Control on water use may come to by-law

How control valves may be incorporated into the Summerland municipal irrigation and domestic water systems in the near future. Unequal distribution of available water in the pressure systems is causing the council to consider a bylaw that would allow them to control the number of sprinklers to be used per acre with a control valve on each sprinkler which would allow only two gallons per minute to pass through the sprinkler.

Many homes on high ground have difficulty getting sufficient water for daily needs during hot weather; council feels that with more control over the amount of water each person uses, the problem areas would be assured of more water. Another problem the flow control valves will eliminate is unnecessary waste due to worn sprinkler heads.

Councillor Walter Powell is now using the control valves in his orchard and reports good results. He commented that orchardists in many cases tend to over-

School Board member tends resignation

At the May 28 meeting of the school board the resignation of trustee Dr. W. G. Evans was accepted with sincere regret. As required by the Public Schools Act, the municipality will be notified of the vacancy and if an election to replace Dr. Evans is not held, the trustee may appoint some duly qualified person to fill the vacancy. Dr. Evans' term expires December 31.

The resignation of Mrs. Ethel Sears of the MacDonald school teaching staff was accepted. Mrs. Sears and her husband are moving to Alberta.

The Board approved the appointment of Mrs. Ilona Hatton of North Surrey to the teaching staff of the MacDonald School. It would appear that vacancies in the MacDonald School will be filled shortly. Vacancies still to be filled in the Secondary School are French, Industrial Arts and Girls' Physical Education.

The Board was pleased to note that the following businesses had accommodated the Occupational 11 students during their observation trips: Hospital, Karen's Beauty Salon, Penny's Beauty Shop, Nu-Art Fashions, Mac's Cafe, 5c to $1.00 Store, Summerland Hardware, Parkdale Place, Summerland Review, Esso Service, Municipal Office, Smith & Hill, Summerland Welding and Machine Shop, A. & J Body Shop and The Cake Box.

Saturday dances start again Saturday night dancing starts again at the Yacht Club June 6 and will continue for the next three months. The club is anticipating good crowds, especially during the summer months and will carry the dances on into the winter if they are well received. The Jack Ruff Trio will provide the music, with Bill Spears, on the Hammond organ, a drummer and Jack Ruff on the banjo. Dancing starts at nine.

Well-Women Registry formed at meeting

A capacity audience gathered in the MacDonald School Auditorium last Thursday to see the film, Breast Self-Examination, and to hear a talk on cancer of the breast given by Dr. V. J. Guttormsson.

An interesting demonstration of the instruments used in the detection of cancer in various parts of the body was given by Dr. Yates of Penticton.

Following this was a question period, with questions being submitted anonymously from the audience and presented to Dr. Guttormsson and Dr. Yates.

Mrs. A. H. Frazer, who instigated the Well-Women's Registry there, with like registries now started in Kelowna, Vernon and on Vancouver Island, spoke on the workings of the Registry.

She pointed out that this is a service to remind women when it is time for their yearly check up with their doctor. The woman whose name is placed in the Registry, at her own request, is called by telephone when it is time for her check up. She makes her own appointment with her own doctor, and pays the doctor's fee.

The Registry, Mrs. Frazer said, does not know the result of any such examination. Its purpose is simply to remind women when their check up is due. This check up would, of course, include a pap smear, a simple test to show if there are any cancer cells in the cervix, the most vulnerable spot in women for cancer to occur. Cancer cells through this test, can be discovered even 10 years before the disease develops, and can be arrested.

Anyone wishing to have her name placed on the Registry, for which there is no charge, is asked to contact Miss E. Gwyneth Atkinson, secretary of the Cancer Society and chairman of the Registry.

Mrs. James Roe was chairman for the evening, introducing the guests, and assisting Miss Atkinson were Mrs. H. Lemke, Mrs. Jack Raincock, Mrs. Towgood and Mrs. E. Kinviq.

Kiwanis Notes

Tuesday night's meeting turned out to be a very good one indeed. Four guests from Oliver were with us and they were warmly welcomed. Don Carmichael did a good job in leading the singing.

Norm Tannar brought and introduced his own guest, who although not strictly of legal age yet, by perhaps some 16 or 17 years, yet seemed to know just what

The guest speaker was Lawrence Crump, insurance adjuster, who gave an interesting and extended talk on insurance and claims. He was thanked by Hilly Smith.

A COOK'S TALE

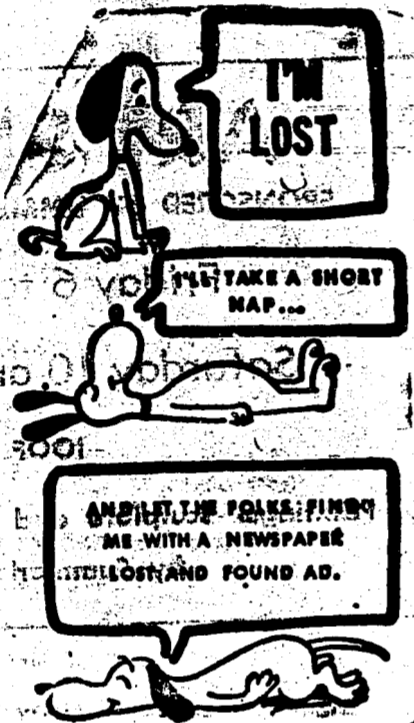

The first cooking utensils were hollowed-out shells and stones. They gave way to ceramic-ware centuries later. The ancient Egyptians stored water and food in huge pottery jars, and cooked in pottery bowls over open fires or in clay ovens.

Heavy iron pots were common by the 17th Century. Heavy cast iron kettles, frying pans and stewing pots were found in every home. Our colonial housewives cooked the evening meal in iron pots suspended over a blazing log fire in a huge kitchen fireplace.

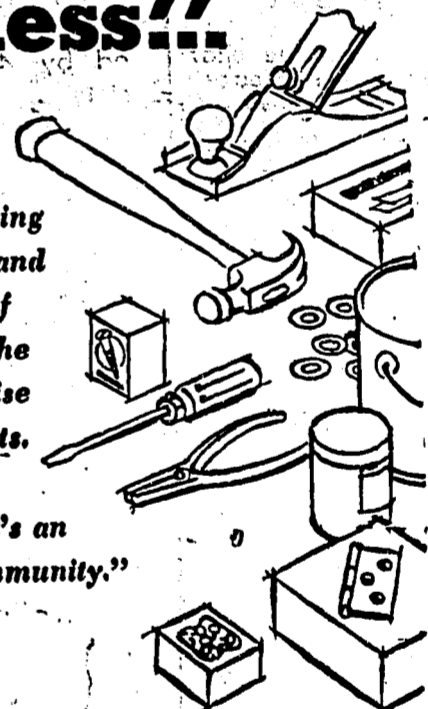

Today's homemaker does not yearn for the "good old days." With her modern range and light-weight, even-heating aluminum cookware, she not only cooks better than her forebears but is spared the drudgery and discomfort.

Hardware is my Business!!

"To me the satisfaction of supplying people with quality merchandise and service is the outstanding reward of running a hardware store. There are high industry standards for the tools, appliances and supplies that I handle, and in selecting merchandise for my customers, I make sure that my stock meets these rigid requirements. To keep people reminded of my store and services and to announce new merchandise, I use newspaper advertising regularly. It's an effective way to send the news about my store to the people in this community."

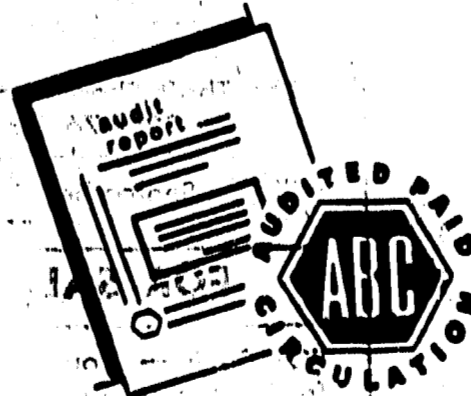

All businessmen are aware of the standards of quality, weight and measure that are used in evaluating the merchandise which they buy and sell. It is also possible to buy newspaper advertising on the basis of definite standards, namely, the information in the reports of the Audit Bureau of Circulations.

The A.B.C. is a cooperative, nonprofit association of nearly 4,000 publishers, advertisers and advertising agencies. Its purpose is to provide advertisers with audited information about the circulation of its publisher members.

At regular intervals the A.B.C., of which this newspaper is a member, sends an experienced circulation auditor to make a thorough inspection and audit of our circulation records. The FACTS thus established are published in an A.B.C. audit report which tells you: How much circulation we have; where it goes; how obtained; how much people pay for our paper; and other FACTS that you need in order to KNOW what you get for your advertising money.

This newspaper is a member of the Audit Bureau of Circulations.

Last week the fire department was called to the old Nalos mill site where a sawdust pile had caught fire. The fire had worked well into the huge pile of sawdust and had also burned some of the underbrush. The ARP pumper was used to pump water from Trout Creek onto the blaze and the firemen worked for over four hours to get it under control. The fire is still smoldering in the sawdust pile and is expected to burn for some time.

Business trips Produce Unexpected Problems

Handling the household finances while her husband is away on a business trip can be a problem for any wife unless she has enough cash on hand to cope with everyday expenses, as well as with those little emergencies that always seem to arise at awkward moments.

But the practice of having sums of money around the house can be dangerous. More and more couples are finding a far more practical and flexible method of handling money is through a B of M joint account operated by them both. It's a favorite with women everywhere because the joint account is both simple and convenient. It makes an ideal way to keep track of family expenses, too!

Various arrangements can be made when opening a joint account at the Bank of Montreal — some people stipulate that both signatures are required on all cheques. Others find it more convenient to allow both parties to write cheques independently.

Either way, a joint account is the safest method of keeping family financing on a flexible basis at all times. See Don Carmichael, the accountant at the West Summerland branch of the Bank of Montreal, for complete details about opening and operating a convenient joint account.

down under lights

The Summerland Red Sox and the Penticton A & W's played their regularly scheduled junior game under the lights in Penticton last week with Penticton coming out on top by 5-1.

The story of the game was that Penticton got their hits when they counted while Summerland left men stranded on base. The Red Sox out-hit Penticton 8-6 and played errorless ball while the A & W's booted the ball twice.

Sheeley started on the mound and was fazed with the loss. He was relieved by Walton in the 5th inning and as usual from there on the opposition couldn't score. George now has 30 innings without allowing an earned run.

