Organizations wishing a booth in the fall fair are requested to contact John Khalemach as soon as possible.

Walter M Wright attended a meeting of the Okanagan Historical Society in Kelowna on Monday. Plans were discussed to restore the mining town of Fairview, near Oliver.

No PNE exhibit from Okanagan

Since the BCFGA first participated in the District Exhibit at the Pacific National Exhibition, this yearly feature has been maintained as a most successful aspect of the Association's promotional work and it is with very great regret that the executive has decided to suspend exhibiting for this season.

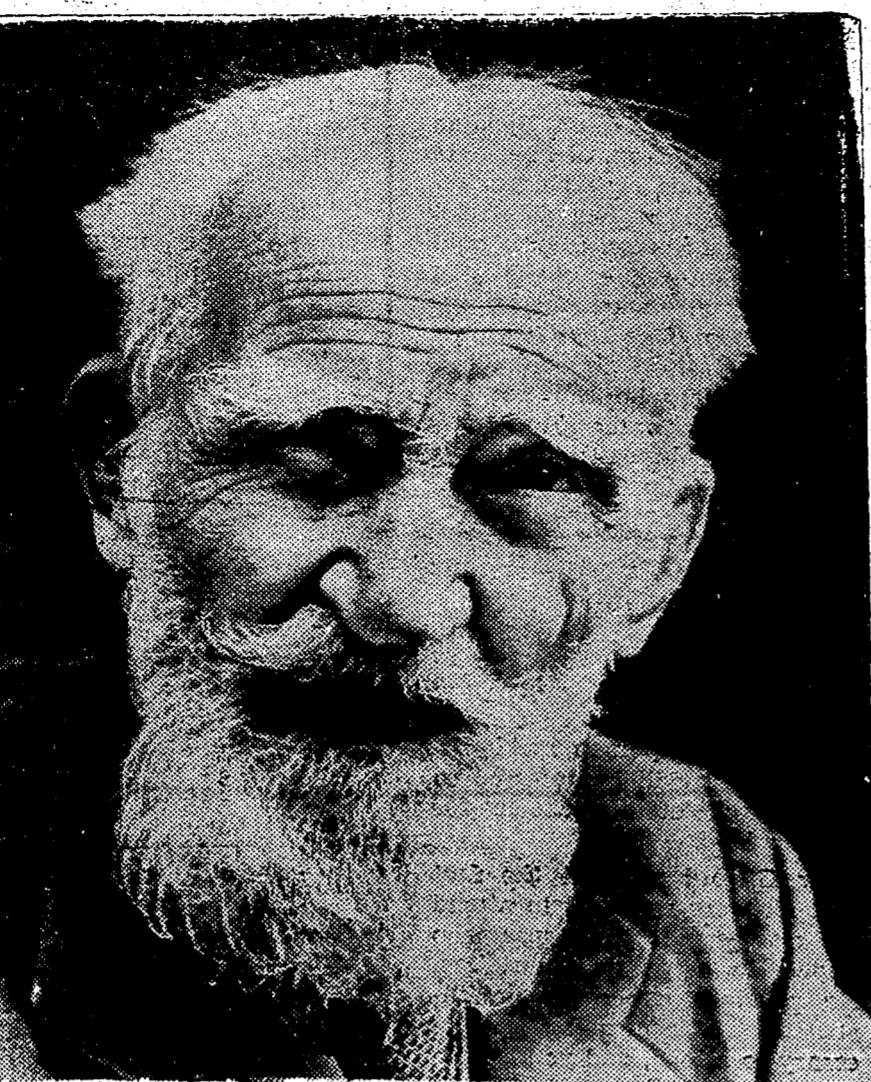

After 10 years of exhibiting in this class and, in most years capturing top honors, this decision was not taken lightly but was brought about by the disastrous crop losses, occasioned by last winter's freeze. Not only is there a need to economize in every possible manner, but with the commercial peach crop eliminated, one of the most attractive features of the exhibit would be missing.

It is the thinking of the executive that this will be a one year suspension only and that the exhibit will be started again next season when it is hoped a more normal marketing condition will prevail.

Salvation Army Band comes to Penticton

One of the most outstanding of Canadian Salvation Army Bands will be in Penticton on the week end of May 22 and 23. The Calgary Citadel Band will be presenting a Festival of Sacred Music in the Penticton Secondary School Auditorium Saturday, May 22 at 7:45 p.m. The program will feature a men's vocal group and instrumental solos as well as brass band music at its best.

On Sunday public meetings will be held in the Legion Auditorium at 11 am and 7 pm. Besides the participation of the band, Major Fred Waller of Calgary will deliver Biblical messages on the subjects of The CBC-TV's Festival series offers a fascinating study of the great George Bernard Shaw, the playwright who emerged from the obscurity of a Dublin boyhood to become one of the most influential writers of the 20th century. The one hour film was made in Dublin, London and at Ayot St. Lawrence where he died at the age of 94. Interspersed are newsreel sequences and still photographs adding authenticity to this portrait of a great writer whose ultimate concern was for the human race. Titled Bernard Shaw: Who the Devil Was He? this Festival program of May 19 features Lister Sinclair as narrator, with actor Barry Morse speaking the words of Shaw.

BCFGA asks for interview

With the steadily worsening crop picture in the tree fruit industry as spring advances, arising from the disastrous cold spell of last December, the executive of the BCFGA feels that the measure of assistance proposed to date by the provincial government will not meet the situation and have asked for a meeting with the Hon Frank Richter, Minister of Agriculture, at his earliest convenience to discuss the whole matter and to propose measures of assistance which the executive feels are necessary to meet the emergency presently existing.

the retail merchant's request for a second full time man in the provincial liquor store.

Council will be asked to have signs on the corner of roads turning off highway 97.

W S Ritchie reported that investigations are again underway as to the feasibility of building a hotel in Summerland.

Speaking on behalf of fruit growers in the area, Charlie Bernhardt asked for and received the support of the Chamber, in any efforts they may make to seek assistance to rehabilitate their orchards.

MRS JESSIE YOUNG MUNRO

Funeral services were conducted Wednesday, May 12 at 2:30 p.m. from the Summerland Baptist Church with Rev F W Haskins officiating. Interment family plot, Peach Orchard Cemetery.

Wright's Funeral Home entrusted with arrangements.

Mill rate stays at same level

Although the school tax rate increased by 1.3 mills this year, council reported Tuesday night that they have managed to adjust the general rate to absorb this increase, and maintain the mill rate at the same level as last year. The bylaw to approve the mill rate at 38.3 received first reading.

An increased grant of over $17,000 from the provincial government and a higher mill rate assessment also kept the tax rate down.

Total revenue is $518,781. This includes monies from the provincial government in the form of the local government grant of $82,912, recoveries from social welfare, $59,000; and debt charges $49,166. Also included is a grant from the electric light reserve of $8,500; and $15,650 from the 1964 reserve.

Under capital expenditures, $15,000 is estimated for enlargement of municipal sheds; $3,000 for roads; $7,250 for parks and beaches; $2,500 for sidewalks; $2,550 for arena renovations; $750 for plants and tools; $1000 office equipment; $100 police equipment; $4,000 Peach Orchard and Beach foreshore; $1,280 fire protection equipment; $1,900 new cemetery; $500 Parkdale Place capital; machinery reserve $7,000.

Community services were estimated at: parks and beaches (operating) $13,650; park toilets included; Okanagan Regional Library $7,425; library building operating $1,300; Salvation Army $150; CNIB $25; Chamber of Commerce $300; planning $3,500; Yacht Club $250; Parkdale Place operating $5,000; museum grant $75; Okanagan Valley Pollution Control Committee $125.

