

Miss Ruth Dale honored by school board

Before an assembly of 500 teachers, students and guests a set of the 1960 edition of the Encyclopaedia was presented to the High School in the name of Miss Ruth Dale. Ken Boothe made the presentation on behalf of the Board.

The set had been donated by the Encyclopaedia Britannica of Canada Ltd. with the suggestion that it be presented in the name of some local citizen who had made an outstanding contribution to the community.

Mr. Boothe in making the presentation stated that Miss Dale had taught in Summerland schools for 43 years. In that time about 1500 pupils had been in her classes. She had taught these children not only the 3 R's but had instilled into them some of the high moral and spiritual principles that she herself possesses. She had greatly assisted in musical activities preparing for concerts and festivals outside her normal duties. Also, Miss Dale had given freely of her time and talents in community activities and this had been recognized when she was named Good Citizen of 1953.

Mr. Boothe after noting that he was a pupil of Miss Dale in 1923, called on Ida Wellwood of the 1960 class who presented Miss Dale with a collage.

Miss Dale in reply thanked the Board for the honor. She told the students that when they saw the books on the shelf, to remember that she would always be interested in their welfare and education.

The set of encyclopaedia was on display on the stage. It will be a welcome addition to the High School library where it will be placed. A plaque, donated by the High School will be placed above the set with Miss Dale's name engraved as the citizen honored.

Disappointing attendance for 'Iolanthe'

Tuesday night's playing of "Iolanthe" by the Summerland Singers and Players was not affected by the disappointing attendance.

The sets designed by Mr. Stan Gladwell offered an excellent setting for the colorful costumes.

Mr. C. Smith stepped in to take over as musical director at the last minute when Mr. ... was taken ill.

Those who ... the Summerland ... will have the ... to see it in Pentagon ... Saturday, April ... Monday, April 11.

New stucco finish for United Church

The United Church Men's Club has completed its first major project. The stuccoing of the outside of the church was completed at the stroke of noon last Friday.

The appearance of the church was noticeably improved and this project is not only a credit to the men of the church, but adds to the attractiveness and general appearance of the town of Summerland.

At the last meeting of the Men's Club held March 24, which was a ladies night the Melodiers of Summerland supplied the musical entertainment. A successful auction sale of two hours of member's time, at any work they wished to do was held to help pay for the cost of material used for the stucco job. The ladies entered the bidding in a spirited manner, sometimes bidding for their own men's time at a figure which will show them little profit.

About half of the cost of material used was raised by this auction which included a few voluntary donations, and members are asked to think of ways and means to raise the balance and bring their ideas to the next meeting of the club, to be held Thursday April 28.

A good program has been arranged, featuring an address by Dr. Jim Marshall. Supper served at 6:30 p.m.

Okanagan Sparkling Cider ranks no. 1 in Europe

Okanagan sparkling cider has ranked No. 1 in a blind taste panel in Switzerland where it was in competition with European ciders.

Some time ago the Sun Rype Co. was invited to send some of its products including cider to Switzerland for judging with fruit products made in that country and other parts of Europe.

Word has just been received from Dr. Hans Luthe assistant director, Federal Experimental Station, Wädenswil that the Okanagan cider ranked first. The report said the fresh, natural

Dr. MacKenzie will be the guest speaker of the Summerland Board of Trade at their annual banquet in the evening at 6:30 p.m. The president's busy schedule is completed with an Alumnae coffee get-together at 9:30 p.m. Tickets for the Trade Board banquet are available at Roy's Men's Wear, Boothe's Grocery and Lorne Perry's and must be obtained by Thursday.

There was a high percentage of acceptance. Only 15 refused of the 1106 population in the high school, Mac Donald and Trout Creek elementary schools and the Apple Blossom school for the retarded.

A steady stream of adults kept the staff busy at West Summerland at the IOOF Hall on Saturday in crowds for their tests.

Teen Town to help shut-ins

Teen Town is planning a work party during the Easter holidays at which time the members are offering their services to any pensioners or shut-ins who are in need of having storm windows removed and windows washed. They are asking all citizens to cooperate by submitting names of such people to Teen Town through Box 671, West Summerland or by phoning HY4-3482. Please have names in by April 15.

Teen Town sponsored seven entrants to the Oliver Teen Town badminton tournament March 12 and 13, who returned with six wins. These players will be presented with trophies in the near future.

Plans are now being made to send five delegates to the provincial teen town conference in Kelowna in April. Emilie Bonthoux has been selected as Summerland's teen town sweetheart and will also be attending the conference where the provincial sweetheart will be chosen.

included the names of various roses that have been winning the top awards of merit. Two climbers especially suitable for archways are Crimson Shower and Golden Showers. Several queries from the question box were answered but it is hoped that a lot more members will remember to jot down problems that arise as they start their gardening programs, and enter them in the question box at the April meeting. Due to April 15 being Good Friday the regular meeting will be on date advertised.

Alex Watt spoke of the destructive habits of starlings and urged their elimination whenever possible.

During the rest of the meeting Tom Ritchie took the members and visitors on a photographic trip of very interesting parts of California. Color slides of the beautiful floats in the Pasadena Rose bowl parade, and fabulous Apple Valley, Santa Barbara, La Jolla and many other places of interest had been taken by Mr. Ritchie with the idea that people of Summerland would derive considerable pleasure from viewing them. The tour ended with views of the prairies taken from the air.

Mr. Ritchie was warmly thanked for showing the many lovely views by Mr. A. Calder on behalf of the members. Tea was served by Miss Tait and Mrs. Dinning.

Technicians assemble Trans-Canada Air Lines highly complex Douglas DC-8 simulator in the company's new training building at Montreal. The $1,000,000 machine, built by Link Aviation Company, is capable of doing anything the aircraft can do — except leave the ground. It even simulates random passenger movement while the aircraft is in flight. The simulator will be used to supplement training of pilots for the 550-mile-an-hour, 127-passenger DC-8's, cutting costs and leaving the aircraft themselves free for revenue passenger service. More than 128 miles of wire, some thousands of vacuum tubes and hundreds of amplifiers and servomotors are included in the simulator complex, which has been called the largest analogue computer in the world. TCA pilots began training on the simulator at the end of February.

Women's Federation spring tea April 9th

March meeting of the Women's Federation of Summerland United Church opened with the singing of Mrs. Washington's Sr. favorite hymn 'O safe to the rock that is higher than I'.

For the devotional Mrs. S. A. Macdonald read the scripture lesson from St. Luke. Mrs. Vernon Charles gave a talk on the theme and Mrs. G. Harper led in prayer. Mrs. W. Ward and Mrs. Dan Spencers packed and sent a 13 pound parcel to Korea. Mrs. Ward reported that nearly all the gifts for the Indian school are collected now.

A quilt top donated by Mrs. W. Boothe and quilted by the members will be sold at the spring tea on April 9. All arrangements were made for the spring tea.

The president Mrs. Lazenby made a report on the two day annual joint meeting of Womens Association and the WMS of the United Church of Canada held at North Kamloops February 24 and 25 telling of the extra effort to be made by church members to help financially in this special refugee year, when it is hoped that all refugee camps in Europe can be closed and the people placed in some country permanently.

Missionaries from India and Africa spoke of their work and showed pictures. Mrs. Bert Stockdale of Vancouver, president WA conference branch, spoke of the United Church home for senior citizens in Vancouver and the Burnaby home for girls.

Mrs. Lazenby announced that the joint rally will be held in Osooyoos in October.

The solo 'Were you there, when they crucified my Lord?' was sung by Miss Lynn Boothe accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Ken Boothe.

Tea was served to thirty members and two visitors by Mrs. W. R. Powell, Mrs. A. McLachlan and Mrs. A. Walden. Mrs. H. Dræas greeted members as they arrived.

Should spark campaign

Only the most unobservant person can fail to have noticed the smart appearance of the Summerland United Church.

The Church has undergone a face-lifting at the hands of volunteer labor, the Church Men's Club and a mighty fine job of work it is.

This, of course, is in the best tradition of Summerland where loyalty and devotion to one's Church, to one's Service Club and to the community as a whole is a paramount motivation.

We do suggest though in commending the United Church Men's Club on the work they did, that in this springtime of the year all of us can take a good look at the result.

It is remarkable what a paint-up, clean-up job can do, isn't it?

We can only hope that the appearance of the United Church will spark a vigorous paint-up and clean-up campaign throughout the community. A smart, clean community attracts and is remembered.

Well done

We never fail to be impressed with Summerland young peoples' showing at the annual Okanagan Music Festival.

This year was no exception and again our talented youngsters have captured far more than their share of the awards.

Notable, of course, is the proud performance of Johan Bergstrom who swept the festival in the pianoforte class. This added to the honor she won at the B.C. Festival stamps Johan as an artist of distinction and one who will make her mark in the world of music.

Yes, Summerland's showing in the Musical Festival Summerland's achievements in the world of theatre as witness this week's performances of "Iolanthe" by the Summerland Singers and Players, and the quality of work displayed at Summerland's art shows, all testify to a community that is way above the average, in what are rightly called the finer things of life.

To Miss Johan Bergstrom and to all those who won honors at the recent Festival, The Review says "well done."

"Their work continueth"

This week a teacher Miss Ruth Dale with 42 years teaching experience in Summerland was honored as the person who has contributed much to education.

We have no doubt Miss Dale is proud and pleased at this recognition. Even so, even without this recognition Miss Dale, or any other good and long-service teacher is not without reward. They are rewarded in seeing their pupils of years making good, not necessarily in material terms, but in terms of being good citizens.

We cannot think of a more satisfying profession in the matter of rich rewards than that of teaching, for the good teacher is a moulder of men and women. And we cannot think of any better way to sum it all up than to again quote Rudyard Kipling, who wrote, of teachers:

"... for their work continueth, broad and deep continueth, Greater than their knowing."

Here is what the Peace River Power Development Company's dam will look like when completed. The reservoir, more than 200 miles long, will have an average width of about four miles and a surface area of more than nine hundred square miles. The usable storage capacity will be six times that of Grand Coulee. The dam will be at a canyon eleven miles west of Hudson Hope.

Books at the library

by Freda Storey

High adventure and suspense in the Canadian wilderness is claimed in Arthur Mayst's new novel Morgan's Mountain, a recent addition to our library. Morgan Halstead had indulged in a whim. He had flown his forests of B.C.'s Maxada country. It was a whim that nearly cost him and his daughter Linn their lives.

Spotting the lone figure of Michael Clendon making his way through the thick underbrush below them, Halstead swooped down for a closer look. Minutes later he crashed into an isolated fountain lake wrecking his plane and creating a desperate situation.

Thus began a remarkable journey on foot, with young Clendon carrying the injured Halstead on his back the girl helping in every way possible. Their trek led them through dense forest, over threatening rockslides, across a treacherous glacier, and finally down a wild rampaging river on a makeshift raft. This is a gripping story with a strong emotional flavor and should prove interesting to many of our readers.

On the lighter side Warren Chetham Strode author of Three Men and a Girl, has written another book; Top of the Milk. Charles and Mary Warren are still the chief protagonists; but on this occasion the author goes far deeper into human vagaries. Apart from great insight into the thoughts; opinions and general loquaciousness of five Siamese cats he introduces new characters who are a sheer delight. There is a baby in this book who has a good deal to say on many subjects. There is also Mademoiselle Larne a Frenchwoman who rents the barn flat and whose behaviour there makes Charles decide to turn her out; is a gem in humorous fiction. Top of the Milk is claimed to be an extremely funny and very human novel. It is certainly lighthearted.

Fifty Edible Plants of B.C.; Amphibians of B.C.; Fresh Water Fish of B.C.; Alien Animals in B.C.; Ferns and Fern allies of B.C. and Orchids of B.C.; these are all newly published handbooks which have been added to our permanent collection in the library. All will be available to our readers from now on and may be borrowed at any time.

Buffalo

Patient wives who have trained themselves to smile when hunting husbands bring back game and fish no one else wants must view with alarm the permission given to hunt buffalo in Canada.