The next league action will be on Sunday, when Penticton will be in Summerland for a return engagement. Game time 2 p.m.

FROM TROUT CREEK

The Pack is still meeting at Sorec campsite. Don McArthur is now helping with the Pack. He has formed a patrol of senior boys who will be going up to Scouts in the fall and is instructing them in Scout Tenderfoot Tests. If they work it means that these boys will be invested as Scouts almost as soon as they go up, so get at it boys!

The younger boys are working on knots, growing things and cleanliness tests. Some of these fellows are just about finished their First Star Tests.

The One Star Cubs are working on Second Star knots and compass. Last week Alan Fisher and Grant Gale passed their model making tests and Billy Head and Eric Munn passed their Reading test.

Jon Spalding won his Artist's Badge with some fine outdoor pictures and animals.

On Saturday, June 6, the Pack is going on a fishing trip. Leave Akela's at 9 a.m. sharp. Bring lunch, fishing gear, worms, wear suitable clothing, cap and knackerchief. We will be home at 4.

During the month of May 30 speeding cases appeared in police court before Magistrate Reid Johnston. All but two were caught by radar. One speeding case was acquitted.

In almost all of the cases the speeders were nabbed in the Trout Creek 40 mile zone. Nearly all of the offenders were from out of town and said they had not noticed the speed reduction signs.

Couple honored on 50th anniversary

Nearly 100 friends and relatives called at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John E. Smith, Prairie Valley Road, on Saturday, to congratulate the couple on the occasion of their 50th wedding anniversary.

The former Miss Olive Watson and John Edward Smith were married at the home of the bride's parents on June 9, 1914, at St. Joseph's Island, Ontario near Sault Ste. Marie.

After living in Saskatchewan and Vancouver they moved to Kelowna and then to Summerland where they have resided for the past 26 years.

They are both members of the Free Methodist Church, and Mrs. Smith has been an active member of the Red Cross, the WMS and the WCTU.

Telegrams of congratulations were received from the Governor-General, Prime Minister Pearson, opposition leader Diefenbaker, Premier Bennett, Lt. Governor Parkes and David Pugh, M.P. Reeve Norman Holmes, ex-

Kelowna still picked for college

Despite a rainy night a goodly number turned up for the monthly meeting and dinner last Thursday of the Chamber of Commerce.

A lively discussion on higher education in the Okanagan featured Dr. Dugal McGregor and John Kitson. Both men said that Summerland could be an ideal choice for the location of a junior college in the valley. Its location between the major centres and nearness to the research station were contributing factors.

School trustee Ken Booth said that there had been a great deal of work done toward the college site at Kelowna recommended in the MacDonald Report, and he felt that it might not be a good idea to inject another site at this late date.

The meeting decided to continue its present endorsement of the Kelowna site.

President F. E. Atkinson read a letter from the office of the Postmaster General stating that the name of the West Summerland post office would be changed to Summerland July 21. Persons served by the Summerland post office are now on the rural route delivery.

Vandals destroying road signs

Damage to road signs is becoming a serious problem. Councillor W. S. Ritchie reported to council Tuesday night.

On one night alone last week, all the stop signs and directional signs on a main road were broken down. Instances of this type of vandalism occur nearly every night.

Works superintendent Ken Blagborne noted that his crew had not been fixing the directional signs lately, and now there is hardly one left in the West Summerland area still standing straight.

Councillor Ritchie said that perhaps auxiliary policemen should be hired to work at night and also to patrol the municipal beaches.

Summerland parks and beaches are in good condition for the summer, Councillor Ritchie reported. The Penticton beach cleaner was used for eight hours at Powell Beach. Additional painting has also been done at Peach Orchard Park.

Buoys will be placed at Crescent Beach to separate the water skiers from the swimming area. A ramp will also be made for boat launching at Crescent Beach.

Because of health problems, council is considering a bylaw to prohibit outdoor parties.

Approval has been received from the department of highways on the new zoning bylaw. A bylaw regulating trailers and mobile homes will be presented next week.

After a tour of municipal dams Mr. Blagborne reported them all in good condition. He said there was still snow on the high levels but the runoff was over the peak.

Miss Estelle Miller, along with Misses Ruth Sproul, Eve Arlege and Phyllis Bradley, all of Edmonton, came by car to visit the beautiful Okanagan during the long week end. It was the first visit for Eve and Phyllis while Ruth has spent several holidays here with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Sproul. They all anticipate a longer holiday here in September.

Over 500 attend annual art exhibit

Over 500 people attended the annual art show in the IOOF Hall last Friday and Saturday.

Guest artists at the show, sponsored by the Summerland Art Club, included Irvine Adams, Peter Ochs, R. Borsos, Percy Ritchie, Harley Brown, Bob Brinton, Mrs. M. Collas and Mary Bull.

On public display for the first time was the wooden sculpture of St. Barnabus, by Wm. LaPlante, which has been commissioned for a Victoria Church.

Voted most popular painting was Down in the Valley by Ted Miles.

The door prize of a hand woven apron by Mrs. G. Ritchie was won by Mrs. Don Esterbrook.

A pottery display was exhibited by Des Loan and Olive Wilson.

Sailing Club opens new clubhouse

The South Okanagan Sailing Association officially opens the doors of its new clubhouse on Thursday.

Located on Okanagan Lake at Evans Point, the attractive Panabode building will be the centre of activity for sailors in the southern end of the valley. The Okanagan Lake itself is classed as one of the top jolly boat lakes in the province. A club spokesman said that since the spring runoff the shoreline is much more satisfactory, and the lake will be well above last year's level. The site has been land-escaped to some extent and members of the club have plans for furthering this work. There are about 24 boats in this region, most of which will be participating in the many sailing meets planned for this season.

An internationally known sailor, George O'Day of Boston, renowned for his handling of the Wetherley against the Australian entry in the American Challenge Cup races will be in Summerland late in July to give a course in advanced sailing. This course is expected to bring sailors from many parts of Canada and the United States

SUGAR AND SPICE

The Image Has Changed

By BILL SMILEY

As the school year draws towards its close, I can't help looking back on the past 10 months, my first hitch as head of the English department in our factory, with a mingling of amazement and amusement.

I am amazed that I have not gone down for the third time in a sea of paper. There were times when I rose to the surface only long enough to gulp a breath of ink, before being swept under by another wave of essays, or book report forms, or memos.

My amusement stems from another source—the old-fashioned image of the English teacher. There just ain't no such thing as a modern image of same.

For many years the image of the English teacher was fairly concrete.

It was that of a wispy, gentle spinster of either sex, wholly dedicated to the written word. The only person in town who actually read poetry. Some kind of a nut who actually believed Shakespeare was thrilling theatre.

When I hold up that image beside the gallery of characters who taught English in my department this year, I chortle. There isn't even the most remote resemblance.

Let's see, now. There's Jack, a vast young man of great good nature and courtly manner, who is a dead ringer for Henry VIII on one of the latter's good days. He's a beer drinker, a collector of antiques and a former advertising salesman.

There's Mac, a former golf pro. He's also an ex-bus driver, ex-house painter, ex-airman. He's an inveterate punster who writes some pretty funny stuff. As witness our production this year of his master-piece, "Julius Seize 'er", in which the principal character was Dr. Bladder from Gaul.

There's Jeanette, five-foot-nothing, 98 pounds of doe-eyed French-Canadian, who spent the first six months trying to convince the other teachers she was not one of the students, who can pin a six-foot 200-pound lout into paralyzed, petrified panic with one flash of those eyes.

There's Geoff, the young Englishman who came here after a year of teaching in a good English grammar school. He planned to spend a year in Canada, as a lark. He was horrified at the free-and-easy attitude of our teen-agers. He was appalled at our materialism and love of comfort. Now he has a car on the never-never plan, and is beefing about his salary. In short, he's become a typical Canadian.

We also have a gal who graduated in music, a former ambulance driver, an ex-chartered accountant, a dream-shattered social worker, and a lady who got sick of housekeeping.

Not only do these birds not fit the old image of the English teacher; they don't fit the new one, either. There's not a beard in the bunch, an esthete in the ensemble, a pansy in the patch.

And not one, thank goodness, is "dedicated" to the teaching of English. None shivers in ecstasy over a sonnet, bursts into tears over the beauty of an ode. But I daresay my polyglot, hardworking crew has taught the kids more about English and about life than many an old gal whose idea of heaven was to make a journey to England and stand in reverence before the graves of the poets.

Who wants me?

by MEW

Who wants me? This question is being asked by many little newcomers to this community and many other communities in this province. Who wants me? and a rightful question it is, because every child born into the world needs and desires parents.

Welfare agencies in the Summerland district have become concerned of late over the lack of applications from parents wishing to take one or more of these little ones into their home. Possibly it is unfair to say there are fewer willing parents, only more babies are available today. At the moment in this district alone, there are six little ones waiting in foster homes for the right parents to make application so they can be fitted into the complete home environment they need.

The derision to adopt a child is possibly one of the most momentous a couple can make and in a wise decision the husband and wife Continued on back page

IMPEESA IMPS FROM TROUT CREEK

The June 2 meeting was held in the Church of God. This is the first time we have had to go indoors on account of rain.

The Cubs working for their First Star are now working on their Knot Test. This will require some practice at home and remember you must know what the knots are used for. The Cleanliness and the Growing Things Tests are now due, if you have not turned yours in, get at it.

The One Star Cubs finished their Knot Tests and the Two Star Cubs are making Scout staves and camp gadgets.

Morley Strachan was awarded his Three Year Service Star, Grant Gale his Two Year, and Chris McIntosh his First Star. Alan Fisher, Grant Gale, Jon Spalding and Chris McIntosh passed the clove hitch and bowline knots for their Second Star Knot Test.

The fishing trip to Garnett Valley Dam was successful although the weather was not clear. The boys caught lots of fish but not many trout, most of the fish were shiners. On the way home we did not make contact with our transportation because two trees had fallen across the road, blocking it. However, we found an old cross cut saw and axes at the mill and cleared the road again and thus got home, although a little late.

Truth and error

by Rev. D. M. Rathjen

"Beloved, believe not every spirit, but try the spirits whether they are of God: because many false prophets are gone out into the world" 1 John 4:1.

The presence of truth and error in the world, in spiritual matters, is a reality that most would recognize. Many seem at a loss, however, to determine what is truth and what is error. Some would ask, "Who is qualified to judge?" Certainly the diversity of opinions that exists is evidence that we must have a criterion more reliable than man's intellect.

