

Under The Giant's Head

At a New Democratic Party nominating meeting held in Kelowna on Friday, Mrs. Barbara Bedell, a Kelowna teacher and housewife was elected to contest the South Okanagan riding for the NDP in the September 30 provincial election.

Moves toward the establishment of what may become a new industry for Summerland, were made at Tuesday night's council meeting. At that session approval for the proposed subdivision of the property on Highway 97 sought by the new Victaire sprayer firm was given. Difficulty in clearing the site through Victoria, by reason of its proximity to the highway, has delayed the firm's plans.

Mr. Bert Fraser of Hospital Hill, who will be 88 this month while playing cribbage with Mr. Sandy McEachern, dealt Mr. McEachern a perfect hand. It's the first time in a long while, we've had a crib player's once in a lifetime hand happening in Summerland.

Lived here since 1907

Mr. Harry Kiyoshi Itsutsu, a pioneer resident of the Okanagan died in Summerland September 10 at the age of 71 years. He was born in Japan and came here in 1907.

Funeral services for the late Mr. Itsutsu were held Friday, September 13 from Summerland United Church at 2 p.m., Rev. P. K. Louie officiating. Interment in Peach Orchard cemetery.

Wright's Funeral Home entrusted with arrangements.

In addition to addressing Summerland Rotarians at their meeting, he will confer with president Cecil Wade and other club officers on Rotary administrative matters and service activities.

Mrs. Lowe will be entertained by Summerland Rotary Anns at a gathering at the Yacht Club. A social evening at the yacht club will conclude the governor's visit.

Council takes close look at local sanitation problems

Mr. and Mrs. Scott Rand celebrated their 60th relative's gathered at their home to honor their wedding anniversary on Tuesday. Friends, and on the occasion.

Road improvement may be delayed

A much needed road improvement may go by the board because of lack of support from some local residents. This was revealed at Tuesday night's council meeting in a report of the Victoria Road situation.

It was pointed out that the hard headed attitude of some of those whose property fronts the road may thwart the project. This is to eliminate a dangerous kink near the home of Mrs. M. E. Kercher as was asked by a delegation earlier this year.

To do this the municipality needs to acquire additional frontage from some property owners. Letters have been sent to the owners in question but so far only one reply has been received. This single reply did not accede to council's request.

The owners have not been asked to donate the land; the municipality is willing to pay for the land, and according to information given has made a fair offer to each of the owners of the wanted area.

Unless the necessary land can be obtained, council will be compelled to repair and realign the road as far as possible without the required land.

Many near-accidents have occurred on this particular piece of road as was pointed out by the earlier delegation asking for the changes. Possibility of enlisting the support of those who formed the delegation has been suggested.

Pioneer home hit by fire

The pioneer home of Harry "Pop" Dunsdon, in Garnett Valley was hit by fire on Tuesday afternoon. Latest reports indicate the damage may be beyond repair.

This residence was built in 1903 and has been the home of the pioneer ever since. George Dunsdon has made his home there with his father.

Also lost in the blaze were a number of irreplaceable trophies, won by marksman "Pop" and his family. The antique furniture in the dwelling is also understood to have been at least partly prey to the flames.

Both fire trucks made a fast trip on the three and a half mile run to the Garnett Valley home, but by the time they arrived the blaze had gained a solid hold, and they could do little to save it.

Sanitation and sewage problems in Summerland are coming under scrutiny from both the council and the planning advisory commission. All angles of the matter, from downtown incineration, septic tanks to the local dump were given a critical look at Tuesday night's council meeting.

Conditions at the local disposal field are particularly grave, council learned from works superintendent Ken Blagborne. He said that "everything from old deer hides to slaughter offal" is being strewn over the area. Also large loads of garbage from tent and trailer parks are being hauled to the area.

Growth of the tent and trailer park business, a condition that is certain to increase materially in the near future, will aggravate the condition, the superintendent pointed out. He stated that government camps now incinerate all garbage.

A suggestion that the municipality look into the question of sanitary landfill as a garbage disposal method was also made. It was pointed out that while this method is more costly than the existing dumping, it is also clean. The present system, said Mr. Blagborne, provides a breeding ground for vermin that is entirely eliminated by the landfill system.

Under this arrangement, a trench is dug or a depression used to contain the garbage, which is first pulverized by a bulldozer, then buried under earth. Successive layers of garbage and earth fill are used to fill the depression. There is no odor, and no rodents or flies or burning.

Another item objected to by supt. Blagborne is also eliminated by the landfill. This is the scavenging through the pile by certain persons searching for items to sell. Often such items only have to be re-hauled to the dump.

Councillor W. S. Ritchie reported on another phase of the health problem. He read a copy of a letter from D. R. A. Clarke, medical health officer, regarding a downtown incinerator. The letter was critical of the manner in which this is used.

It was pointed out that the owners are attempting to burn wet garbage in the incinerator with resulting offensive odors and hazards to health. Council agreed that henceforth only dry garbage shall be placed in incinerators downtown.

Attention of the planning advisory commission has been drawn to other angles of sanitation, Councillor Barkwill stated. He reported attending a recent planning advisory commission meeting, which was addressed by Daryl Anderson, district sanitarian, who made a number of recommendations.

Councillor Barkwill said Mr. Anderson spoke of the need for regular sewage disposal and septic tanks, asking the commission to consider a health and building bylaw, with firm rules governing the sizes of septic tanks for new buildings, together with provisions governing drainage and percolation from disposal fields. Such a measure after being drafted by the commission would come before council for final consideration and adoption.

Found guilty on theft charges

Two Summerland men were apprehended by Penticton detachment of the RCMP during the week end, following theft of a club bag from a car parked near a city hotel Saturday night. The young men, Leonard Bruce Jackson and Gordon Leonard Gingell were picked up half an hour after the theft and taken to the Penticton lock-up. The bag was located at the same time.