Social assistance amounts to $79,000 and the Central Welfare Committee $100.

Expenses for health include Health Unit $15; Hospital Grant $1,000; Hospital Centre operating $1,000 and Home Nursing Care $450.

School requisition this year is $158,735.

COUNCIL BRIEFS

For many years lawn bowlers in Summerland have wanted a green and their dream may come true in the near future. Dr R B Cuthbert and Harvey Eden waited on council to ask that a newly-formed bowling group receive help in locating a spot for a bowling green and putting it in shape.

Two properties were suggested; the piece between the health centre and Parkdale Place and the land behind the health centre.

Councillor W S Ritchie and works superintendent Ken Blagborne will meet with representatives of the club to discuss the project. Forty persons have recently signified willingness in reviving the sport.

The old Sonoka plant in lower town, owned by Consolidated Enterprises of Vancouver is causing council concern once more. Due to standing vacant for many years the plant is said to be deteriorating badly and is now in what is considered a dangerous condition. The building inspector reported that the building is open for children to wander in at will and the interior is very dilapidated. Council moved that a letter be sent to the Vancouver company asking for some action.

Councillor Ritchie expressed concern over the wholesale stealing of municipal sprinklers and door valves from the ball park. The theft represented about $100 to the community.

In business since 1917

Wing Louey retired this week after operating a laundry business in Summerland since 1917, the longest continuous operation here by one business man.

Mr Louey is 71 years old this year and he and his wife have moved to Prince George where they will be near a son who lives there.

He came to Canada in 1910 from his native China and spent some time in Vancouver, then moved to Princeton for five years. He then moved to Penticton and subsequently established his laundry business on what is now North Victoria.

Mrs Louey, a son and a daughter only came to Canada from China ten years ago.

Mrs. Louey spent most of her summer months here working for Alex Stevens and will be remembered with her hoe among the fruit trees.

Mrs Mas Inouye will take over operation of the laundry.

Queen candidates making their first appearance Friday

Summerland's candidates for fall fair queen will make their first public appearance on Friday when they will be introduced at the band concert being held at the school auditorium.

Summerland Days, on Friday, June 4 is just one of several community functions being planned by the royalty committee for the public to meet the eight candidates. During the program these young ladies will give a flashback view of the history of Summerland. Summerland Days will present the history, humor and development of this community as each candidate comments on events of the past and compares with today's activities.

The Summerland queen and her two princesses will be announced on June 26 at the Queen's Ball.

Regional College signing Saturday

An educational milestone will be marked in Kelowna on Saturday when representatives of nine school boards in the Okanagan will formally sign an agreement providing for the creation and operation of an Okanagan Regional College.

Signing of the agreement will pave the way for the establishment of a College Council which will then proceed with specific planning for the college in Kelowna.

The College Council, which will be authorized by the provincial government and which will include representatives from all nine boards plus other individuals, will present a referendum to voters in the nine districts at a later date, when complete financial and curriculum details are worked out. The provincial government will determine the representation of each of the nine school districts on the council.

Frank Venables, chairman of the Okanagan regional college committee announced today that the signing ceremony will take place at the Capri Motor Inn in Kelowna on May 15 when school district officials will meet in Kelowna for an Okanagan branch meeting of the BC School Trustees Association. He said full information regarding costs and curriculum will be made public as soon as it is available and prior to the referendum. He added that the regional college committee would possibly disband when the college council was named.

A plebiscite held April 10 authorized each of the nine school districts to proceed further with plans for the regional college. Voters in Penticton school district turned down the proposal by a substantial majority.

The nine participating school districts are Revelstoke, Salmon Arm, Enderby, Armstrong, Vernon, Kelowna, Summerland, Keremeos and South Okanagan.

Under existing provincial legislation the province will pay one-half of the capital costs and one-half of the operating costs for regional colleges. Recent legislation provides for further construction grants under the Vocational School Assistance Act, whereby Ottawa and the province will pay as high as 80 to 90 percent of the total construction costs, for the technical vocational facilities at the college.

MRS FUDGE HONORED BY CHURCH MEMBERS

Mrs Lionel Fudge was honored Sunday on her retirement as conductor of the junior choir of Summerland United Church. She has held the post for the past 20 years.

Following the church service Sunday morning, members of the congregation gathered for a coffee party. A gift was presented to Mrs Fudge by Rev P K Louie and George Ryman spoke to those assembled about Mrs Fudge's work with the young singers.

Paintings displayed at library

A delightful exhibition of water colors and oils by Marjory Ryce of Kelowna is hanging in the Summerland library. They can be seen during library hours each Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday throughout the month.

Mrs. Ryce is a newcomer to the field of painting, but she is well known throughout the Okanagan for her wood carvings and her Swiss Village on Woods Lake, just south of Oyanaga.

On leaving the Swiss Village, she turned to painting. She has studied under Mrs Marion Grigsby of Winfield, Leroy Jensen of Kelowna, and Kikola Bjelajac at the Banff School of Fine Arts.

The influence of each teacher can be seen in her delightful collection. Brilliant colors, bold lines and impression mixed with realism. It all makes for an excellent show. One that is worth making an effort to see.

For those who can not get to the library in the afternoons, it is open Thursday and Saturday nights from 7 to 9 p.m.

Work starts on Billy Graham crusade

Christian Witness classes in preparation for the forthcoming Lane Adams Crusade to be held in Penticton from July 23 to 31 will begin next week. They will last for five consecutive weeks commencing Wednesday, May 19 at 7:30 p.m. and will be held in the Penticton United Church at Main and Eckhardt.

Plans were announced by Rev Rudy Gifford, chairman of the Christian Witness and Follow-Up work for the local crusade committee. The classes are open to all who wish to attend and will be led by Milton Howland, instructor in counseling and follow-up for the Billy Graham Crusades, a layman who is especially well qualified to help the average Christian to become better equipped to share his faith.

Out of those attending the classes will be selected Counselors to assist those who make commitments to Christ during the Crusade. Mr Gifford explained that during the crusade, the evangelist Lane Adams will give opportunity at each service for those who wish to make their decision for Christ to take part in an active witness. Those doing so will have an opportunity to speak personally with one of the counselors about the meaning of the step they have taken, and they will also receive guidance and literature to help them to continue in the Christian life.

SHOWER AT TROUT CREEK

Miss Helen Paslawski, whose marriage to Lowell Laidlaw will take place on May 29 was guest of honor at a shower held at the home of Mrs Victor Parker in Trout Creek last week. Mrs. W. C. McCutcheon shared the hostess duties.

Thirty-six ladies were present to enjoy the social evening and many lovely gifts were presented to the bride-elect who lives in Penticton.

Howard Oxley, who has been attending UBC, visited recently with his mother, Mrs R Oxley before leaving for Spain where he has obtained employment for the summer.

Each person making a commitment will be referred to the church of his choice for further help.

Mr Gifford stressed the fact that all were welcome to attend the classes, not just those who hoped to serve as counselors. No previous experience or instruction in counseling is necessary to attend, and young people between 16 and 26 years of age are especially urged to participate.

Brownie Toadstool

When a child says, I have nothing to play with. What can I do? — perhaps we parents could follow the Brownies lead. They are discovering that there are most fascinating materials to work with and toys to play with if they just keep their eyes open in the great outdoors.

Under the direction of their Brown Owl, Mrs George Naylor, the Brownies of the First Summerland Pack have had a good deal of fun while receiving a training in nature study, thrift and the art of improvising.