Thank God, we are able to turn with assurance to His Word, the Holy Scriptures, that says: "Hereby know we the spirit of truth and the spirit of error. 1 John 4:6. The reference is made to verses two and three of 1 John, chapter 4. "Hereby know ye the Spirit of God: every spirit that confesseth that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh is of God; and every spirit that confesseth not that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh is not of God: and this is that spirit of Anti-Christ whereof we have heard that it should come and even now already is it in the world."

The determining factor

then, is what the scriptures teach about Jesus Christ.

Mrs. J. L. Brown honored at presentation tea Friday

Members of the board of directors and permanent staff of the Summerland Co-operative Growers' Association attended a presentation tea at 3:00 p.m. Friday, June 5 in the Co-op cafeteria in honor of Mrs. J. L. Brown, who is retiring from the permanent staff this month.

Mrs. Brown has been a part time employee from 1942 to 1950, and on the permanent staff from 1950 to 1964.

W. B. Powell spoke on behalf of the Association and conveyed best wishes from the Board. Wm. McElheron expressed thanks for her many years of service and co-operation while on the staff.

A portable typewriter was presented to Mrs. Brown from the Board and staff.

Conveners for the occasion were Mrs. Claude Haddrell, Mrs. Norris Laidlaw, Mrs. Wm. McElheron, Mrs. Phil Dunsdon and Mrs. W. Fell.

PERSONAL

Lloyd Miller of Summerland along with two brothers Mel and Arthur, and another friend, all from Cañon, Alta. travelled by train to their birthplace in Truro, Nova Scotia. This is their first visit back in 52 years. They expect to return in a couple of weeks.

Councillor and Mrs. W. S. Ritchie, Mrs. Jack Dunsdon and Mrs. T. Croil attended the testimonial dinner given for Mrs. Muriel Ffoulkes in Kelowna recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry McKee are motoring to Kimberley for the week end where they will be the guests of their son and daughter in law. Mr and Mrs. W. G. McKee. On their return they will be accompanied by their daughter, Vicki, who has graduated from the Selkirk Secondary School.

Music teachers decide on minimum fees

The final meeting for this year of the local branch of the B.C. Registered Music Teachers was held recently at the home of Miss Kay Hamilton of Summerland. Present were Mrs. Agnes Sutherland, Mrs. D. Haughton, of Oliver; Mrs. Dorothy Fraser, Osoyoos; Mrs. Helen Sylvester, Mrs. Nettie Hughes, Miss Frances Latimer, Mrs. Barbara Smith, all of Penticton; and Mrs. Bethel Steele, Kelowna.

Main item of business was a discussion regarding a notice received from the B.C. secretary of the Dominion-wide Registered Music Teachers organization the subject of fees for music lessons. It was agreed unanimously that members of the local group would in the future comply with this regulation that all teachers charge a set minimum fee.

Future Teachers Club records successful year

The Future Teachers Club at the secondary school started in October. Officers for the year were Pat McCutcheon, president; Linda Charles vice president; Evelyn Pelletier, secretary treasurer.

The club was under the sponsorship of Mr. McInnes, a member of the teaching staff. The club's main purpose is to acquaint members with the teaching profession. Throughout the year we made three visits to the MacDonal and Trout Creek Schools, twice to observe and once to teach a lesson.

Other activities of the club included the sending of two delegates, John Rathion and Pat McCutcheon to the Future Teachers Conference at UBC.

Members of the group also observed kindergarten and opportunity classes and heard from the student teachers in the school.

Homemade Chutney

Chutney, the traditional accompaniment to curry dishes, is equally delicious when served as a relish or accent to any meat. Imported chutney is very expensive, but it is an easy matter to make your own from the following recipe. To make it more elegant, add preserved ginger and use small golden raisins.

APPLE AND JELLY CHUTNEY
12 tart apples, peeled and chopped
1 onion, chopped
1 clove garlic, minced
2 green peppers, chopped
1 sweet pepper, chopped
1 cup jelly
Juice of 4 lemons
2 cups sugar
1 Tbsp. salt
2 cups vinegar
1 cup seeded raisins
2 Tbsp. Lea & Perrins Worcestershire Sauce

Combine all ingredients except raisins and Worcestershire in large saucepan. Simmer 1 hour, stirring occasionally. Add raisins and simmer 1 hour longer, stirring occasionally. Add Worcestershire. Seal in sterilized jars. Makes four pints.

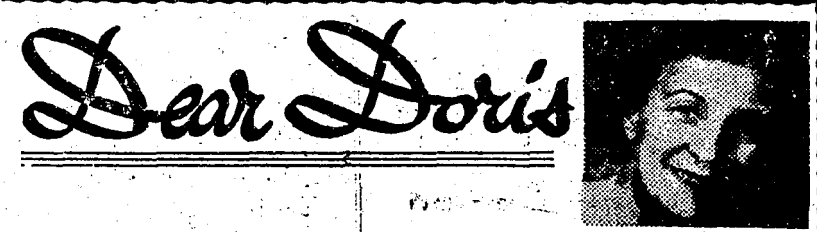

Recipe of the Month

Most of us discover at an early age the delights of that part of the meal called dessert. And from childhood on, this remains the favorite course to plan, prepare and happily devour! For the budding baker of the family or for your own party menus, here's a sweet dish that takes but minutes to make, yet has all the qualifications of a good dessert. It's good to look at, good to eat—made the easiest way possible with a roll of refrigerated butter-scotch nut cookies and canned strawberry pie filling. These two convenience foods are the only ingredients you'll need to create these Strawberry Filled Cookie Tortes. You'll find the crisp nut-studded cookies a pleasant flavor partner for the bright, fruit-fresh berries.

STRAWBERRY FILLED COOKIE TORTES
1 roll refrigerated butter-scotch nut cookies
1 can (2 1/2 cups) strawberry pie filling

Cut cookie roll into slices 1/4 inch thick. Arrange in groups of three on ungreased cookie sheets with edges overlapping slightly to form cloverleafs. Bake at 375° for 7 to 9 minutes, until golden brown. Cool one minute before removing. Place a cookie layer on each plate, add 1/4 cup pie filling and top with second cookie layer. Top with more filling and sweetened whipped cream. Baked. Makes 6 to 8 tortes.

DEAR DORIS — I recently became engaged to a wonderful boy. He gives me everything I want but I am too spoiled. We fight over the silliest things, and I finally learned my lesson the hard way.

You see, we had a fight and I took my ring off and I dropped it in the car window and now it is gone and we cannot find it. My boy friend didn't get mad or anything. I started crying and he just pampered me and said he would get me another one.

I will never be able to forgive myself for losing my ring. I cannot take another ring. How can I make up for my first ring? Should I pay for it? UNHAPPY

DEAR UNHAPPY — Can you call a halt on being in love with yourself and start showing you are in love with him?

Your indulgent lover is not the type to help you mature so your happiness depends on your own self-discipline. Save up and replace the ring for a start.

DEAR DORIS — My husband comes home and eats his meal without speaking. He listens more to his sister than to me. He doesn't even notice me at all. He doesn't want the children to play with him.

He sure talks nice to the other girls. The only time he opens his mouth is when someone comes over but not to me. IGNORED

DEAR DORIS — He's the user when he passes up family fun. What has happened to the fun you used to have? Just in case a self-improvement program might help, I am sending you my list of books on Sex and Marriage. (Note to readers: This list will be mailed to anyone writing in and enclosing a stamped envelope.)

DEAR DORIS — I lost my husband in an accident. We had a lot of employes, friends and different businessmen that he dealt with who sent me sympathy cards, flowers and letters.

Now I have not answered any of these. I feel that I should but don't know how to go about it.

A LONELY WIDOW — DEAR WIDOW — Since two months have elapsed, say something like this:

"I hope you will forgive me for taking so long to acknowledge your kind expression of sympathy. I don't know what I would have done without the interest and concern of friends like you when I lost my husband so suddenly."

"George was a fine man and a wonderful husband. He valued his friends a great deal and often spoke about you. Please accept my gratitude for the lovely flowers." Or fill in whatever applies.

To Ambitious — You are bound to have special talents, and your life's work should tally with them. Write to me in care of this newspaper, enclosing ten cents and a five-cent-stamped envelope, for my leaflet on Choosing a Career.

The Summerland Junior Red Sox were defeated for the second time in a row on Sunday by the Penticton Juniors. Final score 9-5. The Red Sox took a two run lead in the second inning but were unable to hold the lead as Penticton tied the score in the third and went ahead to stay after scoring a single run in the fourth.

Penticton outhit the local team 10-5 and played heads up, scrappy ball while the Red Sox looked dead and should have been in bed rather than on a ball diamond.

Sheeley with a double and a single, Dent with two singles and McInnis with one single were the only hitters for the Red Sox. Walton started on the mound for Summerland and was charged with the loss. He was relieved by Sheeley in the sixth.

The game scheduled for Sunday in Grand Forks has been set back to the end of the season as exam time has caught up with most of the players.

New record set at track meet

Several school records were broken on Friday at the Trout Creek school sports day. Outstanding achievement of the track meet, according to Ray McNabb of the teaching staff, was a record jump of 12 ft. 6 in., in the 11 year old boys broad jump event. Making this new record was Allan Rasmussen who also took first place in the same event in the Southern Okanagan Elementary Track Meet at Oliver last week end.

Other pupils breaking records were Rodney Hickson with a broad jump of 10'9" in the 9 year old age group, Allan Rasmussen with a high jump of 3'11" in the 11 year old age group, Anne Porritt with a broad jump of 11'10" in the 11 year old age group, and Barbara Porritt with a broad jump of 12'1" and a high jump of 3'11" in the 12 year old group.

Participation in all events was excellent with all pupils attempting to earn points for their team. The Whites under captains Janet May and Morley Strachan won the track meet. Captains of the Reds were Barbara Porritt and Bobby Thompson and of the Blues, Dianne Hodson and David Gartrell. The W. R. Powell Memorial Shield for Sports Competition will be awarded to the winning team captains on Awards Day, June 25.

Although the winners of the F. R. Gartrell Trophies for best boy and girl athlete year until Awards Day, Mrs. H. Hackman mentioned for girls Agne Porritt and Barbara Porritt. The race for the boys trophy is very close and boys who have done very well include Matthew Moys, last year's winner; Bobby Thompson, Morley Strachan, Allas Rasmussen and Bruce Gartrell.

The Trout Creek PTA sponsors the sport day each year and provides hot dogs, ice cream and pop for the pupils. Mrs. A. Bombardier was in charge of the arrangements this year. Her committee heads are Mrs. A. Moys, Mrs. W. Johnston, Mrs. S. Buddingh, and Mrs. G. Halvorson.

