report on fruit crop prospects across the line. Because their surpluses, shortages and markets affect the B.C. industry pertinent quotations from it should be of interest.

Apples: Conditions indicate a 1959 apple crop slightly greater than last year's large crop, and well above average. By regions the outlook is as follows: Eastern States, a crop somewhat larger than last year and substantially above average. Central States, up significantly above last year, buy peaches in Oliver at one half to 60 percent of the Vancouver price he is getting a bargain and he knows it. But when peach prices drop as low as $1 a box or even to $1.50 for 33 or 34 lbs, that's a steal. The grower does not sell any more fruit but he does get less money. It's a crazy business.

and sharply above average. Western States, down slightly from last year, but somewhat higher than average. The western apple producing States are Washington, Oregon, California, Idaho, Colorado and Utah. Of these, only Oregon and California anticipate apple crops larger than last year.

Peaches: In California, both Clingstone and Freestone crops are the largest on record. In Washington, peaches in general showed a heavy bloom and set a good crop, although some orchards in the lower Yakima Valley were severely damaged by the January freeze. In the Yakima Valley, weather has been too cool for best development of the crop, and in the Chelan and Douglas County area the season is late.

Pears: In Washington, Bartlett trees had a heavy bloom, but below freezing temperatures in April and May reduced prospects in the Yakima Valley and the Wenatchee area. May weather was generally cold and windy and the crop developed slowly. Prospects are extremely variable, but Bartlett production for state is expected to be slightly above last year. Prospective production of winter pears is indicated to be larger than the 1958 crop and 15 per cent above average.

Cherries: The Washington crop, which suffered from low temperatures, is expected to be below both last year and the average. Bings promise a fairly heavy crop, but Lambert production is expected to be light.

Apricots: The Washington crop is expected to be about the same as last year and the year before. Moorpark, Rylands and Blenheim, all set a good crop, but Tiltons vary from light to heavy. In California, production is expected to jump 2-3 times 1958's short crop.

According to the Mood . . .

By SID. GODBER

Mix diet with TV, with Okanagan heat and it adds up to the loony bin.

Last week after a week of starvation and watching TV with TV snacks during commercials I gained a pound, so I had to quit in between TV snacks, and keep glued to my chair, gazing glassy eyed at the commercials.

So, walking down Granville Street to get the morning mail Earl White waves a friendly hand and says, "You look positively radiant this morning."

That's a crazy thing for a man to say, I thought to myself, but it wasn't half as crazy as my reply.

"Praise, Praise, Praise, PRAISE" — I chanted, "I'm radiant because I bathe with Praise — that new wonder soap"

"He certainly does look radiant, doesn't he Roy", Mr. White said to Roy Wellwood.

"He does at that, a sort of inward glow," said Roy.

"Zest. Zest. Zest." I carolled, then I confided, it's a soap but so—o—o wonderful, I eat it, that's where my inward glow comes from.

One thing missing chimed in Steve Sakal and he made a pass at the thinning locks on my head — "Bryllcream, Bryllcream, just a drop will do yer —" so I had to hightail it for shelter before the ladies got a glimpse of my Bryllcream shiny locks.

Then back at the office and a character came in with a brief case under his arm.

"No need to stand on ceremony," he said, "my name's Anthony. My boss is a trifle teched in the head and he wants to give you a cheque — yes, a cashier's cheque for a billion dollars."

"A billion," I gasped, "but on TV it's only a million."

That's TV, Anthony whispered, people wouldn't believe it if we gave away a billion on TV, but this isn't TV! Oh yes, the ground rules are different too — you pay me $10. I hurriedly rushed into the back shop and borrowed ten bucks from the rich printers and gave it to my pal Tony and reached for the cheque.

"Just one other thing — you must sign . . ."

Yes, I know, I won't tell anyone except my wife how I got the money and your boss can stay anonymous til doomsday — gimme!

"No! No! That's not it at all," smiled Tony, "just sign here."

I signed.

"The cheque is now yours, but you have agreed not to cash it, otherwise it will be reclaimed", said Tony heading fast for the door.

"Next thing I knew I was down on the beach digging furiously — and I was yelling "Toni, Toni, Toni" at the top of my voice.

Then Corporal Brown came on the scene. "You'd better quieten down, or I'll have to run you in for disturbing the peace and what's all this digging about."

"It's Toni, Toni, he's hidden a body some place, that's what it says on TV, "Hidden Body", and only Toni could put it there."

someplace and that he should be looking for it instead of per-

"You'd better get out of the sun," said Officer Brown and I was just going to scream that Toni had hidden a body securing a good citizen when Corporal Brown disappeared under the trampling feet of the members of all the Summerland Ladies Auxiliaries. I screamed and ran — but no use, I was caught, bound and sat down before a huge bowl, full to the rim with nauseating cold, clammy, potato salad — this was the end I thought, and I didn't see any particular hope of rescue when I saw Banker "Jock" Johnston and Howard Pruden elbowing through the Ladies Auxiliaries.

—Then Banker Jock Johnston said "We've been looking for you everywhere — I wanted to tell you not to worry about your overdraft — just let it soar — let it soar."

"And I," said Howard Pruden, "am anxious to reserve two full pages for real estate advertising in the Review — we've just got to move some real estate."

That did it — up to then it had all seemed quite real and quite plausible — but when Banker "Jock" Johnston tells me not to worry about my overdraft, when Howard Pruden says he wants to advertise in The Review — then is the time I wake up.

What a dream, what a nightmare, born of hunger and an overdose of TV commercials.

Macs Eosde To Kelowna 5-4

Summerland Macs made a spirited attempt to break their long losing streak here last Sunday, but fell short, losing to Kelowna by one run, 5-4.

Kelowna drew first blood in the first inning with one run but the Macs came back strong in the third bunting four hits, one a double by Buck for three runs.

Tied 4-4 at the end of the ninth, Kelowna parlayed a one base hit into the big run to take the game.

Red Sox Drop Double-Header

The Vernon Essos hung a double defeat on the Summerland Red Sox on Sunday in regular league play. The first game was a personal victory for the Vernon pitcher, Fred McMechen. He pitched a perfect no-run, no-hit, game, striking out 11 and not allowing a runner to reach 1st base. Final score, 11-0.

The second game was a different story. The Red Sox knocked the Vernon starting pitcher out in the 2nd inning and held a 3-2 lead going into the last inning when 2 hits and 2 errors cost the Red Sox 2 runs and the game. Final score 4-3.

The Red Sox had tough luck when they lost both Parker and Shannon in the 1st game, Parker with a sprained thumb and Shannon who had gone in to catch, was spiked on the wrist, and had to have 3 stitches. Menu finished the 1st game behind the bat and Uchitta caught the 2nd game. Both did a good job considering that neither had caught before.

On The Rifle Range

There was plenty of activity in the Rifle Club during the past week. Last Tuesday evening a work party was held at Harold Richardson's to finish repairs to the targets and on Friday evening there was an excellent turn out to practice at the range. Sixteen marksmen tried their skill in a ten-shot match at 200 yards with the following scores being recorded: Herb Simpson, 46; Al McCargar 44, George Dunsdon 42, Cliff Dunsdon 41 Roy Bertram 41, Ron Dunsdon, 40, Louise Atkinson 39, Mrs. J. Johnson 34, Don Tait 32, J. Johnson 29, A. Kalinin 28, H. Felker 25, Mrs. A. McCargar 24. A few of the members shot a second ten shot round, but it was declared to be unofficial as all members had not taken part in it. This was rather unfortunate for Steve Dunsdon as he shot a possible 50x50 in that round. We were very pleased to see Mr. and Mrs. Junius Johnson and Mrs. McCargar, and we hope they will continue to shoot with us each week.

Six members competed in the Invitation Shoot at the Penticon range Sunday. Attending the event were George Dunsdon, Ron Dunsdo, Cliff Dunsdon, Roy Bertram, Al McCargar and myself. We had a very hot but enjoyable day, and although the excessive mirage made shooting conditions difficult, it made little difference to George Dunsdon who brought home the Grand Aggregate trophy after a shoot off against Harold Palmer of Vernon. Both men had aggregate scores of 140x150. George also took money at the 500 yards and lost a shoot-off with Howard Maxon for the combination 200-600 yard trophy. Ron Dunsdon, one of our junior members, shot a brilliant 47x50 at the very difficult 600 yard range to win the senior trophy against some of B.C.'s best rifle shots. Good work Ron, keep it up, there are still plenty more to win. Al McCargar took first tyro money at 500 yards, and Cliff Dunsdon, another Junior member, shared in the tyro money in four events. The five-man team shoot was won by Kelowna, with Summerland placing third, so it turned out to be a very successful day for the local boys.

Everyone is now looking forward to the invitation shoot on the Summerland range on July 26 as this event has been considered to be one of the highlights of rifle shooting for several years. Unfortunately, it had to be cancelled last year, but we hope that this year's event will be bigger and better than ever. Spectators are cordially invited to attend and watch some of Canada's best shots in action.

Vacation Bible School is in session at the Baptist Church from July 13 to 21. There are interesting object lessons, Bible stories, games, singing, work books and handiwork.

The leaders and their helpers are: Rev. L. Kennedy, Mrs. V. Durnin, Mrs. John Brown, Mrs. E. Danllanko, Mrs. L. Kennedy, Mrs. D. B. Clark, Judy Nicholson, Betty Turigan, Anne and Marg Iversen, Mary Dawn Grazely, Marcela Goodland, Everdien Wouters, Mrs. Lorne Bloomfield.

Promenade

Dancers attending the Vernon Days Square Dance Jamboree last week end were treated to a look at the Queen and Prince Philip and so many festivities that this event promises to be a memorable occasion for all present.

This jamboree certainly got off to a wonderful start and from the courtesies shown both dancers and callers this jamboree is bound to grow year by year.

Bouquets go to Les Boyer for his terrific job of emceeing the two nights of dancing and daytime entertainment, which included an Aqua membership dance in the lake, and square dancing on the street on which Queen Elizabeth and Prince Philip travelled on their tour of Vernon. Callers and partners were treated like royalty and were feted with luncheons and dinner parties, an after-party on the final night and a breakfast on Sunday morning.

The U.S. was well represented with dancers from Montana, Washington, Oregon and California. Dancers also came from Calgary, Alta. and in B.C., Vancouver, Trail, Revelstoke, Kamloops and all valley points were present.

An interesting highlight of the evening was the presentation to Les Boyer by Frank Brown of Kamloops of twelve Kamloops trout. Each fish would weigh in at about 3 lbs., and were beautifully nestled in ice in a decorated box all caught by Frank Brown on Lake La Jeune.