For their Easter meeting the Brownies scrambled over the hills near the Youth Centre, gathering new spring plants and moss. Working in competition, the Sixes turned their outdoor treasures into attractive table centres. Winners received Easter eggs and then all Brownies joined in a jelly bean hunt the leaders had prepared for them.

At the May 5 meeting Oregon Grape, wild oats, glue and black paper were used to create three dimensional pictures. Oat stalks became thatched huts and tents arranged amid miniature lawn and trees. Such creative play provides good fun as well as helping to develop skills.

In a Brownie pack a large toadstool, an owl and a green mat are properties which have special significance for Brownies but with years of use they do wear out. Instead of buying new ones, the Golden Hand Brownies have worked hard and made an excellent new toadstool and refeathered their Owl. Now the other Brownies in the pack are all participating in making a new mat. Besides the satisfaction the girls get from seeing the fine results of their own handiwork they hope to earn a pack certificate.

The Brownies enjoyed a visit from the Divisional Music Advisor Mrs Ted Poole. She taught them some of the new Brownie songs which are now to be used for the Golden Hand test. Athletes badges were awarded to Maureen Miltimore and Joy Barkwill.

Brown Owl Mrs Naylor expressed particular appreciation to Mrs W R Marles who has worked enthusiastically as Tawny Owl during Mrs R J Barkwill's absence.

East's opening 1 Club on the third spot is quite legitimate. With two passes to him he can sense a chance of a divided hand. South, however with 14 HCPs and a singleton doubled to force partner to bid and assuring him of a good hand.

North, with 9HCPs, elects to bid 1NT and contract of 4 Hearts is reached.

East-West take first two Club tricks and West ruffs third Club lead. South has lost all tricks he can so must play not to lose anymore. West leads 4 Diamonds taken by Dummy's Ace. He decides against the finesse, draws trumps out of West hand in one round using good J Clubs, discarding Spade in Dummy, ruffing his two Spades in Dummy.

Note that declarer loses nothing by this attempt. If West held another Heart, Dummy could over ruff and then could try the Spade finesse.

Baptist church rally planned for Sunday

A rally of Baptist Churches of the Okanagan takes place in the Summerland Baptist Church on Friday evening at 8 o'clock. The program will be given by graduates of the Baptist Leadership Training School of Calgary.

Bill Wellwood, formerly of Summerland is a member of this group which includes Miss Kathleen Gannon of Prince Albert, Miss Caroline Rentz and Miss Darlene Letwinetz of Ponoka and Miss Louise Hind of Chilliwack, with Dr R F Watts, the principal of the school.

The rally is sponsored by the Okanagan Baptist Association, with the president, William Whitehead of Kelowna and the secretary, Rev. Norman Hopland of Penticton in charge

Open house in Penticton

There will be demonstrations of ceramic work by Mrs W Smith, the volunteer teacher. Refreshments will be served.

Come and enjoy a friendly cup of tea with the patients on May 20 from 2 to 4:30 p.m., at the Public Health Centre, 300 Eckhardt Ave. East, Penticton.

SUGAR AND SPICE by Bill Smiley

Day Of All Days

There are certain ancient and honorable rituals in our society which help to give our lives a certain continuity. Many of them are geared to the seasons: spring cleaning; summer flu; the burning of the leaves, getting stoned out of your skull on New Year's Eve.

One of the most sacred of these, for some of us, is Opening Day of the trout season.

Slap of a beaver tail; chuckle of running water; splatter of wild duck taking off from swamp; feel of the sun on face; mist of green spreading through bare bones of branches; honest stench of worm-guts on hands; flavor at noon of big, bologna sandwich with hot mustard; these are the things which quicken the senses, cleanse the body of its winter stupor, remind one that God is still in His heaven.

And these are some of the reasons I have never missed the rite, whether the mortgage is due, or my wife is having a baby, or I have a date with Sophia Loren.

And I hope to do so until the day when they have to carry me to a quiet spot on the stream and leave me there in my wheelchair, to watch the black water swirl around the white rock, the yellow sun pick up the golden gravel of the stream-bottom.

Each year the ritual is the same. And each year it is different. There is the year when you fall off a log in the first three minutes, and squish and squelch yourself through the rest of the day, a sodden mess, wet fags, wet matches, soaked sandwiches.

And there is the year when you hit the stream at the crack of dawn, fish with all your skill until sunset, and come home with two speckled trout eight inches long. And there is the year when you go out at 7:30 a.m., just to toss a line for old times sake, and have caught your limit before work-time at 9 a.m.

And there's the year when your bait-can falls from your belt into a torrent, and you snap the tip off your rod, and put a hole in your new waders, and get back to the car to find a flat tire, and get home to find your wife calling the police, because it's four hours after sundown.

But this year topped them all. It was complicated. Our high-school music director, with incredible lack of foresight, had scheduled an exchange concert, with a city school, for that very day. Fine. But it turned out we had to have some of the visiting youngsters for dinner. As my wife is away every Saturday, for music lessons with the kids, this meant I was cook.

Normally, I'd have welcomed a chance to display my culinary skill. In fact, I had the menu planned. Beef stew simmered in beer, followed by a sour cream soufflé, roast chestnuts and pepperment lifesavers as dessert. Then I realized it was Opening Day.

I was aghast. Wanted to be a good host but danged if I was going to miss the rites of spring. Then it struck me. Why not give these city kids, pampered for years on steaks and chicken, a real north-country dinner — speckled trout, lovingly fried in butter? They'd never forget it.

With a light heart, I hit for the trout stream on Opening Day. Everything was perfect. It was a fine day, and I knew there were at least 47 big speckles in there, just waiting to hit that butter.

Got home at 4:30 p.m. with two six-inch chub and a 14-inch sucker. Went to the fish market. They had nothing but some awfully large whitefish, which somehow didn't look like speckled trout. Called all my friends. They had either been skunked, like me, or stated flatly, "The hell with you, Smiley; we're putting on a big speckled trout dinner for those visiting musicians; feeding four of them." Bought two pounds of hamburger.

You know, there are times when my love for my wife is overwhelming. When I arrived at the house at 5:30, she was grilling steaks in the oven.

New books at the library

by Kay Dunsdon

A number of unusual and entertaining new books have come to our library. The Game of Billiards — Pocket, Carom and Three Cushion, by Clive Cottingham Jr., gives the fundamentals for learners, and tips for advanced players.

Quebec States Her Case, is a learned and clear book by Frank Scott and Michael Oliver. Scott is former dean of school of law at McGill and Oliver, a professor of political economy. Both are members of the Royal Commission on Bilingualism and Biculturalism.

Fishbones into Butterflies, is the unusual title of a biography by Audrey Marshal, who writes of her actress mother Lydia Donovan. This is an interesting story of theatrical troupes on a tour of England fifty years ago when provincial theatre flourished.

A Cornishman at Oxford by A E Rouse, tells of his Cornish childhood, and the early years of many of England's most gifted writers, as seen through the eyes of a young man.

Victorian Lady Traveller is the true adventures of seven remarkable women. Their adventures are more remarkable when we remember they travelled in the early years of the nineteenth century — loaded with luggage, in unexplored parts of the world. When women's emancipation was just beginning, they set out to prove their freedom. Annie Taylor set out to evangelize Tibet. Kate Marsden went to lepers of Siberia to mention only two. In light of present knowledge this is hilarious reading.

An Honorable Estate by Lane Kauffman, is a novel of ordinary people in unusual situations.

Set in New York.

My Troubles Began is a translation from the Italian poet Paolo Volponi, by Belen Severeid. Survivors of the Crossing by Austin C. Clarke, tells of plantation life in the West Indies and the poverty of the people. Into their life comes a letter from a former laborer, emigrated to Canada, who falsely reports his fabulous prosperity. This arouses envy in his friends, some wish to leave, while others try to organize a strike which fails through their own inertia. The author is a native of Barbados, graduate of the University of Toronto, and he tells his tale with gusto. A number of his radio scripts have been used by the CBC.