John Cooke, supervising principal, was pleased with the large turnout of parents and friends. The next event at Trout Creek school will be the Awards Day on Thursday, June 25 at 11.

WHO WANTS ME?

Continued from page 3 must be of the same mind and heart in the matter. I can think of any number of children in our own community who are 'chosen children', and what a delight they are to their parents and other members of the family.

Contrary to the old idea that only childless couples adopt children, many parents today are adding one or two members to their growing family by adopting. Many of these children are infants, some are in older age groups.

Parents generally must be under 50 years of age and be able to offer the child a reasonable standard of living and reasonable security.

Last year in B.C., 941 couples opened their hearts and homes to these little ones. Among these, 172 had special physical needs.

The local welfare branch also has a number of older children who would fit in well with a couple who would like a child past the infant stage. Some of these are in family groups, which creates special problems, as the welfare agency likes to place them into one home.

Last year, there were more parent applications than babies available. This is a switch from the past when many parents were on the waiting list for years.

Of course, extreme care is taken by the authorities to match the child to his prospective parents, keeping in mind physical characteristics of the child and his natural talents, with educational and religious background also entering into consideration.

Most of these children are illegitimate, although there are some married parents who feel they must give up a child as well as some parents who are simply incapable of caring for their children. Homes for all of these must be found.

What about your home? Perhaps you have room in your heart for one of these homeless ones. If you do, the Penticton Welfare Office will be happy to talk to you.

MAPS NOW ON DISPLAY

Public hearing on zoning bylaw July 6

Moments after the Senate approved the Columbia Treaty, Dr. H. L. Keenleyside, B.C. Hydro chairman, was advised by phone of the decision. Twenty-five minutes after the affirmative vote in the Senate Chambers, Dr. Keenleyside signed a letter awarding a $117,000 contract to Spasum Lumber Company of Clinton for clearing of the Duncan Dam site, 26 miles north of Kaslo.

Hunting, fishing outlined on map

Visitors to this area who like out of the way lakes and resorts at which to holiday, will get a great deal of benefit from the large directional map which the Summerland Rod and Gun Club has projected and painted on a 5x6 foot plywood signboard.

The map will be placed near the Chamber of Commerce tourist information booth on Highway 97, and should be helpful both to the travelling public and any one from here who is unfamiliar with roads to mountain lakes. Done in shades of blue and green it shows principally the reasonably accessible lakes for fishing, hunting areas, and some of the camps where fishermen and hunters can find accommodation.

Boat rental stations are also marked and the legend clearly indicates the type of road and states suitability to various vehicles. It also notes the Giant Head Tours from Bud's Garage. Mr. Rusaw has also indicated his willingness to jeep fishermen and sightseers into other hunting and fishing lakes.

The map lists points where four wheel vehicles are available.

A small insertion in the corner of the map shows the community parks and points of interest in Summerland.

The idea for such a map originally was presented to the sportsmen's club by Jim Heavysides. Bill Eyre made the actual map and Alf Kohlhauser made the protection and then spent many hours transferring it to the plywood.

The sign was displayed at this month's Chamber of Commerce meeting.

A new zoning bylaw was given first, second and third reading at an adjourned council meeting Wednesday afternoon. The 61 page document took over an hour to read to council.

The principal purpose of this bylaw is to guide the natural growth of the district in a systematic and orderly way, which will ultimately benefit the community as a whole. The new zoning bylaw will ensure that various uses made of land and structures are in proper relationship to one another.

For the purpose of this by-law Summerland has been divided into zones under four main classifications with subclassifications.

First is the Greenbelt zone divided into agriculture, small holdings and recreational.

The second classification, residential breaks down into single family, single and two family; multi family; motel and auto court trailer and mobile homes.

The third group is commercial and contains central commercial, local commercial and gas station commercial.

The industrial zone contains distribution; trucking and processing, gasoline and liquid fuel and bulk storage, industrial manufacturing and service industries.

The by law lays out fairly specifically what may be contained within each zone.

A public hearing on the new bylaw will be held on Monday, July 6 in the municipal office at 8 p.m.

Any resident who wishes to be heard on matters pertaining to the bylaw is asked to submit their questions in writing prior to the meeting.

Copies of the new zoning bylaw and maps designating the areas may be seen at the municipal office.

Fruit prospects still good despite wet weather

Rainy, cool weather has somewhat deteriorated the fruit crop situation over the past two weeks. Up to that time the prospects were for a fairly good crop in most varieties. How much damage the wet weather has done and what the prospects will be with continued cool weather will be determined later on.

Due to this last heavy downpour, district horticulturist A. W. Watt is urging growers to spray apples with Cyrex without delay. Mr. Watt said that this scab spray is generally applied 60 hours after the onset of rain, and even those orchardists who have not had scab problems are being urged to apply it for extra insurance.

Delicious growers should have good prospects this year, although the crop may be down a little from last year's bumper record. However, Macintosh and Newtowns are definitely down from last year, but may stack up to the 1962 tonnage.

Peaches are good this year; much heavier than last year and to date have appeared disease free.

Apricots are a very heavy set this year, however at this early date it is hard for the growers to know just how much fruit they will pick. It appears fairly disease free. The demand today is heaviest for the cannery cots, Blenham and Tildens. Moorparks, the large eating cots, are somewhat overproduced, but since a number of local growers are pulling out Moorparks, by the end of the year this production should be levelling out.

The cherry crop in this area looks good, with frost damage in a few low lying areas. The cherries are filling out nicely and showing some color, the only threat, other than a heavy downpour on the ripe fruit (as happened last year at picking time) is brown rot which can be controlled by spray.

Bartlett pears are patchy this year, but the Anjou crop, which is growing in popularity on the market, is looking good.

Sherlock Holmes surely never put his famous glass to such use, but local growers are now being asked to equip themselves with a 15 power hand lens to track down mites in their trees. The mites are too small for the naked eye to see and the growers are effectively entering the fight against these tiny mites using the glasses to ferret them out.

The farm labor office in Summerland reports that up to the present time there is a great lack of experienced workers reporting. During the past two weeks only 12 workers have applied, and these mainly unskilled.

The orchardists realize at present the difficulty in securing skilled workers, therefore are accepting any person willing to work.

However the situation should change in the near future, when the schools are out, thereby freeing students for work. In most cases they have had some orchard experience.

So far, very few workers are reporting from outside areas.

Teachers make presentation to retiring sec.-treas.

Special guests of the Summerland Teachers Association at its final supper meeting of the year, held in the Anglican Parish Hall on June 8, were B. A. Tingley, recently retired secretary treasurer of the school district, and Mrs. Tingley, a former member of the teaching staff here.

E. F. Weekes, president of the association, presented Mr. Tingley with a lawn lounge as a gift from the teachers in honor of his many years of service, and Mrs.

Tingley received a carnation corsage.

In a short, sparkling speech expressing his thanks for the gift, Mr. Tingley remarked that the teachers had sometimes been misled by the fact that although he had been most helpful when they first arrived, they found that he seemed more on the taxpayers' side when any question of salary increases came up. This was really for their own good, he explained, because "whom the gods wish to destroy, they first make rich" and he had always been most solicitous to preserve the teaching staff from destruction.

LaVerne Lynn won the $100 public speaking award donated by F. C. Christian.

Ruby Mercer is host of Opera Time, a listening must for opera fans, heard coast to coast on CBC radio each Saturday afternoon.

Doll collection feature for fair

The regular June meeting of the Women's Institute took the form of a garden party arranged by the agriculture committee at the lovely lakeside home of Mrs. Ewart Woolliams. In the absence of the president Mrs. Inch who was away as delegate to the provincial WI conference at Vancouver

Mrs. J. Gray, vice president chaired the meeting.

A few committee reports were given and members were asked to continue saving used stamps for the QA Solarium, and also old nylons which would be used when cut into 2½ inch strips to make slippers for the Unitarian overseas relief work.

Discussion concerning arrangements for the WI's participation in the fall fair, covered several aspects of it and organization was well started.

A collection of 16 dolls beautifully dressed in costumes depicting historical Canadian events will be imported and suitably mounted to be one of the most attractive displays at the fair.

The September meeting will be held on the 4th to finalize details concerning the fair.

Mrs. Rumball reported that Mrs. Rothwell had been chosen as a B.C. delegate to the dominion WI conference at Wolfville, Nova Scotia next week and also that Laverne Lynn had been awarded the WI Bronze Bowl and a WI cookbook for her outstanding work in Home Economics.

When the meeting adjourned the agriculture committee produced boxes of remnants of materials, ribbons etc. and all members were asked to show their artistic ability by creating something to adorn themselves. Those who did not create acted as judges and they chose Mrs. F. Nicholls as the bride and her train bearer, Miss Sophie Atkinson as first; and Mrs. Gordon Ritchie in a gorgeous millinery creation as second. A delicious tea was served to complete a delightful outdoor meeting.

Miss Howden invited members and friends to a coffee party at her Trout Creek home on Thursday, June 25 at 10:30 a.m.

Dear Doris

Have a problem? Write to Canadian social worker Doris Clark in care of this newspaper.

DEAR DORIS: I have two sweet little boys ages three and five. They play often with a boy of about 11 years who lives right across the street. I like this boy and never was suspicious about him.

But one day another neighbor of mine told me that this boy molests little children sexually. Believe me, I was shocked and from that time on I have made sure that my boys were inside when he came home from school.

I do not want to hurt his parents' feelings but on the other hand I am so afraid that something might happen to my little boys. Since you always give such good advice, perhaps you can tell me what to do. Should I go to his mother and ask her about it? Perhaps she doesn't even know.

MOMMY

DEAR MOMMY: Right now your little ones can't understand or cope with such behavior. Keep them in your own back yard.

Simply tell the offender you want your sons playing with boys their own age. Talking to his mother will get you nothing, but resentment, unless she is a highly unusual person.

DEAR DORIS: My boy friend and I went together for two months pretty steady. Then he went to work in another city.

He says he is saving his money to buy a home. The way he talks he's serious about having a wife. He seems to like me but didn't tell me to wait for him. On his letters he puts "Dear One," and "Love" at the end.

Should I do the same?
THINKING OF HIM

DEAR THINKING: No, not even if he calls you "Future Wife"—without a declaration offered and accepted.

DEAR DORIS: My husband and I are going to make a trip to Switzerland in July. My husband has two sisters, a stepmother and 10 stepbrothers and step-sisters. I feel they expect us to bring gifts from Canada, but as there are so many (and children besides), I don't think I could bring them all something.