RETURNS HOME

Miss Dorothy Britton, Home Economist at the Summerland Research Center, returned home Saturday flying the Polar Route from Amsterdam to Vancouver, after a two months trip to Europe.

St. Stephen's WA Comings & Going Garden Party A Big Success

A large number attended and enjoyed the annual Garden Party of the St. Stephen's Evening WA held in the Rectory garden Monday evening.

The Summerland Town Band enlivened the occasion with excellent music.

The home cooking sale found eager customers. Movies, pony rides, a treasure hunt and refreshments of strawberry shotcake, pie and ice cream provided everyone and particularly the small fry with lots of fun and excitement.

A welcome guest was the Reverend Tathan, who was Rector of St. Stephen's sixteen years ago.

Conveners were Mrs. Marie Robinson, Mrs. E. C. Emery, and Mrs. C. R. Adams.

Continued from page 1 main, the plan was still a possibility and not to be ruled out.

Engineering recommendations favored a pressure system hooking on at Prairie Valley.

Reeve Atkinson said "that Council, considering the future need, felt that it would be better to unite the system rather than plan a project just to supply Trout Creek. The present system was installed between 1937 and 1940 when the population was between 1800 and 1900, now the population has doubled with more prospects of population increase now than then."

Asked how long before Trout Creek could hope for domestic water the Reeve replied, that it would depend upon the engineer's recommendations and the matter of a money bylaw.

"If we have a well engineered plan for the whole project we will do well to submit it as a unit to the taxpayers," the Reeve said.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Towgood are visiting at the home of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Y. Towgood in Trout Creek. Mr. Towgood, who has been teaching at Westview has been given a teaching fellowship at the Western University at London, Ontario. Glover-Johnston Ceremony Held in Vancouver Anglican Church

A quiet evening wedding, with immediate families of the principals and close friends present, was solemnized by Rev. V. R. Nicholson, in St. Mary's Anglican Church, Vancouver at 7 p.m., Friday, July 3, when Jean Marjorie, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Johnston of West Summerland, became the bride of Richard Lloyd Glover, oldest son of Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Glover of Abbotsford.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore for the wedding a beautiful gown of white nylon sheer over taffeta, with tucked bodice and bouffant, ballerina length skirt. Her chapel veil of fine net fell from a little crown of seed pearls. She carried a shower bouquet of red roses and white carnations.

The bridesmaid, Miss Patricia Lloyd-Jones of Vancouver, wore a pink organza gown with lace bodice and full skirt, and a small hat of pink flowers. She wore a corsage of pink and white carnations. The best man was Leslie Killoran of Abbotsford.

Following the ceremony a reception for the bridal party was held at the Colonial House in the Georgian Towers.

The young couple spent their honeymoon in Vancouver and will reside in Abbotsford for the summer.

Money Belts Excess Baggage These Days

Once upon a time — and even today in some parts of the world — travellers had to hide their money pretty carefully if they didn't want to lose it. Money belts were as common as Gladstone bags in the old days.

Nowadays it's different. Today's traveller doesn't need to worry about losing his bankroll. Mostly because he doesn't carry a bankroll at all. Instead he uses Bank of Montreal travellers cheques. They're the perfectly safe and convenient means of carrying funds while travelling.

A visit to the West Summerland branch of the Bank of Montreal before starting off on your next business or vacation trip can give you complete peace of mind. There the accountant, Earl Smith, can sell you the B of M travellers cheques you need, in whatever denominations you think will be most practical for your purposes.

Then you'll be able to travel with the knowledge that if your travellers cheques are lost, stolen, or destroyed, you won't be the loser because the Bank of Montreal will arrange to replace them for you.

If you're going abroad, the B of M can provide you special travellers cheques, or travellers letters of credit for large sums. Travellers cheques are much more comfortable than a money belt, we promise.

Your Recreation Room

Easy upkeep is the key word when you plan your recreation room. Unlike the living room, where practicality is frequently bypassed for the sake of appearance, your recreation room should require minimum upkeep. The nice thing is that you needn't sacrifice attractiveness.

Choose your wall and ceiling surfaces carefully. Wood panelling is the prime favorite. If you have a fireplace, you might break the monotony of wood by facing the fireplace wall with ceramic tile.

Select practical fabrics and sturdy furniture. An old door supported with six short legs, will double as a fireplace seat, or coffee tables.

Keep a supply of dishes, a kettle, a double burner cooking unit in your recreation room. Half the joy of your fun room will be lost if you have to dash upstairs when the family demands a round of hot chocolate and a late evening snack.

Unpainted furniture offers a splendid opportunity to furnish simply and economically.

Bright, clear colors are recommended and use lots of yellow if your room tends to be dark. You will have extra interest in the textural contrast of the soft glow of your wood panelling and the gleaming surface of your fireplace wall of ceramic tile.

Most of all, your recreation room should be a cheerful family fun room where Mom needn't keep a weather eye for coke and crumb spills!

Ice at the Summerland Arena provides an opportunity for youngsters to polish up on their hockey technique. Some 20 youngsters are turning out for the ice-hockey school under ex-professional Bernie Bathgate. The hockey school now just organizing will get down to big business early in August when Bernie's brother, the famous Andy Bathgate, star of the New York Rangers, will join Bernie.

First Summer Bonspiel Here This Week-end

"Some like it hot — some like it cold . . ." and in Summerland you can enjoy the weather you like — it is possible to choose between freezing and boiling, with the waters of the lake offering a compromise in between.

This has come about as a result of an experiment in ice making at the Summerland Arena and as a result, ice skates put away early in the spring have been resurrected as figure skating enthusiasts and young hockey players keep a going.

It didn't take curlers long to sniff ice and a mixed Summerland

Last Rites Held Friday For L. W. Rumball

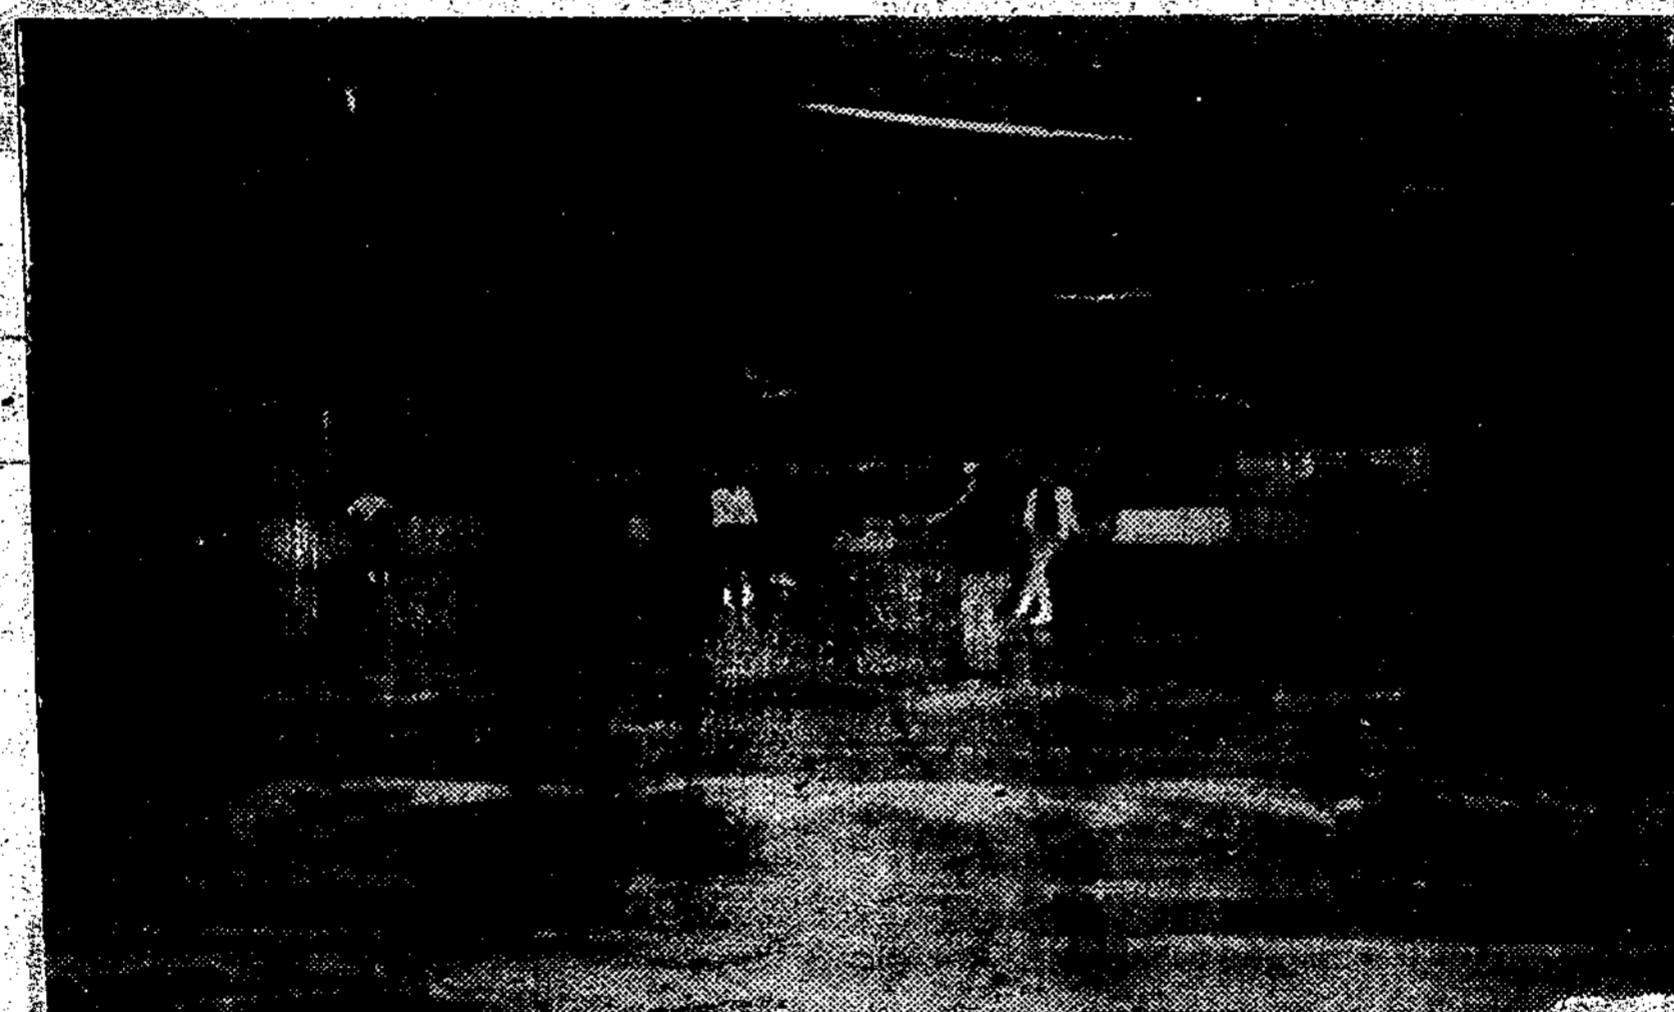

Summerland was a better place for his having been here and Summerland is the worse off for his passing.