The Nut Cook Book is full of exciting nutty recipes which are not so zany when you try black walnut crumb cake for desert.

Bridge results

The South Okanagan Contract Bridge Club held its monthly master point session on Monday evening in the Rosedale Room. An eight table Mitchell was played with the following results.

North-South: Mr and Mrs Roy Stewart, W Hepperle and G Hepperle; Mrs A J McClymont and V N Andreev.

East-West: Mrs Iras Gartrell and Mrs Elma Hall; Mrs V. Crosley and Mrs O Bowman; J J Irvine and C H Ployard.

Next Monday will be the election night for officers of the club. Members are requested to attend and come a little early to allow time for the election.

MEANWHILE, JERRY TURNER AND PETE ROSS, TWO YOUNG FELLOWS WHO ASPIRE TO THE EXCITING AND WORTHWHILE CAREER OF FORESTERS, ARE ON THEIR WAY TO THE DISTRICT STATION TO START THEIR NEW AFTER-SCHOOL JOBS WITH THE DEPARTMENT...

HEY LOOK, SERRY, ONE OF THE BIG WATER BOMBERS!

YEAH, GREAT THINGS, BUT I BET MR. NORTHWOOD HOPES HE WON'T NEED 'EM!

Remember - only YOU can PREVENT FOREST FIRES

THE FIRE SEASON HAS JUST OPENED...THE BOYS HAVE A LOT TO LEARN!

There have been several interruptions to Pack meetings recently but I hope we can get going again now.

The next meeting on Friday, May 14 will be in front of the entomology laboratory, at 6:45 p.m. This is the first road to the left after crossing the Trout Creek bridge on the way to Penticton. Boys who have bicycles and live within riding distance please bring them. We are going to practice for the Bicycle Rodeo which will be on Sunday, May 16 in Penticton.

Police Court

A series of breaking and entering and theft led to the appearance of four juveniles in the Family and Children's Court during the past week. One of the youths was found guilty on three charges and also on a charge of joyriding. A second youth has two charges against him and a third is charged with one breaking and entering and theft. The fourth juvenile paid a fine of $10 and costs when found guilty of stealing gasoline. A fifth juvenile pleaded guilty to a charge of joy riding. All those guilty of breaking and entering and theft and of the joy riding charge have been remanded to September 10 for sentencing and are under an 8:00 p.m. curfew.

Two females appeared in the Family and Children's Court and paid fines of $10 for causing a disturbance by fighting. A $10 penalty was also paid by a female juvenile for being in possession of firearms without a licence.

A Summerland juvenile was charged with driving without due care and attention when his car cut off a power pole on the South Prairie Valley Road. There were no injuries. Damage to the car amounted to $250.

Appearing in magistrates court Eddie LeRoy Finnigan paid a fine of $25 and costs on a charge of stealing gasoline.

Lloyd Frank Cox paid a penalty of $25 and costs for selling magazines without the necessary licence.

RCMP request that local growers store their supply of spray material carefully, as several thefts of spray and other chemicals have been reported recently.

Members of the local detachment are becoming familiar with the Penticton radar equipment and this equipment will be brought to Summerland in the near future to check on speeders.

Okanagan Regional College Committee chairman Frank Venables proudly displays agreement signed Saturday by representatives of nine participating school districts. With Venables are Vernon Mayor E. C. Rice; Regional College committee secretary B. A. Tingley of Summerland and Kelowna alderman J. Bedford.

Signing the agreement for the school districts were: Frank Venables and Dick Sladen (South Okanagan); Charles Finch and Jim Sykes (Keremeos); Jim Cairon and Oscar Domke (Revelstoke); Dave Godwin and Carl Shoemaker (Salmon Arm); Mrs Ray Wallace and Jim Lindsay (Armstrong); J. W. Inglis and J. W. Green (Vernon); Fred Macklin and C. D. Buckland (Kelowna); Jim Hack and John Bennest (Summerland); Bryan Collins and Ben Carlson (Enderby).

The second major step toward the establishment of a regional college in the Okanagan was completed in Kelowna Saturday when representatives of nine school boards placed their signatures on a formal agreement to create and operate the college. The agreement outlines in broad principles the curriculum to be offered at the college, the methods of financing and the sharing of costs among the participating school districts. Voters in the nine school districts (including Summerland) approved plebiscites April 10 authorizing further preparatory studies for the establishment of the college. Voters throughout the college area, which stretches from Osoyoos to Revelstoke will decide on the final step for the establishment of the college in a referendum to be held at a later date.

Accordion band for Lilac Day

Bargains Galore - Throughout the Store, is the theme this Saturday, as Summerland merchants hold their annual Lilac Day. Special prices and free prizes are featured in many stores.

Free ice cream cones for the children will be given away at Tasteé Freez. Primary school and Kindergarten children have received their tickets at school. Parents of pre-school children may pick up their tickets at the office of Read and Pruden.

A Lilac Day tea and bake sale will be held in the United Church Hall at 2:30 p.m., sponsored by Onward Circle of the United Church Women.

The Penticton-Summerland Accordion Band composed of boys and girls 16 years and under, will be playing on main street from 1:30 to 4:30 Saturday afternoon.

Fire in former hospital

A house in Summerland that served as the district's first hospital during the early 1900s was struck by fire on Monday evening. Fortunately the fire was confined to the upper storey as August Mayer; living next door; used a garden hose until the fire brigade arrived.

Mr Mayer received a cut on his right arm by broken window glass and was taken to the hospital for treatment. He was released later in the evening.

The house, located at the bottom of the Old Gulch Road; is owned by Donald Orr and was occupied by Mr and Mrs Norman Rindero and family.

Kinsmen plan playground on lake

A program to develop a playground area in lower town, was outlined to council Tuesday by the Summerland Kinsmen Club.

The club wishes to create the playground where young children may play in a fenced area without being a hazard to traffic or being endangered by the lake. The land is between the property of Freeman Reid and Walter Wright.

The club indicated it would be willing to fence and set up the grounds if council will make the land available.

A request from residents of the Bleasdale subdivision for blacktop in that area will be taken under consideration in the roads department budget another year council decided. This year the road will be oiled to control dust.

A Penticton man, John Palanio who recently purchased the OK Motel requested permission to operate a hot dog stand in that area. The request will be sent to the advisory planning commission.

Councillor W S Ritchie reported that the area between the concrete curb marking the edge of the grounds of Parkdale Place and the arena had been found to be the most suitable for a proposed lawn bowling green.

Don Randle again appeared before council to ask that he be allowed to place some sort of directional markers to point out his lodge, Faircrest in Summerland.

Some of the local unemployment slack has been taken up this month by the hiring of extra men for municipal projects. Starting of the work under the ARDA program plus other municipal work will give the local economy a boost. Works superintendent Ken Blagborne told council he will be hiring more men as the programs step up.

When the winners of the Elephant Brand Best in the West Contest were announced last week, one of the winners was Mrs. Ben Trafford of Summerland. Her prize was one ton of Elephant Brand Fertilizer. Her local dealer B.C. Fruit Shippers Ltd also won $50. This was one of 21 prizes in a contest that drew over 120,000 entries from farmers on the prairies and in B.C. First prize was a two ton GMC truck with stake body and hoist, plus five tons of Elephant Brand Fertilizer won by Cliff Sapsford of Perdue, Sask., shown above. Twenty second prizes of one ton of Elephant Brand Fertilizer went to farmers in all four western provinces.