Appearing in magistrate's court at Penticton on Monday they pleaded not guilty and were found guilty, each one sentenced to nine months definite and nine months indefinite imprisonment.

Plan to spend surplus

A plan whereby the unused portions of the Trout Creek domestic water bylaw funds will be used to further aid that area has been discussed by council. Under this plan the money will be used to help build the new Peach Valley ten inch pipe main carrying domestic water to the Trout Creek tank.

Steps will be commenced immediately toward this end. Letters giving a full explanation

S'land growers top exhibits at Armstrong

W. F. Ward, a consistent top winner for many years at the Armstrong Interior Exhibition was again a winner this year. However, he was eclipsed in some items by other Summerland residents.

This was due to the time Mr. Ward had spent this year on the BCFGA exhibit for the PNE and also for his efforts on behalf of the Summerland fair. The Ganzeveld family featured prominently in some of the fruit competitions, together with Mrs. E. C. Bingham and Mr. Ward. The group indication is that Summerland fruit is again recognized as the tops in the Okanagan.

Individual winners were: Jake Ganzeveld and F. R. "Tiny" Ganzeveld, tied for most points in apples (plates); peaches: Tiny Ganzeveld; mixed packed boxes of fruit: "Tiny" Ganzeveld; junior apple boxes, tie with Mr. Ward, "Tiny" Ganzeveld and Mrs. Bingham. The Palmer Memorial Trophy went to "Tiny" with 30 points. Mrs. Bingham led in the apricot, cherries and pears classes. David Ganzeveld won the ribbon for the best plate of apples. To show, he also won the special award for boys or girls under 18. Jake Ganzeveld won the better fruit award.

The Occidental Fruit Co. won the packing house award.

WI hears address by provincial prexy

The highlight of the first fall meeting of the Summerland Women's Institute was a talk given by the provincial president, Mrs R. C. Palmer, Friday afternoon. Mrs Palmer gave a very interesting account of the work accomplished at the AC-

WW Conference, which was held at Melbourne, Australia last fall. She also showed beautiful colored slides of places visited on the trip, which took her from Vancouver through Hong Kong, Bangkok and on to Australia. Mrs. S. Procuronoff,

New books at regional library

by Kay Dunsdon

Among the new fiction in our library, The Devil With Love, by Robert Nathan is a warm story of a small town and its characters and their very human foibles. Nathan, the author, will be remembered for his Portrait of Jennie. He is recognized as the perfect writer of satiric fantasies usually with great humor.

That Spanish Woman, is the Empress Eugenie, wife of Napoleon III. The author has made these historic figures come to life in an interesting book. F. W. Kenyon usually has historic and unusual people in his novels. Those who have read Emma, or The Emperor's Lady will enjoy this.

Path For Our Valor by Thomas Doulis is a powerful novel of three paratroopers in a peacetime commando guerrilla group. These three try to forget their tormenting past, in the exultation or panic as they leap from the airplane, or are in constant danger as they train for war. The author has been a paratrooper, so can write from experience — a good book.

Tide-Race by Brenda Chamberlain is a different book. It tells of the lonely life led by people of a small island off the Welsh coast. The author and her husband went to farm and fish, and became fascinated by the islanders, and drawn into the drama of their daily lives.

If you are thinking of re-decorating or re-modelling your home, several new books are here to help you. One on how to color tune your home by Louis Cheskin is quite intriguing and gives examples.

Now that sailing and boating are almost over for this season two new books on sailing will extend the pleasure through the winter. Sailing and Racing Catamarans by Edward F. Cotter, Cdr. USCG. Com. Cotter, has built and sailed his own catamarans, those twin-hulled sailing vessels, adapted from ancient Pacific sailing craft. Here is good information on rigging and hoisting of sails. Catamarans, by John Fisher, a small book has lots of points on sailing and landing and shows different designs.

We are happy to see overdue books come home. Please drop these over-looked books in the slot at the back door of the library. Thanks.

Married in ceremony at Anglican Church

St. Stephen's Anglican Church was the setting for a pretty wedding on August 17 at 3:30 p.m., when Elizabeth Ann Gingell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Gingell of West Summerland, became the bride of Charles Wayne Inglis, only son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Inglis of Peachland. Rev Norman Tannar officiated.

Given in marriage by her father, the fair haired bride was lovely in her bouffant, floor length gown of lace over net and taffeta. Sequins and seed pearls were featured on the fitted lace bodice and repeated on the lily point sleeves.

A shoulder length veil of net was held in place by a tiara of sequins, with droplets of crystal and she carried a white lace covered prayer book on which was a colonial bouquet of white carnations and stephanotis, surrounded by red roses, with cascading ribbon streamers and rose buds.

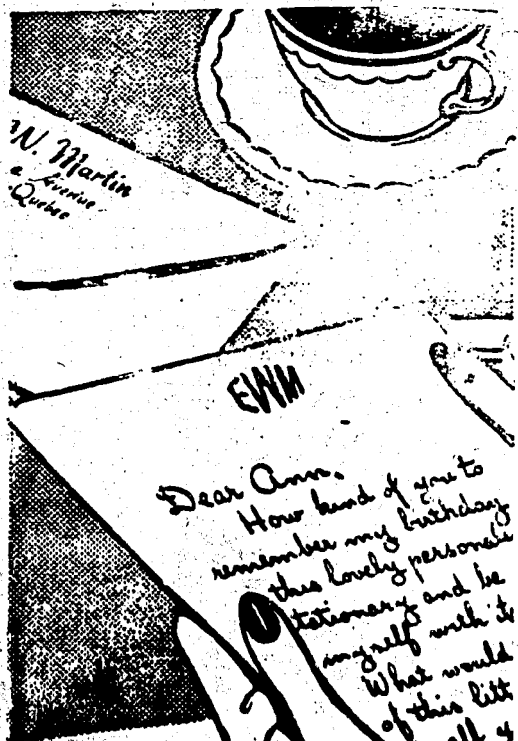

The matron of honor was Mrs. Terrace Bradley, and the bridesmaids were Miss Maureen Clifford and Miss Lone Paulson. Young Heather Barnett was a lovely little flower girl.