That was the way one Summerland businessman paid tribute to the late Lawrence W. Rumball, whose untimely and unexpected death last Wednesday, July 15, shocked and grieved this community.

The late Mr. Rumball stricken with a heart attack on his sixty-sixth birthday, July 12, came to Summerland in 1920 after spending some years in Alberta mostly in Calgary, where for some time he worked for his uncle Frank Williams, of Williams and Little.

Mr. Rumball opened his business in Summerland on December 23, 1920, only a

A canopy of polythene pictured above helps maintain an excellent ice sheet at the Summerland Jubilee Arena. The current hot spell has tested and proved beyond any doubt that ice can be maintained at the arena during the summer months and it is now confidently expected that ice sports will become a big summer attraction in Summerland.

Burglar Alarm Routs Burglars

A burglar alarm routed burglars who had forced entry into the Canadian Legion here in the early hours of Tuesday morning.

The thieves forced a window and came in through the Ladies Auxiliary room but when they tried to break into the bar they touched off the burglar alarm.

Mrs. Howard Shannon heard the alarm at about 2 a.m. and aroused Howard Shannon who raced over to the Legion only to find the burglars had escaped through the window they had forced. Police are investigating. Only loss incurred was from the broken window.

ON YOUR MARK, GET READY GO! Eleanor Baynes launches one of her swimming groups on the initial glide. Such scenes are commonplace throughout the summer as more than 300 youngsters learn swimming and water safety at the Rotary Red Cross Swim Classes.

WEDNESDAY, JULY TWENTY-SECOND, NINETEEN HUNDRED AND FIFTY-NINE

Of Benefit To The Community

Somewhere, at some time in his life, a Summerland citizen, one George Stoll, must have read that old saw "Where there's a will there's a way." In fact George Stoll must have read, learned and inwardly digested many similar old saws such as "Nothing ventured, nothing won," "Nothing succeeds like success" and of course that old one, "If you don't succeed at first, try, try again."

And the best way to grasp what we are writing about is to hie your sweltering selves over to the arena, being sure to take an overcoat along, and there at sundry times of day and evening you will see figure skaters, on ice, youngsters cleaving ice as they chase the puck down on the goal — that's the ice hockey school. And that is not all, this week end there's the summer bonspiel when the devotees of the roarin' game are likely to vote George Stoll a handsome pension for life, gratitude for being able to throw a rock and wield a broom on ice, the genuine article, in the middle of a very hot, even for the Okanagan, summer.

Yes there were many sceptics, including, we must admit, the writer of this editorial, when George Stoll first broached the idea of a summer figure skating school. But George Stoll is used to sceptics, he just carried on, dipped into his own pocket to publicize the project and assumed the risks and the costs of putting in ice at the arena. Could ice be held in the Summerland Arena during the hot Okanagan summer? No one knew, not even George Stoll, but he had nerve enough to try and there it is today — ice, glass hard, and there they are, youngsters, figure skating, youngsters learning hockey, curlers, curling, the beginning of big things, touristwise for Summerland.

This year it was all an experiment — but next year it is expected that the arena will derive a handsome revenue from a repeat performance, thus greatly benefitting the taxpayers.

And the beneficial impact will be felt much further afield. Those attending the ice school must have some place to stay. Undoubtedly the Summerland Curling Club will go baldheaded for a big summer spiel in future years, meaning more visitors and many visitors will be induced to stay and many more to come to a holiday centre which provides everything from surf board riding to ice-skating, curling and hockey.

And so we take off our hat to George Stoll, a man of no small vision, and of great determination who, having, in effect, given Summerland an arena, is now bent on making it pay.

Pulpwood Logs on the Ottawa River, with the nation's parliament buildings in the background, symbolize the importance of the forest to Canada. Trough pulp and paper alone, the forest harvest brings in more than $1 billion a year from sales abroad. Increasing public awareness of the importance of these world markets which, directly and indirectly, generate income and employment for hundreds of thousands of Canadians, was called for in a brief presented recently to a committee of M.P.'s studying the nation's natural resources. Forestry research and tax incentives to promote better forest management were held, by the Canadian Pulp and Paper Association brief, to be the most promising means of promoting greater use of our forest resources and the orderly expansion of the industries based upon them.

Orchard Blight

By Wally Smith

It's always a temptation to write about your troubles. Telling your sad story to somebody, even though an unwilling listener, or setting it down on paper, seems to ease the burden a little and help one bear up under it.

Fruit growers are not unlike other people in having a variety of troubles, more, it seems, than their share. This year we had spring frosts and hail, some rain on the cherries and flocks of hungry birds to eat them; pear psylla has been causing a lot of trouble and the codling moth, of course is an ever present threat. Green and rosy aphids are bad, and several kinds of mites are said to be building up.

All in all, it looks like another good year for the chemical spray people.

My own annoying problem is fire blight in the pear orchard. I have a serious infection of blight this year and I am having no end of trouble trying to keep it under control.

The Blame

I'm no novice when it comes to tangling with fire blight. Years ago I had two bad seasons of blight and I learned to master it by using disinfected tools to carefully cut out all infected wood, no further pruning, and no fertilizer.

My fire blight was thoroughly cleaned up and I was so completely free of it for years I must have grown careless and thought my trees had acquired immunity.

Today I'm paying for that carelessness and that's what annoys me so much. All this blight trouble could have been avoided by the exercise of a reasonable amount of caution.

My source of infection was a number of trees that had blight last year and which carried infected wood over into the start of this year's growing season. An unusually large amount of secondary bloom on the pear trees provided ideal conditions for wide spread infection.

All the blight I examined entered the tree by way of secondary blossoms. I have heard no reason given for the large amount of secondary bloom but there is certainly no question about it being an abnormal amount. One grower who removes his secondary bloom to prevent fire blight infection counted 437 secondary bloom clusters on one tree.

I did a little counting myself when cutting out fire blight. On one tree I counted 72 points of infection. Flemish Beauty pears, spaced through the Bartlett block for cross, pollination, had no secondary bloom and no fire blight.

For blight control some growers put bordeaux sprays on both the primary and secondary bloom. An antibiotic spray is also available for fire blight control; said to be effective but expensive.

Marked Progress in First Year of Library

July 21 marks the first anniversary of our new library in Summerland. Undeniably it has been a year of marked progress. Two hundred and seventy new members have joined our ranks, and more than 30,000 books have been issued since the new building was opened. Circulation continued to increase during the winter months, reaching a maximum in January of 3,475. Even the seasonal drop in numbers has not been apparent this year, and in May and June, over 5,000 books were borrowed, approximately 1,000 more than during the same period last year. The Junior fiction and non-fiction departments have been much enlarged in recent weeks, and circulation in these sections has almost doubled.

TV has stimulated rather than detracted his year. "Hidden Pages" has produced many requests from Junior members in particular, and librarians throughout the Ok- that this program has been discontinued. It was pointed out at a recent meeting of the Library Board, that branches in most areas show an increase in circulation since the advent of television. Summerland of course is no exception.

It was also stated at the some board meeting that a special grant of $10,212 has been received from the Public Library Commission by the Okanagan Regional Library. An additional grant of $5,271 has been received from the Department of Education to be used for library services in schools. This means more new books and higher pay for librarians.

Board member Mrs. T. Croil, and Custodians Mrs. Jack Dunsdon and Mrs. K. Storey attended a "Custodians Workshop" at Armstrong last week. Here representatives from all branches in the North Okanagan discussed different aspects of library administration. Mrs. Muriel Foulkes, chief librarian from Kelowna urged that teen-agers in all areas should be encouraged to consider librarianship as a career. She said that there is a serious shortage of fully trained librarians throughout the country, and now that wages have been raised in accordance with other professions, it may be a remunerative as well as a rewarding occupation. The qualifications required consist of a BA degree plus a years post graduate course in librarianship. Anyone in Summerland who is interested can obtain further information from the branch Custodians.

A similar meeting of staff from branches in the South Okanagan will be held in Summerland on August 19th when it is planned to demonstrate the benefits derived from adequate quarters.

This year of progress in our new building has not been entirely without its disappointments. Still outstanding are a large number of overdue books. Appeals have been made through the mail, press and over the telephone and still response is not good. Two books "written off" recently were those borrowed by one of our senior citizens, Mr. Wharton whose house burned down a few weeks ago. It was a great surprise to the custodians when these were returned intact two days later. In spite of a fire burning in his house at 3 o'clock in the morning and claiming most of his own possessions, this old timer had remembered and rescued his library books!

It is felt that his example may be used for yet a further appeal. Please don't wait until your house burns down! Remember your books now, and return them to the library.

Summerland Art Club To Display Paintings in Peach Festival

Of interest to art lovers in the South Okanagan is the promised display of local art to be featured at this year's Rotary Exhibition held in conjunction with the Penticton and District Peach Festival, August 6, 7 and 8.

This exhibit is being arranged by the capable president of the Penticton Art Club, Dr. Flora Barr, who advises that the display will consist of eighty to one hundred artistic endeavors, representing the work produced by members of the Penticton and Summerland Art Clubs in the the-calendar year of 1959.

The diversified display will include oils, water colors, pastels, gouache work and combinations of media, both representational and abstract. Mr. John C. Allison, producer of the local Exhibition, speaking for Rotary, expressed his gratifying appreciation of the co-operative enterprise displayed by the Penticton and Summerland Art Clubs. Mr. Allison stated that "It is this type of spirit and co-operative attitude that makes this community project possible."

Diary of a Vagabond

BY DOROTHY BARKER

Maybe it was the housewife who dashed from her kitchen door waving her dish towel as the Royal Train passed by, or it could have been the little girl who held her puppy on top of her head so that it too could see the Queen, that made the lump come up in my throat.

I am not usually given to emotionalism when on an assignment, but the spontaneous fealty and national display of loyalty as the Royal Train passed through the little villages and towns along the way, gave me a new conception of my fellow Canadians' attitude toward Royalty.