Bridge Problem

This is the eighth in a series of bridge problems prepared by members of the South Okanagan Contract Bridge Club. Readers are invited to write the club, c-o The Review for their answers to your bridge problems or explanations of bridge hands. This interesting hand was played at the meeting on Monday. Two pairs reached 6NT and when West played they made it but when East played they went down one.

Opening lead: 10 Hearts
Bidding was sound with East opening 1 Spade with 18 points but a singleton Jack Hearts. With 14 points and other three suits covered, West jumped to 3 NT knowing game was in hand and no point in mentioning a suit. East with 18 HCPs decided to check for slam and bid 4NT for Aces and after 5NT for Kings found they was one King short and bid 6NT.

Opening lead of 10 Hearts taken by Ace in closed hand. The hand can be made or lost now. King of Spades and Q of Diamonds are out and he can only lose one; so Clubs being solid and entries being no problem ran Clubs. South on third round discarded 2 Spades. West finessing Spades twice and losing a Diamond now made contract.

Jr. Hi-C Notes

During the first week of April Lawrence Muir resigned as Jr. Hi-C Marshal and Gerry Mayert was elected to fill the vacancy. Gerry has taken his responsibility in stride by helping plan and carry out a Play Day at the Youth Centre for Junior and Senior High students. With the help of Ken Kehler and Charlie James the day was an enjoyable one.

1st Summerland Troop
This year the International Camporee is to be held at Loup Loop; Washington about 120 miles from Summerland. All but two members of the 1st Summerland Troop plan to attend.

Jr-Hi CYCer of the month for March was Herb DeWitt and for April Sandra Ion.

All members who had achieved their Rank One requirements were eligible to take a Camera Hunting Trip at Kamloops on Friday and Saturday May 14 and 15.

There was a Jr. Hi-C quiz presentation Sunday evening at the Free Methodist Church.

The tentative date for Honor Council is June 11. At that time the rank; badges and other honors will be bestowed. The CYCer of the year will be presented with a free schoarship for a week at the Winfield CYC Camp in August.

Arrangements have been made with school authorities to allow the boys to leave Friday morning and return late Sunday.

The boys will meet with their packs at 9 am on Friday at the Youth Centre where final packing of packs to include groceries and other items will take place. Cooking will be on a patrol basis and the food will be purchased by patrol leaders with costs shared by the boys.

All boys are to bring a lunch Friday and also a small jar of jam for the patrol menu. Full uniforms will be worn. For rough wear at the Camporee a change of clothes should be taken. Warm sleeping bags are required but ground sheets are not necessary.

Parents transporting boys to the Camporee should meet at the Youth Centre at 11 am on Friday. For the return trip parents should be at Loup Loop at 1:30 pm on Sunday. D R Heinicke and D V Fisher will accompany the troop to the Next meeting on May 31.

SUGAR AND SPICE by Bill Smiley

May He Get Seasick!

Among adults, though few would admit it, there is a great deal of jealousy of today's teenagers. This is revealed by the adults' oft-expressed wish that kids in their teens could act like them; by their reaction to any hint of change in the rules for their children, and especially by their endless prating about how soft a time the youngsters have now, and how hard it was in their day.

grudge. Nobody should have to work like a dog. But there's a slight difference in the pay. I pulled down $30 a month, even on the 31-day months. A dollar a day and keep. My son will be knocking off just over nine times as much.

To hear most adults talk, you'd think they'd never had any fun at all, when they were kids, or ever done anything foolish. There's a steady stream of poppycock about how far they walked to school through the snow; how scanty were their wardrobes; how early they had to be in at night; how hard their parents worked them; how good their marks were in school.

However, that's OK. Wages have gone up a lot. Why should he work for peanuts? I must admit, though, that I was a little disturbed by the difference in our duties.

There's a modicum of truth in all of this, of course, because life was a lot more simple and frugal a quarter-century ago. But with the passing of time the morsel of truth becomes a bit of malarkey. Personally, I think we had a lot less to cope with, socially and psychologically, if not physically, than today's teenagers.

I scrubbed floors, cleaned out lavatories, polished brass and sorted dirty linen. In spare moments I helped sling out the gangplank, or made the officers' beds. My kid will organize shuttleboard games, play the piano for singsongs and run a movie projector. In spare moments, he will chat to nice old ladies.

But this attitude received a jolt this week, when my son announced that he had nailed down a summer job. It was difficult to keep my upper lip both stiff and buttoned, when I compared his first real job with mine.

That's fine. No hard feelings. We can't all be aristocrats in our first job. But what about this? I wore a scruffy old smock, covered with brass polish. He'll wear a snappy blue uniform, covered with brass buttons.

There are parallels. Both of us got the job at age 17, and both jobs were on the upper Great Lakes boats. There the parallel ends.

And what about this? My official title was Night Porter. His is Entertainment Steward. I ate with the deckhands and firemen. He'll eat in the diningroom. I slept with seven other scullions in a stall large enough for one Shetland pony. He'll share a cabin with one other softy of the Sixties.

For instance, I hitch-hiked 480 miles, with $2.50 cash, to meet my boat. He will be driven three miles, by his father, to catch his.

I was forbidden, on pain of keelhauling and 16 years in the hulks, to have anything to do with the passengers, except mop up after them. The kid, in the captain's own words, "Will have the girls following you all over the boat."

And the hours aren't quite the same. I worked the graveyard shift, midnight to noon, seven days a week. He'll work a couple of hours morning and afternoon, about three hours in the evening, and have a day and a half off each week.

Oh, well. No use being bitter. The good old days of the Depression, when you knew you were a slave, but were happy to be a working slave, are gone forever.

That's all right. I don't bear a

However, I can't help hoping the kid will get good and seasick all over that uniform, the first time he hits a roll in Lake Superior. At least, we'd have that much in common in our first summer jobs.

QUEEN CANDIDATES MEET THE PUBLIC

The eight queen candidates for the title of fall fair queen made their first public appearance at the secondary school band concert Friday night. W R Chalmers introduced the girls: Sharon Biagioni sponsored by the Kinsmen; Joan Dunsdon, Legion; Rosalie Geres, Kiwanis; Daphne Lamb, Teen Town; Susan Lloyd, Elks; Betty McInnes, Rotary; Pat Ryman, Yacht Club; Donna Taylor, fire department.

On June 4 the girls will be featured in a program, Summerland Days in the MacDonald School auditorium. They will each give talks on various aspects of the history of the community. A tea will be held at the Yacht Club on June 19 when the girls will serve and meet the public. The selection of the queen and her two princesses will be announced at a Queen's Ball to be held on June 26.

Slides on north shown to WI

Members and guests enjoyed a program on citizenship at the regular meeting of the Summerland Women's Institute Friday afternoon. Slides taken in the Northwest Territories were shown by Mrs E. J. Roylance of Greenwood. Mrs Roylance told of the organization and growth of new Institute groups under the northern expansion program. This project was organized under UNESCO and is being financed through the sale of UNESCO coupons 367. Mrs S A MacDonald; Mrs Vera Barrs and Mrs W R Powell comprise the citizenship committee. Mrs Roylance also showed slides of the Hoodless Homestead where the founder of the WI; Adelaide Hunter Hoodless lived as a child. The home has been restored and is visited by hundreds of people during the summer. Guests from out of town included Mrs R C Palmer of Kelowna; Mrs W E McArthur of Greenwood; Mrs H R McLarty and Mrs W R Dewdney of Penticton. The next meeting on June 11 will be held at the home of Mrs E O White with the agriculture committee in charge of the program.