Mrs Bradley was gowned in coral taffeta with an overskirt of sparkle organza. Her headpiece of taffeta and organza flowers was entone. The bridesmaids' dresses were similarly styled in ballerina length, blue taffeta under sparkle organza. Their headpieces of blue net were complemented by large flowers to match and all the attendants carried bouquets of carnations tinted entone with their gowns.

A frock of coral taffeta and sparkle organza was worn by the little flower girl and her hat featured streamers of the same material.

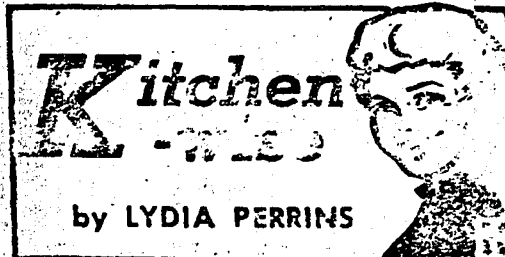

Gary Beet of Peachland was groomsman, Escorts were Mr. James Stump of Peachland and Terrence Bradley of Summerland, while the ushers were Charles Webber of Calgary and Robert Newton of Peachland.

Hunting and fishing news

Not too much to report on the fishing front this week. Most of the fishermen are now hunters and are tramping the hills. I have not had any reports of large fish on the Okanagan yet but it must be coming due very quickly. The odd reports from the mountain lakes are good, but it is cooler up the mountains and long underwear weather.

Blue grouse are in fair numbers for the start of the season. Blue grouse are in fair numbers in some of the better spots. Best spot close-in for blues still is the Bald Range and Baldy. Three deer were shot over the week end from reports I have heard and one elk from out of the district.

Parents asked to minor hockey meet

Summer's sun is still shining and the hardy among the youth are still taking swims, but winter — and minor hockey, is on the way. Specifically, the minor hockey meeting will be held on Wednesday, September 25 at 8 p.m. in the Village Inn annex.

There are 150 boys now playing this game in Summerland. This year's fall season opener will be held about October 15. But prior to that time a good deal needs doing. The help of parents and others interested to officiate as coaches, referees and general helpers is necessary.

Discussion of these plans will be featured at the meeting next week, which will also discuss the plans for the expansion of the leagues and teams and there is room for a lot more boys to learn and play this Canadian national sport in Summerland.

TIME FOR A CHOICE... TIME FOR A CHANGE.

We need a return to honest, responsible government . . . we need to restore confidence in our Province, at home and abroad . . . we need a sensible, planned power policy that creates new jobs and provides plentiful, low cost power FOR B.C. . . . we need a complete overhaul in municipal financing, in education, and in medical care for the needy . . . we need relief from the intolerable tax burdens piled on us by the wild adventurings of the Bennett government . . . we need these things, and we need them NOW. Yes, it's time for a CHOICE . . . time for a change. On September 30th YOU can make that change by voting for the Fulton team . . . the only alternative.

The varmint hunter out for woodchuck has to be a tracker as well as a good shot. He looks for fresh earth near chuck holes—a sign that the burrows are still occupied.

Chucks have sharp eyesight—and they'll duck back in their holes in a flash when they spot unwelcome visitors. Telescopic sights are almost a "must" since most shots are made at ranges in excess of 100 yards.

At these distances, a good prone position is recommended for steadiness. New Remington Model 700 rifle in .222 Remington caliber is ideal for chuck hunting.

Baby bonus can help to buy college education

For many Canadian parents, the monthly family allowance cheque provides an opportunity to lay the groundwork of a savings program designed to cover the costs of higher education for their children.

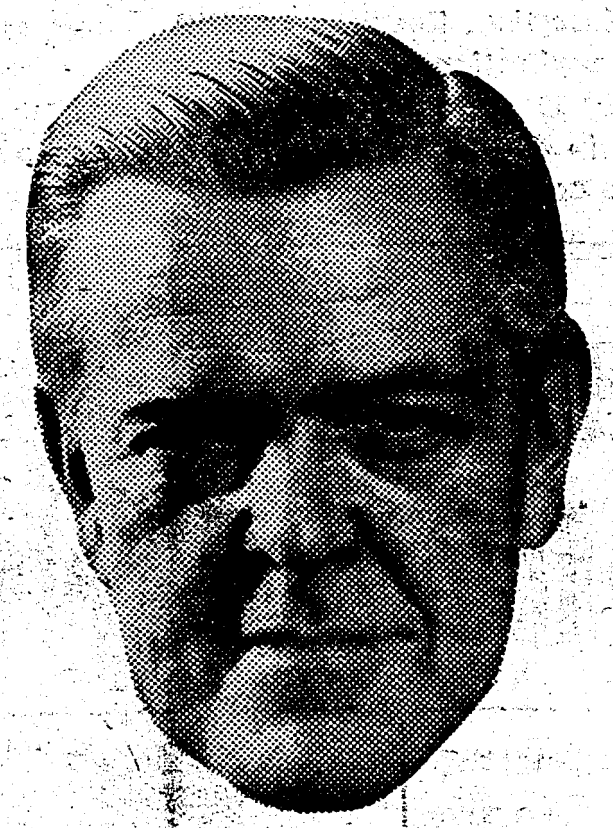

Most parents are only too well aware that it takes a good deal more than brains for a boy or girl to go to college. That's why far-sighted mothers and fathers who want to give their children the best possible in life plan far in advance for the rising costs of higher education.