A duck; a rabbit; even a small deer can be handled by a modern housewife. But a ton of buffalo flung on the doorstep by a husband confident of praise would be too much for any woman with a spark of spirit.

Member Reports

By Dave Pugh, MP

Two important matters came up in Parliament this week; the budget which was given last night and the Bomarc discussion. The general feeling here on the budget is that it is satisfactory and is a furtherance of policy from last year. Perhaps its most important point is it is a balanced budget. The budget debate will continue until Tuesday at which time the final vote takes place. Your newspapers will have given you the main points and I will hold further comment until next week end and then give you the pros and cons from all parties.

You will remember the government cancelled the Avro-arrow project last year and took on an interim measure the Bomarc Missile. The saving at the time in dollars and cents was several hundreds of millions of dollars and Canada's contribution to the Bomarc was limited to $15000000. The Bomarc is of 2 types; Bomarc A which is now in successful operation and Bomarc B which has yet to be approved. The difference between the two is a matter of range; Bomarc A being two hundred miles and the Bomarc B projecting four hundred miles. The matter was brought before the House under a little used rule which allows discussion of matters of national importance in precedence to all normal House business. The debate was on Monday and came as a result of a change in United States policy.

This change was necessitated because it was felt that defence must be geared to the missile rather than the manned bomber.

Club Notes

Kiwanis meetings usually bring forth a surprise of one sort or another and Tuesday saw a brand new portable organ placed on the stage and Lorraine Bonthoux played it for the Club singing.

Hilly Smith as was threatened last week, was loudly cheered when the eagle eye of the Sheriff George Henry no less caught up with him and last week's fine, the penalty for having a birthday. Nick Solly was caught too and paid a small one.

Notice was given of the coming CNIB meeting April 18 and the president will attend to represent the club. Anyone who has not yet returned his Eye Bank Donor's Card is pleased asked to do so before this meeting.

Friday night is the Board of Trade annual banquet and members of the club are invited to attend. Scottie Ritchie informed the time as 6:30 and the place, the High School Auditorium.

Jack Towgood and Nick Solly will attend the Key Club this week.

The Kiwanis Club is again handling the cancer drive for funds during the first week in May and more will be heard about this from the chairman of the committee, Earl Smith.

Ladies night will be held April 26 in the Parish Hall and as the Winthrop Club is coming up from the U.S. members are asked by the president to turn out in full force.

Two new members were installed by Jack Towgood's staff and the installing officers were all past presidents of the club, F. Schumann; Hilly Smith; Nick Solly, Jack O'Mahony; Scottie Ritchie; Doug Campbell and Jack Towgood in charge. The new members are Karl Dietrich of the Frozen Food Lockers and Wally Harrison insurance agent. Both members were introduced by their sponsors, Walter Toeves and Earl Smith.

Being the first meeting of the month it was "work night" and all committees met for a short while. The meeting was followed by a directors meeting.

Letter To The Editor

The editor:

Circumstances this year are all in favor but what results. It's the students' interest in track and field I am talking about. The basketball teams made a very good show this winter, so I assume there is such a thing as school pride as far as sport is concerned. But why everywhere.

not for track? The weather is perfect, the track in fair condition, and besides this is the Olympic year with track activities at a peak.

As things stand we will go to the Okanagan Valley Track Meet with a 12 man team (I said men so far there isn't a trace of a girls team.) And one thing for sure: the coaches won't blush when the 50 member teams from Salmon Arm and Penticton ask each other who this dozen of lonely athletes are. Make up your mind while its still time.

Painting a room seems a tall order for this young man, but it's spring and time for a color change. Among this season's top 20 trend colors lilac and turquoise look like being the most popular.

Unpainted furniture stretch bride's budget

The spring bride may find it hard to furnish a dream home on a down to earth budget. However there are ways of stretching money for furnishings. One way is to buy unpainted furniture and to finish it at home.

Finishing furniture is not difficult, just a matter of using the right product and following directions to the letter. A good basic rule is this: Never apply a finish to a surface that is not thoroughly clean and dry. Sand with fine sandpaper and dust off with a turpentine dampened cloth before ever touching a paint brush.

Natural wood colors play an important role in modern decorating schemes. The attractive grain of good wood can be enhanced and at the same time protected by a clear varnish. Certain open grained woods such as oak, walnut or mahogany will need a wood filler before varnishing while close grained woods like pine or maple are all ready for the finishing job.

New wood usually needs at least two coats of varnish and each coat must be thoroughly dry before starting the next. It is also a good idea to sand lightly between the coats.

Local residents at Concert in Oliver

A large group of Summerland members of the local branch of the Overture Concert Association attended the concert in Oliver last Saturday night given by Robert McFerrin, Metropolitan baritone.

This concert proved a grand finale to a very successful season of fine performances given by the Overture Concert Assoc.

Robert McFerrin is one of the most distinguished and exciting baritones in America. He possesses a powerful and resonant voice with beautiful tone quality. He displayed fine musicianship and sensitive interpretation. He sings with profound conviction and emotional feeling. His accompanist, Jonathan Brvee welded singer and piano into a truly harmonious whole.

The program included songs by Handel, Purcell, Stradella and Scarlatti. His operative number was the aria "Eri tu che macchiavi" from Verdi's opera "Un Balla in Maschera" (The Masked Ball). Also included were four gambling songs by John Jacob Niles which the audience found most interesting, and four negro spirituals by Hall Johnson. The singer was generous with his encores. An audience of over 600 filled the Oliver Auditorium.

Mr. McFerrin won the Metropolitan auditions in 1953 and is the first negro singer to be trained at the Metropolitan. He made musical history when he signed his contract as the first member of his race ever signed by the "Met" to sing lead roles on a repertory basis.

Summerland attendants were loud in their praise of this accomplished singer.

The membership drive for the Summerland Overture Concert Association will be held the first week in May.

Fetch-ing!

My name is Charpin and I'm a papillon, one of the few in Canada. Like most other dogs, I'd like to get outdoors and play a game of "Fetch." But I'm a TV and fashion show star so must content myself with looking "fetch-ing" in my new Easter hat, especially designed by a Toronto department store.

Sunrise Service on Giant's Head Easter Sunday

The annual Easter Sunrise Service will be held on Giant's Head near the Mountain View Home this Sunday morning at 6:45 a.m.

This lovely service was inspired by the Meine family about ten years ago. They attended the famous Easter Sunday Sunrise service in southern California and were so impressed by its beauty, the idea for the Giant's Head service was born.

It has been carried on each year under the sponsorship of the Summerlands Ministerial Association and the Inter-School Christian Fellowship. Everyone is urged to take the opportunity to worship at this wonderful open air service.

NO BABY CLINIC
Miss Empey, public health nurse, will be away to a public health institute meeting in Victoria over the Easter week April 14 to 25 inclusive. There will be no baby clinic Tuesday, April 19.

The federal pile-driver from Renfrew is at work again on the Summerland Yacht Club's breakwater which will be extended and then edged towards the shore. An estimated 250 feet will be added at a cost of $12,000.00.

Plans progressing for School of Fine Arts

by Madeleine Alstead
Summerland residents will be interested in the courses arranged at the executive meeting of the Summer School of Fine Arts held on Tuesday evening, April 12, at Penticton High School.

Four main courses are being offered and it is hoped that other courses now under consideration may be added.

George Gay, director of the Okanagan School of Fine Arts to be held in Penticton July 4-31 under the Extension Department of UBC, announced that four classes have now been arranged.

Lister Sinclair, writer, scientist and TV and radio personality, will give a series of lectures July 4-11 and one meeting open to the public is hoped for. A further two weeks course in writing may follow up Mr. Sinclair's course and may be headed by an Okanagan resident.

William Bertsch of New Westminster, conductor of the Okanagan Symphony Orchestra, will direct the music course.

Reg Holmes, well known Canadian artist, is being assigned to UBC to teach the three week art course. He is a graduate of UBC and has been teaching at the Vancouver Art Gallery and the Vancouver School of Art. He will teach water color, oils and other mediums. It is hoped a children's class may be possible also. Mr. Holmes has exhibited across Canada and is also a sculptor and print maker.

The Vancouver Symphony Orchestra has contributed $180 from the profits of their recent concert in Penticton towards the Summer School. Other organizations have offered contributions, including the Penticton IODE, the Naramata Recreational Association has offered a $25 scholarship and another such contribution from the Naramata Players is being discussed on the agenda.

Dates and fees for classes will be announced later, when final decisions have been made.

The Okanagan Summer School of Fine Arts address is Box 141, Penticton. Suggestions and questions as to classes desired are requested, such correspondence to be sent to the above address.

Board of Trade annual dinner well attended

Over 200 attended the annual dinner meeting of the Board of Trade in the school auditorium last Friday.

Guest speaker, Dr. N. A. M. MacKenzie, UBC president spoke on "the future of education in B.C."

Flowers were given to Mrs. Joe Biollo, wife of the past president, by board secretary Lorne Perry. It was regretted that the Biollos are leaving Summerland soon to reside in Revelstoke.

A past president, A. K. Macleod of Trail and Mrs. Macleod were welcomed by Mr. Ritchie.

Reeve, F. E. Atkinson brought greetings from the municipality, reporting that an aerial survey of Summerland was to be made soon and a map prepared in the interests of town planning. He spoke of the long range school program in effect in Summerland through the passing of the recent $229,000 referendum.

Gallery Speaker here last week

Miss Norah McCullough, western representative and liaison officer for the National Art Gallery, Ottawa, addressed an audience in the West Summerland library last Thursday evening.

Visitors were present from Penticton, Popular Grove and Peachland Summerland Art Club served refreshments.

Mrs. McCullough showed slides of paintings in the gallery and films of L. S. Lowry a Yorkshire artist, and LeDuc, a French Canadian painter. She told of the relation between industry and the design department of the Gallery.

Young people raise money for India

In order to assist in the purchase of a doctor's operating table for a mission hospital the young people of the Baptist Church washed ears on Saturday afternoon. Dr. Gillison in India will no doubt be greatly assisted in his humanitarian work.

Boy Scouts raise $240 on tag day

The Boy Scouts felt the pinch of American silver on their tag day last Saturday. Out of the approximately $240 collected a little less than $100 was lost in exchange. The boys use the money to help pay their expenses during the coming year.

Writers' Group meets next week

The Writers' Group which contains several Summerland members is giving a coffee party for Okanagan writers on Wednesday, April 27 at 8 p.m. in the room across the hall from the Penticton library. Writers in the Okanagan Valley and those interested in writing are invited to attend.

A display of published work will be a feature of the meeting. This is planned with the hope of making Okanagan writers acquainted with each other and their work.

Plan outlined for Kiwanis CQ

At the regular dinner meeting of the Summerland Kiwanis Club on Tuesday night fifteen guests representing different organizations and churches were present. They were Rev. Tanner, W. Wright, A. Blending, C. Duncan, Jerry Gillow, Bill Pollock, Norman Holmes, A. J. Lomen, George Stoll, J. Cooke, Don Wilson, Eric Williams, Andy Robertson and Ron Manning.

The occasion was the production of the Kiwanis International program to urge all residents of Canada and the U.S. to examine their standing in their community as a whole. He is "pulling his weight" and doing their job as good and useful citizens.