Could I give some and not all or just something for his stepmother?

NOT STINGY

DEAR NOT STINGY: A family gift's the answer—maybe food, Canadian or homemade. Maple syrup or maple sugar or a slab of fruit cake from your own recipe. Or jam made of Canadian fruit. Or all four. They'll all dig in and love it.

It's the thought that counts. No one wants you to impoverish yourselves.

DEAR DORIS: I am a Canadian who has lived in the States for the last six years. If I get a divorce down here, how effective will it be when I move back to Canada?

ALWAYS A CANUCK

DEAR ALWAYS: Quite effective. There is reciprocity between the U.S. and Canada when it comes to divorce since you are a U.S. resident. But, if you were to cross the border, set up housekeeping for a few months in order to get a divorce and then return here, your divorce would not be recognized in Canada.

SUGAR AND SPICE

Dear Old Dad

By BILL SMILEY

Probably the biggest piece of pure poppycock on our calendar is the Sunday in June designated as Father's Day.

Bill Smiley

It is almost as silly as celebrating the birthday of Queen Victoria (on the nearest Monday), or adopting that pretty, but uninspiring thing, the maple leaf, as our flag symbol.

That's because, like queens' birthdays and flags, fathers are anachronisms, things that belong to the dead, dead past of empires and gallantry and family solidarity.

The empire has disappeared, the flag has become something to quibble about, and fathers have turned into cartoon characters.

We have become increasingly a mother-dominated society. But in trying to prove that Mom doesn't have clay feet, we have casually accepted the theory that father has a dough head.

The word "father" is never used any more, as a term of address. The only place it crops up in in sociological and psychological terms, such as "father image" or "father figure."

It's been a wild swing of the pendulum, and it is a sad and bitter thing, this degeneration from Father to Daddy, but I can't help pointing out that we have brought it upon ourselves, chaps.

The Trojans opened the gates and dragged in that big, wooden horse. The Arab let the camel stick his nose into the tent, to keep warm. Father achieved the same end by relinquishing the purse-strings to that brave, little woman with a heart of gold and a will of iron—Mom.

Next, he began to listen to a lot of third-rate tripe, mostly in the form of articles in women's magazines. Thus, he fell prey to such clap-trap as "family togetherness," and "being a pal" to his children, and "talking things out" with his wife.

Then, under the bullying of his wife and the relentless heckling of his children, he forsook principles for possessions, and happily hopped aboard the treadmill of proving that he could bring home as much bacon as the poor, harassed, coronary-bound character next door.

Slaying like a pit pony, and attacked for it by his family, he was still expected to help with the dishes, mow the lawn, entertain at parties arranged by his wife, and drive 300 miles on the week end to visit relatives.

Thus, the comfortable paunch which was a measure of Father's success became Dad's pot-belly, a sign that he wasn't doing his 5BX. Thus, Father's ominous look and cuff on the ear became Daddy's whine that he would cut off the allowance. Thus Father's majestic carving of the family roast became Dad's inept spooning out of the meatballs smothered in canned mushroom soup.

Not a pretty picture? Right. What are you going to do about it, Jack? Will you join me in trying to convert dithering Daddy into fearless Father?

Shall we grow beards, get rid of the blubber, pound the kids once a week, and tell the old lady we're going fishing when we damnwell feel like it?

What's that? You agree, and you'll join the movement on Monday, but right now you have to help Mom do the shopping? All right. Don't say you weren't asked.

The moment of truth

by Rev. P. K. Louie

It was Emerson who said the great moments of life are not birth, marriage or death or any of the big events we record in the book. They are, rather, the high moments of illumination on some quiet afternoon at the turn of the road, or the opening of a door when a new insight breaks through to the mind, and from there on life moves in a new direction. These are the real birthdays of the spirit, the magical moments of truth, insight and illumination.

Out of the Past

June 18, 1915

The Baptist ice cream social put $34.60 into the Okanagan Ambulance League fund.

Sunday boat service during the fruit shipping season was giving concern to Summerland. To date the CPR sent out barges only on weekdays.

A $150 prize was offered by the WI and the provincial dept. of agriculture for the best and neatest kept lot in the municipality.

June 18, 1925

The golf club course was underway on land leased from council in Paradise Flats. The land was rented to the club for $25 yearly.

Bowls for the new bowling green had been ordered and a large number of people had signed up for the game.

The A. MacLachlan Greenhouses shipped ripened tomatoes for the first of the season this week. Cucumbers were also shipped.

June 20, 1935

W. G. Baskin was nominated to the Natural Products Marketing Scheme, the registered growers organization.

Work started this week on the junction of Giant's Head and Gulch Roads. Widening would be done to Gulch Road.

Fresh cod was selling for 15c a pound.

There are many such moments recorded in the Bible, none more impressively described than Isaiah's story of his own conversion. "I saw the Lord" said Isaiah. "In the year the king died I saw the Lord high and lifted up." (Isaiah 6:1). That moment for him was marked by this experience when somebody, who was everybody, died. That is when his heart was heavy; his mind confused, when he was shaken to the depths.

What did this moment of truth mean for Isaiah? Well first, he got his eyes on something big — God. We often become so wrapped up in small anxieties, small ideas, small concerns; so preoccupied with them that before we know it we are "prisoners of the unimportant" with our eyes on the ground. We need the tonic of bigness. When we forget the eternity of our being, life loses its meaning. And if you are looking for a clue to the intolerable boredom of our time, the emptiness of so much we give our time to, you'll find it here. We are part of a generation which has lost the vision of our immortality. It's always a moment of truth when we remember it, lift up our eyes to the greatness of God and the eternity of life.

Another thing which made that a moment of truth for Isaiah was that he fixed his eyes on something certain. "In the year the king died, I saw the Lord." When the world is shaken and chaotic and confused, what is it that man needs most to know? Is it not this, know in the inner depths of him, that around him, above him and beneath him is the strong hand of God, that God lives, that He is not shaken by man's confusion; that the final issues are in His hands, not man's?

Thirdly, it was a moment of truth for Isaiah because he fixed his eyes on something searching and therefore saving. "I saw Him," said Isaiah. And in one painful moment, he saw himself. And what he saw there didn't make him happy. Never before had he such a searching look at himself. He didn't leap to his feet in the joy of a fresh discovery. His head went down in to his hands in stunned, unutterable shame. "Woe is me. I am lost — unclean. For my eyes have seen the King, the Lord of hosts." This marked the beginning of his salvation. He saw what he was and also what he could become. It is most his man to that which is holy and true that he finds God or is found by Him.

THIS CHANGING WORLD

Soap was originally a Gallic invention "for giving a bright hue to the hair." Pliny, the Roman writer of the 1st century, tells us this. A complete soapmaking shop was found in the ruins of Pompeii. The soap in it, preserved since 79 A.D., contained the basic ingredients of soap as we know it today, but in a much cruder form.

Since World War II, America's housewives have turned to detergents for many cleaning tasks, and this heavier use has resulted in the appearance of detergent "foam" on some streams and rivers. In the early 1950's, the soap and detergent industry began a multi-million dollar research program to combat this problem.

New "soft" detergents have now been developed, and all U.S. detergent manufacturers will voluntarily convert their brandname products to the new materials by December, 1965. The new detergents have a sharply reduced capacity to foam after home use, and proper sewage treatment.

Students tour disposal plant

The grade 6 pupils of Mr Stent's class in MacDonald School recently demonstrated that the saying 'You can't keep a good man down' is true of boys and girls as well.

Because they became so interested in a science unit on 'How to keep a community healthy' they wanted to take a trip to see Penticton's modern sewage disposal plant. When Mr. Stent went to arrange it, however the school's financial cupboard was bare as far as funds for such trips are concerned.

Undaunted the pupils discussed ways and means and ended up by holding a non-cash sale in the school on June 5. That day they sold 200 bags of popcorn and had passed and sold some when smoke and smell had lifted and expenses were all deducted, they had cleared enough to pay for a bus for their trip.

So on Wednesday, June 10 the 35 pupils and their teacher were able to go to Penticton and see over one of the most modern and efficient sewage disposal plants in B.C. Mr. Anderson, local sanitarian explained it out beforehand, and he and the staff of the disposal plant showed the youngsters around in four groups and explained every detail.

After leaving the sewage disposal plant the class had a quick look at the modern way of disposing of garbage, the sanitary landfill which in Penticton has replaced the open dump. Then they came back to school with a store of new information and experience and $5 to spare which they voted to donate to the Junior Red Cross.

Painting

classes in park start June 26

Registrations are now being accepted for the Painting in the Park classes under the instruction of Mrs. John Tamblin. These classes have been held for a number of years and are under the auspices of the Federation of Canadian Artists. Five other valley communities hold similar classes and the response over the years has been excellent.

The children, 6 to 16, are given basic instruction in techniques according to age groups and are encouraged to do creative work.

The fee of $10 covers the entire course, and the children are provided with all the necessary materials for their work.

The classes will be held two mornings a week and are ten weeks in duration. Registration day is June 26 at 1:30 p.m. in the Memorial Park.

Registration forms are available from the West Summerland library or by contacting Mrs. Tamblin.

Museum Notes

The Museum Group was very fortunate the other day to have several window sash donated. These were of various sizes, most of them had made by the Nelson Bros. These will serve as tops for display cases. Now we need to find spare tables these can be used on. If you have any, phone George Lewis, Jack Dunsdon, George Henry or Dan Spencers.

And here's a place where old timers can help out. The Summerland post office was started in 1902 and West Summerland in 1910. There was also Gartrell post office from 1907 to 1914, Balcomo from 1908 to 1913, and Mineola from 1915 to 1922. A display will be put together showing Summerland's postal history. Any picture post cards or envelopes with these cancellations in the earlier years will be appreciated. Mrs. Collas has provided a Balcomo, who has early Summerland, West Summerland, Gartrell or Mineola? The name of the donor may be listed if you so wish.

Services Friday for Mrs. Grace A. Muir

Mrs. Grace Amelia Muir passed away in Summerland Hospital, Tuesday, June 16 at the age of 46 years. Born in Ilford, England, Mrs. Muir had been a resident of Summerland for the past 10 years.

Re: Zoning By-law No. 1016

NOTICE is hereby given that a PUBLIC HEARING on By Law No. 1016 will be held in the MUNICIPAL OFFICE in West Summerland, B.C. at 8:00 p.m. on MONDAY, JULY 6, 1964, to deal with Zoning Regulations proposed to be adopted within the boundaries of the District of Summerland.