Family allowance cheques for one child, if deposited in a B of M savings account until the age of 16, will total more than $1,600, including interest the bank pays. It's a tidy sum towards a college career.

If you're in doubt as to what it might cost in the long run to send your boy or girl to college, why not drop in at the Summerland branch of the Bank of Montreal. Jock Johnston, the manager, will be glad to give you a copy of the B of M folder outlining a typical education savings program which can easily be adapted to the special requirements of your youngster.

- A back breaking B.C. Debt which will saddle us for a generation.
- More expensive power while your cheaper power is bartered away below the border.

Summerland residents caught a glimpse Saturday of a new form of world travelling. This was a Volkswagen bus, parked on main street, bearing emblems indicating it to be on a "Round the World trip". It was conveying three young men from Wolsburg, West Germany the town where the Volkswagen is built.

On one side was a large map, bearing the names of the places already visited by the vehicle. These showed it had already visited Europe, Asia, India, Japan, Hawaii and is now eastbound across Canada and the United States.

On the other side were the words "Round the World in the Volkswagen Dornobile" and "Deutschland".

Renew plans for junior college

At the reorganization meeting of the Southern Interior Junior College Society, held in Penticton last week, it was made abundantly clear that the group wants to get a two-year institution in the "southern area". By "southern area", it was stated, they meant anywhere from (and including Summerland) to the international boundary.

It was agreed that the reformed group should "pursue its original objective in obtaining a junior college for the southern interior". To this was added a further, new proviso, that the college shall be limited to a two year term, but unlimited in the breadth of the courses offered.

Dr. J. E. Miltimore, president of the Trout Creek PTA, was an interested observer, and took an active part in the discussions.

Former superintendent of schools, C. E. Clay, said the term, "junior college" in accordance with the provincial statute that creates such institutions, covers an extremely wide field. He said that what is offered as syllabus in one center would be totally unwelcome and unsuited to another area.

It was shown by Mr. Clay that the school board(s) desiring to institute a junior college must first file "notice of intent" with Victoria. Then a plebiscite is held, if this is favorable, then the institution can immediately commence its active organization. The "organization" is then eligible for grants. The site, or grounds of such an institution are not eligible for grants, which must be furnished by the district.

Four candidates seek seat

Voters in the Summerland area will mark their "X" on Monday for one of the four candidates above. There are two polling places, one for West Summerland, and one for Summerland. Voters should check the cards they receive in the mail this week carefully, to ascertain which one these places is proper for them.

For West Summerland, the polling place is the IOOF Hall for Summerland the Masonic Hall.

As the campaign draws to a close, candidates and their supporters are going into a fever of activity. Apart from that, excitement has been small.

and in the words of one politician "The people aren't talking". By this he indicated further, the electors have been doing a lot more thinking than usual, and seem to have made up their minds one way or another. The lack of comment has not meant apathy, observers have said.

Summing up the four platforms as presented by leaders and candidates, the issues are not too startlingly different. Observers feel that Bennett, premier of B.C. for the past eleven years has asked for a mandate and the other three parties are opposing it. Each of the opposing three has a moderate difference from the remainder. All talk against the Bennett power plans.

The New Democratic Party has made a great point of the need of medicare in B.C. They have stated through Robert Strachan, their leader, that Great Britain, for instance, has benefited materially from medicare. As have other parts of the world. Mr. Strachan, speaking in Penticton, suggested retention of tolls on bridges and tunnels as one method of deriving part of the cost of this. Cost of the plan, states Mr. Strachan, would approximate $50,000,000 annually.

The Liberals under Ray Perrault, have made a strong point of a "Develop Columbia First" policy. To this, they have added the idea of the need, in B.C. for a government-sponsored plan to develop secondary industries, and hence payrolls. Mr. Perrault, speaking in Penticton, also touched upon the need for relieving home-owners of much of their present school costs burden.

The Progressive Conservatives have keynoted the idea of "sane, solid government" and the need for building up confidence in B.C. for investors. E. Davie Fulton, leader, and formerly a member of the federal cabinet, has said that the sale of downstream benefits of the Columbia would be a colossal error, and that these should be retained by the province.

As government party in this province for the past decade, the Social Credit movement is not only pointing to what it terms "the achievements" of the past ten years, but is also indicating that new forward strides are in the offing. Mainly, these consist of developing both the Peace and Columbia power schemes which, they say, B.C. will need urgently by the time they are completed. Construction of additional new highways and highway links are forecast, together with encouragement of new industries.

Now it's up to you — "Vote as you please, but please vote"

Marshall addresses gathering

According to Dr. James Marshall, British Columbia needs power, but not expensive Peace power to get its economy rolling. The power the Progressive Conservative candidate for the South Okanagan riding referred to, in the course of an address here at the IOOF Hall Thursday night, is manpower, and in particular, the "dynamic power of E. Davie Fulton, as premier of this province."

"Mr. Fulton says the Columbia should be started first, as it will be needed first," Dr. Marshall said. He said no one should belittle the vast possibilities of the B.C. northland, which holds one of the keys of the future for this province, but this is for the future. The requirement is now to cope with the needs of the present, and Mr. Fulton, as his career in Ottawa has shown, is the man to do it.

Among the immediate matters that should be attended to are access roads in forest lands. "Why in the name of goodness didn't Bennett use the unemployed men, who are here by the thousands looking for work, for jobs like this?" Dr. Marshall said.