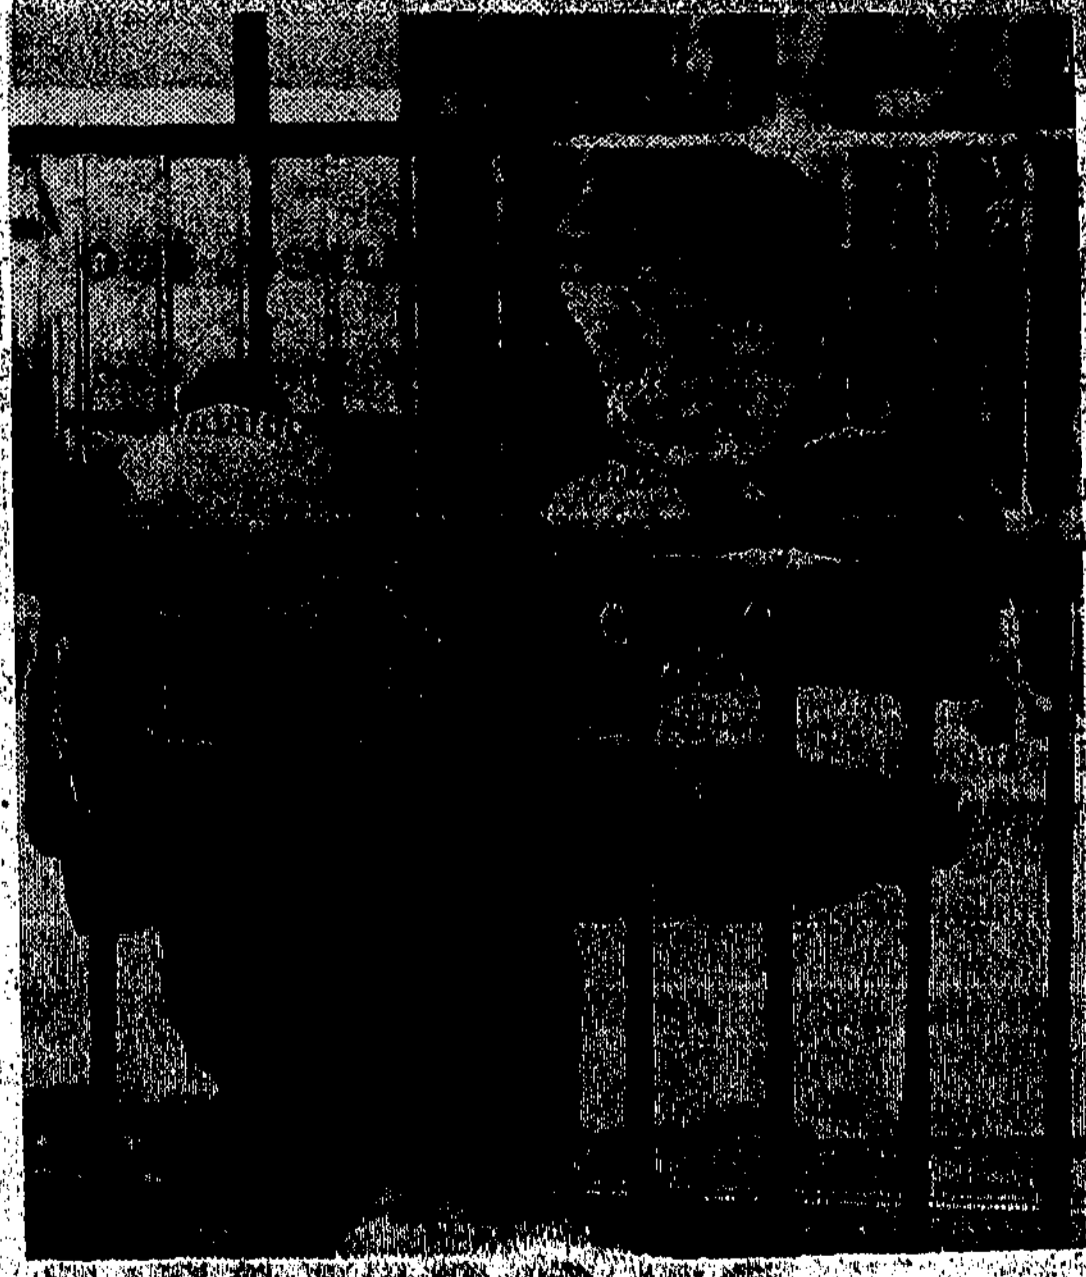

The subject, known as "Citizenship Quotient" was introduced and spoken to by past president Jack Towgood. Mr. Towgood, who was quite restrained and very factual drew on an example of what had happened to the Arabs and Arabia. Six hundred years AD this nation was in full bloom as it were, but after being invaded and conquered lost their sense of individual responsibility, lost their freedom and became mere followers of another nation's ideas. This was perhaps due to inertia (one of the most powerful forces in nature) and Mr. Towgood then went on to point out, although in not so many words that it could happen here. The whole Kiwanis campaign is designed to make people think that merely concentrating on immediate financial success is "inertia in our responsibilities" and can only lead to some other driving force entering our country and taking over. This can happen here and the only way to prevent it is to wake up and for each one of us, at least ourselves, we should do our best to prove our present system of democracy.

This campaign is being fostered in 1000 communities in North America and a pamphlet containing 20 questions will be distributed by the Kiwanis Club to all Summerland residents April 26. The purpose of the questions is for each person to determine whether or he or she is doing enough to help his community, the present type of government, his neighbors, church and children, all necessary to becoming a responsible citizen.

Kiwanis president John Tamblin pointed out that the Kiwanis Club by itself cannot bring these things about and sincerely asked for help from all of the organizations.

First aid for your patchy lawn

It's time to face the facts, those bald spots on the lawn won't disappear by wishful thinking. But a little grass seed and fertilizer can transform even the most moth eaten lawn into a velvety carpet.

The first thing to do is roughen up the bare patches with a rake to provide a good bed for seeding. Now sprinkle the grass seed generously over the roughened earth and tap it down with the back of the rake or hand. This brings the seed in close contact with the moist soil and encourages even germination. Fine soil sprinkled lightly over the freshly seeded patch comes next and then water. Peat moss can be used as a top covering to prevent too rapid drying of the soil.

Nothing can grow without proper food and grass is no exception. Give it an extra boost with fertilizer. Fertilizer should be applied while the grass blades are dry thus it's best to choose a bright sunny day for the job. In midsummer when the weather is very hot it is wise to water the grass well after applying fertilizer.

Don't count on being free of falling leaves until the autumn. The odd one will be trickling down all season so have a lawn broom handy to keep the lawn tidy. Be careful, though, when raking not to dig the prongs into the ground or the grass roots will be damaged.

And whatsoever ye do do it heartily, as to the Lord, and not unto men. Col. 3:23.

An honor well deserved

The Board of Trade did well in naming George Stoll "Good Citizen of 1959". The honor centres around Mr. Stoll's contribution to the building of Jubilee Arena, and it is indeed safe to say that without Mr. Stoll's tremendous drive and enthusiasm the arena would not be standing today.

But Mr. Stoll's contribution to the community must not be measured in relation to cold bricks, wood and steel, but in what that arena building has meant and will continue to mean through the years to the youth of the community.

One only needs to drop in at the arena during the winter months to see the youngsters from tots to the teen-agers enjoying to the full healthy, body-building recreation. The recent figure skating ice carnival was another example of the benefits the arena provides for our youngsters.

The 1959 Good Citizen has that rare capacity for enthusiasm that allows nothing to stand in his way.

The thought — "If we could make and keep ice in the summertime we could, perhaps, build up a summer figure skating and hockey school. That would bring long stay visitors to Summerland and help the community."

From the thought — action — advised against it by his friends — warned by council it would have to be at his own expense — Mr. Stoll didn't hesitate — just went right ahead. He proved, at his own expense that ice could be made and held — he proved that there is a considerable interest in summer skating — and it appears in the cards that a summer skating school will become firmly established here, contributing in no small measure to the arena overhead and the general economy of the community.

And Mr. Stoll's good citizenship extends far beyond the boundaries of Summerland insofar as he is an ardent conservationist and has been responsible in many instances in the stocking of lakes in Summerland's hinterland.

Yes, we think Mr. Stoll well deserving of the honor which he so graciously received at last week's annual banquet of the Board of Trade.

Said Mr. Stoll, "without the help and support of many, many others I could not have done what I have been able to do."

Summerland

When I was just a little girl
On the prairie long ago,
I used to dream of tall green trees,
And fruit blooms, white as snow.

And now, that I have travelled far,
Along life's broad highway,
I've found the place I always knew,
That I would find someday.

By the blue, blue Okanagan Lake —
Stand the fruit trees — white as snow,
The scented petals are drifting down
To the well-worked ground below.

Where the mountains shade to purple
As they fringe the lake serene —
The dark blue waves are dancing,
'Neath the moonlight's silvery sheen.

Summerland — oh — how I love you,
Love your sweetly winning ways,
With your homes so bright and shining,
Love your peaceful happy days.

For your roads outstretch in welcome
From the heart just saying come,
And the lakes — and parks — and orchards,
Echo, Stranger Welcome Home.

Member Reports

By Dave Pugh, MP

The close of this week sees the budget still being debated. Some of the speeches have been very good but for the most part the budget has shown itself as satisfactory. There were many who felt that a balanced budget could not be predicted and when this was done, a good deal of opposition fire was extinguished. Rather than comment on the speeches in detail at this time, I feel that it would be as well to wait until the conclusion of the debate next Wednesday.

Perhaps you might like to hear something of the ceremony and procedure which go into making the budget speech the highlight of the year. Naturally enough every Canadian wishes to know just how this will affect his pocket. He is interested in any reduction in indirect taxation and any change in the income tax rates. To begin with the Department of Finance takes a look at the proposed estimates of each Department. These estimates are for the fiscal year commencing April 1, and each Department makes a near and practical guess as to their requirements for the year. The estimates are then taken and in accordance with government policy, pruned by representatives of the Finance Department and a body known as the Treasury Board. After weeks of sifting and sorting, these preliminary estimates are whittled down to a fixed form and the Minister of Finance must then decide how he is going to raise the money. This of course is no easy job and the Minister of Finance takes the advice of his many advisers on such matters as the national economy, the overall world trade situation and just what the present rate of taxation will yield in revenue. Having made up his mind, the Minister of Finance then prepares his Budget, all of which is set forth in his budget speech.

There is a great deal of speculation and prophecy as to the changes to be made. Many industries ask for reduction in certain sales tax. Many ask for increased tariff protection and many just hope that little if any change will be made so that the pattern of business will not be varied.

The final decision remains a secret shared only by the Minister of Finance, the Prime Minister and one or two top officials. Every safeguard for secrecy is taken even down to distributing the work amongst a number of stenographers.

Budget night is usually a Thursday and the speech is given at 8 o'clock. All members of the Press Gallery are in conference with the Minister prior to this time and are given a copy of the budget speech and they ask questions. This is a closed interview behind locked doors and the newsmen are sworn to secrecy until the actual presentation in the House. The speech is given before a packed House, many spectators having come early and lined up for admission. The Diplomatic Gallery is filled.

The speech itself contains important elements of government policy. The Minister gives his forecast for the ensuing year and an explanation as to his conclusions. The speech being finished is the start of an 8 day debate. The government has forecast a continuance of business upswing for the next year. The opposition say otherwise.

Books at the library

by Freda Storey

Some years ago when Heinrich Harrer wrote Seven Years in Tibet it was acclaimed one of the few great travel books of our time. One well known critic commented, "It has all and more of the qualities that made the Kon-Tiki story of universal interest." It tells how as an escaped prisoner of war, Harrer experienced a series of interminable adventures which finally led him to the Forbidden City. His sojourn in Lhasa was truly remarkable, particularly as eventually he became tutor to the Dalai Lama himself. If anyone has not yet read this outstanding narrative, it is still in the Summerland Library and should on no account be missed.

His latest book, The White Spider, is also now available. Set in entirely different surroundings, this too is an extremely fascinating story. The North Face of the Eiger which soars menacingly above the valleys of the Bernese Alps, is an almost vertical pyramid of rock and ice 6,000 feet high. Avalanches, falling stones, waterfalls and lethal storms render it at once the most dangerous face in the Alps and a permanent challenge to the courage, skill and endurance of the best European climbers. In 1938 Heinrich Harrer was one of the party of four who first succeeded in scaling the North Face of the Eiger and reaching that 13,000 foot summit in the Bernese Oberland. The reader follows the climbers as they force a precarious route up cracks and chimneys from the foot of the wall to the White Spider the basin of ice 1500 feet below the summit in which all the avalanches collect before cascading down the face.