While thousands packed the streets of the built-up area perhaps one of the most impressive displays of homage to Elizabeth Regina was the shirtless farmer who stood on the seat of his tractor amid a field of ripening grain and waved his sweaty cap with frantic enthusiasm. As we progressed over the hundreds of miles it was not unusual to see a provincial policeman climb from his cruiser at a deserted level crossing and stand at salute until the train passed by.

I was touched by the many expressions of welcome home owners beside the tracks had invented. One shabby little hut had a long row of coffee cans painted bright flag blue, in each one was a single red or white petunia. On a long thin fishing pole a tiny Union Jack fluttered in tatters.

In another neat little garden patch an imaginative tenant had constructed a miniature ferris wheel. Each of the tiny seats was painted red, white and blue and in them grew a profusion of red and white flowers. But I think the bravest, and in a way, the most pathetic attempt at decoration was the huge factory where some worker had pasted Union Jack stickers all over the windows on the third story. I didn't miss this patriotic gesture and I am sure the Queen didn't either.

There was time to see these little human interest angles of the Royal Tour while the train was in motion but let it pull to a stop for a few moments and bedlam broke loose in the press parlor car. Cameras were grabbed and polite regard for the feminine sex was completely ignored. It was every man for himself in the wild scramble for a vantage point. The lucky ones were those who left the train first or those who could run the fastest.

During the pull through central Ontario, taxi bills mounted like the national debt. One after another of the reporters, intent on getting a new angle, missed the train and had to pick it up at the next station after a wild ride in a cab. Fortunately Her Majesty had requested a slow ride between stations in order that she might wave to her subjects who lined every country road. Otherwise there might have been a great gap in coverage for some of the papers represented by those sprinting, sweating, swearing newsmen.

During one of these scheduled stops a tall, gangling bleached blonde put her swollen feet on an empty seat beside her and announced she intended to "sit this one out". She was hardly the movie director's idea of a woman reporter out to get a scoop or die in the attempt. After all, she reasoned, the Queen wore the same dress all day, said practically the same thing to each mayor in each town, accepted a bouquet of flowers from a small child, waved to her subjects as she drove by in a fast-moving car and returned to the train. Why should she waste her breath and subject her swollen feet to another presentation of a municipal council and their wives.

When a little more than the scheduled time had elapsed for the stop she awoke with a start from her fitful dozing. "What's happened, where's the Queen, why isn't she here. She grabbed the porter by the shoulders, shook him back on the train?" rolled from her tongue in quick succession and demanded, "What's the delay? The Queen of England may have broken her leg or some Red may have taken a pot shot at her and I'm not there to get the facts." Just as she had about convinced herself that an atomic attack had happened while she slept on the job, the train began to roll again.

I was glad mine was a feature writing job with no daily deadline to make. I could sit back and relax in the handsomely appointed car, relish the superb meals and enjoy the scenery that greeted the Queen's eyes too, fifteen cars behind ours.

Photography Display At Peach Festival

A salon of B.C. photographer's finest work will again be a highlight of the Peach Festival's Rotary Industrial Exhibition this year.

Jack Stocks, Penticton district spokesman for the Professional Photographers Association of B.C. received word from Vancouver that an entirely new salon is being assembled. The show, expected to exceed 100 prints, will represent the cream of photographic talent from the province.

One of the most popular displays of the exhibition for the past two years, the 1959 salon promises an even wider field of creative work in portraiture, scenic views, abstracts, pictorial subject, commercial and industrial photography. Sharing the spotlight with the well known names of photography will be several newcomers, offering an interesting new approach to the subjects before their cameras.

Penticton will likely be the first public showing of the new salon. Following its debut at the Peach Festival it will be booked for display at many of the major centres throughout the Pacific Northwest.

New Books At Summerland Library

Among the new non-fiction books which arrived this week from Kelowna, is a biography of Mary Shelley by Eileen Bigland. Although Mary Shelley's story has been overshadowed by that of her husband, and other literary giants of the period, her life was a strange one, inevitably unorthodox and predestined to be an amalgam of idyllic happiness and tragedy. The author of "Lord Byron", has now produced a delightful, sympathetic study, built largely upon Mary Shelley's diaries and letters. It will be of special interest to the devotees of one of England's greatest poets, but it will appeal to a far wider circle — to all in fact, who can find time in this age of conformity to admire an individualist.

One of the new mysteries just published, is "Secret Dragnet", by Bruce Sanders. Sally Dean of Scotland Yard's famous Ghost Squad, is detailed off to make contact with an undercover agent in London's East End. She arrives to find her contact has been shot, that she herself has become embroiled in a bank robbery, which has its origins in a sinister figure, known to the underworld as Allah's Thumb. Aiding Sally is Ward Digburn, a romantic figure, with a highly developed talent for springing surprises. A new and well matched team, Sally and Ward will make many friends in this fast moving story of rapidly changing circumstances, and we look forward to following them through further adventures at a later date.

Among the new novels are: "The Tortured Path" by Kendall Foster Crossen; "Comrad Venka" by Pavel Nilin; "The Prisoner of Tordesillas" by Lawrence Schoonover, and a collection of eight short stories, "The Breaking Point" by Daphne Du Maurier.

Crossen's new novel is one of suspense, rich in authentic and chilling detail, in which the intelligence and strength of one man is pitted against the most diabolical of modern psychological techniques.

"Comrade Venka" is the story of Venka Malishev, an idealistic young member of the Soviet Secret police in Siberia during the years of bloodshed, terrorism and banditry that followed the Russian Civil War in the early 1920's. It is a sweeping tale of adventure, and is one of the most exciting books to come out of the Soviet Union in many years.

Lawrence Schoonover's latest novel tells the story of Juana of Castile, daughter of Ferdinand and Isabella of Spain, the wife of Philip, "The Handsome" Archduke of Austria, and mother of Charles V. It is the story of a lovely and tragic woman betrayed, imprisoned and finally driven mad by the men who should have loved her most.

For the children too, there is a large selection of new books. You are invited to come and see for yourselves.