Touching upon the years it takes to carry out research, "and trying first one avenue, and if that fails, another, for a decade or more", Dr. Marshall said of his own candidacy "if I don't beat him this time, and provided the Progressive (Continued on back page)

TCA FETES MAURICE CHEVALIER — MAURICE CHEVALIER, world-famous entertainer, celebrated 60 years of show business and part of his 75th birthday over the North Atlantic aboard a Trans-Canada Air Lines' DC-8 jetliner Sept. 12. A surprise party with all the trimmings was given him aboard the aircraft by passengers wearing paper leis and straw hats and singing Happy Birthday, as the jet winged its way from Montreal to Paris. Mr. Chevalier was presented with a fifteen-pound cake featuring an apple, a straw hat and a cane, a telegram of good wishes from TCA's President and the company's Board of Directors and employees, and a hand-crafted ceramic map of Canada. As the aircraft approached the coast of France September 12 and dawn broke on his 75th birthday, Mr. Chevalier made a broadcast direct from the aircraft to major European radio networks over a special wave length arranged for the occasion. A battery of news cameras and a crowd of well-wishers met him as the jet touched down at Orly Airport in Paris, including popular French singer Mache Altery, who was celebrating her own birthday. Mr. Chevalier is shown here with some of the passengers aboard the TCA jet over the ocean.

Services for C. B. Elliott

Mr. Charles Bobier Elliott, 66 years of age, formerly of West Summerland, passed away in the Penticton Hospital September 18.

Besides his loving wife Edith he leaves to mourn his loss, three sons and four daughters: Jim of A.ola, B.C.; Roy of Penticton, Ross of Burnaby; (Ruth) Mrs. R. Norman of Merritt; (Phyllis) Mrs. C. Funeral services for the late Mr. Elliott were conducted from Roselawn Funeral Home Friday, September 20 at 2:00 p.m., Canon A. R. Eagles officiating. Interment, Lakeview cemetery, members of branch #22, Royal Canadian Legion, in attendance.

Sex urge used in moth purge

The road to romance may become pretty rocky, confusing and even fatal for the males of the Oriental fruit moth species.

Reason for the dismal prospects — from the moth's point of view, is the fact that scientists are planning to capitalize on sex appeal as a weapon to help control the orchard pest.

The scent emitted by the females to attract their mate has been isolated and studies are under way to see if it can be produced artificially, reports J. A. George, of Canada Department of Agriculture's research laboratory at Vineland Station, Ontario.

A man-made scent of the female gypsy moth already is being used by scientists in their efforts to keep a tight curb on this tree pest.

Researcher George explains that the natural "lure" secreted by female fruit moths has an odor strong enough to attract males.

Important to the species as the numbers of moths in peach orchards are drastically reduced by sprays," he adds.

If the lure can be produced artificially, the males will really have some problems.

As the researcher sees it, the fake scent can be used in various ways to help control the pest.

Some of the uses:

— As a means of experimentally separating males and females.

— To attract males to poisonous bait or to bait that would sterilize them.

— On pellets to confuse the males and curb natural matings.

— In traps as an aid in timing spray applications.

Power - plus

With less than a week until the provincial election everyone seems to be talking about power. Some use the term to mean electrical energy. Others are talking about the power of government, favoring this or that group or party.

But on Monday the term "power" will have a different meaning. Then we will see the power of the people, and, at a time like this, it seems to us that it is far more potent than all the misuse of the term to mean electrical energy, or to mean giving an elected group the freedom to make decisions.

Speaking of power, there's another term, "The power of the press" that has been used to the point of becoming shopworn and in some instances, justifiably looked upon as putting power into the wrong hands. We refer, here, to the attempt of the morning coast paper, to make up people's minds for them, telling them they should, for instance vote in a minority government, just because the same publication does not like a specific government. Opinions are private, personal, and without need for substantiation by facts, as long as they are kept to oneself. But opinions expressed publicly, and worse, published by newspapers with wide circulation, should have solid reasons, basic facts to support their position. They should not be based on the idea, "I don't like Mr. so-and-so, and hence I don't think you should either."

Suggestions that "we should elect a minority government" are a confession of weakness — of lack of ability in finding real, solid issues upon which to defeat the Bennett government. If you ask them, you'll find the opposition seem to have little to give the voter, excepting a desire to win at all costs.

One group offers medicare, and the others are mainly battling on the electrical energy format.

During the past few weeks we've heard a great deal supposedly contrary to the present Social Credit government. A lot of it has been "carpenter's work" — sheer knocking, without basic facts. So, let's look at a few "pro" items.

During the past ten years, the government of Victoria has built some of the finest roads in Canada, and constructed them at reasonable cost. This same government has ironed out some of the hitherto tangled school costs items. They have raised some property taxes — but on a sound footing, based on actual values — and have provided a home-owner grant that has helped the "little people" particularly.

One final word — the power is yours. It is yours to choose between something that is factual, concrete, real, or something that is visionary, founded on wishful thinking. So, when you vote on Monday, bear this in mind — and make sure you assure yourself and others of continued "power" and progress in British Columbia.

Versatile Bill Walker adds a new facet to a many sided career when he becomes moderator this season of CBC-TV's panel show, Flashback. In the past year, Walker has taken a turn at MC'ing the CNE Grandstand Show, hosting CBC-TV's variety show, Parade, performing in a Toronto hit revue and writing material for variety shows.

Born blind

by Rev. G. Leasor

A preacher was standing on a street corner preaching, suddenly a man stepped from the crowd and addressed the assembled company in this way: "Ladies and gentlemen, you have been listening to this man talk about God, Heaven and Jesus Christ, I hope no one will believe a word of it. I don't. I refuse to believe what I cannot see."

When he finished another man spoke up. "Friends, I hear that not far from here runs a river, with beautiful green grass and flowers on the banks. But if I took this man's advice I would not believe it, for I was born blind." The blind man went on. "You, sir, by your statements prove only one thing, and that is that you are blind, spiritually blind, and that is why you do not understand what many people here know to be true."

Jesus said: "Except a man be born again he cannot see the kingdom of God." Well might we pray the prayer of Bartimaeus: "Lord, that I might receive my sight."