This book however is more than a history. The heroic stories it unfolds are in themselves a justification of man's urge to climb mountains, and of his lonely battle against the painful sense of his own weakness and inadequacy.

Other interesting non fiction is provided this week in two new biographies. A Life in the Theatre is a recent publication by Tyrone Guthrie of Stratford fame. Son of Oscar Wilde by Vyvyan Holland is an older book, but nevertheless very readable. Probably few people are aware that Oscar Wilde, at the time of his tragic downfall, left a wife and two small sons. The wife died in 1897, the year of his release from Reading Gaol. The elder son Cyril was killed at Neuve Chapelle in 1915. The younger Vyvyan published his book in 1954 telling the moving story of the fallen genius's stricken family.

Local girl married in Kelowna ceremony

A wedding of interest to Summerland and district took place in St. Paul's United Church, Kelowna, April 2 at 7 p.m. when Sheila Marguerite Bennison, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bennison, became the bride of William Edward Armstrong, Vancouver, son of Mrs. Anne Armstrong of Toronto, formerly of Kelowna. Rev. R. S. Litch officiated. The church was tastefully decorated with tall standards of red roses and daffodils, arranged with spring leaves.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, looked lovely in a white tulle gown featuring a hood skirt with a Chanilly lace and pylon. Her chapel veil was held in place by a headpiece of tulle and seed pearls. Her dress, necklace and earrings were a gift of the groom and she carried red roses.

The matron of honor, Miss Eileen Wilcox of Vancouver and the bridesmaid, Miss Noreen Bannison of Vancouver wore identical dresses of blue-flowered tulle with sheer overskirts of blue pylon and a white cummerbund. White picture hats and accessories completed their ensemble. Their bouquets were blue and white carnations.

The church organist played the wedding march and the soloist sang "Because". Best man was Mel Runnalls of Vancouver and Don Dennis of Vancouver was

WI Golden Jubilee celebration April 27

A splendid talk on Cuba by Wm. Brown was the highlight of the meeting of the Summerland Women's Institute Friday afternoon at the Anglican parish hall. Mr. Brown who lived in Cuba a number of years spoke with authority of its location, weather, industries, people, religion, housing, general stores, customs and politics. Mrs. A. A. Fenwick thanked Mr. Brown for his interesting and informative talk.

During the business meeting report was made that 72 layettes had been delivered to the Unitarian Service Committee.

Many members helped with the clerical work in the recent TB survey. The wording for the plaque for the library desk which was presented to the local library last year was discussed and members approved the text. Donated by the Summerland Women's Institute to commemorate their golden jubilee 1959.

Celebration of the golden jubilee which was postponed last October will be held Wednesday, April 27 at the Parish Hall beginning at 5:45 with a foot luck supper. All former members are invited to attend as guests. Present members to supply the food. A program will follow. It is hoped that many will wear costumes similar to those worn during the past 50 years.

The next meeting on May 13 will feature a talk by Miss Hattie Empey on her work as public health nurse.

A New Season Bursts Forth

Warm balmy days... signs of green grass and peeping flowers mean spring is here. It's a delightful time of year... a welcome change after the long dreary days of winter. Appetites, too, are ready for a change.

Surprise your family with a new season treat... Chicken Pinwheels. They'll love the tender rolls of biscuit dough filled with chicken and sauced with smooth, golden canned chicken gravy.

Here's a perfect menu for a perfect time of year!

- 1 can (10 1/2 fluid ounces) chicken gravy
 - 1 cup finely chopped cooked chicken
 - Dash salt
 - Dash pepper
 - 1 cup packaged biscuit mix
 - 1/2 cup milk
 - 1 tablespoon minced parsley
- In skillet, lightly brown onion and garlic in butter; remove from heat and stir in 2 tablespoons gravy, chicken, and seasonings. In bowl, blend biscuit mix, milk, and parsley to form a soft dough; roll out on a lightly floured board to form a rectangle about 1/2 inch thick. Spread chicken mixture on dough; roll as for a jelly roll; cut into 6 slices. Place slices, cut side down, on a lightly greased cookie sheet. Bake in a very hot oven (450° F.) about 12 minutes or until lightly browned. Meanwhile, in saucepan, heat remaining gravy; serve over pinwheels. Makes 3 generous servings.

Refugee Family Canvass meets with good response organizations that were present by representation. Committee chairman for project CQ is Earl Smith. It is sincerely hoped that all residents of Summerland will take the trouble to ask themselves "Am I pulling my weight as a citizen?"

The object of project CQ is to ask the residents of Summerland whether they are satisfied that they are doing everything that can be done to improve and maintain our present way of life, or is there just a little something more they could do for the benefit of the very desirable town in which they live.

At a recent meeting held in the hall of the Church of the Holy Child, committee members and canvassers from Summerland and Westbank were heard from. The first phase of this important campaign, raising the funds for the transportation of the refugee family has been met with a comfortable margin.

When definite arrangements have been made for the family's entry into Canada another meeting will be called by Bill Horne, chairman.

Mrs. F. Delay was named convener of a group to hold a shower for the family to raise the necessary items needed such as furniture, linens, kitchen utensils and clothing.

Shower

On Saturday, April 9 Mrs. E. Rocchiccioli and Mrs. J. Vergamini held a shower at the home of the former to honor Miss Giulia Laiasacchi. Miss Laiasacchi arrived recently from Italy and will marry Johnny Biagioni on April 30.

A decorated basket held the gifts. Many amusing games were played and a delicious lunch served.

Among those present were the Mesdames J. Betuzzi, M. Bonthoux, R. Lenzi, S. Fabbi, B. Falzi, E. Pagliocchini, V. Brovi, R. Richards, P. Lenzi; C. Ongaro, L. Vergamini, J. Minardi, A. Andreucci, J. MacKenzie addresses Students

"University studies demand keen interest and a lot of hard work". These words of Dr. N. A. M. MacKenzie president of UBC typified his realistic approach as he addressed university programme students of Summerland High School last Friday afternoon.

The president was accompanied by John Haar of the UBC extension dept.; Arthur Sager, alumni representative; and Jim Banham, UBC information officer.

Following the address Dr MacKenzie and his colleagues, members of the High School staff and students, attended a tea served in the Foods Lab by the Home Economics Dept.

The speaker stated that the general goal of formal education is "to develop to the maximum, endowed gifts" and that the University, in spite of its tendency to divide itself into sections aims for "the maturing and developing of human beings".

During a question period it was pointed out that any student having experienced reasonable success in his first year at University, could manage, through his own initiative and with available assistance of scholarships, bursaries and loans, to continue his studies. "It's getting there for that first year that is important" said the president. David Woolliams, council president, speaking on behalf of the students, thanked Dr. MacKenzie for his encouraging remarks and interesting talk.

Shortage of girls for track & field squad

The Summerland High School Track and Field squad (small that it is) is rapidly rounding into mid-season condition. Several veterans of last year's team have already equalled or surpassed their old personal-best standards, and a few athletes working out for the first time have indicated they will be strong contenders in this year's meet.

Middle distance star George Henly, who last year scored first and second in the mile and 889, respectively, at the valley finals last week turned in a 440 time trial of 57.8 seconds, a respectable time considering it was the first test of season, and it was done in sweat clothes, not running strip. Promising marks under similar conditions were set in the broad jump the same day, as Dennis Lackey and Jim Jomori leaped 18'3" and 18'5". David Davis, in his first year, shows real promise in both shot put and pole vault.

The annual meets in which Summerland will compete the the Kinsmen's and the valley high school meet on May 7 and May 20-21, both in Penticton. Two after school dual meets are also being arranged, one with Similkameen, the other with Oliver. These latter will be staged as warm up meets, probably in the last week of April and the second week of May.

Semantic Study Shows Salary Salty Subject

Some of our words in everyday use originated so long ago that their original meanings have long since gone into the limbo of forgotten things. For instance, "salary", a pretty important subject to most of us, originated in the days of ancient Rome.

Soldiers and civil servants were given regular rations of salt and other necessities, lumped together under the general name of "salt rations."

Although money came to replace the rations, the name remained, and hence the expression "worth his salt" (Latin: salarium, sal, salt).

Nowadays, when they get their pay cheque, hundreds of thousands of Canadians, worth their salt, make it a rule to save part of their salary at the Bank of Montreal. They know thrift is the fastest and surest way of building a firm foundation for future success.

Earl Smith, accountant at the Summerland branch of the Bank of Montreal, will be glad to help. It's worth the time it takes to find out how easy it is to open a savings account at the B of M. It will earn two and three-quarters per cent interest. But, most of all, regular saving soon becomes a habit that's very much "worth its salt" to you.

Mac's lose, but show promise in opening game

The Summerland Maes and the Penticton Red Sox opened the baseball season here on Sunday before a very good opening day crowd.

After Reeve Atkinson, Norm Holmes and Tom Hooker had officially opened the season with appropriate opening day ceremonies, the crowd watched a good, interesting and fast ball game.

Bill Chapman started on the mound for the Maes and although holding the Sox to two hits in the five innings, he worked he gave up six walks good for six runs.

Martino coming on in relief gave up two runs on four hits and four walks.

He also had the big bat, getting the first home run of the season, a long poke over the left field fence.

Jim McNabb, playing his first game of senior ball at first base, had a single and a long triple to the right field fence.

The Maes outhit the Sox 9-6 and came up with a couple of nice double plays. If they continue to hustle the way they did, and with a little more strength in a couple of positions they will make it tough for the rest of the teams in the league.

The next games are Sunday, April 17 in Kamloops for a double header and the following Sunday, April 24 Vernon will be here.

Licence refused 'Mom' Whyte

In an interview with Mrs. Bertha (Mom) Whyte at Mountain View home. The Review learned that she has been refused a licence to operate an old people's home in Summerland.

The letter, received by Mrs. Whyte from the government officials, gave no reason for the refusal.

Prior to completely re-decorating the home, at a cost of $1,000 on material and three months labor by the staff, Mrs. Whyte said she had received assurance from these same officials, that if her home reached certain standards a licence would be granted.

With these assurances Mrs. Whyte said she and her staff have turned a rather dismal old home into cheerful bright premises.

While local officials have inspected and approved her efforts, Mrs. Whyte said no provincial officials have met her staff or inspected the home.

"I don't know where we stand now. We have to stay here for three years because we have a lease" stated Mrs. Whyte.

Junior Red Sox in dire need of manager and coach

The Junior Red Sox baseball club still needs a manager and coach. With the first game slated for Penticton this Sunday, the Red Sox will be unable to play without the necessary help.

Anyone interested is asked to get in touch with Joe Sheeley or Tommy Hooker as soon as possible.

The Red Sox have lots of players, new uniforms from last year and it is hoped someone will come forward so that they can compete in the junior league.

WINS SCHOLARSHIP

The National Research Council of Canada has granted 486 scholarships for 1960-61 with a total value of $1,040,000.

A special scholarship of $2200 was won by Norman H. Anderson of Summerland. He will work in London.

Kiwanis to receive American Flag

Kiwanis Club members were reminded at their regular Tuesday meeting that the next two weeks are most important meetings.

On April 26, during U.S.-Canada goodwill week, a ladies night will be held in the Anglican Parish Hall. Guests will be members of the Winthrop, Washington, Kiwanis Club who are bringing to Summerland a new American flag.

John Tamblin, president of the local Kiwanis, said: "This exchange between clubs across the international border is most significant in this day and age and again points out the close ties we have with our neighbors to the south. We are

First Canadian entry in the Pacific National Exhibition Rodeo is Brian Wingrove, 18, of the Steel Head Ranch, Coquitlan, B.C. The entry was accepted by J. J. Graner, head of the PNE Livestock Committee. The Rodeo will be staged at Callister Park during the first week of the PNE which starts August 20.