The proposed Zoning By Law No. 1016 is intended to assist in among other things:

(a) The prevention of overcrowding of land, and the preservation of the amenities peculiar to any zone.

(b) The value of the land and the nature of its present and prospective use and occupancy

(c) The conservation of property values.

Copies of proposed By-Law No. 1016 and zoning maps may be inspected in the Municipal Office, West Summerland during regular office hours.

All persons who wish to be heard on matters pertaining to the contents and application of Zoning By-law No. 1016 are asked to submit their inquiries in writing prior to the meeting.

Dated at West Summerland, B.C.
this 18th day of June, 1964

G. D. SMITH,
Municipal Clerk

Under The Giant's Head

Retail stores in Summerland will switch to summer hours during July and August.

Commencing June 29, the stores will be open all day Monday from 8:30 a.m. to 5:30 p.m.

This year stores will be open Friday nights until 8 p.m. and closed Saturdays at 5:30 p.m. The first Friday night opening is July 3.

Store hours during the rest of the week will be 8:30 to 5:30.

Stores will be closed Wednesday, July 1 in observance of Dominion Day.

A four week summer school will be in session at the secondary school from July 6 to 31 offering academic courses to the students in classes where sufficient interest is shown.

These courses offer reviews of fundamentals for the purpose of giving marginal failure students an opportunity of raising their standards sufficiently to pass exams to be written July 31.

Summerland Trail Riders had their first trail ride of the season on Sunday. The ride was organized by Bob Chalmers.

Being a beautiful sunny day, there were 31 riders who took part. The ride started on North Prairie Valley Road at 1:30 p.m., went around Cartwright Mountain and came out on Garnett Valley Road.

The group then rode to Roy and Olive Bertram's home where they were served a lovely lunch.

More trail rides are planned throughout the summer and fall.

The West Summerland library is featuring an interesting and original art show until the end of next week. The beautifully mounted works were done by pupils of the MacDonald and Trout Creek Schools and are well worth a trip to see.

A short time ago someone called the RCMP office asking for part of a car top carrier which he had lost, hanging up before the constable could get his number. A few days later the carrier was turned in and is now waiting for the owner to pick it up.

Watch that speed! In order to curb the excessive speeding on Gulch Road, municipal council will ask RCMP to place radar traps in that area in the near future.

A hobby shop specializing in coins, stamps and rocks will open in Summerland this Saturday. It is located north of the Review office on North Victoria Road, in the premises formerly occupied by Ken Stuart.

It will be operated by Mrs. Margaret Taylor and she plans to have an extensive display of stamps and coins out for the Saturday opening.

Mrs. Taylor and her husband, Dr. J. N. Taylor spent many years at Dawson Creek, and have now moved to a home on Prairie Valley Road.

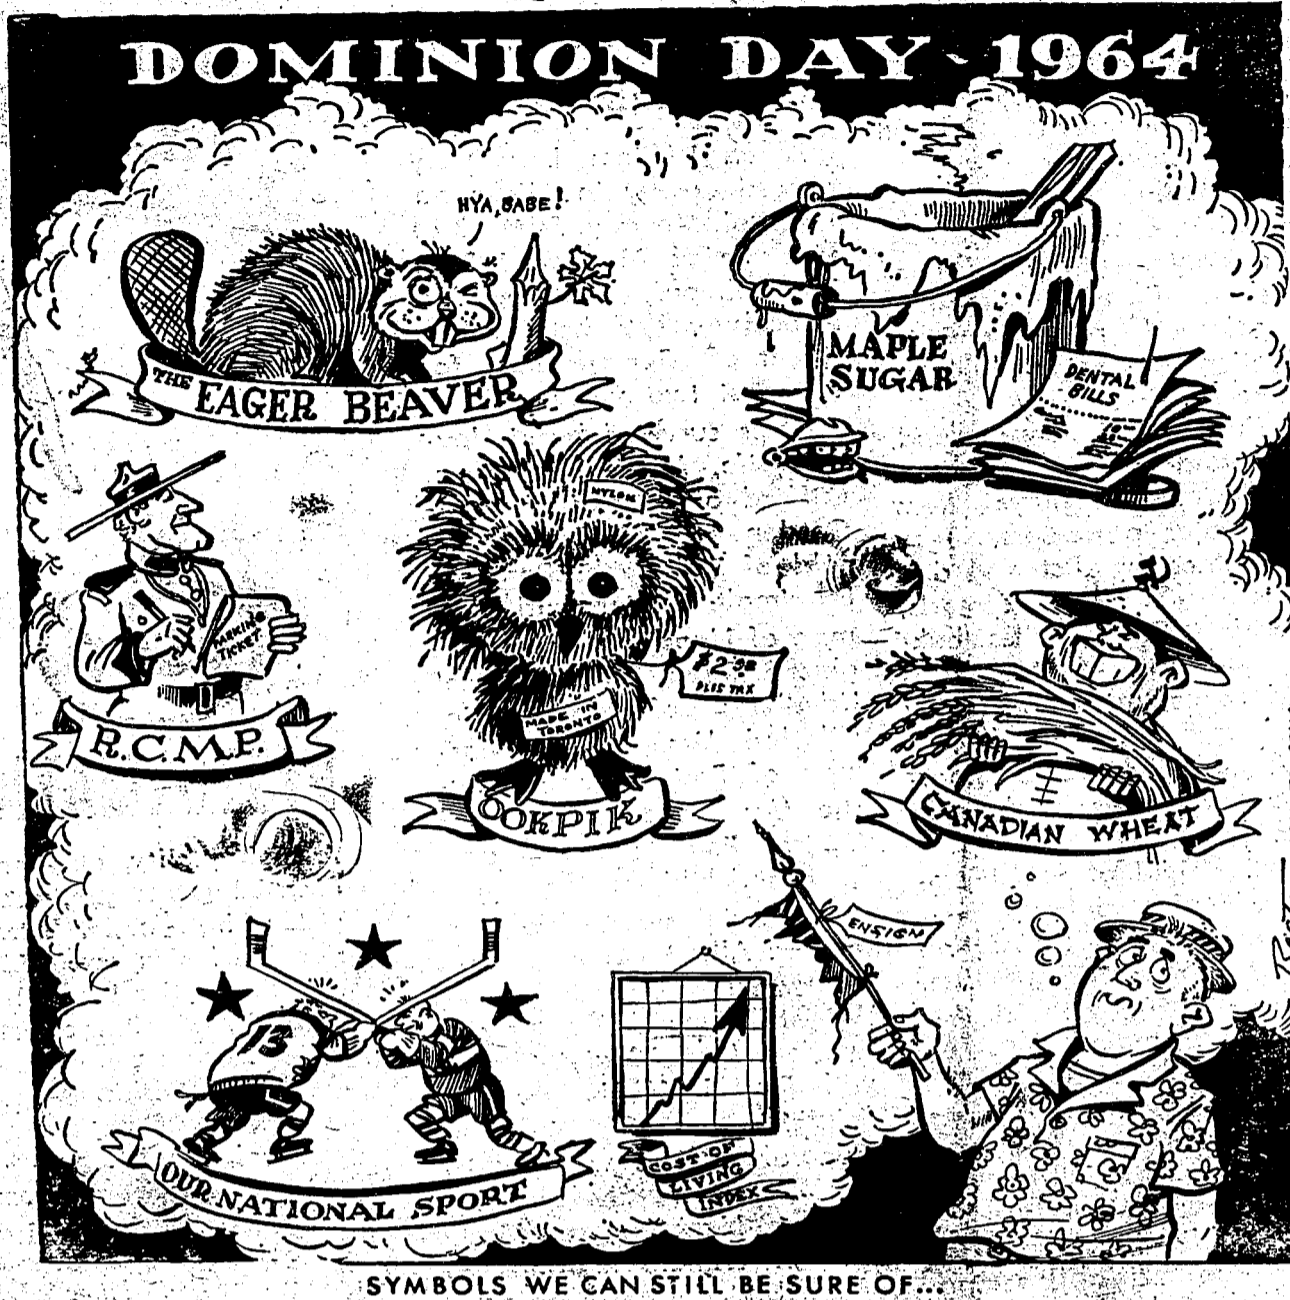

Mrs. Taylor expects to expand her shop in the future and rocks will be another specialty.

SYMBOLS WE CAN STILL BE SURE OF...

Town planner outlines proposed zoning bylaw

The following information on the proposed new zoning bylaw was prepared for the Review by town planner J. G. S. Hirtle of Kelowna.

Reeve N. Holmes and the Summerland council gave first three readings on June 16 to a new zoning bylaw for the municipality. This new zoning bylaw replaces zoning bylaw No. 800 and all amendments thereto.

The original bylaw divided the municipality into four districts; namely, rural, residence, commercial and industrial with no detailed designation. In the new bylaw the district is divided into four land-use zones, being Greenbelt, Residential, Commercial and Industrial-distribution. These zones are further subdivided into detail classifications.

For example, the Greenbelt Zone is divided into Agriculture (G-1 Zone), Small Holdings (G-2), and Recreational (G-3). In the G-1 or Agriculture Zone which covers the largest area within the Municipality and constitutes the most important land use, properties cannot be subdivided into less than two acre parcels for dwelling sites. The primary purpose of this regulation is to prevent indiscriminate land subdivision which creates an inefficient and uneconomic distribution of municipal services and eventually reduces many agricultural properties to uneconomic farm units.

The G-2 Small Holdings Zone permits the subdivision to minimum areas of one of agricultural properties in half acre. This zone is generally adjacent to and surrounding the residential and commercial areas, thus maintaining a relatively high population density near the central core of the municipality. Water, road and power services can be provided economically in this high density area.

The G-3 Recreational Zone includes a 650 foot strip into and along Okanagan Lake within the municipal boundaries. Legal control over the structures and activities within this area now rest with the municipality rather than the Department of Lands in Victoria.

The principal purpose of the new bylaw is not to retard development in the municipality, but rather to encourage development by designating areas where commercial, industrial and recreational activities might settle. It is the first consideration of council to preserve the character of each zone and to conserve the current property values.

Library asks return of overdue books

The regional library is concerned about the large number of books out and overdue. The library cannot function satisfactorily without a complete inventory, and custodian Mrs. Jack Dunsdon is urging everyone to go through their book shelves and return all overdue library books promptly.

The library staff is planning a campaign of phone calls and post cards to those who have books at home, but it would save much time and work if overdue books were brought in now. If a book is lost the family which borrowed it will be asked to pay the cost of the book.