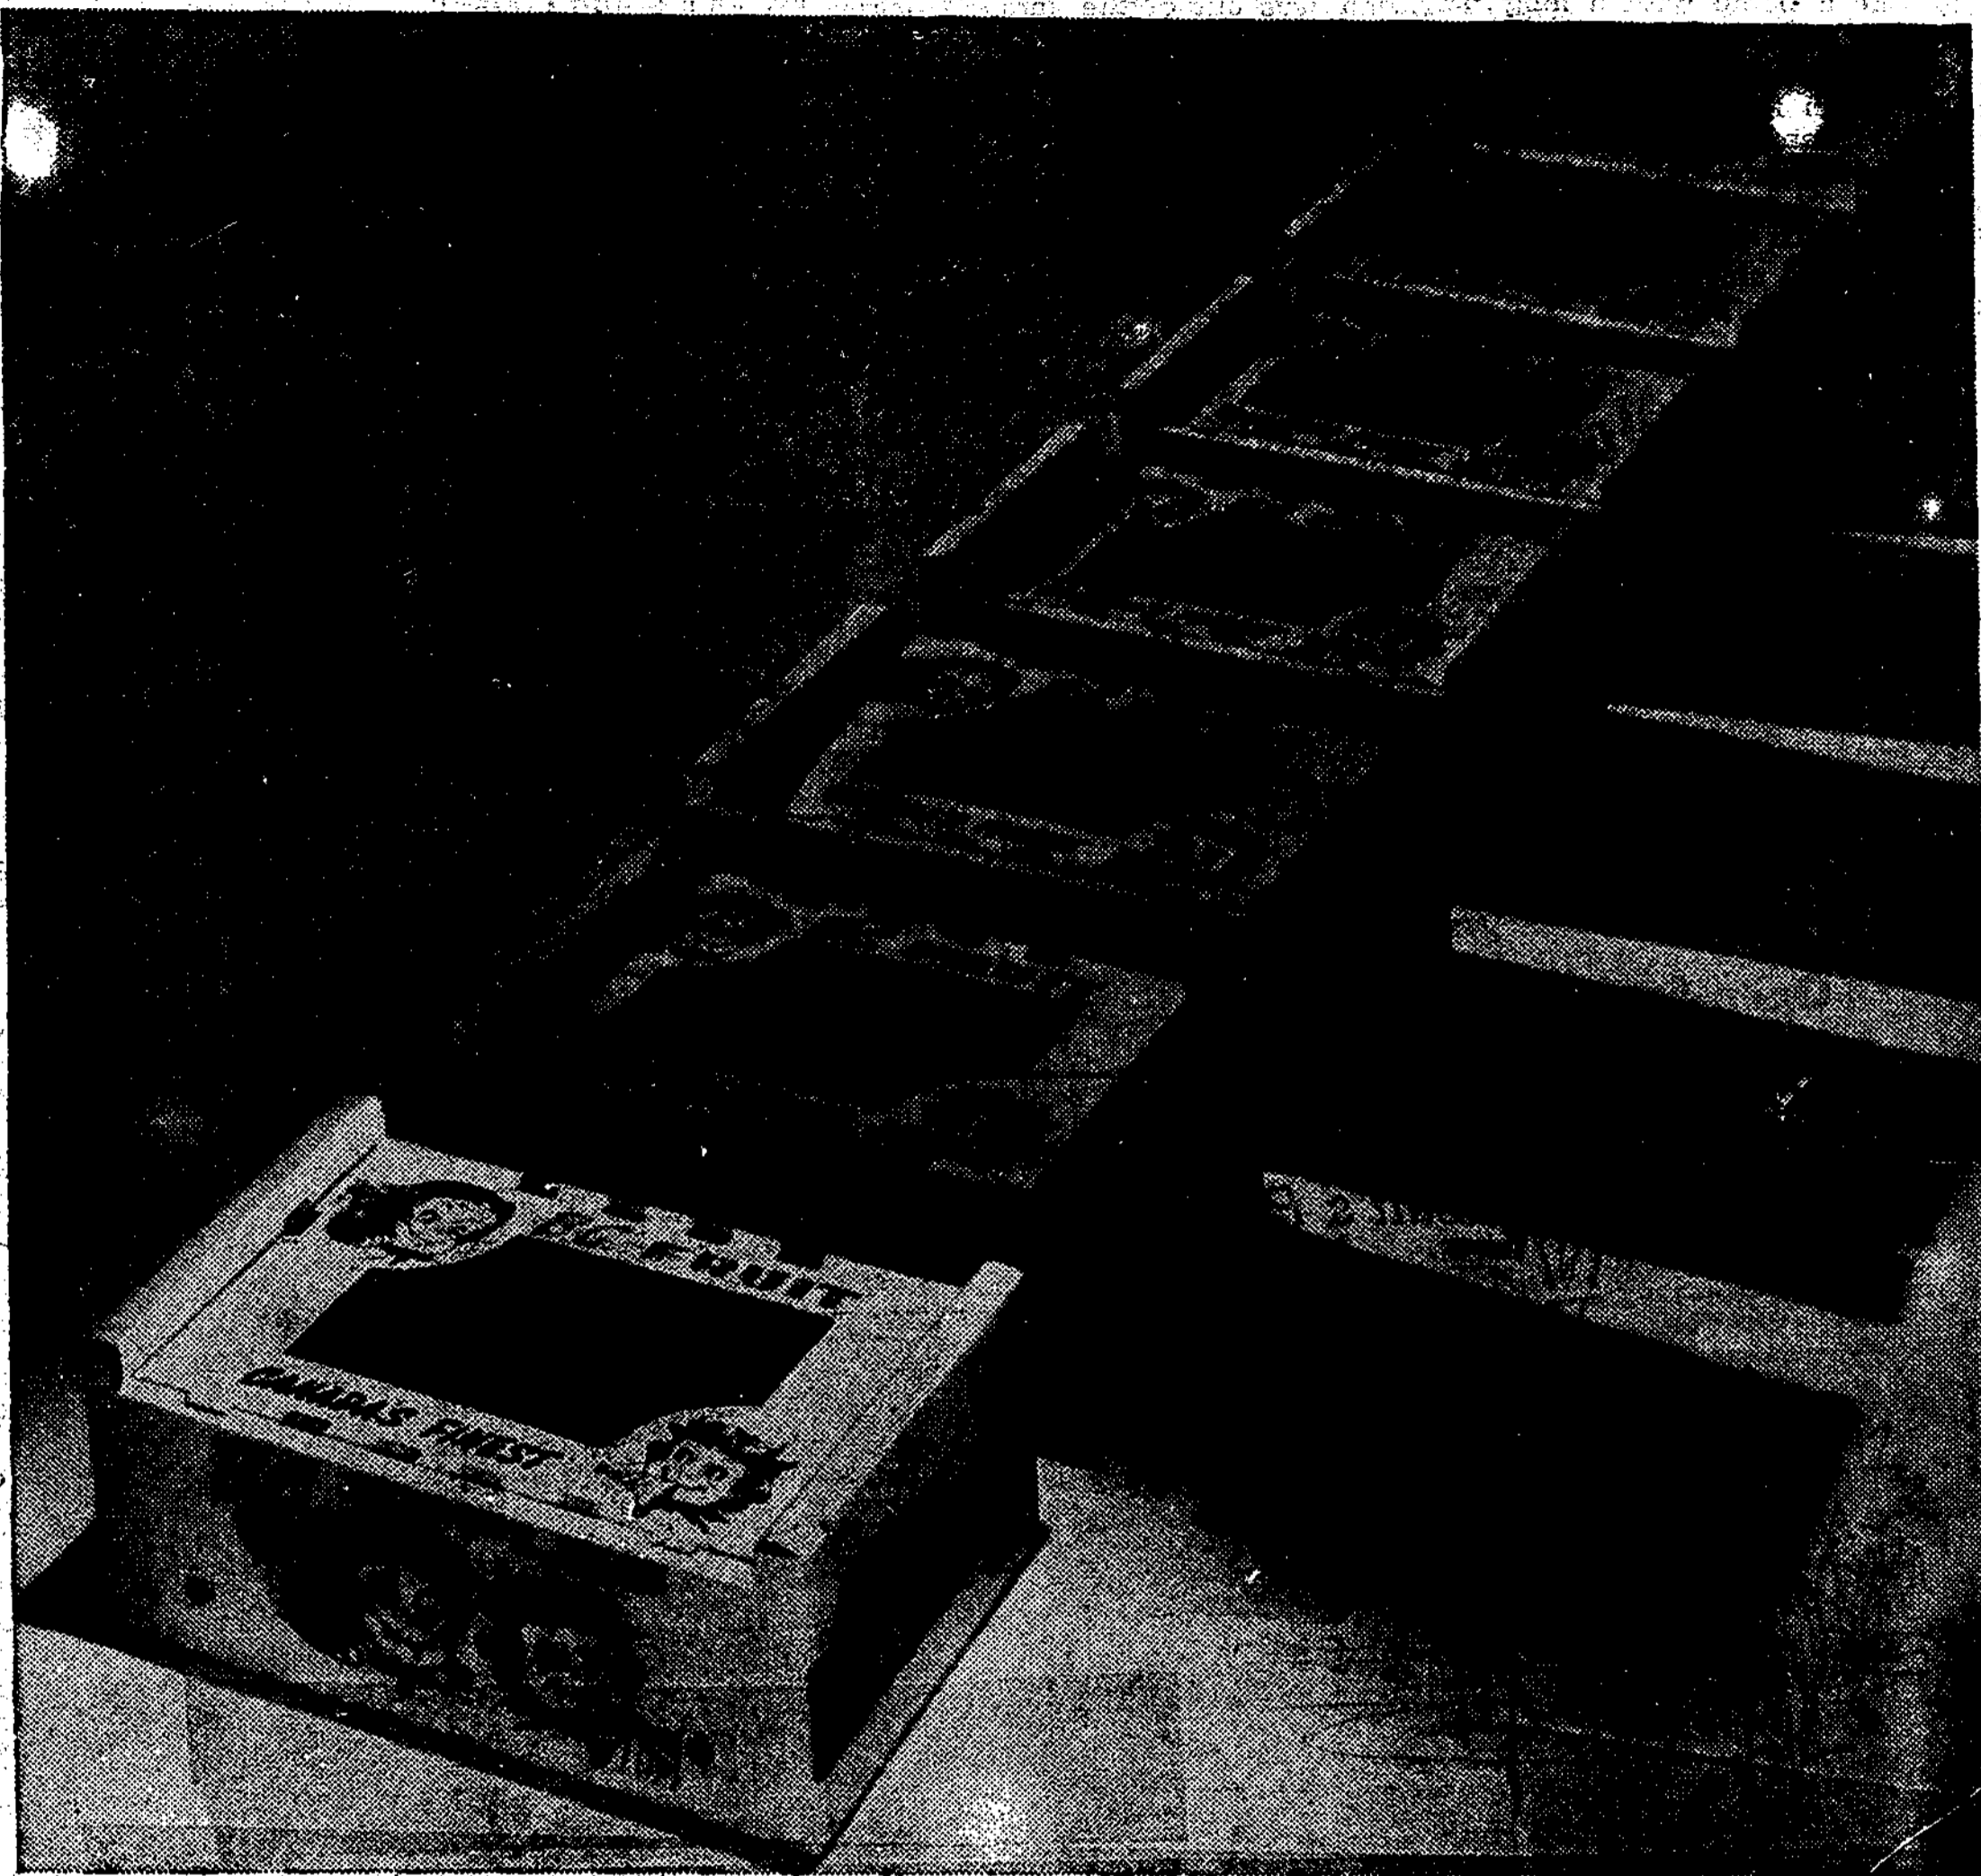

Rev. L. J. Tatham, a former rector of St. Stephen's Church, Summerland, is visiting here for a week, staying at the Nuway Hotel. Mr. Tatham who now lives in Sussex flew to Ottawa, then travelled by train across Canada. He is returning to England by the Panama.

Macs Clobbered 18-7 By Penticton Red Sox

The Penticton Red Sox fizzled like a bomb with a long fuse for five innings and then exploded for eight runs in the sixth inning and seven in the seventh, to hand the cellar-dwelling Summerland Macs an 18-7 clobbering in Penticton last Friday.

Penticton moved in on Summerland's Pariseau and when the smoke had cleared Pariseau was out of the game and the Red Sox had picked up five hits and eight runs on the combined offerings of Pariseau and Ball, who relieved him.

Coming up in the seventh the Red Sox continued their madcap pace assisted by six walks issued by ball and the third Summerland hurler, Al Hooker. To add insult to injury, after Hooker had loaded the bases, Lloyd Burgart slammed one of the longest home runs this season, over the right field wall to run the count to 18-7.

Bonthoux coming in then managed to hold the Red Sox scoreless for the last inning and a half.

At the start of the game Tom Balfour, who has moved up from the Juniors, found the going pretty tough in the first inning as Summerland landed on him to pick up four hits two of them home runs to score four runs.

Jim Andrews who came in in relief, though in a couple of tough spots, hung on till the Red Sox got going and chalked up the win. Summerland's second moundsman Mell Ball was charged with the loss.

Penticton Defeats Junior Red Sox

The Penticton Juniors having finally hit their stride, took their fourth win in a row when they run roughshod over Summerland to score a 13-4 win in Summerland last Thursday night.

Donnie Dennis, continuing his fine work on the mound for Penticton ran his won-lost record to 5-1 with the victory as he held the Summerland squad to eight hits. Carl Sheel ey hurling for Summerland, also gave up eight hits.

The Penticton hitters fattened their averages as Lance Styles and Red Dunham hit three run doubles and Bob Lemm collected his fourth triple of the year.

Penticton moved into the lead with a big six runs in the first inning and were never overtaken as they added four in the fourth and singles in the sixth, seventh and ninth. Summerland scored two in the first and one each in the third and sixth innings.

This victory leaves Penticton in a struggle with Naramata for third place in the league.

Macs Lose By One Run To Kamloops

Summerland Macs continued their losing ways here last Sunday, but again it was by the slender margin of one run.

And again it was the Kamloops Okonots Ironman Len Gatin who pitched the visitors to an 8-7 win over the Macs.

And again, as often before in this season's play, that one disastrous inning robbed the Macs of an earned win.

This time it was the sixth when five free passes to first loaded bases and Kato's single proved as good as a home run with it all totting up to six runs.

Macs were leading 4-1 until this inning but their spirited rally in the ninth fell short. Summerland

To Hold Adult Class For Swimming

There are a lot of adults who don't know the finer points of swimming and some can't swim at all. To help remedy this situation swimming classes under instructresses Barbara Fudge and Eleanor Baynes will be held on Monday and Thursday evenings, starting at 7 p.m.

It is hoped that enough adults will turn out to make these adult classes worthwhile.

Mrs. L. Hyde, chief swimming instructress at the Rotary Red Cross Swim Classes, is shown above at Rotary Beach viewing the form shown by some of the more than 300 registered for this year's classes.