Temporary gate on Canyon Creek Dam

Good news to the grower this spring was given at last Wednesday's council meeting. A temporary gate has been put on Canyon Creek dam and water from there will be available if necessary. And since the snow pack this spring is the lowest in years there is a definite possibility the dam will be needed.

There was also the suggestion of diverting Headwaters into the Creek in the event of a very dry season.

Also mentioned at council last Wednesday by councillor W. B. Powell was the winter pipeline into the reservoir needs 1,900 feet renewed before next winter. This will cost approximately $7,675.

Services held for Fred Schindel

1.85 mills increase in school tax rate

The School Board office has received final figures on distribution of 1960 school costs from the Department of Education.

On a net budget of $351,497, the costs are divided as follows:

Government grants: basic operating $187,959 and debt service $8,260 for a total of $196,219.

Summerland municipality basic levy $79,610, capital, debt and other $70,089, for a total of $149,699.

Rural area: basic levy, $2,567, capital, debt and other $3,012 for a total of $5,579.

Net budget now amounts to $351,497.

The government grants are increased $11,858 over 1959, municipal costs are up $20,586 and rural area share is $401 more.

The government has increased the shareable portion of teachers' salaries by $400 in each category and a small supplementary operating expense grant of $3,032 is allotted. Nevertheless, it is noted that the largest share of the budget increase will be borne by the municipality.

It is estimated that after allowing for increase in assessment values over 1959, the municipal tax for school purposes will be increased by about 1.85 mills.

Visitor from England at Co-op Packinghouse

Mr. George Stewart, general manager of the East Kent Packers, England was a guest of Jim Wells, general manager, of the Summerland Co-operative Growers Assoc. last week.

Mr. Stewart is here from England making a study of fruit handling methods in the Okanagan. He inspected the packing house with Mr. Wells and was particularly impressed with the Red Delicious apples grown in this area and feels if he could get the quality he tasted here in England, he could find a ready market for it.

This could be good news to the grower as Mr. Wells says the Red Delicious is the coming apple crop. Of 10,700 Red Delicious trees reported in this area 6,267 are 1 to 5 years old, so it is apparent a market for this fruit must be found.

Apples for overseas shipment are presently being packed in wooden boxes and paper cartons but some thought is being given to using square cells of virgin craft paper for Delicious.

Simpson Sawmills of Kelowna are working on the sale of a plywood bulk bin and the lumber put into use rather than just being burned.

Field Secretary speaks at annual CNIB meeting

The annual meeting of the Summerland and District branch of the Canadian National Institute for the Blind was held Monday night at the Health Centre. Representatives from a number of organizations were present to hear the annual reports of the work done locally. There are 5 registered blind in Summerland and 2 in Peachland.

Field secretary J. C. Hembel, Penticton, gave an interesting talk on CNIB and the many ways it helps the blind.

A film "A Chance in Sight" was shown with Lloyd Shannon as projectionist.

The executive was re-elected by acclamation. Mrs. W. S. Rothwell, president; first vice R. Alstead; second vice Mrs. H. M. Tait; secretary Mrs. J. H. Dunsdon and treasurer Gordon Dinning.

RCMP Constable Posted to NWT

RCMP Constable Danny Wheeler who has been with the Summerland detachment for the past seven months is to be posted to Fort Smith in the Northwest Territories.

Constable Wheeler is originally from Campbellton, N.B. and has been with the RCMP for three years.

Funeral held for Phyllis Joan Higgin

Funeral services were held Monday afternoon from St. Stephen's Anglican Church, Rev. Norman Tanner officiating for Phyllis Joan Higgin, wife of C. Noel Higgin, Crescent Beach. Mrs. Higgin died early Saturday morning in Summerland General Hospital following an illness of several years.

Mrs. Higgin was the only surviving member of the family of the late Charles H. Cordy of Summerland and Penticton, a pioneer resident. The Cordys came to Summerland from England in 1904.

Besides her husband Mrs. Higgin leaves a stepdaughter Mrs. Roy Henkendorff, of Burnaby and a stepson, Larry Higgin of Kamloops. They were here at the time of her death and attended the funeral.

Interment was in Peach Orchard Cemetery.

Still lack of members for high school PTA

The Summerland High School PTA held its regular meeting April 14 in the school library with only 11 persons including the speakers present.

Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Waterhouse led a discussion of the resolutions which are to be presented to the Parent-Teacher convention in Penticton this week, and many interesting highlights of previous conventions were heard.

It was not decided whether to send a delegate to the convention, as it would mean an expenditure of funds and would require a members' vote. However, Mrs. C. Adams and Mrs. F. Bergstrom have indicated they will attend some of the sessions as visitors.

During discussion on whether to continue as a PTA, it was decided to law were present to take a vote upon it, as obviously all those who turned out were active members.

Several reasons for poor attendance were suggested, such as other activities on meeting nights, not sufficiently interesting programs, lack of understanding of the purpose of a PTA and others. Mr. and Mrs. Waterhouse, who have been in PTA for many years, felt that if some of the parents' meetings planned by the principal were combined with PTA meetings, it would give the parents an opportunity to learn more about PTA.

A. J. Longmore outlined his program for the public meeting called for next Wednesday, April 27 in the school auditorium, when he will explain next year's courses and grouping.

Local Gideons sponsor Fellowship Supper

A fellowship supper is being held in the Anglican Parish Hall Saturday evening, April 30 to which the public is invited.

The membership of Gideon camps (each local group is called a camp) is drawn from the ranks of Christian commercial business and professional men. The Gideon's operation of service is world wide in scope.

The primary object of the Gideons is to win others to the Lord Jesus Christ and an effective means to this end has been the widespread distribution of over forty million Bibles and Testaments. Over 1000 copies of the Bible or Testament are sent out from the Toronto headquarters each working day of the year. The program includes the placing of Bibles in hotels, motels, penal institutions, school classrooms, college and university dormitories and a number of sundry fields. Copies of the New Testament with Psalms are placed beside beds in hospitals. 200,000 New Testaments with Psalms and Proverbs are presented annually to school children at the grade 5 level.

The West Summerland camp annually supplies Bibles and Testaments to such public institutions in an area stretching from Westbank to Summerland and from Cawston, Keremeos, Princeton, Merritt and from Lynton to Cache Creek.

Promenade

The Easter dance of the Summerland Pairs and Squares turned out to be a very interesting and entertaining evening with Ray Fredrickson at the mike assisted by guest callers. The Easter egg scramble was won by Mrs. Grycan, one of the new dancers of the past season. Membership cards were presented to the graduating class under the direction of Ray Fredrickson. A buffet supper was served at the end of the party convened by Doreen Ryman and May Mayne.

The crystal ball tells us there is a jamboree at Trail with Johnny Laclair as emcee this week end. Also at Naramata the Circle-N's are holding a dance in the Community Hall with Ray Fredrickson as emcee.

At Oyama Chuck Inglis will emcee a dance for the Oyama Twirlers in the Winfield Hall. This is a fun level dance so that everyone is welcome. Bring a lunch.

WORKING WITH CANADIANS IN EVERY WALK OF LIFE SINCE 1817

It wouldn't be practical for Imperial to divide its income dollar the way the people in our picture are doing. A more exact division is required, as you can see from the figures below.

Here's how Imperial's Income dollar is divided

Last year, out of every dollar Imperial took in: 55 cents was spent for raw materials—mostly crude oil—and for freight, a big item in a big country like Canada. 25 cents went for costs of operating the company. This included wages and salaries for our 13,000 employees. 9 cents was for depreciation, money set aside to help pay for replacing worn-out equipment.

5 cents went to various taxes (not including provincial road taxes ranging from 10 to 18½ cents per gallon). 6 cents was left. But two of these had to be set aside for equipment to make new products and for expansion of things like refineries and service stations to meet the public needs. 4 cents was left for the shareholders—whose investment made the company possible.

Editorials

A large achievement

The taste is there — now if we could only have the sales!

Word has been received from a panel of "tasters" in Switzerland that the B.C. apple cider (a product of the Summerland Regional Research Centre) has a "fresh, natural flavor that European processors have not yet realized." This is quite an endorsement when it is realized that all "good ciders" are supposed to be made in Europe.

Naturally, the test was a "blind one" — the tasters did not have the label to influence them. Perhaps the same could be done to the consumer — and he could enjoy that "fresh" flavor thinking he was having "imported" high quality.

Whatever is done to boost sales of this product can be left to the producers and the industry concerned. But it is gratifying to note that the commodity developed in our valley has turned out to be such an excellent cider.

Citizenship quotient

What is CQ (Citizenship Quotient)? Perhaps this editorial from Kiwanis International will help explain the importance of this project being undertaken by the Summerland Kiwanis Club.

"We forgot to care." This is the simple but powerfully direct explanation of one who lived through the scourge of the forties in central Europe.

With emotions unashamedly uncontrolled, with the effect of years of sorrow, remorse and evidence of a sincere attempt to find out why circumstances were as they were, this distinguished resident, typical of many in that area today, poured out his heart. His reason — only the hope that someone somewhere might listen and learn. This was one man among so many who by a miracle besides his own sheer determination, courage and a bit of what you and I would call just good luck had somehow survived the Hitlerian regime.

At the moment when individual rights have been absorbed by dictatorship, at that moment you and I have lost our precious heritage forever. The reason — we have forgotten to care.

Yes — too late —

When we demonstrate growing evidences of not knowing what makes up our heritage of freedom;

When the acceptance of individual responsibility drops to near zero;

When all man wants is what he can get for himself;

When government is something "they" run;

When money is what "they" control;

When politics are on the fringe of individual interest and we have substituted financial success for a common goal of community betterment through individual concern, initiative and co-operative action;

When our so-called religious heritage is simply a heritage and not a driving force in our everyday relationships;

In short — when man lives unto himself alone — then chaos is just around the corner and facts never get beyond his blinded eyes.

Dare we appraise ourselves, each of us looking at himself not at his neighbor? Dare we be completely realistic or shall we ever continue to be smug in our own success and with self-satisfaction demonstrated in every act, leave the survival of the best to the other fellow?

"CQ" is a program for those who believe in democracy. It will stimulate thinking. It will lead to self-appraisal.

At the very moment you and I are aware of our own "CQ" — the measurement or our acceptance of all-around citizenship responsibility — our Citizenship Quotient — at that very moment, democracy has a better chance for survival.

