

SUMMERLAND MUSEUM & ARCHIVES SOCIETY

Director Nomination Form

MISSION STATEMENT

The Summerland Museum and Archives exists to collect, preserve, research, interpret, and display objects that are historically significant to our community. These objects primarily reflect the history of the Summerland district, then the immediate surrounding area, from the period from pre-contact, including Indigenous history, to the present.

SOCIETY FUNCTION & OBJECTIVES

The Summerland Museum and Archives is managed and operated by the Summerland Museum and Archives Society. Society business is overseen and guided by the board of directors. The policy-governance board has adopted a governance model based on recommended governance best practices. The board consists of five executive members including the president, two vice-presidents, secretary, and the treasurer and up to five directors at large. Board committees provide recommendations on various aspects of the society's operations. Day-to-day operations are managed by staff, which include the Administrator and Archivist. Volunteers are under the direction and control of staff. All board members must be a member of the Society. The nomination and election for board vacancies occurs at the Annual General Meeting of the Society held in March of each year.

PRIVACY & CONFIDENTIALITY FORM

CONFIDENTIALITY POLICY

It is the policy of the Summerland Museum and Archives that board members, employees, and volunteers of the Museum will not disclose confidential information belonging to, or obtained through their affiliation with the Summerland Museum and Archives to any person, including their relatives, friends, and business and professional associates, unless the Museum has authorized disclosure. Such information must be kept confidential both during and after employment or volunteer service. This policy is not intended to prevent disclosure where disclosure is required by law.

All information concerning our clients, donors, members, staff, and volunteers, as well as financial data and business records of The Summerland Museum and Archives is confidential. “Confidential” means that you are free to talk about The Summerland Museum and about your position, but you are not permitted to discuss or disclose personal and financial information with anyone without permission or appropriate authorization. Board members, volunteers, and employees are cautioned to demonstrate professionalism, good judgement, and care to avoid unauthorized or inadvertent disclosures or confidential information and should, for example, refrain from leaving confidential information contained in documents or on computer screen in plain view.

Upon separation of employment or expiration of service at the Summerland Museum, any materials containing privileged or confidential information must be returned.

Unauthorized disclosure of confidential or privileged information is a serious violation of policy, and will subject the person who made the unauthorized disclosure to appropriate discipline, including removal/dismissal from service at the Summerland Museum and Archives, removal from the Museum’s membership, and legal action.

SIGNATURE

I certify that I have read The Summerland Museum and Archives’ policy on confidentiality presented above. I agree to abide by the requirements of the policy and inform my supervisor immediately if I believe any violation (unintentional or otherwise) of the policy has occurred. I understand that violation of this policy will lead to disciplinary action.