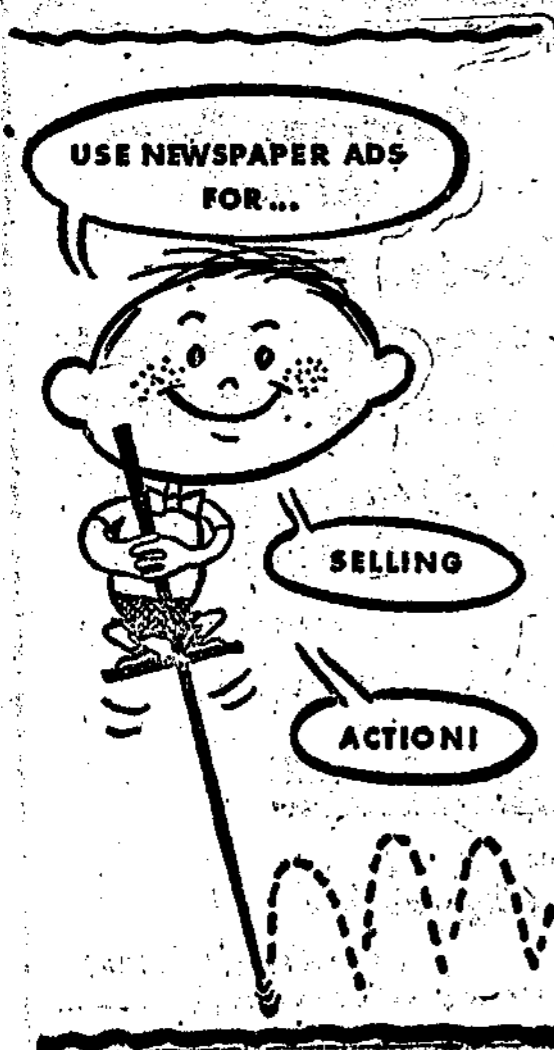

REV. ROBERT H. HARPER
A BOY AND THE SEA

A MOTHER, who was greatly distressed because her son wanted to go to sea, sought help from her pastor. While she was telling the pastor about her son's ardent desire to become a sailor and was saying that she could not understand his desire for the sea, as none of his people had been sailors, the pastor was looking with interest upon a large painting of a full-rigged ship on the great ocean, hanging on the wall. "There's the reason," said the pastor, lifting his arm toward the painting. All his life the boy had seen that picture of a full-rigged ship on the great ocean, and when he came to man's estate he wanted to go to sea.

Parents, surround your sons and daughters with good things. Much has been written and said recently about the vicious literature placed before the young. Boys and girls cannot be expected to develop high ideals when they are subjected to vicious trash.

The story of the Great Stone Face teaches us that men tend to become like that on which they look. Let us look to things high and good that good things may be found in us.

Only seven members turned out to practice on Sunday morning, so we didn't keep a record of the scores. The big news for this week is the invitation shoot which will be held next Sunday, commencing at 9 a.m. Ten shot matches will be shot from the 200, 500 and 600 yard gregate score of the three ranges. A shield and five sil-ranges with the five-man team event being included in the scores of these events.

The shooters are divided in to three classes, senior, tyro and cadet so the less experienced shooter will not have to compete with the more expert marksman. Trophies and cash prizes are awarded, the major award being the Duss-don Shield for the high ag-ver spoons are awarded to the winning team.

Competitors from Kam-loops, Vernon, Kelowna and Penticton will be with us, and we hope there will be some representatives from the coast clubs. Free refreshments will be served at the range.

As I mentioned last week, visitors are very welcome at any time.

Kelowna Regatta To Feature Synchronized Swimming

One of the most under-rated but perhaps the most difficult of water competitions will open the 53rd annual International Regatta at Kelowna being held from August 11-15.

The Pacific Northwest Synchronized Swimming Championships will open the four days of Aquatic competitions at 10 a.m. August 12.

Entries have already been received from "mermaids" in Edmonton, Kelowna, Vancouver and Victoria with many more still to come. Last year's champions, the Edmonton Aquadette Swim Club is returning with 14 competitors to again try and sweep the championships.

Solo, duet and team competitions will put the girls through intricate graceful manoeuvres in the water as they swim to music of their own choosing. Each competitor may choose her own theme, music and stunts in the water but whatever she chooses must be carried out with intricate precision, never missing a beat of music and carrying through with graceful rhythm.

Chairman of the Synchronized Swimming Competitions is Mrs. Irene Athans, wife of Canada's famed diving doctor, George Athans. Mrs. Athans is a former synchronized champion of no mean note, having held the Manitoba Singles Championships four consecutive years, the B.C. championship once, and runner-up spots in many Dominion finals.

The Florida Room Comes North to Canada

There is an extra room in every Florida bungalow. It's not a living room although most of the living is done there. It's not a recreation room, either. It is a family room and it has become the nerve centre of most southern homes.

Unlike the recreation room, it is on the same level as the rest of the living room. And the furniture is less expensive and less formal than the living room.

The Florida room frequently has windows on three sides. In this respect it resembles the once popular Canadian sun room. Jalousie windows, with the sills made of ceramic tile are most popular. The floor is laid with tiny, one inch mosaic tile. Because wood is generally in disfavor (it warps in this climate) ceramic tile has solved both the floor and wall problem.

Bamboo and rattan furniture is used, generally with upholstery in bright, all-over prints that do not show soil. Matsstick blins often replace fabric draperies.

These have been such happy rooms that they are moving north. More and more builders in the Northern States and Canada are introducing the family room in their newer homes.

If the trend catches hold, we can conceivably look forward to a return of traditional values. The "parlour" just might be restored with our current living rooms furnished and decorated more formally and used only on special occasions!

The Canadian version of the Florida room frequently looks the back porch once did. It is designed with maximum glass area with large panes for easy cleaning. The mosaic tile floor is finding favor in Canada, too, with all its advantages of lifetime wear and easy cleaning.

The television set is at home in this room, together with a comfortable sofa, several occasional chairs and even an old-fashioned foot rest or hassock. A folding table and chair set will be useful for games, homework, and letter writing. Don't forget ample lighting and a large bookcase just might encourage a return to reading as a family hobby!

If you plan to add a family room to your house, re-your lazy side - it should be an invitation to relaxation and leisurely conversation.

Mental Health Brief

Decentralization of the provincial mental health services and establishment of regional diagnostic and treatment facilities is recommended in a brief on the South Okanagan mental health needs, prepared by Reeve Ivor Jackson of Peachland, chairman of the South Okanagan Union Board of Health.

The brief is to be presented on behalf of the board to Dr. Matthew Ross of Chicago who will be in Kelowna in August to assess B.C.'s mental health services for the provincial government.

The South Okanagan Union Board of Health has been concerned about the absence of mental health services in the Okanagan for some time and welcomes the government's concern.

Mr. Jackson's brief points out that there is no provision for custodial care of mentally disturbed persons in the Okanagan, except in local jails. No practicing psychiatrists is resident in any part of the valley and there are only semi-annual visits from the provincial child guidance clinic, whose work is restricted to little more than diagnostic service for children.

The board has urged provision of custodial care in hospitals for psychiatric care in hospitals for psychiatric patients and has encouraged establishment of a medical psychiatric service either through a regional resident clinic team or by subsidizing a private practitioner.

The board realizes that the interest of parliament itself must be obtained if the authority and finances are to be given to the departments, the brief notes. The board is therefore working to arouse a public demand for adequate mental health services in the area. Appointment of a special counsellor in School District 23, Kelowna, and establishment of the Kelowna Youth Council have been welcomed as evidence of interest in limited aspects of the situation.

The board feels there should be decentralization of the provincial mental health services so that treatment would be available in the patient's home community rather than in a large hospital 300 miles away, the brief states.

Regional diagnostic and treatment service should be integrated into the various Okanagan communities by means of local committees which would serve as an interpretive and educational body between the mental health service and the community.

In larger centres, this committee should have a paid executive secretary at least on a part-time basis to ensure continuity of interest.

Elevated stalls for milking are included in the construction now under way, and a loose housing barn, paved yard and self feeder are to be built next year. very small business which he expanded over the years into the sizeable business of today. A friendly man with a keen sense of humor and a hearty laugh and one who could take a joke, Mr. Rumball seldom lacked a quip or a ready laugh and always he could see the silver lining to the black clouds.

He took a keen interest in sports and held executive positions on the Summerland Arena Commission, the Summerland Yacht Club and the Summerland Baseball Club.

The staff of the Groceteria remember him as genial and kindly employer, and one who could take a joke as the time they took his brand new hat and suit jacket and hung them outside the store with a sale tag on them and Mr. Rumball found himself selling his own hat and coat.

Funeral services for the late Mr. Rumball were held last Friday from the Summerland United Church, the Rev. Bert Whitmore officiating. Interment was in Peach Orchard Cemetery. Summerland places of business were closed during the funeral ceremonies.

Surviving are his widow, two sons, Les in West Summerland and Dale of Vancouver. Another son, Harold, was killed in the second World War.

High School Principal Resigns - Promoted

High School Principal A. K. Macleod, after 22 years in Summerland has resigned. His resignation was accepted with deep regret by the School Board of District 77 at a special meeting held last night (Tuesday).

Mr. Macleod has resigned to accept a promotion as Director of Education of the Trail School District, an executive position which entails supervision of instruction and inspection of teachers.

(Ed. Note. We think it only fair to Mr. Macleod to emphasize that the offer of what is considered a top bracket job in the educational field, was made to Mr. Macleod, when in Victoria this month, long before the startling resignation of the Rev. A. A. T. Northrup, made public to his parishioners last Friday raked a storm over schooling in Summerland.

Whether or not the Rev. Northrup was right or wrong in his decision to resign because of dissatisfaction with his children's progress in school, is now an academic question, but we do believe that in taking such strong action and publicizing his reasons, the Reverend Northrup was acting in what he felt to be his duty, and in accordance with his deep convictions, arrived at only after long, and we suspect, agonizing deliberation.