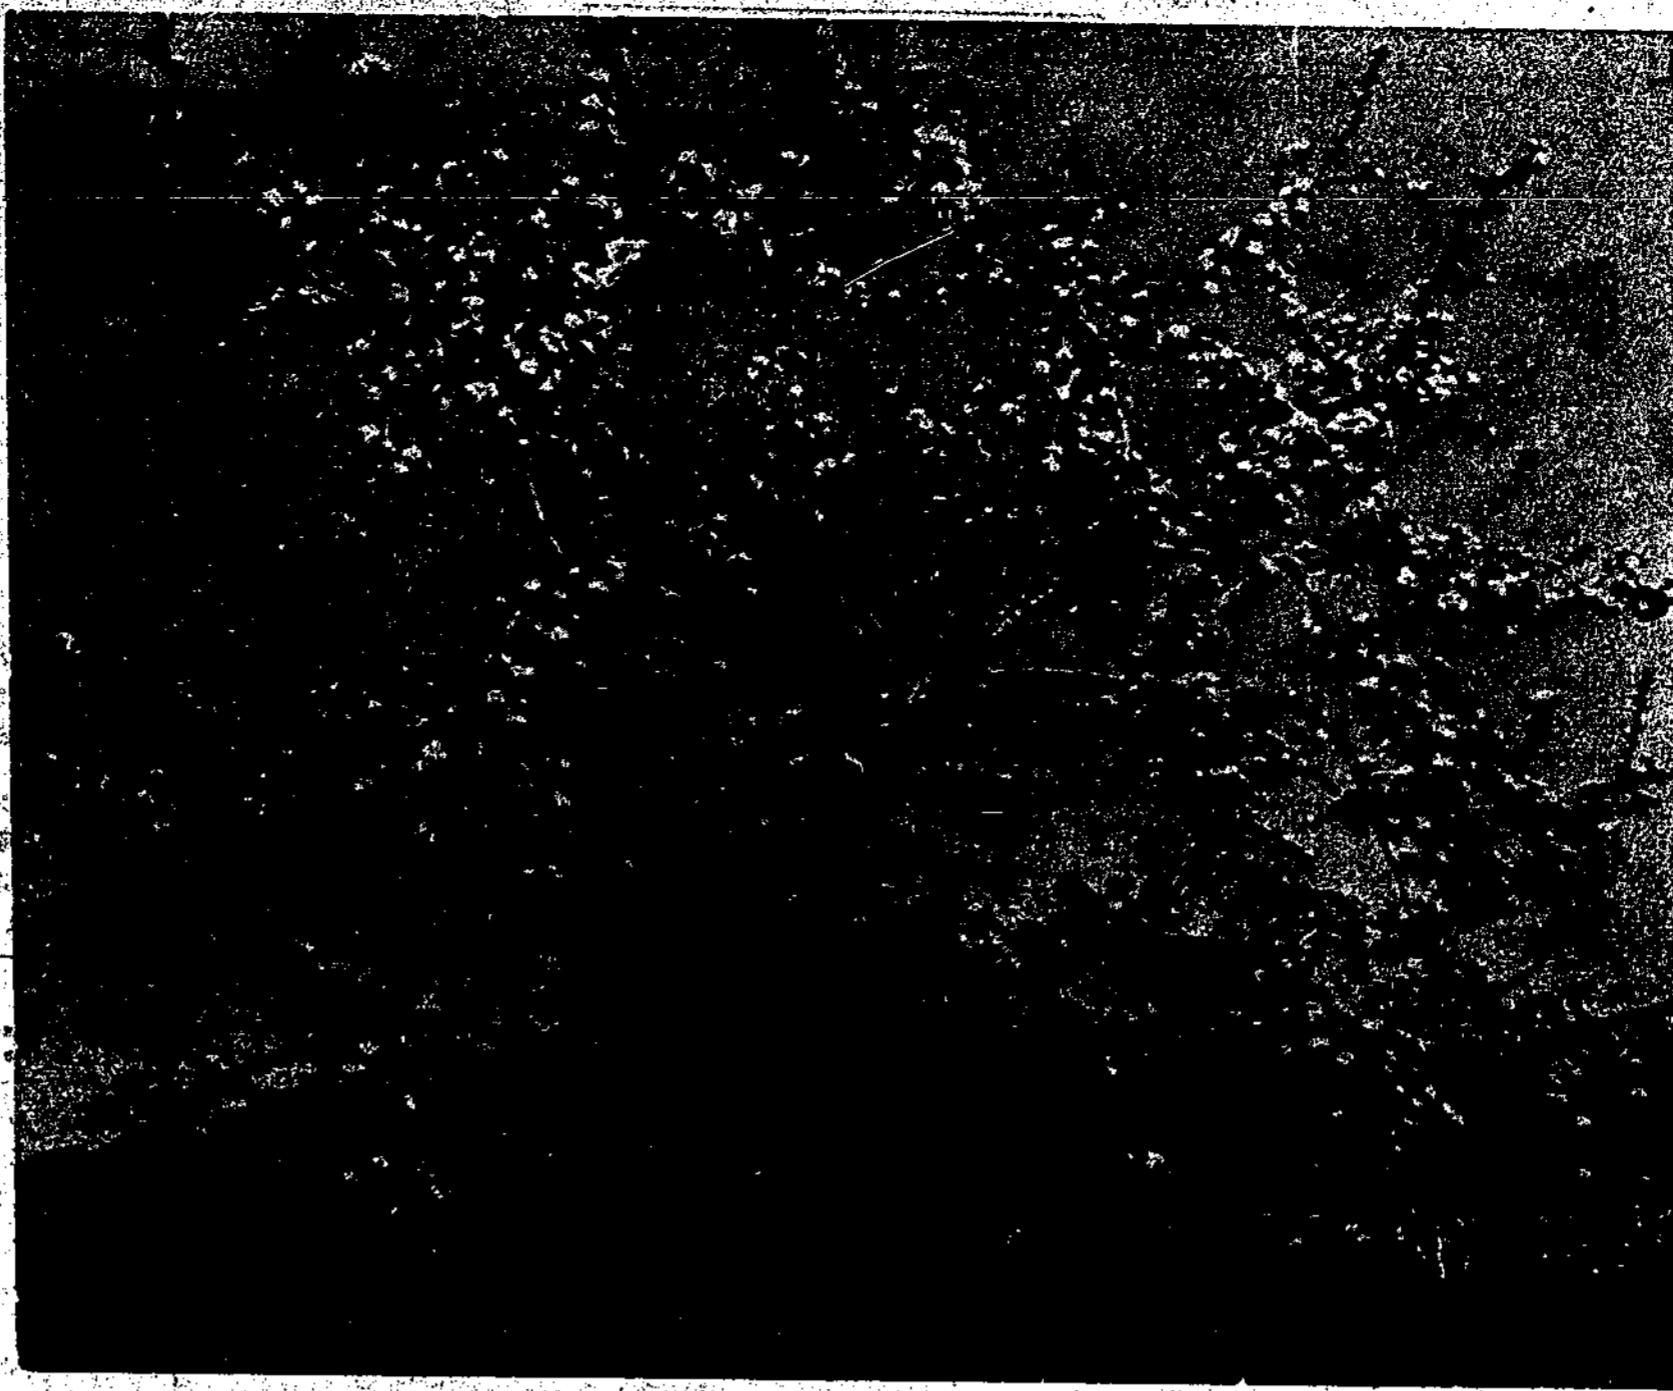

Kiwanians, long in the vanguard of those who dare speak up for freedom, believe that the time is now. It is time each individual took stock of himself and his part in the struggle to maintain and improve what we now enjoy. In short — it's time each of us measured his "CQ".

Our Valley Beautiful

Villas in Spain

by Ted Gaskell
Comox District Free Press

For those who can dream, but can't afford, a castle in Spain, there are villas where one can spend holidays. At least so I gather from my friends in England, who hearing of the delights of Hornby Island from our letters, have returned the compliment with an inch thick pile of papers jammed with information on these villas which they are considering for their holidays.

I know nothing of Spain except that it is famous for rice, onions, sherry, armadas, bullfights and Ernest Hemingway. I am equally ignorant of the people except that they are called Pedro, José or Tomaso and go around saying Si, señor and Ole.

One means yes sir, and the other, cut the bulls ears off.

Another thing about Spain is that they don't at least for tourists and holiday-

A two bedroom house with a dining room living room, plus a porch is a villa, so you can just disabuse your minds of any ideas that a villa must have a marble staircase.

Perhaps it contains a typographical error, but I prefer to think it means what it says. It certainly is more exciting this way. Let's read it.

"Small villa. Sleeps four, two bedrooms, one double, one twin. Within diving distance of sea."

Only a nation which dances with a rose between its teeth could think of a thing like that, you must admit.

The British would never dream of it. Any house by the sea must be within walking distance before breakfast before its any good for a holiday.

The North American would not dream of it unless it had a carport attached and piped in TV.

The Russians would not think of it, but if somebody else did then they'd claim they thought of it first.

But the Spaniard. Ah that is a horse of a different color.

When he wants a swim, he doesn't want to have to walk there, or even take a car. Just out of the door of this house, evidently built on the side of the cliff, and swish, he's on his way down to the water. of the sea. Costa Brava.

Charity begins with homeless

For some 15,000,000 persons crowded into shanties or camp barracks around the world, daily life is a drab, uncertain, jobless and sometimes meal-less grind. They are Palestinian Arabs, Chinese in Hong Kong, East Europeans and most recently Tibetans. They have in jobs, status and homeland, common their loss of homes. Mostly their exile has been dictated by war.

Now, 31 members of the United Nations have agreed to launch a co-ordinated year long drive to rescue as many of these refugees as possible from idleness, hopelessness and hunger.

World Refugee Year starts in June. Its approach is both humane and practical. Each of the participating nations is organizing its existing private and official refugee relief groups for a frontal attack on this still unsolved problem borne of international unrest.

In the United States, a conference of some 160 leaders of such organizations already has been held. In Britain, the Queen is to head the refugee aid program. The Communist bloc nations, from which most of the current refugees have fled, are not participating.

With a perennial parade of charities knocking at his door, the average man is likely to fall back on the maxim that "charity begins at home." We hope that for World Refugee Year, at least, citizens in the "have" nations will consider a version that reads: "Charity begins with the homeless." — Powell River News

Kiwanis Club Notes

Angy Taylor, manager of Penticton's airport was a most interesting speaker at last night's meeting. He told of his experiences on the Hudson Bay snips trading in Siberia and around northern Canada. The club members were also interested in the May 24 Dive In which Angy explained to the group

Lloyd Shannon reported to the club on the CNIB meeting he attended. Among other things he explained the need for checking and looking after children's eyes at an early age. Bill Laidlaw reported that thirteen members of the club have willed their eyes to the eye bank. Any other members who may have forgotten to bring their card in are urged to turn them in to Bill as soon as possible.

Earl Smith reported on the progress of the CQ campaign and thanked Jack Towgood, on behalf of the club, for his very fine talk at last week's kick-off meeting.

A new note was added to the sing song with Marcel Bonthoux at the new electric organ. This is going to prove a real asset to the club if for no other reason that it has a volume control that can be used to drown out the singing when it gets particularly rough.

Blake Brandon was appointed chairman of the Support of Churches Committee at the mid-month directors meeting held after wards at president John Tamblin's home.

Imagination plus paint transforms furniture

Fresh green grass can make the old garden bench look pretty shabby. But even if you've never painted so much as a door stop, you can decorate outdoor furniture to everybody's satisfaction. In fact, paint could transform your whole garden this summer.

Those heavy wooden chairs were never designed for beauty, but in fresh enamel they'll sparkle. Do some of the slats in bright yellow, green or red for contrast.

You may not claim to be an artist, but it's easy to use a pencil to draw simple shapes like leaves, flowers, fruit or even vegetables on the back slats of the chair. Then take a small brush and fill in the outline with bright contrasting color. Who cares if the carrot turns out to be a turnip. Or if your rose is mistaken for a juicy tomato. The effect will be as lighthearted as the flower bed.

If the family enjoys backyard suppers, an old wheelbarrow is just the thing to trundle food and dishes from the kitchen door. Scrub it and sand it a bit, and paint it inside and out. White enamel would be good on the body, with Chinese red handles, spokes and trim. Then decorate the sides of the outdoor tea wagon with designs to match the furniture.

While you have the paint pots out, why not decorate other picnic accessories.

Fruit baskets, odd trays, or tin plates, for instance. With a coat of enamel and some simple painted designs they'll add a gay note to any outdoor supper.

If you're working on bare wood it should be sanded first, then dusted carefully. Apply one coat of undercoater, let it dry overnight then give it another rub with sandpaper. Dust it with a cloth dampened with turpentine before you apply your finishing coat. High quality enamel is an excellent finish for garden furniture. It will resist water and stand up to the weather for a long, long time.

Modern Counterpart

The old time broom has a modern counterpart. Instead of bristles this new broom has a foamed vinyl pad held in place by moulded polythene plastic. Dust and dirt tend to cling to the vinyl pad instead of flying into the air only to settle back on the floor and furniture.

Hooker near - perfect as Macs win 7-2

The Summerland Macs' pitcher Al Hooker came within one pitch of a perfect game on Sunday as the Macs pounded out a 7-2 win over the Kamloops Okanots in the first game of a twin bill.

Hooker had the hard hitting Okanots eating out of his hand for six innings but tired in the seventh to allow two walks. He got the next two men out and had two strikes on Ron Evenson Kamloops 3rd baseman but he hit the next pitch for a long double scoring two runs. The next man flied out to end the game.

Macs played errorless ball with Bob Parker in right field turning in some spectacular catching.