After a reasonable length of time, if the cards and phone calls bring no results, the overdue books will be referred to the head office in Kelowna and action will be taken by that library.

Highway accident wrecks new trailer

An unfortunate accident took the fun out of a holiday planned by Leslie Ralph McLean of Vernon. He and his family started out on a month's holiday last Saturday morning driving a new car and pulling a trailer which was equally new.

They were just out of Summerland on Highway 97 when Mr. McLean noticed a bus stopped on the highway. He applied his brakes to slow down in order to pull around the bus. A back wheel on the trailer seized due to a fault in the braking system, and the trailer flipped from side to side, finally ending up in the ditch on the left side of the road.

RCMP were called to the scene and noted that the right side of the trailer at one time had hit the highway. The uninjured family returned to Vernon to make another start later.

RCMP are concerned with the large number of business firms which have been left unlocked or insufficiently locked up at night. During the past month four stores on main street have been found at night with unlocked doors.

Two bad cheques were passed in Summerland recently, one at Green's Drug Store and one at 5c to $1. The cheques were made out to a Ed Halliday and signed by Wm. F. Jamison. Following the incident RCMP picked up three young men for questioning. Subsequent Councillor W. B. Powell announced Tuesday that the codling moth committee this year is comprised of Hans Stoll, F. R. Ganzeveld and Rob Towgood. The function of this body is to inspect any orchard for codling moth when a complaint is received and to make recommendations for action.

investigation led to admission by Kenneth G. Moorehouse of Nanaimo to the forgery of the two cheques. He later appeared in Penitentiary on these charges and other similar offences.

Another boy, a juvenile from Nanaimo, was waived to that town to face the Summerland charge and other pending charges.

Both boys elected to be tried in the adult court thus enabling them to go to Okalla and take a trade. Moorehouse was given an 18 month definite and one year indeterminate sentence, to run concurrently.

On June 12 Stephen Sabayan of Cawston was charged with speeding through a radar trap in Trout Creek. He was fined $25 and costs.

Frances Douglas Ask appeared in police court charged with driving a car with mechanical defects. He had previously been asked by the RCMP to have the car serviced. He was found guilty and fined $10.

Postcards of local scenes available

Picture postcards showing Summerland scenes will be on sale at a number of local retail outlets. The Chamber of Commerce has received 25,000 post cards to distribute. There are four different scenes depicted: the fish hatchery, the flower boxes on main street in full bloom, a view from the highway lookout north of town and a view of West Summerland from Giant's Head. The cards are very attractive and will receive a good reception from local buyers and visitors.

The chamber hopes another year to add to the present four scenes and eventually build up a set of cards which can be retailed as such.

Singer Terry Dale, violinist Albert Pratz, orchestra leader Ricky Hyslop and writer-narrator Alan Millar (left to right) rehearse one of many original compositions to be heard on Thursday's Child, a new weekly Thursday evening program on the CBC radio network, starting July 2. They will present music of unusual quality in folk, semi-classical, jazz and standard light repertoires.

Made-in-valley products on display at school opening

A feature of the official opening of the Okanagan Vocational School in Kelowna on Saturday, June 27 will be an interesting group of products of the Okanagan Valley.

Sponsored by the Chambers of Commerce of the Okanagan, the exhibit will include samples of a wide range of items made or assembled in the valley. They range in size from a 90 ft. Giraffe and a pre-fabricated cabin through to samples of pottery and rock work.

Some 50 firms have indicated that they will participate, coming from Oliver and Salmon Arm and all points between.

Machinery is well represented by sprayers and logging equipment. Allied lines such as foundry products, metal work, pumps and irrigation equipment will be there.

There is a large food, fruit and vegetable section, headed by displays from the major processors. They are joined by diet and diabetic fruits and spreads, chocolates and candies, bakery products, fruit syrups and concentrates and honey (with a live bee display).

A locally made Catamaran will probably be the sole boat product.

In the field of forest products, laminated beams will be joined by bulk bins and pallets, and rustic furniture.

These are only a partial listing and many will be pleasantly surprised to see the growing range of items turned out in our valley.

The show will follow the opening ceremonies at 2.

The public is invited to attend the official opening of British Columbia Vocational School in Kelowna at 2 p.m., Saturday, June 27. The school is jointly sponsored by the federal and provincial governments.

Official speaker at the ceremony will be Premier W. A. C. Bennett. A tour of the buildings will follow.

A new zoning by-law

Last week the municipal council culminated many months of intensive study when it gave first, second and third reading to a comprehensive zoning bylaw, which it hopes will give the community a good sound basis for community planning.

Council worked with the Town Planning Commission and town planner Gordon Hirtle to prepare this new draft of zoning regulations.

These committees worked a good many hours on the bylaw, and although no one considers it a cure-all to end all development problems, it at least gives council a good basis to consider each individual problem as it arises.

The bylaw is on display at the municipal office, and new zoning maps are prominently displayed in the council chambers. Each parcel of land is clearly marked as to its classification under the new bylaw and owners of land within the municipality should take a few minutes to look at the maps to ascertain what designation has been given their property.

Persons who have questions regarding the new zoning bylaw will be heard at a public hearing on Monday, July 6, where any suggestions put forth will be considered by council.

SUGAR AND SPICE

I Wish You Safety

By BILL SMILEY

As I drove the long, tired road home Sunday night, I began to realize why so many fellows of my age are cracking up.

The old lady was sitting there, talking a s t h o u g h word-rationing was going into effect at midnight. The radio alternated between Bill Smiley shouts of noisier and nausiouser than the Beatles, courtesy of my daughter, and the smug announcements of the disc jockey, who broke in every few minutes to tell us with triumph of another fatality on roads or water.

After 17 years, I've given up trying to do anything about my wife's talking jags. After 13 years, I've abandoned all hope of improving my daughter's taste or temperament.

But by George, I still have some love for my fellow man.

Once a year, whether I like it or not, I publish some safety hints on hunting, driving, trying to get along with women, or a similar perilous undertaking, strictly in the public interest.

For example. When canoeing, never kneel in the bottom of the thing. It's too hard on the knees. Use a long-handled paddle, and paddle standing up. That way, you can jump if she rolls over. If you're merely a passenger, stand in the bow, so that you can warn of rocks, large turtles, or waterfalls.

If you're boating with an outboard motor, don't be afraid to display a little panache. Always approach a dock straight on and at top speed. At the last conceivable moment, cut your motor and swing the tiller hard over. Some day you might cut the tiller and swing the motor, but who wants to live forever?

Never take life jackets when you go fishing. You're liable to trip over one of them, and fall overboard, while innocently walking up to the bow for a cold beer. If you insist on taking lifejackets, tie them to your tackle box. Fishermen are a drug on the market, but good tackle is expensive.

Speaking of fishing, don't look around before you wind up to cast. It's considered a slur on the agility of your companions. It's up to the other guys in the boat to keep an eye on you. If they want to keep an eye, that is.

Never swim where there's a crowd. You went on your holidays to get away from people, remember? Pick out a nice lonely spot and dive in.

It's old fashioned, but best way to teach kids to swim is to throw them off a dock. It can be embarrassing if you can't swim yourself, and they refuse to float.

About fires. Never scatter sand and water on your bonfire when you leave. Maybe the next fellow doesn't have a match to start his own. This is known as common courtesy because it's so common.

You have to use a little common sense to get your barbecue charcoal going, too. We've tried a couple of those commercial fluids, but there's not enough action. What I do now is give the charcoal a good sloshing with lawnmower gas. Then everybody hits the deck. I stand away back and hurl lighted matches at the thing. It may not be the status way to do it, but it sure as hell gets that charcoal going.

Well, that's about it. Just follow these safety hints, and you will never have any more worries about summer. Or anything else.

Report from Parliament Hill

by Dave Pugh, MP

A heavy cloud seems to hang over Parliament because of the take it or leave it nature of the flag legislation. I hope that the Prime Minister will realize that this is not the time to proceed.

The Minister of Finance looked a little glum when the Dominion Bureau of Statistics figures were given on our international payments deficit. These figures indicate that there was more than a one hundred million dollar increase for the first quarter of this year as against last year. The Minister finally stated that the Government would use all efforts to combat any further increase, but he cannot get around the point that his government was going to lower the deficit in this respect. There is also the odd rumour floating around that Canada may not be able to maintain its dollar at the present level and that it may raise in relation to the U.S. dollar. Since the dollar was brought down, starting in 1961, it has had an extraordinarily good effect on the Canadian economy and has given our Canadian manufacturers a much better chance in our own home market and also for the exports in competition with all other countries.

The government is now introducing legislation to amend the British North America Act so that we may proceed with the Canada Pension Plan. From the Conservative point of view, we are more than pleased, because we have always insisted that this amendment is necessary; otherwise the Plan could not give protection to survivors. When we sought to introduce this legislation while in office, it was vigorously opposed by the present government. At that time we had the consent of all provinces, with the exception of Quebec.

The Farm Credit increases have just now received Royal Assent. This legislation provides a higher ceiling on loans and it no doubt will apply to larger operations in Okanagan Boundary. The Farm Credit Act has been a great success since it was brought in in 1959.

Summer courses offered at Kelowna

With an ever greater concentration on adequate recreation, the need for trained personnel is being stressed in many quarters. The B.C. Dept. of Education programmes branch is in the forefront of such moves and has held a continued series of training sessions aligned to the needs of today.

In this connection the second annual recreational and leaders training summer school will be held in Kelowna from July 13 to 18. Courses to be offered at camps, sports leadership, day camping, fitness programming and community leadership.

The summer school is designed for the more mature recreation leader whose responsibility it is to provide both general and specific leadership in recreation work in the community.

Further information may be obtained from Mrs. R. D. White, Trout Creek.

Out of the Past

June 25, 1915

The long, inverted syphon carrying water to the experimental farm from the municipal irrigation ditch was put in use. The municipal flume connected at the Neve Ranch, ran down into Trout Creek Canyon and up the other side.

Cherries were being shipped daily by the Fruit Union and the first freight train went west of the KVR.

A news item said: A number of downtown citizens are singing the praises of council for providing them with nightly orchestral music, the special bandstand being opposite the Felix Hotel. Here, surplus water from orchards above have formed a large pool from which issues a loud chorus of varied frog croakings. Another source of delight is the stagnant pool opposite the Fruit Union.

Dear Doris

Have a problem? Write to Canadian social worker Doris Clark in care of this newspaper.