Anyone who can take billets please phone Janet Tamblin at 494-2151.

BAND CONCERT

On Friday the annual school band concert was held. MC for the evening was Mr. Chalmers.

The program started with the grade 9 band. Elaine Charles and Katy Evans delighted the well-attended audience with their duet Guest Artist. The grade 9's finished off with Waltzing Winds and the Junior Girls Choir was next. They did very well on the last two songs they sang, especially Navy Blue which was recorded last year by Dianne Renay.

The recorder group and the grade 8 band concluded the first half of the program.

After a brief intermission the high school band got the program rolling with High School Cadets. When they were playing their third selection the eight fall fair queen candidates were presented.

Directions given for pruning of trees, grapes

Horticulturists of the British Columbia Department of Agriculture and representatives of the Summerland Research Station met recently in Kelowna to discuss orchard operations for 1965 in view of orchard conditions following last winter's frost damage.

The group prepared the following recommendations on pruning of tree fruit and grapes.

1. Peaches. Defer pruning until early June and then remove wood that has not leafed out.

2. Pears. Leave alone

3. Apricots: Prune normally where trees are sound. If injury apparent, defer pruning until next year.

4. Prunes. Leave alone

5. Apples: Leave alone: Make plans to bridge graft frost injury next spring. Protect suckers that may emerge this year so that they may be inarched next spring

Grapes. Leave alone. There is a good possibility of apparently dead vines still throwing shoots.

Because there is spur injury on many apple trees small size fruit may be prevalent this year. Particular attention should be paid to adequate thinning.

Trees this year should be protected from pests that will defer their recovery. This includes pear psylla; mites; aphids and slugs. If there is no crop sprays designed to protect only the fruit can of course be eliminated but even a light crop will require the same spray program as a full crop if saleable fruit is to be harvested.

Kiwanis

Over $1400 was collected by the Kiwanis Club in its recent campaign for the Canadian Cancer Fund.

A very informative and interesting talk on wills was given to the members by Preston Mott at the regular Tuesday night meeting.

Four members and their wives attended the Kiwanis Conference in Vernon last week end. Those travelling to the northern city were Mr and Mrs J Y Towgood; Mr and Mrs Lloyd Shannon; Mr and Mrs W S Ritchie and Mr and Mrs W H Hackman.

The Key Club and their leader John Tamblin attended the Key Club installations in Keowna on Monday.

Plans are being made for the Kiwanis street carnival with the tentative date set for July 24.

Two accidents were reported to the local detachment of the RCMP during the past week

The first one occurred on May 20 on Highway 97 north, near the Jones Flat Road. Anthea Yoe mans of Summerland was making a left hand turn when her car was struck by a car driven by Egon Odgaard of North Surrey. Damage to the vehicles amounted to $400. There were no injuries and no charges were laid.

The second accident, involving cars driven by George Walton of Summerland and A Stotz of Kelowna was on May 22 on Shoestring Road near the Prairie Valley Road. George Walton was proceeding west on Shoestring Road when the two cars met unexpectedly on a narrow part of the road. Damages amounted to $600. There were no injuries and no charges were laid by the RCMP.

Lorne Roberts of North Vancouver paid a voluntary penalty of $25 and costs when charged with speeding in the 40 mile zone at Trout Creek Point

Two Vancouver juveniles were picked up near the Royal Canadian Legion on May 22 and were charged with being intoxicated in a public place. They appeared before Magistrate Reid A Johnston and were fined $10 and costs, and placed on probation for six months

68 in school exercises

John Bennest, son of Mr and Mrs John Bennest has been chosen valedictorian for the 68 students who will take part in the commencement exercises on Friday. Jean Coates, daughter of Mr and Mrs E L Coates has been chosen class poet

The exercises will be held on Friday afternoon at the Summerland Junior-Senior Secondary School auditorium. Guest speaker will be A J Longmore, a former principal of the Summerland secondary school, who is now the superintendent of education at Vanderhoof

Report from Parkdale Place

by Augusta Emery

After what seemed to be one of the longest winters in many years we have enjoyed weeks of beautiful Okanagan sunshine during the month of May.

Spring cleaning has been in full swing during this month. Dan Spencers has been decorating our lounge and dining room. A delicate shade of green was selected. The furniture will be ation of the television re-arranged to suit the new loc-

Congratulations to all those who have passed another milestone of life. To Mrs Montague; Mr Schultz; Mr Stevenson; many happy returns.

A very enjoyable Mother's Day party was given by Mrs J McKenzie for all the Parkdale

Linda Dotum (Miss Canada 1965); Daniels-Dorice, singer and dancer; Gordie Tapp; Barbara and Joan Lounsbury, baton twirling sisters; (top) George Armstrong, captain of the Toronto Maple Leafs; and Simone Dina, folk singer are part of the 18 member CBC concert party entertaining Canadian and other United Nations Emergency Forces stationed in the United Arab Republic.

More information on garbage collection

Further planning will be done on a municipal garbage collection, council decided Tuesday night. The building inspector will be asked to draw up a collection area

Sketch plans for the new hospital have been received but no definite date for the start of construction has been set. Councillor H J Barkwill reported that occupancy figures for the past month have been well over the estimate

A letter was received from the Old Age Pensioners Assoc. in which they complained of the hardship created by the withdrawal of taxi service in the municipality

A meeting will be held with the regional planning consultant John Northey to discuss the number of signs being sought to be erected on the highway

Finishing work will start next week on the Gulch Road to the highway. Three lanes will be laid with a raised-walking area along the north side

Orientation Day for new grade 1 pupils

Orientation Day for Summerland youngsters who will enter grade one next September is slated for June 9. The period will start at 1 pm and the youngsters will be out at 2:30 pm new students will be received

In the Trout Creek school the by Mrs Novak and in Macdonald School by Mrs Allison and Mrs Toevs. Mothers are asked to take their children and leave them at the class room to be picked up later.

Students may also be registered on Orientation Day. The fall term lists are now being prepared

Some changes in the program of studies at the elementary schools will be started next fall. Grades 1 and 2 will have a new arithmetic program to bring their work up to a level with the new programs in grades 3, 4 and 5.

Grade two will start new programs in reading and spelling. The work for these grades has been broadened in the past year and the more advanced reading courses require a wider spelling vocabulary. Grade 4 will also begin a heavier reading program. Grade 6 students will start a new arithmetic program which will tie them in with the more advanced studies begun in earlier grades.

Practices for track meets is in full swing at both schools. Trout Creek will hold its meet on Friday afternoon, June 4 and Macdonald School with its larger population has broken its track days into two groups. The intermediates from grade 4 to 7 met on May 21, and the primary students up to grade 3 will compete on June 11.

This Saturday students will take part in the Southern Okanagan meet in Osoyoos.

The Summerland Rod and Gun Club is sponsoring a poster contest at the school to depict any phase of the conservation of Canada's natural resources

The contest is open to any student attending Summerland schools as of June 10

Entries are broken down into four groups: grades 1-3; 4-7; 8-10 and 11 and 12.

Twelve prizes will be given for the best posters and will be presented at the fall fair.

Instructions have been given to all students regarding contest rules.

New golf course in lovely setting

After a lapse of 20 years golf is again being played in Summerland.

A new nine hole course located north of the baseball park on Highway 97 is now in operation. The course is operated by Mr and Mrs Victor Parker. Although the course opens this week an official opening will be held in July.

Coffee and sandwiches are served in the Alpine club house which is now nearing completion.

It is a very sporty course and the men's par is 35 for the nine holes. It is also the most picturesque golf course in the Okanagan with a beautiful view of Okanagan Lake and the surrounding mountains.