The boys were hitting the ball well and Mart Shannon came up with a long double to left field that just about cleared the fence.

The second game was a different story as the Okanots hit for six runs in the first inning and never looked back. After the dust had cleared six innings later the score was 13-4.

This game proved one thing and that was quite obvious. You can't win games in this league without pitching. This was a bad game in more ways than one. 1st baseman Jim McNabb injured his leg and may be lost for a couple of weeks.

Jim Eyre and Bill Chapman jumped the club over the week end and it is believed that they have joined the Merritt team.

The next game will be here at home this Sunday against Vernon. This will be another double header with the first game to start at 1:30. The fans are in for some good ball as Hooker will be on the mound for the Macs.

The town band will be out to play between games and will live things up.

LET'S SAVE NUMBER FOUR

He dies because he acts too late

Goal of cancer education is dramatically shown on this graph. At least three live because they have cancers that are found early enough to treat successfully. Two die because they have cancers that cannot yet be controlled. At least one who is now dying could probably be treated successfully if he sought help in time. Give generously when the Kiwanis Club, on behalf of the Conquer Cancer Campaign, call on you next Tuesday evening. Objective for this year's Summerland campaign is $1200.

Municipal Mill Rate up to 34.85 for 1960

Council plans change in signs

A suggestion by Reeve Atkinson that "Field Right of Way" signs could replace many of the stop signs now in use in the municipality met with council's approval at last night's meeting. Councillor L. A. Smith will look into the matter to see if it is within municipal law.

Council will also consider increasing the 30 mile speed limit within the municipality

First reading was given to the 1960 tax rate bylaw at last night's Summerland municipal council meeting.

The new mill rate is 34.85, an increase of 4.15 mills over last year.

The lion's share of the new mill rate, 22.55 mills is for school taxes. General expenditure amounts to 11.35 and .95 for debentures.

Money raised is for schools $149,699, general taxation, $70,275; debenture expenses $5,853; utility tax $750. The parks estimate includes $1,000 for the new Peach Orchard Beach to accommodate those staying at Peach Orchard Park.

Social welfare expenditures total $44,000; public works, roads and sidewalks $51,622; parks and beaches $10,537.

Expense for Trout Creek planning is $3,000.

Funeral services held for pioneer resident

Funeral services for the head of a prominent Summerland pioneer family, Thomas Clarkson Wilson, 85 were held Friday afternoon from Summerland United Church, Rev. P. K. Louie officiating.

Mr. Wilson bought property in Trout Creek in 1905 on his arrival from Snowflake, Manitoba, living there for many years after his retirement as foreman at the Experimental Farm.

During his long term with the Farm the family lived at the Station. The original Trout Creek holding is still the Wilsons'. Mr. Wilson was a stationary engineer with the CPR at Regina for a few years and built in the water tank on the KVR at West Summerland.

His wife predeceased him in 1955. Surviving are one daughter, Mrs. Hugh Johnston of Penticton and three sons, Earle B., A. Doney and Harvey L., all of West Summerland. There are nine grandchildren and four great grandchildren. A sister, Mrs. Ruth Oslund lives at Osoyoos.

Pallbearers were C. J. Bleasdale, Dr. M. F. Welsh, S. A. MacDonald, T. B. Young, Charlie Clark and Dr. D. V. Fisher.

Refugee family to arrive here soon

The Nelson Diocesan Adopt a Family plan committee has allotted a family for the Catholic parish of Summerland and Westbank.

The family is Mr. and Mrs. Macnik and their three little girls. Mr. Macnik is a political refugee from Yugoslavia and the family has been living for some time in a refugee camp in Italy. The oldest girl is still in Yugoslavia but they hope to have her with them soon.

Mr. C. Menu of Westbank is in charge of the welcoming committee as the family will live in Westbank. The Macnik are expected to arrive in a month's time.

Mrs. Delay of Summerland will convene a shower to help make a home for them. The general public will be invited to the tea and shower to be held shortly. It is hoped to gather enough household effects and furniture to give the Macnik family a start.

Concert ticket sale starts next week

The third annual Overture Concert membership campaign starts Thursday, May 5.

C. Bernhardt, campaign director, expects membership sales to be brisk with the announcement by Mrs. E. Woolliams, president of the Association, that the Hart House Orchestra under the noted conductor Dr. Boyd Neel, will be one of the attractions offered this season to members of the Overture Concert Assoc.

Dr. Boyd Neel is Dean of the Toronto Conservatory of Music and this tour is made possible by a grant from the Canada Council.

Three concerts will be offered this coming season in Summerland and in addition members are entitled to attend Overture Concerts in Oliver.

George Zukerman, executive director of Overture Concert will be in Summerland Wednesday, May 4 to open the annual campaign.

There will be a meeting in the high school library at 8 p.m. A recording of the Hart House Orchestra will be played and a film shown.

An invitation is extended to all to attend and find out about this Association which brings music to Summerland

St. John's offers first aid course

On April 25 the St. John's Ambulance Association held an executive meeting at the home of Mrs. C. Denike.

It was decided to offer classes in first aid for the injured this spring. Peachland residents will be invited to attend.

May 16-21 is "Save a Life Week" and classes in artificial respiration will be offered at Trout Creek, Lower Summerland and West Summerland.

Mrs. S. Blazeko and Mrs. H. Charlton will attend the provincial meeting to be held in Vancouver May 14.

WCTU district convention here

The golden jubilee of the Kamloops-Okanagan District Women's Christian Temperance Union was held recently in Summerland Baptist Church with over 60 delegates and friends in attendance, from Kamloops to Penticton. Reports from local unions show an increase in the district membership of 51 making the membership close to 200.

At the noon banquet Reeve Atkinson brought greetings from the municipality. Mrs. V. B. Durnin read the address of the provincial president, Mrs. K. Watson, who was unable to attend because of ill health.

Mrs. H. DeWitt of Summerland was presented with a district life membership pin for her success in helping to bring the membership of the Summerland Union up to 50 for this occasion, also for her work as recording and corresponding secretary for the district.

Mrs. L. Deringer of Penticton directed a senior gold medal contest in which six students recited to a capacity audience. Pearl Zaporozan of Penticton won the medal.

Capt. Miller of the Penticton Salvation Army brought the evening devotional message assisted by Lt. Kerr and Mrs. Wray.

Mrs. Sheridan of Vancouver, newly appointed provincial field secretary, gave the message of the evening stressing sincerity of purpose and character being essential.

Retiring president Mrs. H. Milne of Summerland was presented with a corsage from the district.

Rev. Lyle Kennedy sang a solo accompanied by Miss Ruth Dale at the organ.

Resolutions to be passed on to the provincial body for their consideration before being sent to the B.C. government include the following:

1. Since some provinces and states have efficient and effective regulation of smoking in houses and since the present individual ventilating systems prove very inadequate it is suggested a government commission investigate this matter and make their findings public.

2. Recommended that drunken drivers be compelled to take a blood and breath test and the existing law be changed to that effect.

3. With regard to hotel lobbies that have been cut down in size to provide for cocktail lounges, it is recommended that a minimum of lobby space be provided for the comfort of the travelling public and the lobby not be used as a means of entry to the bar.

4. Recommended that a protest be sent in at the loosening of liquor laws so that vodka may now be sold by the glass.

The newly elected executive are as follows: president Mrs. J. Meldrum, Penticton; 1st vice Mrs. A. S. Matheson, Kelowna; 2nd vice Mrs. G. P. Bagnall, Vernon; corresponding and recording secretary Mrs. H. Dewitt, West Summerland; treasurer Mrs. C. C. Coss, Kaledan.

Horticultural Society hears talk on 'mums

A well attended meeting of the Summerland Horticultural Society on Friday, April 22 in the Parish Hall enjoyed the sight of three tables full of spring blooms besides pictures of beautiful chrysanthemums, the latter shown by E. H. Bennett.

A short business meeting, with the president, Mrs. Inch in the chair, was followed by Nat May's timely topics and answers to many questions from the question box. When transplanting seedlings be careful not to crush the tiny roots or let them get into dry soil. When applying fertilizer to any plant be sure the ground is damp before fertilizer is applied and well watered afterwards.

After showing colored slides of English 'mums grown in Mr. H. Brown's garden and American Varieties (Hardy) in his own garden, Mr. Bennett explained and demonstrated the best way to take cuttings, plant them, fertilize and prune and disbud as they grow, according to the type of 'mum they are. Many good varieties suitable to this climate were mentioned and plants of a new low type were won in a silent auction by members. More entries and improvement in the October 'mum show is to be expected due to Mr. Bennett's very helpful lecture on 'mum culture.

Gloxinia door prize was won by Miss Tait.

The May meeting will also be a spring flower show and plant sale.

Winners in the April parlour show were:

Class 1. Daffodils, Miss D. Tait, Mr. Dinning.

Be a member

This week, April 24 to 30 is being observed as Chamber of Commerce Week right across Canada. It would be an appropriate time for Summerland business men, as well as all others who are interested in the welfare of this community, to take out membership in the Summerland Board of Trade. In this connection we reprint below "Why I should be a member of the Chamber of Commerce"

1. Because I have a business stake in this community which can best be safeguarded by working with others through the Chamber of Commerce to protect and advance all business.

2. It is only fair for me to support the Chamber since I reap benefits through the concerted planning, counsel and action that is best obtained through the work of the Chamber of Commerce.

3. Because I believe that the man who helps his community through active participation in the work of his Chamber of Commerce will develop his own powers and broaden his own views.

4. Because through the Chamber of Commerce I can best discharge my obligations to this community in which I live and earn my living. I realize that every man owes a debt to the community that cannot be paid in taxes, a debt of personal service.

5. Because the Chamber of Commerce unifies the public spirit of all and directs it into useful and constructive channels.

6. Because the most effective and constructive influence is the force of organized functioning through the Chamber of Commerce for the purpose of improving our town. We can, through organized effort, make the kind of town we determine it shall be.

Cancer Cures

Beware of "secret" recipes and remedies and cures for cancer which come from unauthorized sources, warns the Canadian Cancer Society.

The only means yet found for saving life when cancer strikes are surgery and radiation. Drugs and remedies may ease pain and prolong life but there are no compounds to cure the disease.

Cancer is one of the many diseases on which quacks grow rich. From desperation born of fear and ignorance, many reach quickly and trustingly for the promises of the quack when they find the carefully qualified statements of their physician do not "guarantee" a cure. They forget that their physician seldom, if ever, deals in absolutes and so — because of his knowledge and experience — will never be able to conscientiously "guarantee" a cure. And so while earnest researchers in every branch of medical science are trying to find cures, the unscrupulous fakers prey on cancer victims and their families with useless or harmful treatments. Their quackery is all the more harmful because every day wasted on it delays expert treatment another day, and time is of the essence in cancer treatment.

To combat the disease, if it strikes your family, the best and safest approach is through your family physician.

To defeat the disease, for the benefit of all citizens, the sure way is through support of the Cancer Society's efforts.

Next Tuesday, May 3, the Summerland Kiwanis Club will hold a house to house drive for the Conquer Cancer Campaign. Dollars contributed in previous years have helped to make important headway against cancer; dollars contributed this year may well provide the key to unlock the door on an important cure for this relentless killer.

Sunrise Service

High above the homes and gardens
In the centre of the town
Stands the lofty, rugged Giant's Head
A stone face smiling down,
Overlooking lake and valley,
And orchard covered hill,
Guarding town and people,
In the early morning still.

'Tis here on Easter morning
'Neath the sunshine's early rays
Is held the Sunrise Service
And sweet voices raise in praise.
For every church is represented,
Every minister is there
And as one this congregation
Bow their heads and hearts in prayer.

Could we take our Friendly Giant
To dark continents abroad,
Above the noise, and din, and shouting
Could the Whisper be heard?
Should he smile down so benignly
On the Blacks and Whites in prayer
Would they reach an understanding
As they leave to God their care.

This then our prayer this morning
In the early Easter sun,
To trust God's hand to guide them
'Till Black and White are one.