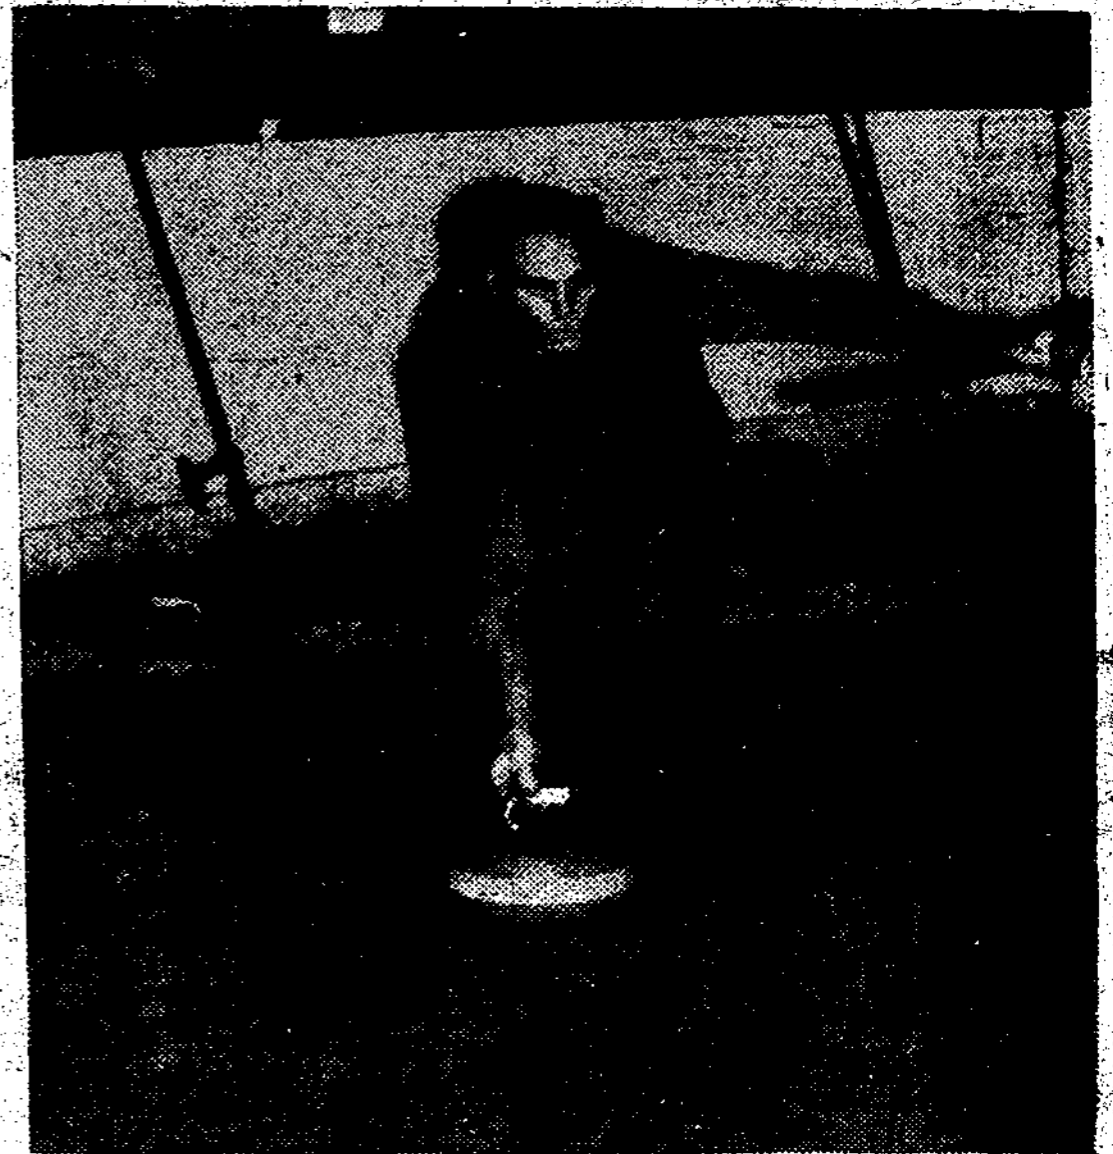

Thus, within one week, Summerland loses two outstanding citizens, both of whom will be missed in the community.

The Review in view of developments, has decided not to comment further on the controversy aroused by Rev. Northrup's letter of resignation to his parishioners, but we take pleasure in presenting the report submitted by the School Board of District 77, a report of which any school can be justly proud.

The Board of School Trustees has received the results of the University Entrance examination held in June. These were discussed at a meeting of the Board held last evening and members were pleased with results. The policy adopted by the High School of tightening up on those pupils who lacked the desire to learn or who have not the academic ability to go further is showing good results. A comparison was made of the results of last year and this and the Board is gratified at the marked improvement shown this year. The Board is releasing the results in a comparative form shown on back page.

It is noted that the percentage of passes is higher in nearly every subject and is especially bettered in English 91, Maths. 30 and 91, Biology 91 and French 92.

During the Board discussion, District Superintendent C. E. Clay stated that a study of results showed that the number of pupils making good marks compared very favourably with many larger schools. The Board expressed its pleasure at the results and instructed the Secretary-Treasurer to convey the appreciation of the Board to the Principal and members of the High School staff.

Summerland's first summer curling bonspiel went over in a big way and devotees of the roarin' game, including rinks from Penticton and Salmon Arm had themselves a happy time over the week end. Ice was excellent after a false start with rocks that hadn't had sufficient cooling off. George Stoll, who sparked the ice in summer project, is shown above throwing the first rock to open Summerland's first but by no means the last summer bonspiel.

Breakwater, Official Opening Next Thurs.

Summerland's Breakwater will be officially opened next Thursday night, August 6, at 8 p.m.

Guest speakers at the event are expected to be the Hon. Howard Green, Canada's Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, but as minister of public works, the man who authorized the Summerland breakwater.

Fall Fruit Pians Fast Maturing

The third annual Fruit Fair sponsored by the Summerland Board of Trade will be held on Labor Day week end, September 4 and 5.

Prize lists for the agricultural competition and hobby show sections of the fair will be available shortly. Mr. Jack Kirk is head of the agricultural section and Mr. S. A. MacDonald heads the hobby show section. Special section this year will be the produce from grade five children's gardens. Mr. Alex Watt reports that many of these gardens have been inspected this week and that they are growing well and there will be keen competition.

Theme of this year's fair is "Around the World to Summerland". Many firms and clubs have indicated interest in booths at the fair. Anyone not contacted in person who is interested in display space for their own business or club is asked to contact fair secretary Lorne Perry.

One Man Crime Wave Here Runs its Course

Time to Spray For Peach Root Borer

Pensioners Hear About Convention

The Old Age Pensioners held their monthly meeting on July 21 at 2 p.m. in the IOOF Hall with 32 members present and president Glen in the chair.

Secretary D. Taylor read his report and said that he had sent a letter of thanks to the municipal council for providing transportation to Vernon for the Royal Visit.

Treasurer MacDougald gave the financial report. Three new members have joined.

The president gave a report of the convention at Mission. He did not like the way the convention was conducted.

Three members of a local lodge had spoken to him about taking the pensioners for a motor trip to and around Kelowna and then having lunch at the picnic park north of Summerland. More will be heard about that later on.

Four members had birthdays during the month. Mrs. Bancroft supplied the music.

Mrs. Taylor and Mrs. MacDougald handed around a lunch.

No meeting will be held in August.

signs of Peach Root Borer may be a yellowing and wilted appearance of the tree on one side. Examination of the crown may show a jelly like substance under the bark near ground level and some of the grubs may be found. These are creamy white grubs with brown heads.

If Peach Root Borer is present the entire peach block should be sprayed with a mixture of 5 lbs. DDT per 100 gallons. Spray is directed at the trunk area only from crotch to ground level. The timing of this spray is quite important since it is aimed at the adult of the Borer which

Letter to Editor

The Editor,
Summerland Review.

To the person or persons who reported Mrs. Bill Mortimer, Peach Orchard for selling home baking.

I would advise you to be very sure that you know what you are doing before you lay a complaint against anyone in future. Had you read the sign advertising Home Cooking for Sale, you would have seen that it said Lakeside Circle of the W.A. were selling the home cooking. As it was Mrs. Mortimer had to make a special trip to West Summerland to find out what the complaint was all about.

In think an apology is due Mrs. Mortimer for the inconvenience and embarrassment caused her by the complaint.

of July and August. Application should be made the last week of July and repeated the last week of August.

Directions are on the spray calendar.

Horticultural Letter Westbank, Kelowna:

As reported July 22: Lambert cherry harvest will be finished by this week end. Although the crop is small, size and quality of the fruit has been excellent. Apricots are maturing rapidly. The first deliveries are expected by the middle of next week. Again the crop is small. Some of the fruit has dropped from the trees recently. This is believed to be a delayed effect of the spring frosts. Yellow Transparent apple harvest has started. Size is satisfactory and maturity is coming fast. Apple thinning is nearly completed. Tree growth and fruit size is

All species of mites on tree fruits are increasing rapidly and have required special sprays in many cases. Green apple aphid, rampant during the cool weather early in the month has been greatly reduced by the recent hot weather. Pear psylla is still well under control. There have been a few late entries from first brood codling moth.

In Westbank, the hot weather of the past fortnight hastened the picking of the small cherry crop, about one third of normal on the average. Apricots are taking on color and picking should commence in about a week. Transparent apples are now reaching the packing houses in quantity. Pear psylla is still a problem where insufficient or less thorough spraying was done. Elsewhere this pest is under control. Mite population particularly McDaniel and Rust Mite is starting to build up.

Vegetable crops are responding well to the current spell of hot weather. Early lots of fall-planted onions are being marketed. Size and quality are generally good. Spring onions are growing well and showing promise of heavy yields. Picking of pole beans is general and quality is good, some sloughing of blossom and the hot weather is causing the crop will be reduced on this account. Bush bean harvest has been under way for two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Nat May have visited their daughter and son in law, Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Abernathy and their three children of Cache Creek. They also visited with Mr. Abernathy's parents.

Fire Again At Faulder

Fire of unknown origin struck the P. Stanley Muir family at Faulder again last week. This time a farm building estimated at $500 and its contents included their winter clothing valued at $1,500 was totally destroyed.

The family was away at the time.

Last year the Muir's home was burned to the ground. The new home constructed, through community effort escaped damage.

A bridge over Trout Creek connecting two parts of the Muir farm was burned to a considerable extent.

RCMP were notified on the Muirs' return about 7 p.m. but by this time the building was destroyed.

There was no insurance.

Mrs. Fisher was connected with the Summerland Horticultural Society and was honorary president at the time of her death.

He planted orchards and worked on the irrigation system at Naramata, Penticton and Oliver and later went into the building contracting.

In 1916 he went overseas with the 50th Battalion, wounded twice and discharged in 1919.

He was always ready to give a helping hand so his many friends will miss him.

Photography Display At Peach Festival

An entirely new feature for this year's Rotary Exhibition to be held August 6, 7 and 8 will be an opportunity for all amateur photographers to display their photos.

The award winning photos will receive cash prizes. The Exhibition directors have set up three classes for entries, pictorial landscapes; portrait, including still life, birds and animals; and finally, for the best photo taken of the 1958 Peach Festival parade or fair grounds.