Green fees are $2 per day, and $2.50 on week ends and holidays or $1.50 for evenin play. Season fees are $55 for men, $45 for women with a $25 initiation fee.

Golf was first played in Summerland in the 1920s when a course was laid out at Paradise Flats. It operated until 1945; George Henry was a charter member of the club and he will be back at the game on the new Sumac Ridge course

The new golf course will be a welcome asset not only to local golfers but to the tourists and visitors to our community.

Labor office opening undecided

At a meeting of the Southern Okanagan and Similkamen Growers Farm Labor Committee on May 18 it was unanimously recommended that seasonal farm labour offices in Summerland; Keremeos; Oliver and Osoyoos remain closed at least until after July 1.

This action was taken in view of the serious frost damage to soft fruit crops in these areas which will, in turn drastically reduce the labor demand

The committee has scheduled its next meeting for June 21 when a second assessment of the individual area situations can be made in connection with the possible labor requirement for the apple harvest.

It was pointed out that since the seasonal farm labor offices will not be open until some time later, all requests for farm help will be made to the National Employment Service at Penticton

Growers throughout the area, who are finding it impossible to keep their permanent workers steadily employed, should encourage them to register for employment with the National Employment Service.

New books at the library

by Kay Dunsdon

A new selection of very good books for young readers has just come to our library.

Boys will enjoy and be thrilled by My Favorite Stories of Courage, edited by Group Captain Douglas Bader, whose own story of determination and courage is well known. He has chosen some well known stories and added new ones, all of them true.

Another collection of stories is Speed, Speed, Speed; true stories written by famous men, such as the racing enthusiast Sir Malcolm Campbell and Bill Hillstead, who tells of a glider trip through a thunderstorm. These and many others will please a young reader.

Instructions in Biology by C L Duddington deals with the physiology of plants and animals, and is very clearly explained to a beginner in science of this nature.

The Radar Man by John Rowland is the story of Sir Robert Watson-Watt, one of the greatest scientists of our day who found radar and applied it first to war uses, and then to peaceful uses, such as air, sea navigation and space exploration.

The Yugoslav Mystery by Arthur Catherall, tells of adventure with the Polish Secret Police, wanted men and large rewards, and two boys who get involved.

The Story of Nursing by J M Calder is a small book filled with facts of the history of nursing, well written by Jean Calder, former chief nursing officer of London County Council.

Illegal Bi-culturalism

Now let us return to the statements made by Mr. Bastedo. He said: We ask, with deference since such a partnership did not exist at the time of confederation, how can it possibly be ascertained to exist now, 97 years later by any amount of discussion between the commission and the public. The former Lt. Governor said that, if he was right, the commission had been asked to do something which has no constitutional basis.

Co-chairman Dunton asked Mr. Bastedo regarding the (so-called) crisis in Canada and the danger of the country breaking up. To which the reply was: There is no crisis in Canada west of Quebec, and the main crisis there lies in the existence of three million French Canadians who can't or won't speak English and who are being stirred up by minority racial groups.

He suggested these French-Canadians talk about bi-culturalism, but should be encouraged to learn English, not only because it is the language of the rest of North America but for their own advantage. "Instead of endeavoring to force English speaking people to study French, we should get these three million to study English. It is well for English speaking people to learn French, but this country won't stand for any kind of compulsion at all."

Cheers for Mr. Bastedo and his courageous and honest convictions.

The recent moves of Frank L. Bastedo, former lieutenant-governor of Saskatchewan; and Percival H. Gordon, retired Justice of the Supreme Court of Saskatchewan, have highlighted a phase of the bi-culturalism argument that some have been reluctant to bring forth earlier.

The two distinguished legal men challenged the Bi-culturalism Commission's right to exist as a legal entity. They attacked the basic premise of the commission, that there is or should be an equal partnership of the French and English races. Before we proceed further with their argument, let us advance one of our own:

1. In the 16th century, the French settled in portions of what is now Canada, but made small effort to explore the remainder of it.

2. In the following century, on the Plains of Abraham, the French lost possession and control of this country. They were defeated, soundly and they surrendered all rights at that time.

3. At no time between then and now has there ever been any renegotiation of this treaty, and at no time has there been any idea of French rule.

4. At the time of Confederation, there were two sections involved, Upper and Lower Canada. The term Province of Quebec is not specifically named in the basic agreement. True that province was given a key number of seats in the new parliament, but that was to assure a balanced parliament, not by race but by region.

Bridge Problem

This is the tenth in a series of bridge problems prepared by members of the South Okanagan Contract Bridge Club. Readers are invited to write the club, c/o The Review, for their answers to your bridge problems or explanations of bridge hands.

This interesting hand was played Monday evening at the club. It shows the reason that some slam ontracts can be made with less than the recognized number of HC points.

North	Pass	3 Hearts	Pass
1 No Trump	Pass	3 No Trump	Pass
3 Spades	Pass	4 Hearts	Pass
4 Clubs	Pass	Pass	Pass
6 No Trump	Pass	Pass	Pass

Opening lead: 6 Diamonds.

In this hand bidding was slightly different than standard; some players are using the INT. 16-18 HCP even though they have a useless doubleton, as a strictly point count. North did this. South answered 7 Hearts denoting a good hand in Hearts. North then bid his Spades and South bid 3NT to show his strength in minor suits.

North called 4 Club Gerber, found one ace missing and with strength in minor suits himself and protected by South, first Heart bid went 6NT.

East led his 6 Diamond, taken by Ace in dummy. Led Heart to his queen doubleton. Ace was played by West who returned Jack of Diamonds taken in a closed hand. North cashed Queen of Hearts lead to Jack of Spades in dummy. Led King of Hearts discarding losing Club in hand, and claimed rest of tricks.

Thus a hand with only 29 HCPs brings in a slam.

IMPEESA IMPS FROM TROUT CREEK

The Pack will meet outdoors at the old Sorec campsite from 6:30 to 8 pm on Friday evenings for the rest of the season. Most boys will be able to get there on cycles or on foot. Parents who drive their boys please be very careful after passing through the gates as there is a blind spot at the end of the foot bridge.

At the last meeting Jon Spalding and Eric Munn received their Team Players badges and Jon also received his Swimmers (Green Stage) badge. In connection with the Swimmers' Badge passing the Red Cross tests entitles the Cub to the Badge and there is one for each Red Cross test. So if you pass any this summer, save the certificate and give it to me.

The Black Six won the April competition. The race is close and any Six can win.

There will be a fishing trip to Garnett Valley Dam Saturday, leaving Akea's house at 9:30 am and returning from the dam at 3:00 pm. Bring lunch, fishing tackle with small float, worms and wear caps and neckerchief.

SUGAR AND SPICE

by Bill Smiley

Makes You Wonder

Is everything cut-and-dried, black-and-white, for you? Or do you sometimes wonder? I do. Here are some of the things I wonder about. Maybe you can supply the answers.

What is it about spring that turns normally tolerant, sweet-faced, mild-eyed women into tail-twitching, yellow-eyed tigers who prowl the premises in a perpetual rage, snarling, "Lift that barge, tote that bail, wash those windows, paint that trim?"

Second question. Why are normally devil-may-care, lion-hearted chaps, who would mix it up with an adult male gorilla if they didn't like the look on the ape's face, frightened white, at this time of year, by these 110-pound tigers?

How do you tell a nice mother, wearing rose-colored glasses, that her son, whom she insists is going to be a brilliant surgeon, will be lucky if he catches a job at the supermarket meat counter?

Why does the sun beat down unmercifully when I wear a raincoat while trout fishing? And why, when I don't take a raincoat, and the inevitable cloudburst comes, am I always a mile and a half down the stream from my car?