B of M Personal Checking Account Simplifies Paying Monthly Bills

Almost everyone agrees the quickest and safest way of paying bills is by cheque. Until recently, there have been only two types of accounts on which to draw cheques — current accounts and savings accounts.

Now there's a new type of account specially designed by the Bank of Montreal to meet the needs of husband and wife who pay by cheque. It's the B of M Personal Chequing account, available at the Summerland branch.

Personal chequing accounts are economical to operate. You pay nothing in advance for your cheque-book, the service charge is only ten cents a cheque. And there's no charge for deposits to your account as there is with a current account in which there's a charge of ten cents for each entry.

With a B of M personal chequing account, you receive a quarterly statement, instead of a passbook. And your cancelled cheques, which are held by the bank for 20 years, are readily available to provide the best possible receipt for the bills you've paid.

If you'd like to hear more about this convenient new B of M service, Don Carmichael, accountant at the Summerland branch of the B of M, will be happy to give you the details. See him soon!

Provincial director visits Cancer Society

A meeting of the Summerland Cancer Society executive was held Friday, September 13 in the Health Center.

Major H. R. King, B.C. executive director of the Canadian Cancer Society gave a very interesting talk on the work of the Society. He was accompanied by Mrs. King.

One of the main pieces of business of the evening was to appoint a vice president to take the place of Nat. May, the vice president for many years. This the executive was empowered to do with subsequent approval by the Board. Deep regret was expressed at the loss of Mr. May.

The booth at the fall fair was mentioned favorably and Mrs. J. E. O'Mahony thanked all who helped with it.

A film for men's service clubs, "Life Story" is available. It has been seen by the Kiwanis Club, and Rotary and Kinsmen Clubs are making arrangements to see it.

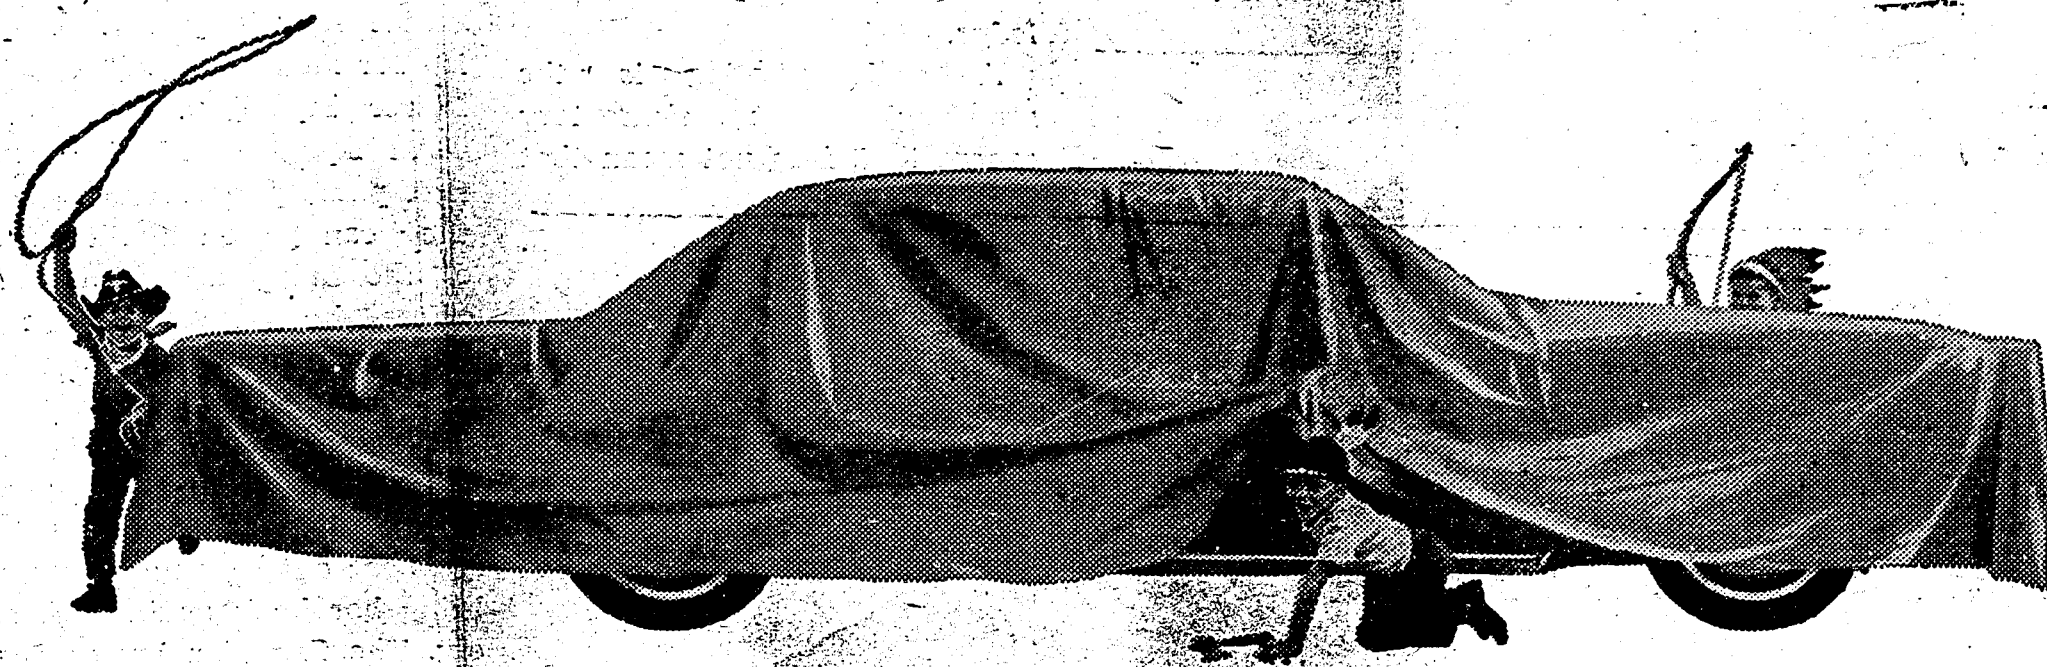

The Cancer Society is again sponsoring a contest in the schools for the best poster on "Lung Cancer."