This competition is open to all amateur photographers living in the Southern Interior. Entry blanks may be obtained at Monty's Flower Shop, Knights Pharmacy or CKOK.

This is another step in the direction of building an Exhibition that provides an opportunity to display all types of hobbies, especially when photography, as a hobby, is so much in vogue.

Visitors Win Prizes At Invitational Shoot

Fifty-seven competitors took part in the annual invitational shoot at the Summerland Rifle Range on Sunday. Shooters from Kamloops, Vernon, Kelowna, Penticton, Vancouver and Prince George, as well as nineteen Army Cadets from various B.C. and Alberta units attended the meet.

It was feared that the weather would be very hot, but a light breeze made conditions excellent at the 200 and 500 yard ranges. By mid afternoon the breeze had developed into a very strong wind that made shooting very difficult at the 600 yard distance. Many of the shooters who had done well at the first two ranges saw their scores drop rapidly at the final range as "magpies", "outers" and an occasional miss became more frequent.

Prize winners were: grand aggregate, Dunsdon Shield, and miniature, 1st, J. Vecquray, Vernon, 140x150; 2nd, K. Wiltsee, Penticton 140; 3rd C. Serwa, Kelowna, 140, 4th H. Palmer, Vernon, 137. A shoot-off was necessary to determine the first place winner in this class.

Senior 200 yards, Summerland cup and spoon: E. Amos, Penticton, 48x50; J. Vecquraya, 48; K. Wiltse, Penticton, 47; W. Lightburn, Mission 47. The first place winner was decided by a shoot-off.

Senior 500 yards, Sport Centre Cup and spoon, J. Vecquray, 50x50; J. Wrinch, Vancouver, 49; K. Wiltse 48; G. Dunsdon, Summerland 47.

Senior 600 yards: George Rose Cup and spoon: Bert Stewart, Vancouver 48; C. Serwa, Kelowna 47; Sam Lee, Kelowna 47; G. Farquharson, Kamloops 45; K. Wiltse 45.

Tyro aggregate, money prizes: R. Henry, 140; B. Wilkinson 139; W. McCargar 133.

Tyro 200 yards, money prizes, R. Henry 47; Cliff Dunsdon 45; W. McCargar 45.

Tyro 500 yards, money prizes: R. Henry 49; B. Wilkinson 47; Wayne McCargar, 47.

Tyro, 600 yards, money prizes: B. Stewart 48; B. Wilkinson 48; W. R. Maxon 45.

Cadet 200 yards: W. Shapka 47; R. Rockett 46; L. Bolton 45.

Cadets 500 yards: L. Bolton 48; P. J. Stanko 47; R. Rockett 46.

Cadet 600 yards: L. Bolton 45; J. E. Batter 42, W. E. Whale 41.

At the conclusion of the meet president Harold Richardson extended hearty thanks to the visitors, to the ladies for the excellent lunch and refreshments and to the men who had done such a good job of marking targets.

Red Sox Break Losing Streak 6-5 Win At Naramata

The Summerland Junior Red Sox broke their seven game losing streak on Sunday with a double victory over the Naramata Juniors.

The first game was the completion of a 3-all tie played last month. The Red Sox held Naramata scoreless in their half of the inning and then went on to score the winning run in the last half when with two on base DeWitt singled to win the game 4-3.

The visitors expressed their appreciation to the local club, the loudest acclaim being three lusty cheers to the ladies by the Cadets under the leadership of Captain Joe Wrinch. J. Vecquray extended an invitation to a shoot sponsored by the Vernon Rifle Association on August 23 at the Kelowna Rifle Range.

The regular scheduled game was a thriller all the way. Kozak and Sheeley put on a real pitcher's duel and each allowed only 5 hits. Both teams were sensational in the field. Again it was Dewitt that broke up the game with two out and the bases loaded he hit a line drive double to score three runs and the Red Sox won this one 6-5.

SPORTS

On The Rifle Range

BY HERB SIMPSON

Another invitation shoot is over and it was acclaimed by all to be very successful. It commenced at 9:10 a.m. and was finished by 5:30 so there was very little lost time. This was possible only because of the efficient work by the target markers, range officer and scorekeepers. Fred Dunsdon as range officer made certain that each squad was ready on time, while Earle Wilson, Louise Atkinson and Art Dunsdon kept the score sheets up to date all day.

A considerable amount of time and energy had been expended by club members to make the shoot a success. Three work parties were held to put the targets and range in first class condition.

Floors and Floor Coverings

There are no easy answers to flooring problem. And no single answer to any one question. What is best for a living room? What is recommended for a kitchen? The answer to your flooring problem will depend on where and how you live.

Let's look at rugs. All wool pile rugs were once the logical choice for living rooms. The only decisions were "can I afford wall to wall installation and do I want a patterned or plain floor?"

Now you must consider the relative advantages of both cotton and viscose rugs as well. And more recently, the craft fibre rugs.

You will be familiar with the quality of most of the pile rugs. The newest innovation in this field is that both the cotton and wool variety may be purchased in 18" squares with adhesive backing so that you can lay your own wall to wall with minimum waste. The cost per yard is comparable to the same quality carpeting sold in the traditional widths and lengths.

But fibre rugs, once out of date, age back again. They are particularly popular with apartment dwellers and families who rent. (Canadians move an average of once every five years). Fibre rugs appeal to these families because they are economical, versatile and practical.

The least expensive type of fibre rug is woven of tough strands of craft (a wood product) which is twisted to give exceptional strength.

Slightly more expensive is the rug made of craft interwoven with wool, rayon or acetate yarn.

The fibre rug is currently being used in living room, dining room, bedroom, porch and, surprisingly, the bathroom. They are especially practical if you have children. The fibre rug is reversible, less expensive than the pile rug, and easily home cleaned and doesn't collect dust as pile rugs will. They needn't be tacked down and don't slip.

Socreds Celebrate At Kelowna, Thursday

British Columbia's "bond-fire" and birthday festivities, scheduled for August 1 in Kelowna, will feature round the clock parades and activities for visitors from all over the province.

Bands, eight in all, including two from the Lower Mainland, will provide continuous entertainment starting at 10 a.m. until celebrations wind-up shortly before midnight.

The celebrations mark the seventh anniversary of the Social Credit government in office, and the "bond-fire" will signal B.C.'s freedom from public debt.

"I will be a day to remember for all British Columbia" says Premier W. A. C. Bennett. "On behalf of the Social Credit government I extend an invitation to everyone, regardless of party, to join us in Kelowna for this happy day."

Highlight of the day will be the lighting by Premier Bennett of the "birthday bond-fire" to signal B.C.'s freedom from public debt.

ATTENDS GARDEN PARTY

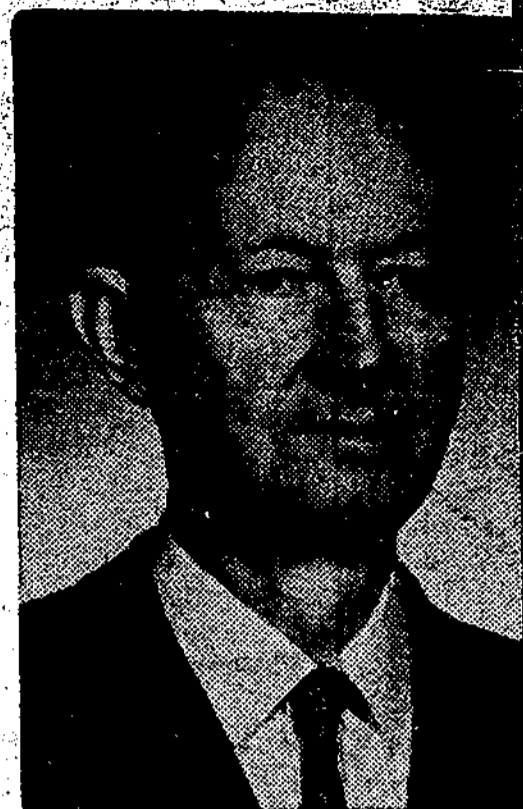

School Board chairman T. S. Manning and Mrs. Manning were among the invited guests attending the Royal Garden Party held at the Government House in Victoria. Mr. Manning said he felt it was a great honor to represent the School District at this event. We were fortunate in seeing the Queen at close quarters on two occasions, Mr. Manning reports.

Local Rotarians To Host District Governor Corner

The Rotary Club of Summerland on July 31 will be host to Ray Corner, governor of district 506 of Rotary International, who is making his annual visit to each of the 26 Rotary Clubs in the district extending from Revelstoke and Kamloops at one end to Kakima and Prosser in the state of Washington at the other end. He will address the local club and confer with president Jerry Laidlaw, Secretary S. A. MacDonald and committee chairman on Rotary administration and service activities.

Mr. Corner is a fruit grower in Glenmore, and is a member and past president of the Rotary Club of Kelowna. He was elected as a district governor of Rotary International for the 1959-60 fiscal year at Rotary's 50th annual convention in New York City last month. He is one of 261 district governors supervising the activities of more than 10,200 Rotary Clubs which have a combined membership of nearly half a million business and professional executives in 113 countries throughout the world.

Wherever Rotary clubs are located, president Laidlaw asserted in discussing the governor's visit, their activities are similar to those of the Rotary Club of Summerland, because they are based on the same general objectives, developing better understanding among business and professional men, promoting community betterment undertakings, raising the standards business and professions, and fostering the advancement of good will, understanding and peace among all peoples of the world.

Each year this world wide service organization continues to grow in numbers and strength, president Laidlaw added. During the past fiscal year 374 new Rotary clubs were organized in 53 countries bringing the total number of Rotary clubs to an all-time high of more than 10,200 and four countries were added to Rotary's roster, British Guiana, Ghana, Madagascar and Nepal.

Now's The Time To Plan For Your Child's College Career

Like everything else these days, the cost of getting a college education keeps going up. If you wait until your son or daughter is ready to start college, the money required might well be beyond your means.

That's why the practical plan is to start saving systematically while your youngster is still very young. Many parents who can afford it begin by earmarking their family allowance cheques for a special educational fund at the Bank of Montreal. They find it adds up tremendously over the years. Cheques for one child, saved in a B. of M. account until the age of 16, total more than $1,600, including the interest, the bank says. And of course, the money is always available in case it's needed for some unexpected emergency.

Jock Johnston, manager of the West Summerland branch of the Bank of Montreal, will be glad to give you a copy of the B. of M.'s folder designed to help you to calculate the cost of your youngster's higher-education program. What you save today can do a good deal towards improving your youngster's chances to get the best possible start in life when high-school days are over.