What kind of nuts is the world producing these days? First example. The other night there was a teenage rumble near here. Police and firemen broke it up. One kid was handcuffed and stuffed in the police car.

The cops jumped out to aid fellow officers. The kid jumped out to aid himself. Four days later, he turned himself in, still handcuffed. What did he do during those four days? I mean, did he ever try to...uh...well, you get the idea?

Second example. Maybe you read this in the paper. Fellow named George Wilson was arrested. Why? Because he had just thrown Harold Wilson (no relation) through a plate-glass window. As Harold lay there in his own blood, he protested vigorously the arrest of George. "Hey! You can't do that! He's my buddy." Figure that one out. What, short of going up and strangling the lot, can I do about the black squirrels who hold bowling matches, foot races, country-style hoedowns, and hootenannies in my attic, in the dead of night, every night?

Why are 14-year-old daughters so dreadful? They are sullen, sulky, stubborn, slouchy, grouchy, pouty, resentful. They fight with their mothers. They wreck the third pair of nylons in three days. They weep wildly at the slightest admonition.

Why are 14-year-old daughters so wonderful? (This is the next day.) They are sunshine, not showers. They are helpful, not hopeless. They are sweet and shy and funny and full of vitality and eager to learn and idealistic and you wonder what you did to deserve such a bundle of blessedness.

Why do 17-year-old sons think their parents should be put in wheelchairs and trundled off to an institution for the feeble-minded? And why do they get that long-suffering look when dad is telling them something extremely important, like how hard he used to work in school? And why do they laugh tolerantly when mother, whom they tower over, is dispensing pearls of wisdom, like if you don't get enough sleep you won't grow up to be big and strong and wise like your father?

Why do wives think their cancer, or their heart attack, or arthritis, or piles, or whatever they have every morning at breakfast, is so much more serious than the genuine ailments of the poor wretch hiding behind his paper, across the table?

And why do all wives, everywhere, think they can't trust their husbands with liquor, other women, the children's up-bringing, or the best china?

This is the age of questionnaires. I'm sure you have some of your own.

Send them along, and we'll make up the first sensible questionnaire in the 20th Century, ever! If nobody in the world knows the answers.

SOTA SPORTS EVENT
Summerland Teen, Town held the SOTA sports event on the week end, but it turned out to be rather a disappointing one. The festivities started on Saturday with the sports in the afternoon and a dance, featuring the Chattells from Vernon at night.

On Sunday the two day affair ended with a picnic at the government campsite.

There will not be a dance this week end.

If you're asking yourself can't afford it?

This message might provide a positive answer.

If a major purchase costs more than you want to spend, the Bank of Montreal Family Finance Plan might well be the difference between having it to enjoy and going without.

YOU CAN BRING ALL YOUR CREDIT NEEDS UNDER ONE ROOF.

The Bank of Montreal Family Finance Plan is the modern, economical way to take care of all your credit needs without putting a heavy strain on your paycheque. It puts cash in your hands for a new automobile, washing machine, TV set, wardrobe for your family — or for meeting emergencies and recurring commitments.

YOU CAN BORROW UP TO $3500 AND TAKE UP TO THREE YEARS TO REPAY.

Many people don't know you can walk into any branch of the Bank of Montreal and arrange a large personal loan. Depending on your income, you can obtain up to $3500 or even more. And you can repay your loan within three years through regular monthly payments geared to your income. Interest is low. All FFP loans are automatically life-insured to protect your family.

The manager of your nearest B of M branch can tell you more about the Family Finance Plan. See him today and be sure to ask for the free informative booklet: "How to Live on Your Income and Enjoy It".

Banking Bright Boys' best Bet For The Future

"Bright, ambitious young men, looking for a career with a challenge; a satisfying salary and advancement opportunities, can find all of these things and many more in banking," Jock Johnston, manager of the Summerland branch of the Bank of Montreal said this week.

"Best evidence that anyone with intelligence and drive can really achieve distinction can be found in the rapid rise of today's top executives of the B of M," Mr. Johnston continued.

The bank's policy of promoting from within its own ranks gives every young man who enters banking today the chance of rising to a senior executive appointment. Ability is the only consideration.

Right from the start, the B of M puts young men on a training program that forms, in effect, a series of stepping-stones to the growing responsibility and rewards that constitute success.

Variety is the keynote of this training, with every young banker spending time in as many posts as possible in the branch. Above all, the young B of M banker is encouraged to develop his own abilities.

A chat with Mr. Johnston could be the introduction to a rewarding career in one of the more solidly established and respected fields of business today. Why not see him soon and ask for a free copy of the B of M's careers booklet.

VISITS PARENTS FROM AUSTRALIA

Mayne McCutcheon has arrived from Australia for a three month visit with his parents Mr and Mrs W C McCutcheon.

Penticton wedding of interest in Summerland

Lovely spring flowers set the scene at the Penticton United Church on May 22 for the marriage of Gloria Ann Gordon and Bryon Dale Hamilton. Both the principals are from Penticton but are well known in Summerland. Rev R C Gates officiated at the 7 pm service.

The bride is the daughter of Mr and Mrs Clarence M Gordon and the groom is the son of Mr and Mrs John C Hamilton, both of Penticton.

The bridal gown of white brocade featured a full skirt softly caught up on both sides with brocade roses. Her chapel veil was held in place with a princess tiara of alic and diamante. Her bouquet was red roses interlaced with white feathered carnations.

Maid of honor Miss Elaine Dunson of Summerland and bridesmaids Betty Ann Merrick and Patricia Sharen of Penticton, graduated in a lovely shade of chise formal gowns of peau de peacock blue. Headresses were a single rose of matching material. Miss Gay Gordon was the little flower girl.

Groomsman was Lance Stiles and ushering duties were shared by Mel Gordon and John Cuzza. Ronald Gordon was the ringbearer.

Later in the evening over 240 guests gathered at the Pilgrim House for the wedding reception. As a special token of affection, during the supper the bride presented her flowers to her mother.

For a motor trip to California the bride wore a navy and white ensemble.

The young couple will make their home in Trail.

Tea welcomes back member and plans for art show

A luncheon was held last Friday at the home of Mrs Jack Mason, by members of the Art Club to welcome back Mrs T. Croil, who has spent several months in Europe. A Spanish motif was carried out in the table decorations with spring flower arrangements.

A former Summerland artist, Mrs A. J. Mann was also welcomed and a visitor from Vancouver, Mrs G. M. Croil.

A pleasant afternoon was spent with plans being made for the Summerland Art Show to be held soon.

Those present included Mrs. John Tambyn, Mrs M. Babcock, Mrs Jack Dunsdon; Mrs J M McArthur; Mrs Doney Wilson; and Mrs Harold Madsen.

Comings and Goings

Mr and Mrs W S Ritchie are attending the provincial Chamber of Commerce convention in Prince George this week.

G. Jenkinson of Vancouver visited his sister Mrs M Thaxton over the week end.

Mr and Mrs Garf Bennisson and son Paul visited his parents, Mr and Mrs Frank Bennisson over the holiday.

Mrs Howard DeWitt attended the provincial WCTU convention in Vancouver last week. She went in her capacity as provincial superintendent for temperance papers.

Ronald Embree was home from UBC for the week end. He returned to take a summer course.

Mrs C J Bleasdale and Mrs Harvey Wilson are visiting relatives in Ontario.

Mr and Mrs Gordon McDonald of Rossland spent the week end with Mr and Mrs W C McCutcheon.

Mr and Mrs Lloyd Gartrell have returned from a trip to Toronto.