Major King, in his talk, stressed two main points: the fine progress in the educational program of the Cancer Society and the growth and extension in activity in the Research Center at UBC. There is great hope that a control for leukemia may be developed. He also felt that the public should know that all "In Memoriam" contributions went to research. Such donations the treasurer, H. O. Pruden, will be pleased to accept.

Major King praised highly the good work of the Summerland Kiwanis Club in their annual cancer campaign. He also gave great credit to the Order of the Eastern Star for providing cancer dressings, saying that B.C. was the only place in Canada where cancer dressings were provided free.

Dr. J. C. Wilcox, president of the local branch, was in the chair and introduced the guest speaker.

Covered Wagon - '64 model

It's the hot model of the '64 line. It hasn't been unveiled yet. When it goes on public display, it will be announced with all the pageantry of press, radio and TV. The works.

You're bound to want one. If you do decide to buy, finance your "covered wagon" with the plan that's as up-to-date as a '64 model. Use this season's "hot" plan—the Bank of Montreal Family Finance Plan. It's low in cost, life-insured; and the monthly payments can be set to fit your ability to pay.

Ask about it at your neighbourhood branch. It fits all models of new and used cars.

Summer sailors go back to school

With summer boating activities behind them the members of the Summerland Power Squadron are now preparing for night school courses in boat handling, navigation and seamanship.

The most important course offered by the squadron is the Piloting course. This is elementary training of about 16 weeks duration teaching the fundamentals of chart work, safety at sea, equipment, knots and splices, and general knowledge.

Although piloting is the squadron's most elementary course that does not mean that these who take it are amateurs. Many of B.C.'s top sail and power boat skippers have taken this course not only to improve their already considerable knowledge but to qualify for membership in Canadian Power Squadron.

All squadron members must first pass "piloting" after which they can go on and take any of the many advanced studies offered by the CPS. These are the people for whom the course was planned. After completing the course, the student has enough theory and navigational skill in chart work to take his boat out in any waters and bring her back again with safety. The Canadian Power Squadron is not a national Yacht Club. It is not in competition with yacht clubs. It is an organization formed voluntarily by boatmen to improve safety and seamanship through education.

Membership is composed of boating enthusiasts of all types. Among its members it numbers students, workers, professional men, executives and men of every station.

There is only one way to join CPS. That is to pass the Piloting Course examination and be accepted for membership by the Board of Admissions. By attending CPS classes you increase the safety of your boating and the pleasure and satisfaction you get out of it. The basic one-season Piloting Course is available to every interested boatman. More advanced courses in piloting and navigation are open to those who pass the piloting examination and become members of CPS.

It would be nice to say that membership is open to all but that wouldn't be quite right. There is discrimination. Women, however efficient they may be as boat operators, can't become members. Under present rules they can take all the courses, earn certificates but can only become "lady associates". There may be soul-searching about this but with women everywhere else it's good for mere man to have a place to hide.

Don't let this discourage you though ladies — the courses are fun, you don't have to pay fees as the men do, and it can be exhilarating to be able to say "I told you so" when hubby takes off on a True Course instead of a Magnetic Course and lands up at the wrong destination.

There is also a place in the Squadron for Junior Members, boys and girls under eighteen who are interested in boating.

The Summerland Power Squadron is not limited to residents of Summerland, but welcomes enrollment from surrounding communities. Friday, October 4th at 8 p.m. is the night set for enrollment. At this time an evening can be set for the course which will be of most advantage to the group. As an added attraction films on boating will be shown. This takes place at the Summerland Yacht Club.

Wednesday, October 2 at 8 p.m. will see the members of the SPS meet to discuss further courses for this season and organize instructors for the new enrollment.

AGENDA FOR PROGRESS for the greatest seven years of your Province's History

To the People of British Columbia:

Eleven years ago, you assigned to me the great honor, and the great responsibility, of leading a new Government of British Columbia. You did so at a very troubled time in the political history of our Province, a time when the Liberal government of the day, first in coalition with the Conservative Party and then on its own, had proved to the limits of your endurance that its policies were simply not in the best interests of the people of British Columbia.

It was a time of soaring public debt which actually exceeded the value of all fixed assets of the Province; a time of horse-and-buggy highways, inadequate hospital services and educational facilities; a time when the sinking funds of the Province — the funds which must be provided to guarantee our ability to meet our obligations — had been drained by literally millions of dollars. And it was a time of waste, extravagance, and patronage, when hundreds of Orders-in-Council (the public record of a government's actions and decisions) were secretly passed and systematically withheld from public view. This is worth recalling now when these same parties are counting on your short memory by talking of integrity in government.

Then as now, the CCF Party was the official opposition, and even then you made it plain that you rejected the reckless promises of the CCF as a solution to the needs of the Province. You made it plain that you wanted a government neither of the reactionary right nor of the radical left, a government non-partisan in nature and representative only of a complete cross-section of the people.

With your confidence and support during the years since 1952, the Social Credit Government team has brought order and stability to the public affairs of this Province. You have made possible the finest highway system in Canada, the expansion of higher education from one university to four, the construction of dozens of new schools, the provision of vocational and technical schools and the institution of a province-wide plan for the construction of junior colleges. You have endorsed the payment by this Government of Canada's most generous Old Age Pension and Social Assistance allowances, and you have seen confidence in our competitive free enterprise system grow so markedly that this year, more outside investment per capita has been made in British Columbia than in any other province.