Special DDD directory in mail this week

The Okanagan Telephone Company has a special DDD Directory Insert in the mails this week to some 6000 telephone customers served by the Company's Summerland, Kaledon, Narmanis and Penticton exchanges. Telephone users in these exchanges will be able to Direct Distance Dial their own station to station long distance calls commencing Wednesday morning, May 11th, when the Telephone Company places its first DDD unit "in service" in the Penticton office.

The specially prepared directory insert announces the DDD date, instructs subscribers in the placing of a DDD call, provides a space for listing out of town 2-5 numbers and provides a list of B.C. communities that are dialable through the Penticton equipment.

Starting on May 11, telephone customers in the six exchanges where the new service becomes available (including Oliver and Osoyoos) will be able to dial their own long distance calls to over 400,000 dial telephones in some 66 B.C. cities and communities.

Actually, the use of DDD is just as simple as dialing a local call, with the addition of a few digits. For example, to direct dial to a Vancouver listing Mutual 5-3311 you will dial digits 1, 1, 2 followed by letters M-U and digits 5, 3, 3, 1, 1 just ten pulls of your telephone dial!

If your call is dialed from a party line, a checking operator must identify the calling number. In this situation you will hear a quick double tone after dialing the 2-5 number and should then quote the full number of the telephone you are giving to the operator.

Check your bicycle Saturday at school

The Summerland Kiwanis Club is sponsoring a bicycle safety day on Saturday, April 30 starting at 10 a.m. at the high school parking ground.

It is urged that all parents see that their children bring their bicycles so that they may be checked for safety and have reflector tape applied.

Remember this is free and safety is everybody's business.

When the roads are clear of snow and the days begin to lengthen out come thousands of bicycles on our streets and highways. Children who have used the bus or walked during the bad weather now ride on their bikes to school and other activities. And always with the upsurge in the number of bicycles among traffic, there is an increase in accidents. Of course your children know the rules of safe riding and added to your admonitions each time they go out from home are the warnings and instructions they receive at school. But these safety rules must be pounded and pounded into a child who owns a bike, so that it becomes second nature to him to use good judgement in traffic and to handle his machine well.

But apart from this teaching of how to ride you should frequently check your child's bicycle to make sure it is in good operating condition. Look it over often and make sure that pedals, handlebars and grips are tight; make sure the saddle is at the right height and the tires are in good condition. Keeping the bike in good repair means added safety to the child who rides it.

If your youngster rides at night, make sure that his bike is equipped with a good white light on the front and ample red lights or reflectors on the back. Always see that he wears light clothing when riding at night.

Bikes are fun, but they can also be a menace. Make sure your child is safe when he rides his bike this year.

WEEKLY CHUCKLE

The alleged horse thief, on trial in a rough old Western town, took the stand to testify in his own behalf.

"Prisoner," growled the Justice, patting his shooting irons contentedly. "There's one thing I want to tell you before I get you sworn in on that book. There is some body bigger than you or me. There's a Divine Justice above and beyond this courtroom. There's an Eternal Providence lookin' down here, and He ain't gonna be took in' by no lyin' hoss thief."

Locals

Mrs. Ada Amelia Emery, a former resident of Summerland passed away in the Penticton Hospital, Thursday, April 21, at the age of 83 years.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Fudge and Nancy left last Wednesday for a short visit to the coast.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Nisbet who have been visiting their daughter and son in law in Washington for the past month have left for Echo Lake where they will spend the summer months.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Lopatecki and family have returned from Vancouver Island where they spent Easter.

Kiwanis Club Notes

Tuesday night was a very special night for the Kiwanians of Summerland when not only their ladies were present at dinner but the Club from Winthrop, USA, was present, under president Bob Dabritz, and they brought with them a new USA flag. The flag was presented to the club in a short and dignified ceremony and the old flag was withdrawn. President John Tamblin accepted the flag on behalf of the club and assured our friends from across the border that it will always be greatly prized and honored by our club.

Ken Storey was on hand to play the piano for club singing, which was followed by the wife of the president of the Winthrop Club, Mrs. Dabritz, leading those present in a very athletic song, that required much jumping up and down. This was particularly enjoyed by those who had eaten too much dinner.

An attendance contest starts next week and runs for the next eight weeks, the club being divided into two teams under the president and vice president, the winning team getting a steak dinner and the losers will eat BEANS - only.

Next week will be a short meeting, the Club turning out afterwards for a one night blitz, on the cancer drive for funds.

Jack Stewart introduced the speaker of the evening, Mr. B. E. Rickard, Inspector of Technical Classes, Dept. of Education. Mr. Rickard illustrated his talk on Vocational Schools with some splendid pictures, and it was a revelation to know the number of different trades that are taught in these schools. He was thanked by Doug Campbell.

The president was "called over the coals" for misquoting the name of last week's speaker in the press, and our apologies are due to Mr. Jackson.

In a delightfully humorous vein, Ken Heales described how Doug Campbell had fallen into the lake last Sunday whilst fishing, and presented him with a large plastic balloon fish "Shelley the Shark" with a warning "Don't go near the water."

A very enjoyable evening was had by the seventy-two people that were present. "The Scribe"

Mrs. A. Campbell and Laverne spent the Easter holidays in Vancouver.

An evening of fellowship was held following the service at the Baptist Church last Sunday when members and friends gathered to say goodbye to Mr. and Mrs. V. Durnin and Mr. and Mrs. Danallanko.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Peter and Lila have just returned from visiting at the coast.

Mr. and Mrs. Earle White are visiting their son Tom in Vancouver.

Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Dawes have their son Jim of Quenel, visiting them.

Mrs. C. Peirce and Mr. and Mrs. Rathgeber and family of Tisdale, Sask., were visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. Jesse of Prairie Valley. They also called on Mr. and Mrs. A. Gould.

Detailed plan is first step in landscaping

Are you in the process of landscaping? If so, don't rush into it. This is the advice of Auray Blain, assistant chief of the Montreal Botanical Gardens.

Mr. Blain says that careful planning of landscape should come before any planting. Even small property can be attractively landscaped if you make planning your first step.

The first thing to do is to make a scale drawing on paper of your house and lot, suggests Mr. Blain. Try different arrangements of plants, lawn and paths, keeping in mind your needs. For instance, if there are children you'll want a lot of lawn for a play area. And if you plan to relax in your garden, shrubs require less care than flowering plants. All these things must be considered, he said. Mr. Blain suggests getting catalogues from nurseries to help in selecting suitable plants.

Before doing the actual planting check on the nature of the soil. It may need a good fertilizer, said Mr. Blain. For a new lawn it is wise to mix 20 percent superphosphate into the top soil. Then use a turf fertilizer. This ensures a good bed for the new lawn.

If finances are limited don't try to complete all the landscaping in one year. Mr. Blain suggests spreading it over a period of two or three years. This way the final effect is achieved in easy stages.

Landscaping isn't easy. Take your time, make detailed plans and the result will be worthwhile.

HANDYMAN ABOUT THE HOUSE

By GORDON DONALDSON

With the mild weather which we now experience, it could be a wise move for home owners to inspect their roofs and assess the damage done by winter wind and weather.

Roofing experts know that permanent and costly damage can be done to roof structures, framing and sills, by slow and unseen leaks. Eventually, these leaks can cause serious damage to rooms and household furnishings.

Unless a tight new roof is applied while wood underneath the shingles is still sound, there is danger that the framing will not hold nails any better than if the roof were nailed to a sponge.

Because the roof is one part of the home with which the average homeowner has little contact from one year end to the other, he quite likely is unaware of little danger signs that can lead to major repairs.

The engineers warn that as a roof gets older, it becomes dry and porous from long exposure to the sun.

Constant temperature changes can cause the roof to curl or become brittle. Also, strong winds during heavy rain storms will drive rain up underneath older shingles.

To help homeowners spot roof damage, John Manville Corp. has pinpointed the following danger signs:

Asphalt shingles, when allowed to remain on roofs beyond their useful life, will begin to show signs of eventual roof failure by granules washing off to leave an underlying surface that is dry, out and crack. Such a roof has lost its ability to protect.

Old wood shingles will split and crack from shrinkage. In extreme or separations of the flash-cases shingles will curl, allowing sleet and rain to wash underneath them, weakening the understructure of the roof.

Then the nails begin to pop out. This is a sign that wood has rotted around the nail holes. Such a roof is no longer weathertight.

Failure in roll roofing results from both faulty application and from wear. Sun dries out this type of roofing over the years to cause blistering and cracking. When this occurs, the roof has lost its protective qualities.

Specific trouble spots on the roof also will be found around dormer windows, chimney flashings (where horizontal and vertical planes meet), vent pipes, valleys, gutters and on hip roofs.

Sound roofing practice requires a good metal or felt flashing material to assure watertight dormers. Unnecessary damage to roof and understructure is caused when the flashing corrodes, cracks, disintegrates or pulls away from the dormer.

Flashings also are important to vent pipe areas. Unless the vent pipe's collar is kept sealed and properly flashed, the hazard of leaks is great.

Another danger area is where two different roof angles meet to form valleys. Unless metal or felt linings are properly maintained in watertight condition, serious leaks will develop in these areas.

Although gutters and leaders at the roof's edge are not a part of the roof area, failure of gutters due to poor pitch or stopped-up leaders can cause serious water problems.

SAVE THAT RUG

Don't throw out faded fibre porch rugs. They can be perked up with a coat of regular house paint which has been considerably thinned. Be sure to use a thinner recommended by the manufacturer on the label of the paint can. You can do the painting on a flat area of the lawn or right on the porch. But when painting on the porch be sure to protect the floor by laying newspapers under the rug.

To restore beauty to a varnished floor, add a small amount of kerosene to the warm, soapy wash water. Then rinse it immediately with clear water.

Save mess and dirty dishes when grinding meat by tying a polythene bag to the end of the meat grinder. The bag catches all the minced meat and it can be stored in the bag in the refrigerator until required.

Summerland opened the scoring in the first inning with a run on a walk, an error and a single. Penticton went further ahead with a six run barrage in the sixth inning making it 14-3 for Penticton. The Red Sox meet Vernon this Sunday in Summerland in a double header. Game time is 1:30 in the Memorial Park.

Macs lose double header

Summerland Macs dropped both ends of a double header to the Vernon Carlings on Sunday in Summerland by scores of 4-0 and 2-1.

In the first game: Jim Staff had the Summerland hitters handcuffed, holding them to four scattered hits and no runs. Hooker pitched good enough ball to win most games, striking out six and only giving up one walk.

In the second game Ron Miciuk and Don Cristante teamed up in a real pitching duel, both going the full nine innings. Cristante giving up nine hits and Miciuk seven. Both walked two and Cristante struck out eight and Miciuk seven. The Macs threatened in the eighth when after two were out, Parker singled and stole second. Taylor drew an intentional pass to put the tying and winning run on base but Hooker struck out to end the inning.

The Macs played good ball and only made one error in the two games. Bill Eyre in right field made a spectacular catch of a long foul ball to take the fielding honors.

Money can work hard for you if you give it a real chance

Did you know the Summerland branch of the Bank of Montreal is equipped to help you start a safe and successful investment program to make spare cash do a real job of work for your future?

It's true. Buying and selling of securities is one of the many helpful services offered by the B of M. When you want investment information, the manager will be glad to put his knowledge of the security markets at your disposal. Indeed, he will call on his head office securities department, if need be. Then, when you have made a decision, the Bank will attend to all the details in both the buying and selling of any securities.

The state of your current income and savings will best determine the scale of your investment program. But from time to time it's a good idea to take stock of your situation by reviewing your holdings. As a result of market changes, on which your bank manager can provide full information, it might be advisable and profitable for you to sell certain securities and buy others.

Either way, you can always be sure of getting helpful information and convenient service at the Summerland branch of the Bank of Montreal. And anything you discuss with Jock Johnston the manager, or any of his staff, will be in absolute confidence, of course.