DEAR DORIS—Lately we found our treasurer had been infringing on our funds as cheques began to bounce. The president phoned her and demanded her books. The treasurer admitted her wrong, was willing to replace the money and of course resign.

After being tormented all day she asked the president just to leave her alone but the gossip was really making the rounds outside the club. Was the president right?

SECRETARY

DEAR SECRETARY—In interfering? Yes. In gossiping? No. Besides, this president is besmirching her club's good name.

DEAR DORIS—Is it legal for a girl aged 18 to leave home without her parents' consent?

2. If it is, does she have to let them know where she is going?

3. Is it true that parents are legally responsible for their children until they are 21?

DESPERATE

DEAR DESPERATE—1. Yes, if she can support herself.

2. No.

3. Not financially.

DEAR DORIS—We have just kicked off our annual Non-Smokers' Day. We are about to produce a piggy bank into which the quitter puts his or her smoke budget. It is inscribed "Devoted to a worthy cause, namely Me."

Students across the country are joining the "Why I Don't Smoke" competition. For details they write to me, enclosing name, address, age, school. If they include a dime with their first letter, we will send their badge card along with the application form. — Cyril Large, Area Chairman, Non-Smokers' Association of Canada, Box 63, Midland, Ontario.

DEAR STUDENTS AND TEACHERS—Mr. Large tells me there will be cash prizes for contest winners. How about getting on the bandwagon with an entry?

DEAR DORIS—I can't get a certain boy out of my mind. Sometimes the telephone tempts me and I make a fool of myself by phoning for him. Please suggest something. Do you think a 17-year-old boy is too old for a 14-year-old girl?

WORRIED

DEAR WORRIED—Yes. The antidote to your Mental Block is other things to do. Keep trying and cover up the telephone.

Flag flies to welcome sister

"Bubble" Sunsuit for Babies

Baby girl's sunsuit in a bubble silhouette in soft, stretchable terryloft fabric is a feature in Carter's line of infants' wear for Summer, 1964. Part of the "stretchable softies" group, which includes separate tops and bottoms, this style combines solid and striped stretch terry in yellow or pink and white. The white yoke looks nautical with two embroidered stars. The group comes in one size only which fits infants 6 mos. to 18 mos. old. Weight range is 18-26 pounds. Retail price is $3. Other garments in the group come in blue and white stripes, as well.

To welcome his sister from South Africa, Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Stoddard are flying the flag of Mr. Stoddard's homeland at the gateway to his South Prairie Valley home.

Mr. Stoddard's sister, Mrs. George Goodwin of South Africa, whom he has not seen for 35 years, arrived Wednesday. Mr. Stoddard felt the flag would be a sure way of identifying his home to his sister. The flag came to Canada with Mr.

Stoddard many years ago and has the Union Jack in the centre.

Mrs. Goodwin will visit here for a few weeks and later will travel to Winnipeg to visit her brother's son, via scenic Canadian spots, F/O David Stoddard and family.

Mrs. Goodwin operates the Blue Moon Citrus Estate in Eastern Transvaal. She will return to Johannesburg via Boston, London, Paris and Rome.

Flavors of foods under analysis

What researchers are doing with apple juice at Summerland these days is everybody's business.

For instance they've broken down the volatile portion of the flavor component into 55 chemicals. And identified 35 of them.

This may not mean much to the man who drinks apple juice — yet. But John S. Matthews of CDA's research station here, points out that the new and unusual science employed in the work is leading to control and improvements of the flavor of many of the items in our diet — fresh and processed fruits, vegetables and dairy products.

The work was made possible by gas chromatography, used in the study of things that vaporize and by the development of new techniques of extracting and concentrating the flavor compounds.

Many volatile compounds can be detected in food stuffs, which are used in the process of creating the head space in canned food can be almost completely analyzed in a matter of minutes.

In slide area

Dave Miller, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Miller of Trout Creek, who operates two of his father's trucks north of Prince George in the Pine River area, dropped in to tell The Review of the spectacular slide which occurred above the river early in June.

The area is not considered a slide hazard but constant seepage weakened a 60 foot section of the road, and without any warning it slipped 300 feet down into the fast moving creek. No one was injured although one truck had to scramble for safety.

Addison Jacques of Summerland drives the other Miller truck and both vehicles will work for sometime on a bypass road skirting the slide area.

Don Rickett of Williams Lake visited at the Miller home last week with Dave.

Library Notes

by Kay Dunsdon

A large number of new fiction books have been added to our library, most by well known writers including Remarque's The Night in Lisbon; Jameson's The Blind Heart; Beyond the Atlas by Trench; The Finishing Touch by A. Proby; and Planet of the Apes by Boule.

In philosophy and religious thought, The Concept of a Person by Ayer, and Twentieth Century Religious Thought are new books.

Ask the Fellows Who Cut the Hay by Evans is an outline of country manners and way of farming in the changing life of rural England, written in an interesting way.

The Racing Coopers tells the story of this famous family. New murder mysteries and westerns round out a good selection for summer reading.

Meet Mr. A.B.C. - He Works for our Advertisers

He is one of the experienced circulation auditors on the staff of the Audit Bureau of Circulations.* Just as a bank examiner makes a periodic check of the records of your bank—so does Mr. A.B.C. visit our office at regular intervals to make an exacting inspection and audit of our circulation records. The circulation facts thus obtained are condensed in easy-to-read audit reports which tell our advertisers: How much circulation we have; where it goes; how it was obtained; and many other FACTS that tell advertisers what they get for their money when they advertise in this newspaper.

*The Audit Bureau of Circulations, of which this newspaper is a member, is a cooperative, nonprofit association of nearly 4,000 advertisers, advertising agencies and publishers. Organized in 1914, A.B.C. brought order out of advertising chaos by establishing: A definition for paid circulation; rules and standards for auditing and reporting the circulations of newspapers and periodicals.

Red Sox blow lead against Grand Forks

The Summerland Red Sox went down to defeat on Sunday, before a good crowd of Summerland fans, at the hands of the Grand Forks Juniors by a score of 10-6.

The Red Sox built up a 4-0 lead in the first four innings on the hitting of Dent, Martin and Peacosh and the no hit pitching of George Walton, but in the fifth the roof fell in and by the end of the game the Grand Forks boys had picked up 11 hits and 10 runs.

The best that the Summerland boys could do was nine hits and six runs.

The next league action for the Red Sox will be a week from Sunday when the Penticton Juniors will be here.

During the game a draw was made for three grocery hampers. Winner of the $25 hamper was Mrs. Harold Burden; $15 hamper: Gail Schramm; and the $10 hamper: Mr. Beattie.

Kiwanis Notes

The club has enjoyed 'Fun and Games' for the last two meetings and it would seem that the summer holiday spirit has already taken over. Last Thursday, the club was honored with a visit from ten members and their wives from 'Oliver', brought along by their president, Bill Keller. The wives of the

moves to Vancouver

Rev. C. W. Lynn, who has been in charge of the district office of the Pentecostal Assemblies of Canada located in Summerland since 1953, has been transferred to North Vancouver where he will set up the district office. The move from Summerland will place Mr. Lynn in a more central position for his liaison work among the 140 Pentecostal churches in B.C. He will also assume the capacity of associate lecturer in the Western Pentecostal Bible College in Vancouver.

Rev. Lynn is a native of Ontario and was pastor of a number of churches there before taking over the ministerial duties of the Pentecost Bethel Tabernacle. Subsequently he took over his present post and moved to Summerland.

Rev. and Mrs. Lynn have four girls and one boy. The four elder children have been very prominent in school and music circles in Summerland. The family will leave for Vancouver in August.

Summerland club were also present with their husbands and they met at the Yacht Club. Jerry and Lockie cooked the steaks (out in air) and everybody enjoyed the first steak supper of the season. Parties put on by the Summerland club are always a success and last Thursday night was no exception. After supper came the 'Fun and Games' and we hope in fact we know, that the Oliver club were very happy with Summerland hospitality.

On Tuesday night the club moved up to Peachland and had a smorgasbord at the Totem Inn. A short business meeting was held afterwards, Clare Eley has donated the use of a truck, driver is Hans Stoll, who, with two or three helpers, will work at the Girl Guide campsite over the week end fixing up the outdoor chapel.

Kiwanis is not all 'Fun and Games', a great deal of work goes on and much time and effort is donated by members, and the club motto 'We Build' is kept very much in mind.

A letter was received from the Cancer Society, thanking the club for its efforts in the recent campaign, which produced $1423.

The Kiwanis carnival is planned for the last Friday or Saturday in July. More will be heard about this when plans are more mature.

Two bursaries have been awarded by the club to Philip Holman and Leigh Moyle. Congratulations.

Next week the club will meet on Lockie McGilligan's lawn. Be sure to be on hand for the first cook-out of the season.

Pennask Lake users requested to register

All visitors to the Pennask Lake are asked to sign the new registry erected by the Summerland Rod and Gun Club.

At the end of the season, the number of those registering, plus other vital statistics about the amount of useage of the park and lake are turned into the department of recreation and conservation. The local club anticipates that with continued growth in the number of campers and fishermen using the present facilities the provincial government will shoulder the responsibility of developing the road and park into an area better suited for the average family.

A breakdown of last year's figures shows about 5,000 man-days on the lake, up to 30,000 fish taken out and about 2,000 vehicles in over the summer months. These statistics are important as on them will hinge the government move to accept responsibility for further development.

At the moment the road is not too good, but people have been driving in using reduced speed and caution. The club is planning to do more road work this year, a follow up to the work done last fall. Depending on rainfall, the road generally becomes passable for passenger cars in July.

More comfort stations will have to be provided and the club is planning a work party in the near future to construct some from plywood

Club thanked for assistance

Summerland Kiwanis Club which has conducted the annual cancer campaign for funds during the past few years, has received the following letter from John Robinson, chairman of the provincial 1964 Conquer Cancer Campaign:

It is with sentiments of pleasure and appreciation, that I acknowledge the splendid contribution made by the citizens of Summerland, to the 1964 appeal for funds to Fight Cancer.

Contributions in the amount of $1,412.07, testify to the support and encouragement shown by your residents. This continuing evidence of their willingness to help end the waste, the anguish and despair, caused by cancer is held in the highest regard.

I now wish to express my gratitude to the members of the Summerland Kiwanis Club who have given of their time and effort to bring about the fine success the Summerland Conquer Cancer Campaign has enjoyed.

It has been a continuing source of pleasure to this Society, that the Kiwanis Club of Summerland has given this help over many years. Please be assured of how highly we value this help and co-operation.

Kiwanis chairman of the drive this year was Bill Jameson.