With these accomplishments as a solid base, we are now in a position to proceed with a detailed plan for the most decisive period in British Columbia's history: the remaining seven years of the 1960s. I say "decisive" because I am convinced that now as never before, continued careful planning and continued dynamic policies will allow us to expand employment opportunities, enrich the material and cultural life of every citizen, and bring our Province to the highest state of development that a bountiful Nature affords.

For the past several months, the members of your Government have studied closely the developing needs of every sector of the economy. As a result of that study, we have established firm targets for the next seven years; co-ordinated in a single Timetable for Progress, they form the Social Credit Government's manifesto for the 1960s. I urge you to study this Timetable closely, to relate it to your own targets for the next seven years, and to acquaint yourself with the detailed program for every department of government which your Social Credit team is outlining during the current election campaign. The Timetable targets are challenging, but they are realistic; and to those who might label them as fantastic, I can only reply that 11 years ago, many of the programs of this Government which have long since been carried out were also branded as fantastic.

On this forward-looking program, then, the Social Credit team asks your support in the September 30 general election. We do so in the same non-partisan spirit which has been endorsed in past elections by men and women of all political leanings, regardless of their federal party preference. We are grateful for that confidence, and in seeking your renewed mandate, I give you my personal pledge that all our policies in the decisive years ahead will be directed solely to the betterment of this great Province which all of us love so much.

Yours sincerely,

W. A. C. BENNETT,
PREMIER OF BRITISH COLUMBIA

Local girl married in Penticton ceremony

A wedding of interest to Summerland took place at St. Ann's Roman Catholic Church in Penticton August 31. The ceremony united in marriage Penny Gaye Eden, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Pete Eden of West Summerland and Ronald Preston Muzzilo, son of Mrs. D. Muzzilo and the late Joseph Muzzilo of Penticton. Father MacDonald officiated.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a floor length gown of nylon over taffeta. This was designed with a full skirt, lily-point sleeves, with a portrait neckline applied on the collar and down the front of the dress. She carried a bouquet of blue glameillas.

Her bridesmaids were her sister, Linda Eden and the sister of the groom, Celestine Muzzillo. Each wore a dress of waltz length, with a bell-shaped skirt and elbow length sleeves. The dresses were in crystal blue with white sleeves. The bridesmaids wore white gloves and shoes, and carried bouquets of white mums.

Bonnie Eden, sister of the bride, as flower girl, was dressed in a white net and taffeta dress, with blue flowers on the skirt. She wore a wreath of blue flowers in her hair. Duncan Watson of Penticton was groomsman, and Dick Collis, Armstrong and Allan Joy, Penticton were ushers.

A reception was held at the Rosedale Room of the Royal Canadian Legion following the ceremony. The toast to the bride was given by Junius Johnson and the toast to the bridesmaids by Duncan Watson of Penticton.

The bride's mother wore a green brocade sheath dress, with pale yellow accessories. The groom's mother wore a dress of blue silk print with white accessories.

For her going away costume the bride wore a silk linen suit, a pink pillbox hat with matching pink shoes. She carried a bouquet of pink rosebuds. The couple honeymooned in eastern Washington, prior to taking up residence at Suite 10, 1975 Alma St., Vancouver. The groom is taking his third year in education at UBC.

Out of town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Tony Muzzilo, Mr. and Mrs. Bruno Muzzilo of Revelstoke, Miss Doris Benson of Nanaimo and Miss Heather Marshall of Vancouver.

Shower for bride - elect

Mrs. George Braniff and Miss Francis Braniff were joint hostesses at a shower recently for Miss Jo Ann Schafer. Guests included Mrs. Olive Winters, Miss Jennifer Winters, Mrs. Bob Hardie, Mrs. June Moore, Mrs. Marie Robinson, Mrs. Rosalie Taylor, Mrs. Monica Schaeffer, Miss Mickey Jamori, Miss Elaine Audet, Miss Darlene Shannon. Gifts were sent by Mrs. Lorene Smith and Mrs. Peggy Haws, who were unable to be present.

A gaily decorated basket was used to contain the gifts as they were presented to the bride elect. Following the presentation, the guests were entertained with an evening of games, followed by refreshments, served by the hostesses.

Police court

John Taylor, 84, who was injured when he walked into the path of a southbound car on the Summerland hill Friday night is still in the local hospital. However, his condition is reported to be good, and he is recovering from shock, bruises and some cuts.

The police blotter is light this week, with only two cases reported. On Friday, Dave Lewis Mangold pleaded guilty to a charge of driving contrary to the restrictions on his licence. He was fined $20 and costs.

On Tuesday, John William Myes of Summerland paid $50 and costs on a charge of speeding.

Conservatives are willing, I'll sit back and be ready to battle Mr. Bennett next time."

The speaker was asked regarding his party's position on the home owner grant, replying that he gathered Mr. Fulton planned to retain it. Dr. Marshall added that "as soon as the Conservatives come into power they will pay 70 per cent, instead of 50 per cent of educational costs.

On the Summerland hospital, Dr. Marshall said, "if I got down there to Victoria I can't imagine anything standing in the way of a new hospital for Summerland."

... Your Private Decision:

BE CAUTIOUS

BE COURAGEOUS"

... Which shall it be?

One voice says "Be careful. Vote the Bennett party for fear of something worse". Another voice urges you "Be courageous . . . now's the time to use your vote for something better. Vote for Davie Fulton, the leader you know you really want".

Don't compromise.

Because B.C. needs Davie Fulton with his fresh, honest, dynamic approach to the great problems facing us . . . we need his program for power development . . . education . . . lower municipal taxes . . . industrial expansion . . . medical care . . . and portable pensions.

Above all we need Davie Fulton and a strong team in the legislature as our insurance — against any more dictatorial, cynical abuse of our rights as citizens. Davie Fulton and a strong team will never let that happen again.

On September 30th - Decide for Courage! Elect the Fulton team!
